41 He shall enter also into the glorious <sup>e</sup>land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of <sup>f</sup>Ammon.

42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

43 And he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the <sup>h</sup>Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great <sup>i</sup>fury to destroy, and utterly to make away with many.

45 And he shall pitch the tents of his palace between the seas and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

AND at that time shall <sup>a</sup>Michael stand up, the great prince who standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of <sup>b</sup>trouble, <sup>c</sup>such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.

2 And many of them that <sup>a</sup>sleep in the dust of the earth shall <sup>e</sup>awake, some to everlasting <sup>f</sup>life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

3 And they that be wise shall <sup>g</sup>shine <sup>h</sup>as the brightness of the <sup>i</sup>firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the <sup>j</sup>stars for ever and ever.

4 But thou, O <sup>k</sup>Daniel, shut up the words, and <sup>l</sup>seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and <sup>m</sup>knowledge shall be increased.

5 Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river.

CHAPTER 1.

THE word of the LORD that came unto <sup>a</sup>Hosea, the son of Beeri, in the days of <sup>b</sup>Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and <sup>c</sup>Hezekiah, kings of <sup>d</sup>Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

<sup>3</sup> So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bare him a son.

<sup>4</sup> And the LORD said unto him, Call his name <sup>i</sup>Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of Israel to cease.

<sup>5</sup> And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.

<sup>6</sup> And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name <sup>j</sup>Lo-ruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away.

<sup>7</sup> But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by <sup>k</sup>horses, nor by horsemen.

<sup>9</sup> Then said God, Call his name <sup>l</sup>Lo-ammi; for ye are not my <sup>k</sup>people, and I will not be your God.

<sup>10</sup> Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of the living God.

<sup>11</sup> Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come

CHAPTER 2.

SAY ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah.

<sup>4</sup> And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they are the children of whoredoms.

<sup>5</sup> For their mother hath played the harlot; she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my <sup>d</sup>wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink.

<sup>7</sup> And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.

<sup>9</sup> Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will withdraw my wool and my flax given to cover her <sup>i</sup>nakedness.

<sup>11</sup> I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her <sup>j</sup>feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts.

will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 And I will visit upon her the days of the Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgot me, saith the LORD.

14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak <sup>2</sup>comfortably unto her.

15 And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of <sup>3</sup>Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her <sup>m</sup>youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the <sup>n</sup>land of <sup>o</sup>Egypt.

16 And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me no more Baali.

17 For I will take away the names of the Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.

19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.

20 I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: and thou shalt know the LORD.

21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they shall hear the earth;

22 And the earth shall hear the corn, and the wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel.

23 And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them that were not my <sup>p</sup>people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

CHAPTER 4.

HEAR the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel; for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor <sup>a</sup>knowledge of God in the <sup>b</sup>land.

<sup>4</sup> Yet let no man strive, nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest.

<sup>5</sup> Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother.

<sup>6</sup> My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast <sup>c</sup>rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children.

<sup>8</sup> They eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity.

<sup>9</sup> And it shall be, like people, like priest: and I will punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings.

10 For they shall eat, and not have enough; they shall commit <sup>e</sup>whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD.

11 Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the <sup>f</sup>heart.

12 My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff declareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God.

13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery.

14 I will not punish your daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves go aside with harlots, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall.

16 For Israel slideth back as a <sup>j</sup>backsliding <sup>k</sup>heifer: now the LORD will <sup>l</sup>feed them as a lamb in a large place.

17 <sup>m</sup>Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone.

18 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: her rulers with shame do love, Give ye.

19 The wind hath bound her up in its wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER 5.

HEAR ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye have been a snare at <sup>a</sup>Mizpah, and a net spread upon <sup>b</sup>Tabor.

Ephraim, thou committest <sup>e</sup>whoredom, and Israel is defiled.

4 Their doings will not permit them to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have not known the LORD.

5 And the pride of Israel doth <sup>f</sup>testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah also shall fall with them.

6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath withdrawn himself from them.

7 They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now shall a month devour them with their portions.

8 Blow ye the horn in <sup>g</sup>Gibeah, and the trumpet in <sup>h</sup>Ramah: cry aloud at <sup>i</sup>Beth-aven, after thee, O <sup>j</sup>Benjamin.

9 Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.

10 The princes of <sup>k</sup>Judah were like those that remove the landmark: therefore I will pour out my <sup>l</sup>wrath upon them like water.

11 Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because he willingly walked after the <sup>m</sup>commandment.

12 Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a <sup>n</sup>moth, and to the house of Judah as <sup>o</sup>rottenness.

13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his <sup>p</sup>wound, then went Ephraim to the <sup>q</sup>Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound.

14 For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall <sup>r</sup>rescue him.

15 I will go and return to my place, till they <sup>s</sup>acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

CHAPTER 6.

COME, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will <sup>t</sup>heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.

2 After two days will he <sup>u</sup>revive us: on the <sup>v</sup>third day he will raise us up, and we shall <sup>e</sup>live in his sight.

3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is as sure as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.

4 O <sup>f</sup>Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what shall I do unto thee? for your <sup>g</sup>goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away.

5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth.

6 For I desired mercy, and not sacrifice; and the <sup>h</sup>knowledge of God more than <sup>i</sup>burnt offerings.

7 But they like mere <sup>m</sup>en have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.

8 <sup>j</sup>Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity, and is <sup>k</sup>polluted with blood.

9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests <sup>l</sup>murder <sup>2</sup>in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness.

10 I have seen an <sup>m</sup>horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the <sup>n</sup>whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled.

11 Also, O Judah, he hath set an <sup>o</sup>harvest for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

CHAPTER 7.

WHEN I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of <sup>a</sup>Ephraim was discovered, and the wickedness of <sup>b</sup>Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoileth without.

2 And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face.

3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.

4 They are all <sup>c</sup>adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened.

5 In the day of our king the princes have made themselves sick with bot-ties of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners.

6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.

7 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me.

8 Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned.

9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not.

10 And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all this.

11 Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to <sup>e</sup>Egypt, they go to <sup>f</sup>Assyria.

12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; I will <sup>g</sup>chastise them, as their congregation hath heard.

13 Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I would have redeemed them, yet they have spoken lies against me.

14 And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

15 Though I have trained and strengthened their arms, yet do they imagine mischief against me.

16 They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow. Their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the <sup>h</sup>land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 8.

SET the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come as an <sup>a</sup>eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my covenant, and <sup>b</sup>trespassed against my law.

2 Israel shall cry unto me, My God, we know thee.

3 Israel hath cast off the thing that is good: the enemy shall pursue him.

4 They have set up kings, but not by me; they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

5 Thy calf, O <sup>c</sup>Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain to innocency?

6 For from Israel was it also: the <sup>a</sup>workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.

7 For they have sown the wind, and they shall <sup>e</sup>reap the <sup>f</sup>whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal; if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.

8 Israel is swallowed up: now have they become among the <sup>g</sup>nations as a vessel wherein is no <sup>h</sup>pleasure.

9 For they are gone up to <sup>i</sup>Assyria, a wild ass alone by himself: <sup>j</sup>Ephraim hath hired lovers.

10 Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I <sup>k</sup>gather them, and they shall sorrow a little for the burden of the king of princes.

11 Because Ephraim hath made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin.

12 I have written to him the great things of my law, but they are <sup>l</sup>counted as a strange thing.

13 They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to <sup>m</sup>Egypt.

14 For Israel hath forgotten his <sup>n</sup>Maker, and buildeth temples; and <sup>o</sup>Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the places thereof.

CHAPTER 9.

REJOICE not, O Israel, for joy, as other peoples: for thou hast gone <sup>a</sup>whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a <sup>b</sup>reward upon every cornfloor.

2 The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the LORD's <sup>c</sup>land; but <sup>d</sup>Ephraim shall return to <sup>e</sup>Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in <sup>f</sup>Assyria.

4 They shall not pour out wine unto the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be <sup>f</sup>polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD.

5 What will ye do in the solemn day, and in the day of the <sup>g</sup>feast of the LORD?

6 For, lo, they are gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, <sup>h</sup>Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tents.

7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the <sup>i</sup>spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred.

8 The watchman of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God.

9 They have deeply <sup>j</sup>corrupted themselves, as in the days of <sup>k</sup>Gibeon: therefore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.

11 As for Ephraim, their <sup>o</sup>glory shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception.

12 Though they bring up their children, yet will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them!

13 Ephraim, as I saw <sup>p</sup>Tyre, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his children to the <sup>q</sup>murderer.

14 Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 All their wickedness is in <sup>r</sup>Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of my house, I will love them no more: all their princes are revolvers.

16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb.

17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him: and they shall be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER 10.

ISRRAEL is an empty <sup>a</sup>vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly images.

2 Their heart is divided; now shall they bear their guilt: he shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their <sup>1</sup>images.

3 For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; what then should a king do to us?

4 They speak words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of <sup>b</sup>Samaria shall fear because of the calves of <sup>c</sup>Beth-aven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof shall tremble for it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.

6 It shall be also carried unto <sup>d</sup>Assyria for a present to king Jareb: <sup>e</sup>Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.

7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water.

8 The high places also of <sup>f</sup>Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us! and to the hills, Fall on us!

9 O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of <sup>g</sup>Gibeah: there they stood; the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not overtake them.

10 It is in my desire that I should <sup>h</sup>chastise them; and the peoples shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind themselves in their two furrows.

11 And Ephraim is as an <sup>i</sup>heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to bear a rider; <sup>j</sup>Judah shall plow, and <sup>k</sup>Jacob shall break his clods.

12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, <sup>l</sup>reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

13 Ye have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst

CHAPTER 11.

WHEN Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of <sup>a</sup>Egypt.

2 As they called them, so they went from them: they sacrificed unto the <sup>b</sup>Baalim, and burned in- cense to graven images.

3 I taught <sup>c</sup>Ephraim also to go, taking them upon my arms; but they knew not that I healed them.

4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of <sup>d</sup>love: and I was to them as they that take off the <sup>e</sup>yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them.

5 He shall not return into the <sup>f</sup>land of Egypt, but the <sup>g</sup>Assyrian shall be his king, because they re- fused to return.

6 And the sword shall abide on his cities, and shall consume his branches, and devour <sup>h</sup>them, because of their own counsels.

7 And my people are bent to <sup>i</sup>back- sliding from me: though they called them to the most High, none at all would exalt <sup>j</sup>him.

8 How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, Israel? how shall I make thee as <sup>k</sup>Admah? how shall I set thee as <sup>l</sup>Zeboim? my heart is turned with- in me, my repentings are kindled together.

9 I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, I will not return to <sup>m</sup>destroy Ephraim: for <sup>n</sup>I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city.

10 They shall walk after the LORD: he shall roar like a lion: when he shall roar, then the chil- dren shall tremble from the west.

11 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD.

12 Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

CHAPTER 12.

EPHRAIM <sup>b</sup>feedeth on wind, and followeth after the east wind: he daily increaseth lies and desolation; and they do make a covenant with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into <sup>d</sup>Egypt.

2 The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.

3 He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God:

4 Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in <sup>s</sup>Beth-el, and there he spake with us;

5 Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his memorial.

6 Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually.

7 He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to cheat.

8 And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin.

9 And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt will yet make thee to dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast.

10 I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

11 Is <sup>k</sup>Gilead guilty? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in <sup>m</sup>Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields.

12 And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.

13 And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.

14 Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.

WHEN <sup>a</sup>Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended through <sup>b</sup>Baal, he died.

2 And now they <sup>c</sup>sin more and more, and have made themselves <sup>d</sup>molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own imagination, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.

3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshingfloor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.

4 Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of <sup>f</sup>Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour beside me.

5 I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.

6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me.

7 Therefore I will be unto them as a lion: as a leopard by the way will I lie in wait:

8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the coverings of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them.

9 O Israel, thou hast destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help.

10 I will be thy king: where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and <sup>h</sup>princes?

11 I gave thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath.

12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid.

13 The sorrows of a <sup>i</sup>travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

14 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them from death: O death, Where are thy plagues? O <sup>m</sup>grave, Where is thy destruction? Repentance shall be hid from mine eyes.

15 Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels.

16 <sup>f</sup>Samaria shall become desolate; for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

CHAPTER 14.

O ISRAEL, <sup>a</sup>return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by thine iniquity.

2 Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say unto him, Take away all <sup>b</sup>iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render instead of bullocks, the <sup>c</sup>offering of our lips.

3 <sup>c</sup>Asshur shall not save us; we will not ride upon <sup>d</sup>horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods:

CHAPTER 1.

THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the <sup>a</sup>land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.

4 That which the <sup>b</sup>palmerworm hath left hath the locust eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten.

5 Awake, ye <sup>c</sup>drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye <sup>d</sup>drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.

6 For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion.

7 He hath laid my vine waste, and barked my <sup>e</sup>fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made <sup>f</sup>white.

8 <sup>g</sup>Lament like a <sup>h</sup>virgin girded with <sup>i</sup>sackcloth for the husband of her <sup>j</sup>youth.

9 The <sup>k</sup>meal offering and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD'S <sup>l</sup>ministers, mourn.

10 The field is wasted, the <sup>m</sup>land mourneth; for the corn is wasted; the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth.

11 Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the <sup>n</sup>harvest of the field is perished.

12 The vine is dried up, and the fig tree languisheth; the <sup>o</sup>pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, all the trees of the field, are withered; because joy is withered away from the sons of men.

15 Alas for the day! <sup>f</sup>for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as destruction from the <sup>g</sup>Almighty shall it come.

16 Is not the food cut off before our <sup>h</sup>eyes, joy and <sup>i</sup>gladness from the house of our God?

17 The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the corn is withered.

18 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

19 O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame hath burned all the trees of the field.

20 The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

CHAPTER 2.

BLOW ye the <sup>a</sup>trumpet in <sup>b</sup>Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land <sup>c</sup>tremble: for the day of the LORD <sup>d</sup>cometh, for it is nigh at hand;

2 A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains; a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

3 A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the <sup>e</sup>garden of <sup>f</sup>Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them.

4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run.

5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.

6 Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall turn pale.

7 They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks:

8 Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his <sup>g</sup>path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded.

9 They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief.

12 Therefore also now, saith the LORD, turn ye to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:

13 And rend your heart, and not your <sup>o</sup>garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to <sup>p</sup>anger, and of great <sup>q</sup>kindness, and repenteth him of the evil.

14 He that knoweth will return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meal offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God?

15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly:

16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the <sup>r</sup>bridegroom go forth from his chamber, and the <sup>s</sup>bride out of her closet.

17 Let the priests, the <sup>t</sup>ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to <sup>u</sup>reproach, that the nations should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God?

18 Then will the LORD be <sup>v</sup>jealous

19 Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be <sup>y</sup>satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations:

20 But I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive him into a land <sup>z</sup>barren and desolate, with his face toward the eastern sea, and his hinder part toward the <sup>a</sup>westward sea, and his stench shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things.

21 Fear not, O land; be <sup>b</sup>glad and rejoice: for the LORD will do great things.

22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the <sup>c</sup>fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.

23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain <sup>d</sup>moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.

24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with wine and oil.

25 And I will <sup>e</sup>restore to you the years that the <sup>f</sup>locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the <sup>g</sup>palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.

26 And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with you: and my people shall never be ashamed.

27 And ye shall know that <sup>h</sup>I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed.

28 <sup>i</sup>And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my <sup>j</sup>Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see <sup>k</sup>visions:

29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my Spirit.

31 The sun shall be turned into

FOR, behold, in those days, a and in that time, b when I shall bring again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,

2 I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted my land.

3 And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.

4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Philistia? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence upon your own head;

5 Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things:

6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the children of the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their border.

7 Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own head:

8 And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

CHAPTER 1.

THE words of Amos, who was among the <sup>a</sup>herdmen of <sup>b</sup>Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of <sup>c</sup>Uzziah king of <sup>d</sup>Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of <sup>e</sup>Joash king of Israel, two years before the <sup>f</sup>earthquake.

3 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of <sup>k</sup>Damascus, and for four, <sup>l</sup>I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have <sup>m</sup>threshed <sup>n</sup>Gilead with threshing instruments of <sup>o</sup>iron:

4 But I will send a fire into the house of <sup>p</sup>Hazeal, which shall devour the palaces of <sup>q</sup>Ben-hadad.

5 I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of <sup>r</sup>Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the <sup>s</sup>house of <sup>t</sup>Eden: and the people of <sup>u</sup>Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the LORD.

6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of <sup>v</sup>Gaza, and for four, <sup>w</sup>I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up to <sup>x</sup>Edom:

7 But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall devour the palaces thereof:

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from <sup>y</sup>Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from <sup>z</sup>Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against <sup>aa</sup>Eckron: and the remnant of the <sup>ab</sup>Philistines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD.

9 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of <sup>ac</sup>Tyre, and for four, <sup>ad</sup>I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant:

10 But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, which shall devour the palaces thereof.

THUS saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Moab, and for four, <sup>1</sup>I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of <sup>2</sup>Edom into lime:

2 But I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of <sup>3</sup>Kiriath: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet:

3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD.

4 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of <sup>4</sup>Judah, and for four, <sup>5</sup>I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked:

5 But I will send a fire upon <sup>6</sup>Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of <sup>7</sup>Jerusalem.

6 Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, <sup>8</sup>I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes;

7 Panting after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the <sup>c</sup>meek: and a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name;

8 And they lay themselves down upon clothes taken as security by every altar, and they drink the wine of the unjustly <sup>f</sup>condemned in the house of their gods.

9 Yet destroyed I the <sup>g</sup>Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.

10 Also I brought you up from the <sup>h</sup>land of <sup>i</sup>Egypt, and led you forty years through the <sup>j</sup>wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD.

12 But ye gave the Nazarites <sup>k</sup>wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophecy not.

13 Behold, <sup>l</sup>I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of <sup>m</sup>sheaves.

14 Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself:

15 Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself.

16 And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

11 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled.

12 Thus saith the LORD; As the <sup>h</sup>shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in <sup>i</sup>Samaria in the corner of a bed, upon the damask of a couch.

13 Hear ye, and testify in the house of <sup>j</sup>Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts,

HEAR this word, ye kine of <sup>a</sup>Bashan, that are in the mountain of <sup>b</sup>Samaria, that oppress the poor, that crush the needy, that say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink.

2 The Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks.

3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD.

4 Come to <sup>c</sup>Beth-el, and transgress; at <sup>d</sup>Gilgal multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your <sup>e</sup>tithes after three days:

5 And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with <sup>f</sup>leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this pleaseth you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

7 And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the <sup>g</sup>harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.

8 And two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but they were not <sup>h</sup>satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when your <sup>i</sup>gardens and your vineyards and your <sup>j</sup>fig trees and your <sup>k</sup>olive trees increased, the <sup>l</sup>palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

10 I have sent among you the <sup>m</sup>pestilence after the manner of <sup>n</sup>Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stench of your camps to come up into your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

11 I have overthrowen some of you, as God overthrow <sup>o</sup>Sodom and <sup>p</sup>Gomorrhah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD.

12 Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O Israel.

13 For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the <sup>r</sup>wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

CHAPTER 5.

HEAR ye this word which I take up against you, even a <sup>a</sup>lamentation, O house of Israel.

2 The <sup>b</sup>virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her <sup>c</sup>land; there is none to raise her up.

3 For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel.

4 For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall <sup>d</sup>live:

5 But seek not <sup>e</sup>Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to <sup>f</sup>Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.

6 Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of <sup>g</sup>Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench it in Beth-el.

7 Ye who turn judgment to <sup>h</sup>wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth,

8 Seek him that <sup>i</sup>maketh the seven <sup>j</sup>stars and <sup>k</sup>Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name:

9 That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress.

10 They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they <sup>l</sup>abhor him that speaketh uprightly.

11 Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them.

12 For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the right of the poor in the gate.

13 Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that time; for it is an evil time.

14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken.

15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of <sup>m</sup>Joseph.

16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing.

17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD.

18 Woe unto you that desire the "day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light.

19 As if a man fled from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.

20 Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?

21 I hate, I despise your <sup>o</sup>feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies.

22 Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your <sup>p</sup>meal offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.

23 Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the <sup>q</sup>melody of thy viols.

24 But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.

25 <sup>v</sup>Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?

26 But ye have borne the <sup>2</sup>tabernacle of your <sup>s</sup>Moloch and Chiun your <sup>i</sup>images, the <sup>u</sup>star of your god, which ye made to yourselves.

27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond <sup>v</sup>Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

CHAPTER 6.

WOE to them that are at ease in <sup>a</sup>Zion, and trust in the mountain of <sup>b</sup>Samaria, that are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came!

2 Pass ye unto <sup>c</sup>Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to <sup>d</sup>Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the <sup>e</sup>Philistines: are they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border?

8 The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD, the God of hosts, I abhor the pride of <sup>s</sup>Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver up the city with all that is therein.

9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.

CHAPTER 7.

THUS hath the Lord GOD shown unto me; and, behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.

2 And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the <sup>a</sup>land, then I said, O Lord GOD, <sup>b</sup>forgive, I beseech thee: by whom shall <sup>c</sup>Jacob arise? for he is small.

3 The LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD.

4 Thus hath the Lord GOD shown unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did eat up a part.

5 Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee: how shall Jacob arise? for he is small.

6 The LORD repented for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD.

7 Thus he hath shown me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a plumbline, with a plumb-line in his hand.

8 And the LORD said unto me, <sup>a</sup>Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A <sup>c</sup>plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more:

9 And the high places of <sup>f</sup>Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.

10 Then <sup>g</sup>Amaziah the priest of <sup>h</sup>Beth-el sent to <sup>i</sup>Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.

11 For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his own <sup>j</sup>land.

12 Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou <sup>k</sup>seer, go, flee away into the land of <sup>l</sup>Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:

13 But prophesy not again any more at Beth-el: for it is the king's chapel, and it is the king's court.

14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an herdsman, and a gatherer of sycamore fruit:

15 And the LORD took me as I

17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a <sup>m</sup>polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

CHAPTER 8.

THUS hath the Lord GOD shown unto me: and behold a basket of summer fruit.

2 And he said, <sup>a</sup>Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.

3 And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence.

4 Hear this, O ye that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the <sup>a</sup>land to fail,

5 Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the <sup>c</sup>shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit?

6 That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat?

7 The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of <sup>d</sup>Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as <sup>e</sup>by the <sup>f</sup>flood of <sup>g</sup>Egypt.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the land in the clear day:

10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into <sup>h</sup>lamentation; and I will bring up

<sup>h</sup>sackcloth upon all loins, and <sup>i</sup>baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.

11 Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a <sup>j</sup>famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a <sup>k</sup>thirst for water, but of hearing the words of the LORD:

12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.

13 In that day shall the fair <sup>l</sup>virgins and young men faint for thirst.

14 They that swear by the <sup>m</sup>sin of <sup>n</sup>Samaria, and say, Thy god, O <sup>o</sup>Dan, liveth; and, The manner of <sup>p</sup>Beer-sheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

CHAPTER 9.

I SAW the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may <sup>a</sup>shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth of them shall not be delivered.

2 Though they dig into <sup>b</sup>hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down:

3 And though they hide themselves in the top of <sup>c</sup>Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them:

4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine <sup>e</sup>eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.

5 And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be drowned, as by <sup>f</sup>the flood of <sup>g</sup>Egypt.

8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD.

9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as <sup>i</sup>corn is sifted in a <sup>j</sup>sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth.

10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, who say, The evil shall not overtake nor befall us.

11 In that <sup>k</sup>day will I raise up the <sup>l</sup>house of <sup>m</sup>David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old:

12 That they may possess the remnant of <sup>n</sup>Edom, and of all the nations, that are called by my <sup>o</sup>name, saith the LORD that doeth this.

13 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the <sup>p</sup>reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.

14 And I will bring again the <sup>q</sup>captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make <sup>r</sup>gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

15 And I will plant them upon their land, <sup>s</sup>and they shall no more be pulled up out of their <sup>t</sup>land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

THE <sup>a</sup>vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD <sup>b</sup>concerning Edom: We have heard a report from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.

2 Behold, I have made thee small among the nations: thou art greatly despised.

3 The pride of thy heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?

4 Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the <sup>c</sup>stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD.

5 If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grape-gatherers came to thee, would they not leave some grapes?

6 How are the things of <sup>d</sup>Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought up!

7 All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid a <sup>e</sup>snare under thee: there is no understanding in him.

8 Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out of <sup>f</sup>Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?

9 And thy mighty men, O <sup>g</sup>Te-man, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter.

10 For thy violence against thy brother <sup>h</sup>Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou shalt be cut off for ever.

11 In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon <sup>i</sup>Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them.

12 But thou shouldest not have looked pleased on the day of thy brother, on the day that he was delivered to strangers; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of <sup>j</sup>Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress.

13 Thou shouldest not have entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity;

14 Neither shouldest thou have stood in the crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress.

15 For the <sup>k</sup>day of the LORD is near <sup>l</sup>upon all the nations: as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head.

16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the nations drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been.

17 But upon mount <sup>m</sup>Zion shall be deliverance, and there shall be holiness; and the house of <sup>n</sup>Jacob shall possess their possessions.

18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of <sup>o</sup>Joseph a flame, and the house of <sup>p</sup>Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it.

20 And the <sup>v</sup>captivity of this host of the children of Israel shall possess that of the <sup>w</sup>Canaanites, even unto <sup>x</sup>Zarephath; and the captivity of <sup>y</sup>Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south.

21 And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD'S.

CHAPTER 1.

NOW the word of the LORD came unto <sup>a</sup>Jonah the son of Amitai, saying,

<sup>4</sup> But the LORD sent out a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to be broken.

<sup>5</sup> Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides of the ship; and he laid, and was fast asleep.

<sup>6</sup> So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

<sup>7</sup> And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast <sup>h</sup>lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.

<sup>8</sup> Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what is thy country? and of what people art thou?

<sup>9</sup> And he said unto them, I am an <sup>i</sup>Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of <sup>j</sup>heaven, <sup>k</sup>who hath made the sea and the dry land.

<sup>10</sup> Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this? For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.

<sup>11</sup> Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and <sup>l</sup>was tempestuous.

<sup>13</sup> Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.

<sup>14</sup> Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee.

<sup>16</sup> Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made <sup>i</sup>vows.

<sup>17</sup> Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER 2.

THEN Jonah <sup>a</sup>prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly, <sup>2</sup> And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, and he heard me; out of the belly of <sup>b</sup>hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice.

<sup>4</sup> Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet I will look again toward thy holy temple.

<sup>5</sup> The waters compassed me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head.

<sup>6</sup> I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from <sup>e</sup>corruption, O LORD my God.

<sup>7</sup> When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple.

10 And the LORD spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

CHAPTER 3.

AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying,

2 Arise, go unto <sup>a</sup>Nineveh, that great city, and <sup>b</sup>preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee.

3 So Jonah arose, and went unto Nineveh, <sup>c</sup>according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was <sup>1</sup>an exceeding great city of three days' journey.

4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet ~~forty~~ days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

5 So the people of Nineveh <sup>d</sup>believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on <sup>e</sup>sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.

6 For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his <sup>f</sup>nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, <sup>g</sup>taste any thing: let them not feed, nor drink water:

8 But let man and beast be <sup>h</sup>covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands.

9 Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil ways; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

CHAPTER 4.

BUT it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.

2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto <sup>a</sup>Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a <sup>b</sup>gracious God, and merciful, slow to <sup>c</sup>anger, and of great <sup>d</sup>kindness, and repentest thee of the evil.

3 Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

4 Then said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry?

5 So <sup>e</sup>Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see what would become of the city.

6 And the LORD God prepared a <sup>1</sup>gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was exceeding glad of the gourd.

7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.

8 And it came to pass, when the sun arose, that God prepared a hot east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better for me to die than to live.

9 And God said to Jonah, Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said, I do well to be angry, even unto death.

10 Then said the LORD, Thou hast had <sup>f</sup>pity on the gourd, for the which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:

11 And should not I have pity on <sup>g</sup>Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and much cattle?

THE word of the LORD that came to <sup>a</sup>Micah the <sup>b</sup>Morasthite in the days of <sup>c</sup>Jotham, Ahaz, and <sup>d</sup>Hezekiah, kings of <sup>e</sup>Judah, which he saw concerning <sup>f</sup>Samaria and <sup>g</sup>Jerusalem.

2 Hear, all ye peoples; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be <sup>h</sup>witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.

3 For, behold, the LORD <sup>i</sup>cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon <sup>j</sup>the high places of the earth.

4 And the mountains shall be melted under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured down a steep place.

5 For the transgression of <sup>k</sup>Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?

6 Therefore I will make Samaria <sup>l</sup>as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations thereof.

7 And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the <sup>m</sup>hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered <sup>n</sup>it of the <sup>o</sup>hire of an <sup>p</sup>harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.

8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will make a wailing like the <sup>q</sup>jackals, and mourning as the owls.

9 For her <sup>r</sup>wounds are <sup>s</sup>incurable; for it is come unto <sup>t</sup>Judah; he is come unto the gate of my people, even to <sup>u</sup>Jerusalem.

10 Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of <sup>v</sup>Aphrah roll thyself in the dust.

11 Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Beth-ezel; he shall take from you his standing.

came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem.

13 O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of <sup>v</sup>Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee.

14 Therefore shalt thou give presents to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel.

15 Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of <sup>w</sup>Mareshah: he shall come unto <sup>x</sup>Adullam the <sup>y</sup>glory of Israel.

16 Make thee bald, and poll thee for the children of thy delight; enlarge thy <sup>z</sup>baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

CHAPTER 2.

WOE to them that devise <sup>a</sup>iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.

2 And they <sup>b</sup>covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.

3 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil.

4 In that day shall one take up a <sup>c</sup>proverb against you, and <sup>d</sup>lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We are utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! <sup>e</sup>turning away he hath divided our fields.

5 Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD.

6 Prophesy ye not, they say who assume to prophesy: they shall not prophesy; their shame will remain.

7 O thou that art named the house of <sup>f</sup>Jacob, is the <sup>g</sup>Spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly?

8 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the *g*garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.

9 The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory for ever.

10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall *h*destroy you, even with a sore destruction.

11 If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.

12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely *i*gather the *j*remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the *k*sheep of *l*Bozrah, as the *m*flock in the midst of their *n*fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men.

13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.

CHAPTER 3.

AND I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of a Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; Is it not for you to know judgment?

2 Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;

3 Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.

4 Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings.

5 Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him.

6 Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down upon the 7 Then shall the *b*seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.

8 But truly I am full of *c*power by the *d*Spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.

9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that *e*abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.

10 They build up *f*Zion with blood, and *g*Jerusalem with iniquity.

11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for *h*hire, and the prophets thereof divine for *i*money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? no evil can come upon us.

12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

CHAPTER 4.

BUT in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the house of the LORD shall be established in the *a*top of the mountains, and *b*it shall be exalted above the hills; and peoples shall flow unto it.

2 And many nations shall go, and say, *C*ome, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will *d*teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his *e*paths: for the law shall go forth of *f*Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.

3 And he shall judge among many peoples and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.

4 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his *g*fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it.

5 For all peoples will walk every one in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever.

6 In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will <sup>h</sup>gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted;

7 And I will make her that halted a remnant, and her that was cast far off a strong nation: and <sup>i</sup>the LORD shall reign over them in mount <sup>j</sup>Zion from henceforth, even for ever.

8 And thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first <sup>k</sup>dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem.

9 Now why dost thou cry out aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in <sup>l</sup>travail.

10 Be in pain, and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go to <sup>m</sup>Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD will redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies.

11 Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our <sup>n</sup>eye look upon Zion.

12 But they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall <sup>o</sup>gather them as the <sup>p</sup>sheaves into the threshingfloor.

13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thy <sup>q</sup>horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many peoples: and I will <sup>r</sup>consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5.

NOW gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid <sup>s</sup>a siege against us; they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.

2 <sup>t</sup>But thou, Beth-lehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of <sup>u</sup>Judah, yet out of <sup>v</sup>thee shall he come forth unto me who is to be <sup>w</sup>ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting.

3 Therefore will he give them up,

5 And this man shall be <sup>y</sup>Peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our <sup>z</sup>land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven <sup>aa</sup>shepherds, and eight princes of men.

6 And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth within our borders.

7 And the remnant of <sup>ab</sup>Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the <sup>ac</sup>grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons of men.

8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the <sup>ad</sup>nations in the midst of many peoples as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can deliver.

9 Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and all thine enemies shall be cut off.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots:

11 And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds:

12 And I will cut off <sup>ae</sup>witchcrafts out of thy hand; and thou shalt have no soothsayers:

13 Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no more worship the work of thine hands.

14 And I will pluck up thy <sup>af</sup>groves out of the midst of thee: so will I destroy thy cities.

15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and <sup>ag</sup>fury upon the nations, such as they have not heard.

CHAPTER 6.

HEAR ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice.

2 Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD's controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel.

3 O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me.

6 Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old?

7 Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of <sup>k</sup>rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

8 He hath shown thee, O man, what <sup>l</sup>is good; and what doth the LORD <sup>m</sup>require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk <sup>n</sup>humbly with thy God?

9 The LORD'S voice crieth unto the city, and wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it.

10 Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable?

11 Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights?

12 For her rich men are full of violence, and her inhabitants have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

13 Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins.

CHAPTER 7.

WOE is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape <sup>a</sup>gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat: my soul desired the firstripe fruit.

2 The godly man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.

3 <sup>1</sup>That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up.

4 The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchman and thy visitation cometh; now shall be their perplexity.

5 Trust ye not in a friend, put ye not confidence in a guide: keep the doors of thy mouth from her that lieth in thy bosom.

6 For the son dishonoureth the father, the daughter riseth up against her mother, the daughter in law against her mother in law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.

7 Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my <sup>b</sup>salvation: my God will hear me.

8 Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: though I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in <sup>c</sup>darkness, the LORD shall be a light unto me.

9 I will bear the <sup>d</sup>indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.

10 Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her that said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.

11 In the day that thy walls are to be built, in that day shall the decree be far removed.

12 In that day also they shall come even to thee from Assyria, and from the fortified cities, and from the fortress even to the River, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.

13 Notwithstanding the land shall be desolate because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.

14 Feed thy people with thy rod, the flock of thine heritage, that dwell solitarily in the wood, in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.

15 According to the days of thy coming out of the land of Egypt will I show unto him marvellous things.

16 The nations shall see and be confounded at all their might: they shall lay their hand upon their mouth, their ears shall be deaf.

17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent, they shall move out of their holes like worms of the earth: they shall be afraid of the LORD our God, and shall fear because of thee.

18 Who is a God like unto thee, that pardoneth iniquity, and passeth by the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retaineth not his anger for ever, because he delighteth in mercy.

19 He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue our iniquities; and thou wilt cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.

20 Thou wilt perform the truth to Jacob, and the mercy to Abraham, which thou hast sworn unto our fathers from the days of old.

CHAPTER 1.

THE burden of <sup>a</sup>Nineveh. The book of the <sup>b</sup>vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 God is <sup>c</sup>jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is full of wrath; the LORD will take vengeance on his <sup>d</sup>adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies.

3 <sup>e</sup>The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: <sup>f</sup>the LORD hath his way in the <sup>h</sup>whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: <sup>i</sup>Bashan languisheth, and <sup>j</sup>Carmel, and the flower of <sup>k</sup>Lebanon languisheth.

6 Who can stand before his <sup>n</sup>indignation? and who can <sup>o</sup>abide in the fierceness of his anger? his <sup>p</sup>fury is poured out like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him.

7 The LORD is <sup>q</sup>good, a strong hold in the day of <sup>r</sup>trouble; and he knoweth them that trust in him.

8 But with an overrunning <sup>s</sup>flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his enemies.

9 What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time.

10 For while they be tangled together as thorns, and while they are <sup>t</sup>drunken as drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry.

11 There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, <sup>u</sup>a wicked counsellor.

12 Thus saith the LORD; Though they be <sup>v</sup>quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass away. Though I have <sup>w</sup>afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no more.

13 For now will I break his <sup>x</sup>w yoke from off thee, and will burst thy bonds asunder.

14 And the LORD hath given a

CHAPTER 2.

HE that dasheth in pieces is come up against thy face: keep the munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily.

4 The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings.

5 He shall recount his nobles: they shall stumble in their march; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared.

6 The gates of the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved.

7 And <sup>h</sup>Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts.

8 But <sup>i</sup>Nineveh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall flee away. Stand, stand, shall they cry; but none shall look back.

9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold: for there is no end of the store and <sup>j</sup>glory out of all the pleasant furniture.

10 She is empty, and <sup>k</sup>void, and waste: and the heart melteth, and the knees smite together, and much pain is in all loins, and the faces of them grow pale.

<sup>13</sup> Behold, <sup>14</sup> I am against thee, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour thy young lions: and I will cut off thy prey from the earth, and the voice of thy messengers shall no more be heard.

CHAPTER 3.

WOE to <sup>a</sup>the bloody city! it is all full of lies and robbery; the prey departeth not;

<sup>2</sup> The noise of a whip, and the noise of the rattling of the wheels, and of the prancing horses, and of the jumping chariots.

<sup>3</sup> The horseman lifteth up both the bright sword and the glittering spear: and there is a multitude of slain, and a great number of carcases; and there is no end of their corpses; they stumble over their corpses:

<sup>34</sup> There is no healing of thy bruise; thy <sup>35</sup> wound is grievous: all that hear the report of thee shall clap the hands over thee: for upon whom hath not thy wickedness passed continually?

CHAPTER 1.

THE burden which <sup>a</sup>Habakkuk the prophet did see.

2 O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear? even cry out unto thee because of violence, and thou wilt not save!

3 Why dost thou show me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are that raise up strife and contention.

4 Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth.

5 <sup>b</sup>Behold ye among the nations, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, though it be told you.

6 For, lo, I raise up the <sup>c</sup>Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that shall march through the breadth of the <sup>d</sup>land, to possess the dwelling-places that are not theirs.

7 They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their <sup>e</sup>dignity shall proceed of themselves.

8 Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening <sup>f</sup>wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat.

9 They shall come all for violence: <sup>g</sup>their faces shall sup up as the east wind, and they shall gather the <sup>h</sup>captives as the sand.

10 And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and take it.

11 Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and offend, imputing this his power unto his god.

12 Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, my Holy One? we shall not die. O LORD, thou hast <sup>i</sup>ordained him for judgment; and, O mighty God, thou hast established him for correction.

14 And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 He taketh up all of them with the angle, he catcheth them in his net, and gathereth them in his drag: therefore he rejoiceth and is glad.

16 Therefore he sacrificeth unto his net, and burneth incense unto his drag; because by them his portion is fat, and his meat plenteous.

17 Shall he therefore empty his net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

CHAPTER 2.

I WILL stand upon my <sup>a</sup>watch, and set me upon the tower, and will watch to see what he will say unto me, and <sup>b</sup>what I shall answer when I am reproved.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said, <sup>c</sup>Write the <sup>d</sup>vision, and make it plain upon <sup>e</sup>tables, that he may run that readeth it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it <sup>f</sup>tarry, wait for it; because it will surely <sup>g</sup>come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, his soul is lifted up, it is not <sup>h</sup>upright in him: but <sup>i</sup>the just shall live by his <sup>j</sup>faith.

5 Yea also, because he transgresseth by <sup>k</sup>wine, he is a proud man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as <sup>l</sup>hell, and is as death, and cannot be <sup>m</sup>satisfied, but gathereth unto him all nations, and heapech unto him all peoples:

6 Shall not all these take up a <sup>n</sup>parable against him, and a taunting <sup>o</sup>proverb against him, and say, <sup>p</sup>"Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick burdens!

7 Shall they not rise up <sup>q</sup>suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them?

8 Because thou hast spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the peoples shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, and of all that dwell therein.

9 Woe to him that coveteth an evil covetousness to his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the power of evil!

10 Thou hast consulted shame to thy house by cutting off many peoples, and hast sinned against thy soul.

11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.

12 Woe to him that buildeth a town with blood, and stablisheth a city by iniquity!

13 Behold, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the peoples shall labour in the very fire, and the peoples shall weary themselves for very vanity?

14 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe unto him that giveth his neighbour drink, that puttest thy bottle to him, and makest him drunken also, that thou mayest look on their nakedness!

16 Thou art filled with shame for glory: drink thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered: the cup of the LORD'S right hand shall be turned unto thee, and shameful spewing shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence upon Lebanon shall cover thee, and the spoil of beasts, that made them afraid, because of men's blood, and for the violence upon the land, upon the city, and upon all that dwell therein.

18 What profiteth the graven image that the maker thereof hath graven it; the molten image, and the teacher of lies, that the maker of his work trusteth therein, to make dumb idols?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise. Shall this teach? Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.

20 But the LORD is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.

A PRAYER of Habakkuk the prophet upon Shigionoth.

2 O LORD, I have heard thy fame, and was afraid: O LORD, *re-*live thy work in the midst of the years, in the midst of the years make known; in thy wrath remember mercy.

3 God came from Teman, and the Holy One from mount Paran. Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.

4 And his brightness was as the light; he had horns coming out of his hand: and there was the hiding of his power.

5 Before him went the pestilence, and burning coals went forth at his feet.

6 He stood, and measured the earth: he beheld, and drove asunder the nations; and the everlasting mountains were scattered, the perpetual hills did bow: his ways are everlasting.

7 I saw the tents of Cushan in affliction: and the curtains of the land of Midian did tremble.

8 Was the LORD displeased against the rivers? was thine anger against the rivers? was thy wrath against the sea, that thou didst ride upon thy horses and thy chariots of salvation?

9 Thy bow was made quite naked, according to the oaths of the tribes, even thy word. Selah. Thou didst cleave the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains saw thee, and they trembled: the overflowing of the water passed by: the deep uttered his voice, and lifted up his hands on high.

11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation: at the light of thine arrows they went, and at the shining of thy glittering spear.

12 Thou didst march through the land in indignation, thou didst thresh the nations in anger.

13 Thou wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou *wound-*edst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah.

14 Thou didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.

15 Thou didst walk through the sea with thy horses, through the heap of great waters.

16 When I heard, my inmost parts trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: *S*rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the day of *'*trouble: when he cometh up unto the people, he will invade them with his troops.

17 Although the *"*fig tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the

THE word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of <sup>a</sup>Josiah the son of <sup>b</sup>Amon, king of <sup>c</sup>Judah.

2 I will utterly consume all things from off the <sup>d</sup>land, saith the LORD.

3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the <sup>e</sup>stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the land, saith the LORD.

4 I will also stretch out my hand over Judah, and over all the inhabitants of <sup>f</sup>Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of <sup>g</sup>Baal from this place, and the name of the <sup>h</sup>Chemarim with the priests;

5 And them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship and that swear by the LORD, and that swear by <sup>i</sup>Malcham;

6 And them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought the LORD, nor inquired for him.

7 Hold thy peace at the <sup>j</sup>presence of the Lord GOD: for the <sup>k</sup>day of the LORD is at hand: for the LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests.

8 And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD'S sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are clothed with strange apparel.

9 In the same day also will I punish all those that leap over the threshold, who fill their masters' houses with violence and deceit.

10 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the <sup>l</sup>ish gate, and an howling from the <sup>m</sup>second, and a great crashing from the hills.

13 Therefore their wealth shall become a booty, and their houses a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

14 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and <sup>h</sup>hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly.

16 A day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers.

17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like <sup>k</sup>blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.

18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD'S wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his <sup>l</sup>jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the <sup>m</sup>land.

CHAPTER 2.

GATHER yourselves together, ye, gather together, O nation not desired;

2 Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce <sup>n</sup>anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD'S anger come upon you.

3 Seek ye the LORD, all ye <sup>o</sup>meek of the earth, that have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD'S anger.

4 For <sup>p</sup>Gaza shall be forsaken, and <sup>q</sup>Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out <sup>r</sup>Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

5 Woe unto the inhabitants of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; O <sup>s</sup>Canaan, the land of the <sup>t</sup>Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant.

6 And the sea coast shall be dwellings and cottages for <sup>h</sup>shepherds, and <sup>i</sup>folds for flocks.

7 And the coast shall be for the <sup>j</sup>remnant of the house of <sup>k</sup>Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn again their <sup>l</sup>captivity.

8 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of <sup>m</sup>Ammon, wherewith they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.

9 Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as <sup>n</sup>Sodom, and the children of Ammon as <sup>o</sup>Gomorra, even the breeding of nettles, and <sup>p</sup>saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the <sup>q</sup>residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them.

10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts.

11 The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the nations.

12 Ye <sup>r</sup>Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.

13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy <sup>s</sup>Assyria; and will make <sup>t</sup>Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness.

14 And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar work.

15 This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wave his hand.

5 The just LORD is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the <sup>d</sup>unjust knoweth no shame.

6 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, that there is no inhabitant.

7 I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt accept correction; so her dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punish her: but they rose early, and <sup>e</sup>corrupted all their doings.

CHAPTER 1.

IN the <sup>a</sup>second year of <sup>b</sup>Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by <sup>c</sup>Haggai the prophet unto <sup>d</sup>Zerubbabel the son of <sup>e</sup>Shealtiel, governor of <sup>f</sup>Judah, and to <sup>g</sup>Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the <sup>h</sup>high priest, saying, <sup>2</sup> Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

<sup>8</sup> Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take <sup>k</sup>pleasure in it, and I will be <sup>l</sup>glorified, saith the LORD.

<sup>9</sup> Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house.

<sup>10</sup> Therefore the heaven over you is stayed from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit.

<sup>11</sup> And I called for a drought upon the <sup>m</sup>land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon man, and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

<sup>15</sup> In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

CHAPTER 2.

IN the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Haggai, saying,

<sup>4</sup> Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts.

<sup>5</sup> According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of <sup>f</sup>Egypt, so my Spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.

9 The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

10 In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of 'Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying,

11 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,

12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his <sup>m</sup>garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or potage, or wine, or oil, or any food, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No.

13 Then said <sup>n</sup>Haggai, If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

14 Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.

15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD:

16 Before those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the winevat for to draw out fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty.

17 I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.

18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORD'S temple was laid, consider it.

19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

20 And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,

21 Speak to Zerubbabel, <sup>s</sup>governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth;

22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.

23 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, <sup>w</sup>and will make thee as a signet: for I have <sup>x</sup>chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

CHAPTER 1.

IN the eighth month, in the second year of <sup>a</sup>Darius, came the word of the LORD unto <sup>b</sup>Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of <sup>c</sup>Iddo the prophet, saying,

2 The LORD hath been sore displeased with your fathers.

3 Therefore say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts.

4 Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the <sup>d</sup>former prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings; but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

5 Your fathers, where are they? and the <sup>e</sup>prophets, do they live for ever?

6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us.

7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto <sup>f</sup>Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of <sup>g</sup>Iddo the prophet, saying,

8 I saw by night, and behold a man riding upon a <sup>h</sup>red <sup>i</sup>horse, and he stood among the <sup>j</sup>myrtle <sup>k</sup>trees that were in the valley; and behind him were red horses, speckled, and <sup>l</sup>white.

9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will show thee what these are.

10 And the man that stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth.

11 And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest.

12 Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on <sup>m</sup>Jerusalem and on the cities of <sup>n</sup>Judah, against which thou hast had <sup>o</sup>indignation these threescore and ten years?

13 And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and comfortable words.

14 So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am <sup>p</sup>jealous for Jerusalem and for <sup>q</sup>Zion with a great jealousy.

15 And I am very sore displeased with the nations that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

16 Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem.

17 Cry yet again, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet <sup>r</sup>choose Jerusalem.

18 Then lifted I up mine <sup>s</sup>eyes, and saw, and behold four <sup>t</sup>horns.

19 And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these? And he answered me, These are the horns that have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.

20 And the LORD showed me four carpenters.

21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns that have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the <sup>u</sup>nations, that lifted up their horn against the <sup>v</sup>land of Judah to scatter it.

CHAPTER 2.

I LIFTED up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,

4 And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the multitude of men and cattle therein:

5 For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the <sup>a</sup>glory in the midst of her.

6 Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have scattered you abroad as the four winds of the heaven, saith the LORD.

7 Deliver thyself, O <sup>b</sup>Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of <sup>c</sup>Babylon.

8 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations that spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye.

9 For, behold, I will shake my hand upon them, and they shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

11 And many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

12 And the LORD shall inherit <sup>d</sup>Judah his portion in the holy <sup>e</sup>land, and shall <sup>f</sup>choose <sup>g</sup>Jerusalem again.

13 Be silent, O all flesh, before the LORD: for he is risen up out of his holy habitation.

CHAPTER 3.

AND he showed me <sup>a</sup>Joshua the <sup>b</sup>high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and <sup>c</sup>Satan standing at his right hand <sup>1</sup>to <sup>d</sup>resist him.

2 And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD <sup>e</sup>rebuke thee, O Satan; even the LORD that hath <sup>f</sup>chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?

3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy <sup>g</sup>garments, and stood before the angel.

4 And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying,

Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine <sup>b</sup>iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe thee <sup>2</sup>with change of <sup>c</sup>raiment.

5 And I said, Let them set a fair mitre upon his head. So they set a fair <sup>d</sup>mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by.

6 And the angel of the LORD protested unto <sup>e</sup>Joshua, saying,

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by.

8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, and thy fellows that sit before thee: for men of wonder are they: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the <sup>f</sup>BRANCH.

9 For behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven <sup>g</sup>eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every man his neighbour under the vine and under the <sup>h</sup>fig tree.

CHAPTER 4.

AND the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep,

2 And said unto me, What seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a <sup>a</sup>candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and its seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven <sup>b</sup>lamps, which are upon the top thereof:

3 And two <sup>c</sup>olive <sup>d</sup>trees by it, one upon the right <sup>e</sup>side of the bowl, and the other upon the left <sup>f</sup>side thereof.

4 So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?

5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these are? And I said, No, my lord.

6 Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This <sup>g</sup>is the word of the LORD unto <sup>h</sup>Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by <sup>i</sup>power, but by my <sup>j</sup>Spirit, saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Who art thou, O great mountain?

before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the <sup>h</sup>headstone thereof with <sup>i</sup>shoutings, crying, Grace, grace unto it.

8 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,

9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this <sup>j</sup>house; his hands shall also <sup>k</sup>finish it; and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you.

10 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

11 Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two <sup>l</sup>olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?

12 And I answered again, and said unto him, What are these two <sup>m</sup>olive branches which through the two golden pipes empty the golden oil out of themselves?

13 And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these are? And I said, No, my lord.

14 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand before the LORD of the whole earth.

CHAPTER 5.

THEN I turned, and lifted up mine <sup>a</sup>eyes, and looked, and behold a flying roll.

2 And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.

3 Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it.

4 I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.

5 Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 And, behold, there was lifted up a <sup>b</sup>talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast her into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of <sup>c</sup>Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

CHAPTER 6.

AND I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of <sup>d</sup>brass.

2 In the first chariot were <sup>b</sup>red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;

3 And in the third chariot <sup>d</sup>white horses; and in the fourth chariot grised and <sup>h</sup>bay horses.

4 Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?

5 And the angel answered and said unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, that go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.

6 The black horses that are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grised go forth toward the south country.

7 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

8 Then cried he unto me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these that go toward the north country have <sup>e</sup>quieted my spirit in the north country.

9 And the word of the LORD came unto me, <sup>f</sup>saying,
10 Take of them of the captivity, even of <sup>g</sup>Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah, that are come from Babylon, and come thou the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of <sup>h</sup>Zephaniah;

11 Then take silver and gold, and make <sup>i</sup>crowns, and set them upon the head of <sup>j</sup>Joshua the son of <sup>k</sup>Jehozadak, the <sup>l</sup>high priest;

12 And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The <sup>m</sup>BRANCH; and he shall <sup>n</sup>grow up out of his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD:

13 Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the <sup>o</sup>glory, and shall sit and rule upon his <sup>p</sup>throne; and he shall be a priest upon his <sup>q</sup>throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

14 And the crowns shall be to <sup>r</sup>Helem, and to <sup>s</sup>Tobijah, and to <sup>t</sup>Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a <sup>u</sup>memorial in the temple of the LORD.

15 And they that are far off shall come and build on the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently <sup>v</sup>obey the voice of the LORD your God.

CHAPTER 7.

AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king <sup>a</sup>Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto <sup>b</sup>Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, even in Chislev;

2 When those of Beth-el had sent unto Sherezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to pray before the LORD,

3 And to speak unto the priests that were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done so many years?

4 Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying,

5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me?

6 And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?

7 Should ye not hear the <sup>d</sup>words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when <sup>e</sup>Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain?

8 And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying,

9 Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and show mercy and compassions every man to his brother:

10 And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart.

11 But they <sup>f</sup>refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear.

12 Yea, they made their hearts as an <sup>g</sup>adamant stone, lest they should bear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great <sup>h</sup>wrath from the LORD of hosts.

13 Therefore it is come to pass, that as he called, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts:

14 But I scattered them with a <sup>i</sup>whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the <sup>j</sup>pleasant land desolate.

CHAPTER 8.

AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying,

2 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am <sup>a</sup>jealous for <sup>b</sup>Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great <sup>c</sup>fury.

3 Thus saith the LORD: I am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of <sup>d</sup>Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the <sup>e</sup>holy mountain.

4 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: There shall yet old men and old women sit in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.

6 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

7 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;

8 And I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.

9 Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets that were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.

10 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his neighbour.

11 But now I will not be unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things.

13 And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong.

14 For thus saith the LORD of hosts; As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and I repented not:

15 So again have I thought in these days to do well unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.

16 These are the things that ye shall do: Speak ye every man the truth with his neighbour; execute

19 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and peace.

20 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come peoples and the inhabitants of many cities:

21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts: I will go also.

22 Yea, many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD.

23 Thus saith the LORD of hosts: In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.

CHAPTER 9.

THE burden of the word of the LORD in the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be the rest thereof: when the eyes of man, as of all the tribes of Israel, shall be toward the LORD.

2 And Hamath also shall border thereby; Tyre, and Zidon, though it be very wise.

3 And Tyre did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.

5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectations shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.

6 And a bastard shall dwell in <sup>1</sup>Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the <sup>m</sup>Philistines.

7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in <sup>n</sup>Judah, and Ekron as a <sup>a</sup>Jebusite.

8 And I will encamp about my house because of the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from <sup>t</sup>Ephraim, and the <sup>u</sup>horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the nations: and his <sup>v</sup>dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

11 As for thee also, by the blood of thy covenant I will send forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water.

12 Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of <sup>w</sup>hope: even to day do I declare I will render double unto thee;

13 When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O <sup>x</sup>Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man.

14 And the LORD shall be seen over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the LORD GOD shall blow the <sup>y</sup>trumpet, and shall go with <sup>z</sup>whirlwinds of the south.

15 The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the <sup>a</sup>corners of the altar.

16 And the LORD their God shall save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a <sup>b</sup>crown, <sup>2</sup>lifted up as an ensign upon his land.

CHAPTER 10.

ASK ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make lightning clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

2 For the <sup>1</sup>idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false <sup>a</sup>dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were troubled, because there was no <sup>b</sup>shepherd.

3 Mine anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the <sup>c</sup>goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made them as his goodly <sup>d</sup>horse in the battle.

4 Out of him came forth the <sup>e</sup>corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle bow, out of him every oppressor together.

5 And they shall be as mighty men, that tread down their enemies in the <sup>f</sup>mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and the riders on horses shall be confounded.

6 And I will strengthen the house of <sup>g</sup>Judah, and I will save the house of <sup>h</sup>Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I will have mercy upon them: and <sup>i</sup>they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the LORD their God, and I will hear them.

7 And they of <sup>k</sup>Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine: yea, their children shall see it, and be glad; their heart shall rejoice in the LORD.

8 I will hiss for them, and <sup>l</sup>gather them; for I have redeemed them: and they shall increase as they have increased.

9 And I will <sup>m</sup>sow them among the peoples: and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn again.

10 I will bring them again also out of the <sup>n</sup>land of <sup>o</sup>Egypt, and gather them out of <sup>p</sup>Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of <sup>q</sup>Gilead and <sup>r</sup>Lebanon; and place shall not be found for them.

11 And he shall pass through the sea of affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart away.

12 And I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they shall walk up and down in his name, saith the LORD.

CHAPTER 11.

OPEN thy doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour thy cedars.

2 Howl, fir tree; for the cedar is fallen; because the mighty are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down.

3 There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled.

4 Thus saith the LORD my God; Feed the flock of the slaughter;

5 Whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

6 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.

7 And I fed the flock of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock.

8 Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; and my soul loathed them, and their soul also abhorred me.

9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that which dieth, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another.

10 And I took my staff, Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

11 And it was broken in that day: and so the poor of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD.

13 And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a goodly price that I was prized at by them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut asunder mine other staff, Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And the LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd.

16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who shall not visit those that are cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which standeth still: but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

17 Woe to the worthless shepherd that leaveth the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.

CHAPTER 12.

THE burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, who stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him.

2 Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the peoples round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem.

3 And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all peoples: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the nations of the earth be gathered together against it.

4 In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the peoples with blindness.

5 And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength in the LORD of hosts, their God.

6 In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem.

7 The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem do not magnify themselves against Judah.

8 In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them.

9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his firstborn.

11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.

12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;

13 The family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of Shimei apart, and their wives apart;

14 All the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

CHAPTER 13.

IN that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness.

2 And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.

4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive:

5 But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man taught me to keep cattle from my youth.

6 And one shall say unto him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.

7 Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn my hand upon the little ones.

8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein.

9 And I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

CHAPTER 14.

BEHOLD, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee.

2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3 Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.

4 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before <sup>e</sup>Jerusalem on the east, and the mount of Olives shall cleave in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

5 And ye shall flee to the valley of the mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach unto Azal: yea, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of <sup>f</sup>Uzziah king of <sup>g</sup>Judah: and the LORD my God shall <sup>h</sup>come, and all the <sup>i</sup>saints with thee.

6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the light shall not be clear, nor dark:

7 But it shall be one day which shall be known to the LORD, not day, nor <sup>j</sup>night: but it shall come to pass, that at eventide it shall be light.

8 And it shall be in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.

9 And the LORD shall be king over all the <sup>k</sup>earth: in that day shall there be one LORD, and his <sup>l</sup>name one.

10 All the land shall be turned as a <sup>m</sup>plain from <sup>n</sup>Geba to <sup>o</sup>Rimmon south of Jerusalem: and it shall be lifted up, and inhabited in her place, from Benjamin's gate unto the place of the first gate, unto the corner gate, and from the tower of <sup>p</sup>Hananeel unto the king's winepresses.

CHAPTER 1.

THE burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.

2 I have <sup>a</sup>loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein hast thou loved us? Was not <sup>b</sup>Esau Jacob's brother? saith the LORD: yet I loved <sup>c</sup>Jacob,

3 And I <sup>d</sup>hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the <sup>e</sup>jackals of the wilderness.

4 Whereas <sup>f</sup>Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom the LORD hath <sup>g</sup>indignation for ever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of Israel.

6 A son honoureth <sup>h</sup>his father, and a <sup>i</sup>servant his master: if then I be a father, where <sup>i</sup>is mine honour? and if I be a <sup>j</sup>master, where <sup>i</sup>is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my <sup>j</sup>name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised thy name?

8 And if ye offer the <sup>n</sup>blind for sacrifice, <sup>i</sup>is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, <sup>i</sup>is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or <sup>o</sup>accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts.

9 And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts.

10 Who <sup>i</sup>is there even among you that would shut the doors <sup>j</sup>for naught? neither do ye kindle <sup>k</sup>fire on mine altar for naught. I have no <sup>l</sup>pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.

11 For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name <sup>i</sup>shall be great among the <sup>q</sup>nations; and in every place <sup>r</sup>incense <sup>i</sup>shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name <sup>i</sup>shall be great among the nations, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, The table of the LORD <sup>i</sup>is polluted; and the fruit thereof, <sup>i</sup>even his food, <sup>i</sup>is contemptible.

13 Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness <sup>i</sup>is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought <sup>i</sup>that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD.

14 But cursed be the deceiver, who hath in his flock a male, and <sup>i</sup>voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a <sup>i</sup>corrupt thing: for I <sup>i</sup>am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name <sup>i</sup>is dreadful among the nations.

CHAPTER 2.

AND now, O ye priests, this commandment <sup>i</sup>is for you.

2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay <sup>i</sup>it to <sup>a</sup>heart, to give <sup>b</sup>glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a <sup>c</sup>curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay <sup>i</sup>it to heart.

3 Behold, I will rebuke your seed, and spread dung upon your faces, <sup>i</sup>even the dung of your solemn feasts; and <sup>i</sup>one shall take you away with it.

4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with <sup>d</sup>Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him <sup>i</sup>for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name.

6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and <sup>e</sup>iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity.

7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he <sup>i</sup>is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 But ye are departed out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts.

9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been *f*partial in the law.

10 Have we not all one father? hath not one God *g*created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers?

11 h Judah hath dealt i treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in j Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the sanctuary of the LORD which he loved, and hath married the daughter of a strange god.

12 The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of k Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the LORD of hosts.

13 And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with good will at your hand.

14 Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been l witness between thee and the wife of thy m youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, and the wife of thy covenant.

15 And did not he make one? Yet had he the n residue of the o Spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your p spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his q garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

17 Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or, Where is the God of judgment?

BEHOLD, I will send my messenger, and a he shall prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall b suddenly c come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts.

3 And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of e silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and f purge them as gold and silver, and they shall offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness.

4 Then shall the offering of g Judah and h Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in former years.

5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the i sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his j wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts.

6 For k I am the LORD, I change not; therefore ye sons of l Jacob are not consumed.

7 Even from the days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

8 Will a man m rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed thee? In n tithes and offerings.

9 Ye are cursed with a o curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation.

10 Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in my house, and p prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the q windows of r heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.

11 And I will s rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts.

12 And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delight-some <sup>1</sup>land, saith the LORD of hosts.

13 Your words have been stout against me, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?

14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what <sup>2</sup>profit is it that we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts?

15 And now we call the proud happy; yea, they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they <sup>3</sup>tempt God and escape.

16 Then <sup>4</sup>they that feared the LORD spake often one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that <sup>5</sup>thought upon his name.

17 And they shall be mine, saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up <sup>6</sup>my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him.

18 Then shall ye return, and discern between the <sup>7</sup>righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth <sup>8</sup>God and him that serveth him not.

FOR, behold, the day <sup>a</sup>cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.

5 Behold, I will send you <sup>g</sup>Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and terrible day of the LORD:

6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I <sup>h</sup>come and smite the earth with a <sup>i</sup>curse.

18 <sup>b</sup>Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: After his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child by the <sup>c</sup>Holy Spirit.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a <sup>d</sup>dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife; for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his <sup>e</sup>name JESUS: for he shall save his <sup>f</sup>people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying,

23 <sup>g</sup>Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then <sup>h</sup>Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER 2.

NOW when Jesus was born in <sup>a</sup>Bethlehem of Judæa in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came <sup>b</sup>wise men from the east to Jerusalem,

2 Saying, Where is he that is born <sup>c</sup>King of the Jews? for we have seen his <sup>d</sup>star in the east, and are come to <sup>e</sup>worship him.

3 When <sup>f</sup>Herod the king heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And, having gathered all the chief priests and <sup>g</sup>scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

5 And they said unto him, In Bethlehem of <sup>h</sup>Judæa: for thus it is written through the prophet,

6<sup>b</sup> And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, art not the least among the princes of Judah: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall <sup>2</sup>rule my people Israel.

7 Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.

9 When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

10 When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

11 And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, and worshipped him; and having opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts: gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

12 And being warned of God in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed into their own country another way.

13 And when they were departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.

14 When he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt:

15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, "Out of Egypt have I called my son.

16 Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the male children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the environs thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently inquired of the wise men.

17 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, saying,

18 In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not.

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, 20 Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead that sought the young child's life.

21 And he arose, and took the young child and his mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus did reign in Judæa in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither; so, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee:

23 And he came and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

CHAPTER 3.

IN those days came <sup>a</sup>John the <sup>b</sup>Baptist, preaching in the <sup>c</sup>wilderness of <sup>d</sup>Judæa, <sup>e</sup>And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of <sup>f</sup>heaven is <sup>g</sup>at hand.

3 For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Isaiah, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 And the same <sup>h</sup>John had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern <sup>i</sup>girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then went out to him <sup>j</sup>Jerusalem, and all Judæa, and all the region round about <sup>k</sup>Jordan,

6 And were <sup>l</sup>baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruit meet for repentance:

9 And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

10 And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the <sup>x</sup>trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

11 I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not <sup>y</sup>worthy to bear: he shall <sup>z</sup>baptize you with the <sup>a</sup>Holy Spirit, and with <sup>b</sup>fire:

12 Whose <sup>c</sup>fan is in his hand, and he will <sup>d</sup>thoroughly cleanse his threshingfloor, and gather his <sup>e</sup>wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire.

13 Then cometh Jesus from <sup>f</sup>Galilee to the Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him.

14 But John opposed him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to me?

15 And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered him.

16 And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon him:

17 And lo a voice from heaven, saying, <sup>g</sup>This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

CHAPTER 4.

THEN was Jesus led up of the <sup>a</sup>Spirit into the <sup>b</sup>wilderness to be <sup>c</sup>tempted of the <sup>d</sup>devil.

2 And when he had <sup>e</sup>fasted forty days and forty nights, he afterward hungered.

3 And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread.

4 But he answered and said, It is written, <sup>f</sup>Man shall not live by bread alone, but by <sup>g</sup>every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.

5 Then the devil taketh him into the <sup>h</sup>holy city, and setteth him on the pinnacle of the temple,

6 And saith unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, <sup>i</sup>He shall give his angels charge concerning thee: and in <sup>their</sup> hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

7 Jesus said unto him, <sup>f</sup>It is written again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

8 Again, the devil taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them;

9 And saith unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me.

10 Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, <sup>g</sup>Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

11 Then the devil leaveth him, and, behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

12 Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into <sup>h</sup>prison, he departed into Galilee;

13 And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in <sup>i</sup>Capernaum, which is upon the sea coast, in the borders of <sup>j</sup>Zebulun and Naphtali:

14 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken through <sup>k</sup>Isaiah the prophet, saying,

16 The people that sat in darkness saw great light; and to them that sat in the region and <sup>q</sup>shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 From that time Jesus began to <sup>r</sup>preach, and to say, <sup>s</sup>Repent: for the <sup>t</sup>kingdom of heaven is at hand.

19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you <sup>y</sup>fishers of men.

20 And they straightway left <sup>their</sup>nets, and followed him.

21 And going on from thence, he saw other two brethren, James <sup>the</sup>son of Zebedee, and <sup>a</sup>John his brother, in a boat with <sup>b</sup>Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22 And they immediately left the boat and their father, and followed him.

23 And Jesus went about all Galilee, / teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the 2<sup>d</sup> gospel of the kingdom, and <sup>h</sup> healing all manner of <sup>i</sup> sickness and all manner of disease among the people.

24 And his fame went throughout all / Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and <sup>k</sup> torments, and those that were possessed with demons, and those that were lunatic, and those that had the <sup>l</sup> palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Galilee, and Decapolis, and <sup>m</sup> Jerusalem, and <sup>n</sup> Judæa, and beyond the Jordan.

CHAPTER 5.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was seated, his <sup>a</sup> disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 <sup>b</sup> Blessed are the poor in <sup>c</sup> spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the <sup>d</sup> meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they that do <sup>e</sup> hunger and <sup>f</sup> thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the <sup>g</sup> merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the <sup>h</sup> pure in <sup>i</sup> heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the <sup>j</sup> peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they that are <sup>k</sup> persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding <sup>l</sup> glad: for great is your <sup>m</sup> reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets that were before you.

13 Ye are the <sup>n</sup> salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the <sup>o</sup> light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a <sup>p</sup> candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 So let your light <sup>q</sup> shine before men, that they may see your good works, and <sup>r</sup> glorify your Father who is in heaven.

17 Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, <sup>s</sup> one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from <sup>t</sup> the law, till all be fulfilled.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed <sup>x</sup> the <sup>y</sup> righteousness of the <sup>z</sup> scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 Ye have heard that it was said <sup>by</sup> them of old time, <sup>y</sup> Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou <sup>fool</sup>, shall be in danger of <sup>hell</sup> fire.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath aught against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree with thine adversary <sup>quickly</sup>, while thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the <sup>utmost</sup> farthing.

27 Ye have heard that it was said <sup>by</sup> them of old time, <sup>y</sup> Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

30 And if thy right hand ensnare thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not <sup>h</sup>that thy whole body should go into <sup>i</sup>hell.

31 It hath been said, <sup>h</sup>Whosoever shall put away his wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement:

32 But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of <sup>i</sup>fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall <sup>j</sup>marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

33 Again, ye have heard that it hath been said <sup>h</sup>by them of old time, <sup>i</sup>Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine <sup>j</sup>oaths:

34 But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by <sup>m</sup>heaven; for it is God's throne:

35 Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by <sup>n</sup>Jerusalem; for it is the city <sup>o</sup>of the great King.

36 Neither shalt thou swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black.

37 But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil.

38 Ye have heard that it hath been said, <sup>p</sup>An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:

39 But I say unto you, That ye <sup>q</sup>resist not one who <sup>r</sup>doeth thee evil: but whosoever shall smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also.

40 And if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have <sup>s</sup>thy cloak also.

41 And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain.

42 Give to him that asketh thee, and from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away.

47 And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more <sup>h</sup>than others? do not even the <sup>i</sup>publicans so?

48 Be ye therefore <sup>j</sup>perfect, even as your Father who is in heaven is perfect.

CHAPTER 6.

TAKE heed that ye do not your <sup>a</sup>righteous acts before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no <sup>b</sup>reward of your <sup>c</sup>Father who is in heaven.

2 Therefore when thou doest <sup>d</sup>thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the <sup>e</sup>hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have <sup>f</sup>glory of men. Verily I say unto you, They already have their <sup>g</sup>reward.

3 But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth:

4 That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father who seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly.

5 And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites <sup>are</sup>: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the <sup>h</sup>corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They already have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father who is in secret; and thy Father who seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not <sup>i</sup>vain repetitions, as the Gentiles <sup>do</sup>: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him.

9 After this manner therefore

<sup>14</sup> For if ye forgive men their <sup>r</sup> trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you:

<sup>16</sup> Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They already have their reward.

<sup>23</sup> But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is the darkness!

<sup>24</sup> No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and <sup>y</sup> man.

what ye shall eat, or what ye shall <sup>z</sup> drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?

<sup>30</sup> Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

CHAPTER 7.

JUDGE not, that ye be not judged.

pearls before *s*swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.

7 Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you:

8 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

9 Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask *s*bread, will he give him a stone?

10 Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent?

11 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give good things to them that ask him?

12 Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.

13 Enter ye in at the narrow gate: for wide is the *h*gate, and broad is the way, that *l*eadeth to *d*estruction, and many there be that go in thereat:

14 Because narrow is the gate, and *n*arrow is the way, which leadeth unto *l*ife, and few there be that find it.

15 Beware of false *m*prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening *w*olves.

16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles?

17 Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit.

18 A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a *c*orrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

20 Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.

21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the *w*ill of my Father who is in heaven.

22 Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out demons? and in thy name done many wonderful works?

26 And every one that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a *w*foolish man, who built his house upon the sand:

27 And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

29 For he *j*taught them as *o*ne having authority, and not as *2*the *s*cribes.

CHAPTER 8.

WHEN he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him.

2 And, behold, there came a *a*leper and worshipped him, *b*saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me *c*clean.

3 And Jesus put forth *h*is hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his *a*leprosy was cleansed.

4 And Jesus saith unto him, *e*See thou tell no man; but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a *t*estimony unto them.

5 And when Jesus was entered into *s*Capernaum, there came unto him a centurion, beseeching him,

6 And saying, Lord, my servant lieth at home sick of the *h*palsy, grievously *t*ormented.

7 And Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him.

8 The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not *w*orthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed.

9 For I also am a man under authority, having soldiers under me:

and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

10 When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great <sup>k</sup>faith, no, not in Israel.

11 And I say unto you, That many shall come from the east and west, and shall sit down with <sup>l</sup>Abraham, and Isaac, and <sup>m</sup>Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven.

12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into the outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour.

14 And when Jesus was come into <sup>n</sup>Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother lying sick of a fever.

15 And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and ministered unto them.

16 When the even was come, they brought unto him many that were possessed with demons: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, <sup>o</sup>Himself took our infirmities, and bare our <sup>p</sup>sicknesses.

18 Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart unto the other side.

19 And a certain <sup>q</sup>scribe came, and said unto him, <sup>r</sup>Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.

20 And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And another of his <sup>s</sup>disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

22 But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and let the <sup>t</sup>dead bury their own dead.

23 And when he was entered into a boat, his disciples followed him.

24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the boat was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.

25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, <sup>e</sup>saying, Lord, save us: we perish.

26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.

27 But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him!

28 And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gadarenes, there met him two possessed with demons, coming out of the <sup>t</sup>tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way.

29 And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, <sup>2</sup>Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to <sup>v</sup>torment us before the time?

30 And there was a good way off from them an herd of many <sup>w</sup>swine feeding.

31 So the demons besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine.

32 And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and <sup>x</sup>perished in the waters.

33 And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and what was befallen to the possessed of the demons.

34 And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their region.

CHAPTER 9.

AND he entered into a boat, and passed over, and came into his own city.

2 And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their <sup>a</sup>faith said unto the sick of the <sup>b</sup>palsy; Son, be of good <sup>c</sup>cheer; thy sins be <sup>d</sup>forgiven thee.

3 And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, This man blasphemeth.

4 And Jesus knowing their <sup>e</sup>thoughts said, Wherefore <sup>f</sup>think ye evil in your hearts?

5 For whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk?

6 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house.

7 And he arose, and departed to his house.

8 But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, and glorified God, who had given such power unto men.

9 And as Jesus passed on thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.

10 And it came to pass, as Jesus sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples.

11 And when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners?

12 But when Jesus heard that, he said unto them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick.

13 But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners.

14 Then came to him the disciples of John, saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not?

15 And Jesus said unto them, Can the sons of the bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast.

16 No man putteth a piece of new cloth unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse.

17 Neither do men put new wine into old wine-skins: else the skins break, and the wine runneth out, and the wine-skins perish: but they put new wine into new wine-skins, and both are preserved.

18 While he spake these things unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter has just died:

but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live.

19 And Jesus arose, and followed him, and so did his disciples.

20 And, behold, a woman, who had been afflicted with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment:

21 For she said within herself, If I may but touch his garment, I shall be whole.

22 But Jesus turned him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour.

23 And when Jesus came into the ruler's house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, 24 He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but asleep.

25 But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.

26 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land.

27 And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and saying, Thou Son of David, have mercy on us.

28 And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord.

29 Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you.

30 And their eyes were opened; and Jesus straightly charged them, saying, See that no man know it.

31 But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that country.

32 As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb man possessed with a demon.

33 And when the demon was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never so seen in Israel.

34 But the Pharisees said, He casteth out demons through the prince of the demons.

35 And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

36 But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered abroad, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plentiful, but the labourers are few;

38 Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

be not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet.

15 Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrhah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves.

17 But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues;

18 And ye shall be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony unto them and the Gentiles.

19 But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak.

20 For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaketh in you.

21 And the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.

22 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that  endureth to the end shall be saved.

23 But when they persecute you in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.

24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord.

25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?

26 Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known.

27 What I tell you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops.

28 And fear not them that kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him who is able to destroy both soul and body in <sup>5</sup>hell.

29 Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the ground without your Father.

30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than many sparrows.

32 Whosoever therefore shall <sup>11</sup>confess me before men, him will I also confess before my Father who is in heaven.

33 But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before my Father who is in heaven.

34 Think not that I am come to send <sup>o</sup>peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a <sup>p</sup>sword.

35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me.

38 And he that taketh not his <sup>9</sup>cross, and followeth after me, is not worthy of me.

39 He that findeth his life shall <sup>7</sup>lose it: and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it.

40 He that <sup>f</sup>receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's <sup>4</sup>reward; and he that receiveth a <sup>u</sup>righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's <sup>v</sup>reward.

42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a <sup>w</sup>disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

3 And said unto him, Art thou he that should <sup>d</sup>come, or do we look for another?

4 Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and tell John those things which ye do hear and see:

5 <sup>e</sup>The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the <sup>f</sup>lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have the <sup>g</sup>gospel preached to them.

6 And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me.

7 And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A <sup>h</sup>reed <sup>i</sup>shaken with the wind?

8 But what went ye out <sup>2</sup>for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses.

9 But what went ye out <sup>2</sup>for to see? A prophet? yea, I say unto you, and more than a prophet.

10 For this is he, of whom it is written, <sup>j</sup>Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee.

11 Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

12 And from the days of <sup>k</sup>John the <sup>l</sup>Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven <sup>m</sup>suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force.

13 <sup>n</sup>For all the prophets and the law prophesied until John.

14 And if ye are willing to receive <sup>o</sup>him, this is <sup>o</sup>Elijah, who was <sup>4</sup>to come.

15 He that hath <sup>p</sup>ears to hear, let him hear.

16 But whereunto shall I liken this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows.

17 And saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented.

18 For John came neither eating nor <sup>q</sup>drinking, and they say, He hath <sup>a</sup>demon.

19 The Son of man came eating and drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of <sup>r</sup>publicans and sinners. But <sup>s</sup>wisdom is justified by her <sup>5</sup>children.

20 Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most of his mighty works were done, because they <sup>2</sup>repented not:

22 But I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the <sup>y</sup>day of judgment, than for you.

23 And thou, <sup>z</sup>Capernaum, which art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to <sup>a</sup>hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day.

24 But I say unto you, That it shall be more tolerable for the <sup>a</sup>land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee.

25 At that time Jesus answered and <sup>b</sup>said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto <sup>c</sup>babes.

26 Even so, Father: for so it seemed good in thy sight.

27 All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and <sup>he</sup> to whomsoever the Son shall will to reveal <sup>him</sup>.

28 <sup>d</sup>Come <sup>e</sup>unto me, all ye that <sup>f</sup>labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you <sup>g</sup>rest.

29 Take my <sup>h</sup>yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and <sup>i</sup>lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your <sup>k</sup>souls.

30 For my yoke is easy, and my <sup>l</sup>burden is light.

not <sup>c</sup>read what <sup>de</sup>David did, when he was hungered, and they that were with him;

4 <sup>f</sup>How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the showbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them that were with him, but only for the priests?

5 Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath day the priests in the temple profane the sabbath, and are <sup>g</sup>blameless?

6 But I say unto you, That <sup>h</sup>one greater than the temple is here.

7 But if ye had known what <sup>this</sup> meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not have <sup>h</sup>condemned the <sup>i</sup>guiltless.

8 For the Son of man is Lord <sup>even</sup> of the sabbath day.

9 And when he was departed thence, he went into their synagogue:

10 And, behold, there was a man who had <sup>his</sup> hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? that they might <sup>j</sup>accuse him.

11 And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not lay hold on it, and lift <sup>it</sup> out?

12 How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath day.

13 Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched <sup>it</sup> forth; and <sup>k</sup>it was <sup>l</sup>restored whole, like as the other.

14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how they might destroy him.

15 But when Jesus knew <sup>it</sup>, he withdrew himself from thence; and great multitudes followed him, and he healed them all;

16 And charged them that they should not make him known:

17 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

18 <sup>m</sup>Behold my servant, whom I have <sup>n</sup>chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my <sup>o</sup>Spirit upon him, and he shall show judgment to the <sup>p</sup>Gentiles.

19 He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.

20 A bruised <sup>reed</sup> shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto <sup>r</sup>victory.

22 Then was brought unto him one possessed with a demon, <sup>1</sup>blind, and dumb: and he healed him, inasmuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw.

23 And all the people were amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David?

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out demons, but by Beelzebub the prince of the demons.

25 And Jesus knew their <sup>21</sup>thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not <sup>22</sup>stand:

26 And if <sup>23</sup>Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by <sup>24</sup>Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and <sup>1</sup>blasphemy shall be <sup>2</sup>forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Spirit shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this <sup>3</sup>world, neither in that to come.

33 Either make the <sup>4</sup>tree good, and its fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and its fruit <sup>5</sup>corrupt: for the tree is known by its fruit.

34 O generation of vipers, how can ye, being evil, speak good things? or out of the <sup>6</sup>abundance of the <sup>7</sup>heart the mouth speaketh.

35 A good man out of the good treasure of the heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things.

38 Then certain of the <sup>3</sup>scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a <sup>4</sup>sign from thee.

39 But he answered and said unto them, An evil and adulterous <sup>5</sup>generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet <sup>6</sup>Jonah:

40 For as <sup>7</sup>Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the fish; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

44 Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, swept, and garnished.

45 Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last <sup>13</sup>state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation.

46 While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren stood without, desiring to speak with him.

47 Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to speak with thee.

48 But he answered and said unto him that told him, Who is my mother? and who are my <sup>14</sup>brethren?

49 And he stretched forth his hand toward his <sup>15</sup>disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren!

50 For <sup>s</sup>whosoever shall do the <sup>i</sup>will of my Father who is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

CHAPTER 13.

THE same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea side.

2 And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a boat, and sat; and the whole multitude stood on the shore.

3 And he spake many things unto them in <sup>a</sup>parables, saying, Behold, a <sup>b</sup>sower went forth to sow;

4 And when he sowed, some <sup>c</sup>seeds fell by the way side, and the birds came and devoured them up:

5 Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they had no deepness of earth:

6 And when the sun was up, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked them:

8 But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold.

9 He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And the disciples came, and said unto him, Why speakest thou unto them in <sup>c</sup>parables?

11 He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the <sup>d</sup>mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given.

12 For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath.

13 Therefore speak I to them in parables: because they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand.

14 And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah, who saith, <sup>e</sup>By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive:

15 For this people's heart is waxed gross, and <sup>r</sup>their ears are dull of hearing, and <sup>r</sup>their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with <sup>r</sup>their eyes, and hear with <sup>r</sup>their ears, and should understand with <sup>r</sup>their heart, and should be <sup>r</sup>converted, and I should heal them.

16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear.

17 For verily I say unto you, That many prophets and <sup>r</sup>righteous men have desired to see <sup>r</sup>those things which ye see, and have not seen <sup>r</sup>them; and to hear <sup>r</sup>those things which ye hear, and have not heard <sup>r</sup>them.

18 Hear ye therefore the <sup>r</sup>parable of the sower.

19 When any one heareth the word of the kingdom, and understandeth <sup>r</sup>it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he that received seed by the way side.

20 But he that received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and quickly with joy receiveth it;

21 Yet hath he not root in himself, but endureth for a time: but when <sup>r</sup>tribulation or <sup>r</sup>persecution ariseth because of the word, he is at once offended.

22 He also that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this <sup>r</sup>world, and the deceitfulness of <sup>r</sup>riches, choke the word, and he becometh <sup>r</sup>unfruitful.

23 But he that received seed into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth <sup>r</sup>it; who also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

24 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man who sowed good seed in his <sup>r</sup>field:

25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed <sup>r</sup>tares among the <sup>r</sup>wheat, and went his way.

26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.

27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?

28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?

29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.

30 Let both grow together <sup>7</sup>until the harvest: and in the time of <sup>7</sup>harvest I will say to the <sup>7</sup>reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

31 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of <sup>7</sup>mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field:

32 Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is <sup>7</sup>grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a <sup>7</sup>tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof.

33 Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto <sup>7</sup>leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

34 All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto them:

35 That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which have been kept secret from the foundation of the world.

36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his <sup>7</sup>disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.

37 He answered and said unto them, He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man;

38 The <sup>2</sup>field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the <sup>2</sup>tares are the children of the wicked one;

39 The enemy that sowed them is the <sup>6</sup>devil; the <sup>7</sup>harvest is the <sup>2</sup>end of the world; and the <sup>7</sup>reapers are the angels.

40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the <sup>7</sup>fire; so shall it be in the <sup>2</sup>end of the world.

41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do <sup>7</sup>iniquity;

43 Then shall the righteous <sup>7</sup>shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Whosoever hath ears to hear, let him hear.

44 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto <sup>7</sup>treasure hid in a <sup>7</sup>field; which, when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field.

45 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly <sup>7</sup>pearls:

46 Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a <sup>7</sup>net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind:

48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.

49 So shall it be at the <sup>2</sup>end of the world; the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just,

50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of <sup>7</sup>teeth.

51 Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord.

52 Then said he unto them, Therefore every <sup>7</sup>scribe that is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, who bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old.

53 And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these <sup>7</sup>parables, he departed thence.

54 And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this <sup>7</sup>wisdom, and these mighty works?

55 Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and <sup>8</sup>r<sup>7</sup>Joses, and Simon, and <sup>7</sup>Judas?

56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things?

57 And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house.

58 And he did not many mighty works there because of their <sup>1</sup>unbelief.

CHAPTER 14.

AT that time <sup>a</sup>Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus,
2 And said unto his servants, This is <sup>b</sup>John the <sup>c</sup>Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.

3 For <sup>d</sup>Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in <sup>e</sup>prison for <sup>f</sup>Herodias' sake, his brother <sup>g</sup>Philip's wife.

4 For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her.

5 And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they <sup>h</sup>counted him as a prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of <sup>i</sup>Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.

7 Whereupon he <sup>j</sup>promised with an <sup>k</sup>oath to give her whatsoever she would ask.

8 And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here the head of John the Baptist in a charger.

9 And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oaths' sake, and them that sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her.

10 And he sent, and beheaded <sup>l</sup>John in the prison.

11 And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his <sup>m</sup>disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and went and told Jesus.

13 When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by boat into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities.

14 And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion toward them, and he healed their <sup>n</sup>sick.

15 And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food.

16 But Jesus said unto them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat.

17 And they say unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes.

18 He said, Bring them hither to me.

19 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

20 <sup>o</sup>And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that remained <sup>p</sup>twelve baskets full.

21 And they that had eaten were about five thousand men, beside women and children.

22 And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a boat, and to go before him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away.

23 And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.

24 But the boat was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for the wind was contrary.

25 And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear.

27 But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good <sup>q</sup>cheer; it is I; be not afraid.

28 And <sup>r</sup>Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee on the water.

29 And he said, Come. And when Peter was come down out of the boat, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus.

30 But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me.

31 And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt?

32 And when they were come into the boat, the wind ceased.

33 Then they that were in the boat came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God.

34 And when they were gone over, they came into the <sup>s</sup>land of <sup>g</sup>Gennesaret.

35 And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased;

36 And besought him that they might only touch the <sup>u</sup>hem of his <sup>v</sup>garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

CHAPTER 15.

THEN came to Jesus <sup>a</sup>scribes and Pharisees, who were of <sup>b</sup>Jerusalem, saying,

2 Why do thy disciples transgress the <sup>c</sup>tradition of the <sup>d</sup>elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread.

3 But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the <sup>e</sup>commandment of God for your <sup>f</sup>tradition?

4 For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the <sup>g</sup>appointed death.

5 But ye say, Whosoever shall say to <sup>h</sup>his father or <sup>i</sup>his mother, It is dedicated to God, that by which thou wouldest be <sup>j</sup>profited by me;

6 And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be guiltless. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your <sup>k</sup>tradition.

7 <sup>l</sup>Hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

8 <sup>m</sup>This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honour-eth me with <sup>n</sup>their lips; but their heart is far from me.

9 But in <sup>o</sup>vain they do worship me, <sup>p</sup>teaching for <sup>q</sup>doctrines the commandments of men.

10 And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand:

11 Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man.

12 Then came his <sup>r</sup>disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: they are <sup>c</sup>blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 Then answered <sup>d</sup>Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this <sup>e</sup>parable.

16 And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 For out of the heart proceed evil <sup>f</sup>thoughts, <sup>g</sup>murders, adulteries, <sup>h</sup>fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashed hands defileth not a man.

21 Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the regions of <sup>i</sup>Tyre and Sidon.

22 And, behold, a woman of <sup>j</sup>Canaan came out of the same region, and <sup>k</sup>cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of <sup>l</sup>David; my daughter is grievously vexed with a demon.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the <sup>m</sup>lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to <sup>n</sup>dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 <sup>o</sup>Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made <sup>p</sup>whole from that very hour.

29 And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the Sea of <sup>q</sup>Gallilee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, <sup>d</sup>blind, dumb, <sup>e</sup>maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them:

31 Inasmuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they <sup>f</sup>glorified the God of Israel.

32 Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 And his <sup>g</sup>disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave <sup>h</sup>thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 And he sent away the multitude, and took a boat, and came into the regions of Magdala.

CHAPTER 16.

THE Pharisees also with the <sup>a</sup>Sadducees came, and <sup>b</sup>tempting desired him that he would show them a <sup>c</sup>sign from heaven.

2 He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be fair weather: for the sky is <sup>d</sup>red.

3 And in the morning, It will be foul weather to day: for the sky is red and lowering. O ye <sup>e</sup>hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times?

4 A wicked and <sup>f</sup>adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign <sup>g</sup>of the prophet <sup>h</sup>Jonah. And he left them, and departed.

come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware of the <sup>b</sup>leaven of the <sup>c</sup>Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

7 And they <sup>d</sup>reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread.

8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?

9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

10 Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?

11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?

12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the <sup>e</sup>doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

13 When Jesus came into the regions of <sup>f</sup>Cæsarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am?

14 And they said, Some say that thou art <sup>g</sup>John the <sup>h</sup>Baptist: some, <sup>i</sup>Elijah; and others, <sup>j</sup>Jeremiah, or one of the prophets.

15 He saith unto them, But whom say ye that <sup>k</sup>I am?

16 And <sup>l</sup>Simon <sup>m</sup>Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God.

17 And Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, <sup>n</sup>Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father who is in heaven.

18 And I say also unto thee, That thou art <sup>o</sup>2 Peter, and upon this <sup>p</sup>rock I will build my <sup>q</sup>church; and the <sup>r</sup>gates of <sup>s</sup>hell shall not prevail against it.

19 And I will give unto thee the <sup>t</sup>keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt <sup>u</sup>loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

20 Then <sup>v</sup>charged he his disciples that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ.

21 From that time forth began Jesus to show unto his <sup>w</sup>disciples, how that he must go unto <sup>b</sup>Jerusalem, and <sup>c</sup>suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and <sup>d</sup>scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the <sup>e</sup>third day.

22 Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee.

23 But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, <sup>f</sup>Satan: thou art <sup>g</sup>an offence unto me: for thou <sup>h</sup>savouriest not the things that be of God, but those that be of men.

24 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man would come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his <sup>i</sup>cross, and follow me.

25 For whosoever will save his <sup>j</sup>life shall <sup>k</sup>lose it: and whosoever will lose his <sup>l</sup>life for my sake shall find it.

28 Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, who shall not <sup>t</sup>taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his <sup>u</sup>kingdom.

3 And, behold, there appeared unto them <sup>e</sup>Moses and <sup>f</sup>Elijah talking with <sup>g</sup>him.

4 Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three <sup>h</sup>tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.

5 While he yet spake, behold, a bright <sup>i</sup>cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; hear ye him.

7 And Jesus came and touched them, and said, Arise, and be not afraid.

8 And when they had lifted up their <sup>b</sup>eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead.

10 And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elijah must first come?

11 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elijah truly shall first come, and <sup>c</sup>restore all things.

12 But I say unto you, That Elijah is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of man suffer of them.

13 Then the disciples understood that he spake unto them of <sup>d</sup>John the <sup>e</sup>Baptist.

14 And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a <sup>f</sup>certain man, <sup>g</sup>kneeling down to him, and saying,

15 Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatic, and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water.

16 And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could not cure him.

17 Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and <sup>h</sup>perverse generation, <sup>i</sup>how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me.

18 And Jesus rebuked the demon; and he departed out of him: and <sup>j</sup>the child was cured from that very hour.

19 Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why could not we cast him out?

20 And Jesus said unto them, Because of your <sup>k</sup>unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have <sup>l</sup>faith as a grain of <sup>m</sup>mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be <sup>n</sup>impossible unto you.

21 <sup>o</sup>Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting.

22 And while they were gathering in <sup>p</sup>Galilee, Jesus said unto them, The Son of man shall soon be delivered into the hands of men:

23 And they shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry.

24 And when they were come to <sup>2</sup>Capernaum, they that received <sup>3</sup>tribute <sup>4</sup>money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute?

25 He saith, Yes. And when he was come into the house, Jesus <sup>5</sup>went before him, saying, What thinkest thou, <sup>6</sup>Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own sons, or from strangers?

26 Peter saith unto him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the sons <sup>7</sup>free.

27 Notwithstanding, lest we cause them to stumble, go thou to the sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

CHAPTER 18.

AT the same time came the <sup>1</sup>disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is the greater in the kingdom of heaven?

2 And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them,

3 And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be <sup>4</sup>converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter the kingdom of heaven.

4 Whosoever therefore shall <sup>5</sup>humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

5 And whoso shall receive one such little child in my name receiveth me.

6 But whoso shall cause one of these little ones that believe on me to stumble, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!

8 Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot ensnare thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into <sup>9</sup>life halt or <sup>10</sup>maimed, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire.

9 And if thine <sup>11</sup>eye ensnare thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire.

10 Take heed that ye despise not <sup>11</sup>one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father who is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was <sup>12</sup>lost.

12 How think ye? <sup>13</sup>if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more over that sheep, than over the ninety and nine that went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the <sup>14</sup>will of your Father who is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

15 Moreover if thy brother shall <sup>15</sup>trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the <sup>16</sup>church: but if he <sup>17</sup>neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as a Gentile man and a <sup>18</sup>publican.

18 Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall <sup>19</sup>loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.

19 Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall <sup>20</sup>agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father who is in heaven.

20 For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

21 Then came <sup>21</sup>Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I <sup>22</sup>forgive him? till seven times?

22 Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven.

23 Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, who would make an accounting with his servants.

24 And when he had begun to reckon, one was brought unto him, that sowed him ten thousand talents.

25 But forasmuch as he had naught wherewith to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

27 Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt.

28 But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, that owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest.

29 And his fellow servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all.

30 And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt.

31 So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done.

32 Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me:

33 Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow servant, even as I had pity on thee?

34 And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him.

35 So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause?

4 And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he who made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh?

6 Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

7 They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away?

8 He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her that is put away doth commit adultery.

10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

11 But he said unto them, All men cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given.

12 For there are some eunuchs, who were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, who were made eunuchs by men: and there are eunuchs, that have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let him receive it.

13 Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

15 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence.

16 And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?

17 And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is, God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments.

18 He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no <sup>m</sup>murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, 19 Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

20 The young man saith unto him, All these things have I kept <sup>4</sup>from my <sup>n</sup>youth up: what lack I yet?

21 Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in <sup>o</sup>heaven: and come and follow me.

22 But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

23 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That a <sup>9</sup>rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven.

24 And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the <sup>e</sup>ye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

25 When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved?

26 But Jesus beheld them, and said unto them, With men this is <sup>i</sup>impossible; but with God all things are possible.

27 Then answered <sup>i</sup>Peter and said unto him, Behold, we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore?

28 And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye who have followed me, in the <sup>u</sup>regeneration <sup>v</sup>when the Son of man shall sit in the <sup>w</sup>throne of his <sup>x</sup>glory, ye also shall sit upon <sup>y</sup>twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

29 And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, <sup>o</sup>or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

30 But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

morning to hire labourers into his <sup>b</sup>vineyard.

2 And when he had <sup>c</sup>agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace,

4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.

5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.

6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day <sup>1</sup>idle?

7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; <sup>2</sup>and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.

8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their <sup>d</sup>hire, beginning from the last unto the first.

9 And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.

10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny.

11 And when they had received it, they <sup>e</sup> murmured against the good-man of the house,

12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, who have borne the burden and heat of the day.

13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou <sup>f</sup>agree with me for a penny?

14 Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.

15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine <sup>g</sup>eye evil, because I am good?

16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: <sup>3</sup>for many be <sup>h</sup>called, but few <sup>i</sup>chosen.

17 And Jesus going up to <sup>j</sup>Jerusalem took the <sup>k</sup>twelve <sup>l</sup>disciples apart in the way, and said unto them,

18 Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be <sup>4</sup>be-trayed unto the chief priests and unto the <sup>m</sup>scribes, and they shall <sup>n</sup>condemn him to death,

19 And shall deliver him to the <sup>o</sup>Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and to crucify: and the third day he shall rise again.

20 Then came to him the mother of <sup>o</sup>Zebedee's <sup>o</sup>children with her sons, worshipping him, and desiring a certain thing of him.

21 And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, in thy kingdom.

22 But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the <sup>o</sup>baptism that I am baptized with? They say unto him, We are able.

23 And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared of my Father.

24 And when the ten heard it, they were moved with <sup>o</sup>indignation against the two brethren.

25 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise <sup>o</sup>dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority upon them.

26 But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will be great among you, let him be your <sup>o</sup>minister;

27 And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your <sup>o</sup>servant:

28 Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a <sup>o</sup>ransom for many.

29 And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed him.

30 And, behold, two <sup>o</sup>blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of <sup>o</sup>David.

31 And the multitude rebuked them, that they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou son of David.

AND when they drew nigh unto <sup>o</sup>Jerusalem, and were come to <sup>o</sup>Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two <sup>o</sup>disciples,

2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: <sup>o</sup>loose them, and bring them unto me.

3 And if any man say aught unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them.

4 All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

5 Tell ye the daughter of <sup>o</sup>Sion, Behold, thy <sup>o</sup>King cometh unto thee, <sup>o</sup>meek, and sitting upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.

6 And the disciples went, and did as Jesus commanded them,

7 And brought the ass, and the colt, and put on them their clothes, and <sup>o</sup>they set him thereon.

8 And a very great multitudes spread their <sup>o</sup>garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strewed them in the way.

9 And the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, <sup>o</sup>Hosanna to the son of <sup>o</sup>David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the <sup>o</sup>highest.

10 And when he was come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this?

11 And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of <sup>o</sup>Galilee.

12 And Jesus went into the temple <sup>o</sup>of God, and cast out all them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the <sup>o</sup>money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves, 13 And said unto them, It is written, <sup>o</sup>My house shall be called a house of prayer; but ye are making it a den of robbers.

14 And the <sup>o</sup>blind and the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them.

15 And when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, 'Hosanna to the son of David; they were sore displeased,

16 And said unto him, Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise?

17 And he left them, and went out of the city unto Bethany; and he lodged there.

18 Now in the morning as he returned into the city, he hungered.

19 And when he saw a fig tree in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And at once the fig tree withered away.

20 And when the disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How is it that the fig tree immediately withered away?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done.

22 And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, believing, ye shall receive.

23 And when he was come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority?

24 And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say unto us, Why then did ye not believe him?

26 But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a prophet.

27 And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

26. 31. (Gen.

28 But what think ye? <sup>a</sup>A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.

29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and went.

30 And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not.

31 Which one of the two did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him; and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 Hear another <sup>d</sup>parable: There was a certain householder, who planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise.

37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen?

41 They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out his vineyard unto other husbandmen, who shall render him the fruits in their seasons.

42 Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the /corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our <sup>h</sup>eyes?

43 Therefore say I unto you, The /kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof.

44 <sup>a</sup>And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

45 And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them.

46 But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

CHAPTER 22.

AND Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said,

2 The kingdom of heaven is <sup>a</sup>like unto a certain king, who made a marriage for his son,

3 And sent forth his servants to call to the wedding those that were bidden: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them that are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and <sup>m</sup>my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: <sup>b</sup>come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of <sup>it</sup>, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and treated <sup>them</sup> evilly, and slew <sup>them</sup>.

7 But when the king heard <sup>thereof</sup>, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and <sup>c</sup>destroyed those <sup>a</sup>murderers, and burned up their city.

8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they that were bidden were not <sup>e</sup>worthy.

9 Go ye therefore into the crossings of the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.

10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

11 And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who had not on a wedding /garment:

ing a wedding garment? And he was speechless.

13 Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast <sup>him</sup> into the outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

14 For many are <sup>s</sup>called, but few are <sup>h</sup>chosen.

15 Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in <sup>his</sup> talk.

16 And they sent out unto him their <sup>2</sup>disciples with the /Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any <sup>man</sup>: for thou regardest not the person of men.

17 Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto <sup>h</sup>Cæsar, or not?

18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why <sup>t</sup>tempt ye me, ye <sup>m</sup>hypocrites?

19 Show me the tribute <sup>n</sup>money. And they brought unto him a penny.

20 And he saith unto them, Whose <sup>is</sup> this image and superscription?

21 They say unto him, Cæsar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto <sup>c</sup>Cæsar the things which are Cæsar's; and unto God the things that are God's.

22 When they had heard <sup>these</sup> words, they marvelled, and left him, and went their way.

23 The same day came to him the <sup>p</sup>Sadducees, who say that there is no <sup>q</sup>resurrection, and asked him,

24 Saying, Master, <sup>r</sup>Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

25 Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left his wife unto his brother:

26 Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.

27 And last of all the woman died also.

28 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they all had her.

29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God.

30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in <sup>s</sup>marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.

31 But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read <sup>1</sup>that which was spoken unto you by God, saying, 32 "I am the God of <sup>v</sup>Abraham, and the God of <sup>w</sup>Isaac, and the God of <sup>x</sup>Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living.

33 And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished at his <sup>y</sup>teaching.

34 But when the Pharisees had heard that he had put the <sup>z</sup>Sadducees to silence they were gathered together.

35 Then one of them, who was a lawyer, asked him a question, <sup>a</sup>tempting him, and saying,

36 Master, which is the great commandment in the <sup>b</sup>law?

37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy <sup>c</sup>heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

38 This is the first and great commandment.

39 And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

40 On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

41 While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them,

42 Saying, What think ye of the Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, The son of <sup>d</sup>David.

43 He saith unto them, How then doth David in the <sup>e</sup>Spirit call him Lord, saying, 44 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool?

45 If David then call him Lord, how is he his son?

46 And no man was able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

CHAPTER 23.

THEN spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his <sup>a</sup>disciples,

2 Saying, The <sup>b</sup>scribes and the <sup>c</sup>Pharisees sit in <sup>d</sup>Moses' seat:

3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not.

4 For they bind heavy <sup>e</sup>burdens and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers.

5 But all their works they do for to be seen of men: they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their <sup>v</sup>garments,

6 And love the uppermost places at feasts, and the chief seats in the synagogues,

7 And greetings in the markets, and to be called of men, Rabbi.

8 But be not ye called Rabbi: for one is your <sup>g</sup>Master, even Christ; and all ye are <sup>h</sup>brethren.

9 And call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, who is in heaven.

10 Neither be ye called leaders: for one is your Leader, even Christ.

11 But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant.

12 And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and he that shall <sup>i</sup>humble himself shall be exalted.

14 <sup>k</sup>Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour <sup>l</sup>widows' houses, and for a <sup>m</sup>pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater condemnation.

15 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one <sup>n</sup>proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more <sup>o</sup>the child of hell than yourselves.

16 Woe unto you, ye <sup>p</sup>blind guides, that say, Whosoever shall swear by the sanctuary, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the sanctuary, he is a debtor!

17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the sanctuary that <sup>q</sup>sanctifieth the gold?

18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is <sup>r</sup>guilty.

19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.

21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.

22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.

23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay <sup>9</sup> tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

24 Ye blind guides, who strain out the gnat, and swallow a camel.

25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make <sup>7</sup> clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.

26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first the inside of the cup and platter, that the outside of them may be clean also.

28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,

30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.

31 Wherefore ye are witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the <sup>3</sup> children of them that killed the prophets.

32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.

33 Ye <sup>7</sup> serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye escape the judgment of <sup>4</sup> hell?

34 Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and <sup>7</sup> scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and <sup>4</sup> crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

35 That upon you may come all the righteous blood <sup>7</sup> shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous <sup>2</sup> Abel unto the blood of Zachariah son of Barachiah, whom ye slew between the sanctuary and the altar.

36 Verily I say unto you, All these things shall come upon this generation.

CHAPTER 24.

AND Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his <sup>2</sup> disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple.

2 And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples <sup>1</sup> came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the <sup>1</sup> sign of thy <sup>1</sup> coming, and of the <sup>2</sup> end of the world?

4 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you.

5 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

6 And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the <sup>1</sup> end is not yet.

7 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be <sup>1</sup> famines, and <sup>1</sup> pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places.

8 All these are the beginning of sorrows.

9 Then shall they deliver you up to be <sup>1</sup> afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all the nations for my name's sake.

10 And then shall many be stumbled, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.

11 And many false <sup>1</sup> prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.

12 And because iniquity shall abound, the love of the most shall grow cold.

13 But he that shall <sup>1</sup> endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

14 And this <sup>1</sup> gospel of the kingdom shall be <sup>1</sup> preached in all the <sup>1</sup> world for a <sup>1</sup> witness unto all the nations; and then shall the end come.

15 When ye therefore shall see the <sup>12</sup>abomination of <sup>13</sup>desolation, <sup>14</sup>spoken of by <sup>15</sup>Daniel the prophet, standing in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him <sup>16</sup>understand;) 16 Then let them that are in Judæa flee into the mountains:

17 Let him that is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him that is in the field return back to take his clothes.

19 And woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

21 For then shall be <sup>22</sup>great tribulation, such as was not since the <sup>23</sup>beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be.

22 And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the <sup>24</sup>elect's sake those days shall be shortened.

23 Then if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is the Christ, or there; believe it not.

24 For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall show great <sup>25</sup>signs and wonders; inasmuch that, if it were <sup>26</sup>possible, they shall deceive the very elect.

25 Behold, I have told you before. 26 Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; believe it not.

27 For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and <sup>28</sup>shineth even unto the west; so shall also the <sup>29</sup>coming of the Son of man be.

28 For whosoever the <sup>30</sup>Ycarcase is, there will the <sup>31</sup>vultures be gathered together.

the <sup>1</sup>clouds of heaven with power and great <sup>2</sup>glory.

32 Now learn a <sup>1</sup>parable of the <sup>2</sup>fig tree; When its branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh:

33 So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that he is near, even at the doors.

34 Verily I say unto you, This <sup>35</sup>generation shall not pass, till all these things be fulfilled.

35 Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away.

36 But of that day and hour knoweth no one, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.

37 But as the days of Noah were, so shall also the <sup>38</sup>coming of the Son of man be.

38 For as in the days that were before the <sup>39</sup>flood they were eating and <sup>40</sup>drinking, <sup>41</sup>marrying and giving in marriage, <sup>42</sup>until the day that Noah <sup>43</sup>entered into the ark,

39 And knew not until the <sup>40</sup>flood came, and took them all away; <sup>41</sup>so shall also the <sup>42</sup>coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

41 Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

42 <sup>1</sup>Watch therefore: for ye know not <sup>2</sup>what hour your Lord doth come.

43 But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken through.

44 Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

45 Who then is that faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give them meat in due season?

46 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

47 Verily I say unto you, That he shall make him ruler over all his goods.

48 But if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming;

49 And shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken;

50 The lord of that servant shall *w*come in a day when he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

51 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the *h*ypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

CHAPTER 25.

THEN shall the kingdom of heaven be *l*ikened unto ten *v*irgins, who took their *l*amps, and went forth to meet the *b*ridegroom.

2 And five of them were wise, and five were *f*oolish.

3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:

4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.

5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all *s*lumbered and slept.

6 And at midnight there was a cry made, Behold, the bridegroom *c*ometh; go ye out to meet him.

7 Then all those *v*irgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 And the foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are going out.

9 But the wise answered, saying, *N*ot so; lest there be not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.

10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage feast: and the *d*oor was shut.

11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.

12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.

13 *W*atch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour<sup>1</sup>.

14 For *i*t is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five *t*alents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and gained other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's *m*oney.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five *m*talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

24 Then he that had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, *r*eaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strewed:

25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him, *T*hou wicked and *s*lothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strewed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my *m*oney to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with *i*nterest.

28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him that hath ten talents.

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath.

30 And cast ye the *u*nprofitable servant into the outer darkness:

there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 When the Son of man shall come in his <sup>1</sup>glory, and all the <sup>2</sup>holy angels with him, <sup>3</sup>then shall he sit upon the throne of his glory:

32 And before him shall be gathered all the nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a <sup>4</sup>shepherd divideth the <sup>5</sup>sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35 For I was an <sup>1</sup>hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was <sup>2</sup>thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a <sup>3</sup>stranger, and ye took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was <sup>4</sup>sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an <sup>1</sup>hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the <sup>1</sup>devil and his angels:

42 For I was an <sup>1</sup>hungered, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink:

43 I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not.

44 Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an <sup>1</sup>hungered, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee?

45 Then shall he answer them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of

CHAPTER 26.

AND it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his <sup>1</sup>disciples,

2 Ye know that after two days is the feast of the <sup>3</sup>passover, and the Son of man is <sup>4</sup>betrayed to be <sup>5</sup>crucified.

3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the <sup>1</sup>scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the <sup>2</sup>high priest, who was called <sup>3</sup>Caiaphas,

4 And consulted that they might take Jesus by subtlety, and kill him.

5 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar among the people.

6 Now when Jesus was in <sup>1</sup>Bethany, in the house of <sup>2</sup>Simon the <sup>3</sup>leper,

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had <sup>1</sup>indignation, saying, To what <sup>2</sup>purpose is this waste?

9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial.

13 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever this <sup>1</sup>gospel shall be preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a <sup>2</sup>memorial of her.

14 Then one of the twelve, called <sup>1</sup>Judas <sup>2</sup>Isariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And <sup>1</sup>they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I?

23 And he answered and said, He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had been good for that man if he had not been born.

25 Then Judas, who betrayed him, answered and said, Rabbi, is it I? He said unto him, Thou hast said.

26 And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, Take, eat; this is my body.

27 And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it;

28 For this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.

29 But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.

30 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

31 Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered abroad.

32 But after I am risen again, I will go before you into Galilee.

33 Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.

34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice.

35 Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise also said all the disciples.

36 Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, while I go and pray yonder.

37 And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.

38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch with me.

39 And he went a little farther, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, but as thou wilt.

40 And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour?

41 Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.

42 He went away again in the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done.

43 And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy.

44 And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45 Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me.

47 And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast.

49 And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, Rabbi; and kissed him.

50 And Jesus said unto him, <sup>4</sup>Friend, <sup>5</sup>wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him.

51 And, behold, one of them that were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest, and smote off his ear.

52 Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into its place: for <sup>6</sup>all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword.

53 Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall instantly give me more than twelve legions of angels?

54 But how then shall the scriptures be <sup>7</sup>fulfilled, that <sup>8</sup>thus it must be?

55 In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a robber with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me.

56 But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled.

57 And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to <sup>9</sup>Caiaphas the high priest, where the <sup>10</sup>scribes and the elders were assembled.

58 But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's court, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end.

59 Now the chief priests, and <sup>11</sup>elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death;

60 But found none, though many false witnesses came. At the last came two false witnesses,

61 And said, This man said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to rebuild it in <sup>12</sup>three days.

62 And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it that these witness against thee?

63 But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I <sup>13</sup>adjure thee by the living God, that thou tell us whether thou art the Christ, the Son of God.

64 Jesus saith unto him, <sup>14</sup>Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and <sup>15</sup>coming in the clouds of heaven.

65 Then the high priest rent his

67 Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him with the palms of their hands,

68 Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou Christ, Who is he that smote thee?

69 Now Peter sat without in the court: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with Jesus of <sup>2</sup>Galilee.

70 But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest.

CHAPTER 27.

WHEN the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death:

2 And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him to <sup>1</sup>Pontius <sup>2</sup>Pilate the governor.

3 Then <sup>3</sup>Judas, who had betrayed him, when he saw that he was <sup>4</sup>condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed <sup>5</sup>innocent blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that.

5 And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and went and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the treasury, because it is the price of blood.

7 And they took counsel, and bought with them the <sup>e</sup>potter's field, to bury strangers in.

8 Wherefore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day.

9 Then was fulfilled that which was spoken by <sup>f</sup>Jeremiah the prophet, saying, And they took the <sup>g</sup>thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value;

10 And gave them for the <sup>h</sup>potter's field, as the Lord appointed me.

11 And Jesus stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest.

12 And when he was <sup>i</sup>accused of the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

13 Then said Pilate unto him, Hearst thou not how many things they witness against thee?

14 And he answered him never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

15 Now at <sup>j</sup>that feast the governor was wont to <sup>k</sup>release unto the people a prisoner, whom they would.

16 And they had then a notable prisoner, called <sup>l</sup>Barabbas.

17 Therefore when they were gathered together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? <sup>m</sup>Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?

18 For he knew that for <sup>n</sup>envy they had delivered him.

19 When he was set down on the judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have <sup>o</sup>suffered many things this day in a <sup>p</sup>dream because of him.

20 But the chief priests and elders <sup>q</sup>persuaded the multitude that they should ask for Barabbas, and destroy Jesus.

21 The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.

22 Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus who is called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be <sup>r</sup>crucified.

23 And the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified.

24 When Pilate saw that he could prevail nothing, but <sup>j</sup>that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed <sup>k</sup>his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye <sup>l</sup>to it.

25 Then answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children.

26 Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when he had scourged Jesus, he delivered <sup>m</sup>him to be crucified.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the <sup>n</sup>common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band <sup>o</sup>of soldiers.

28 And they stripped him, and put on him a <sup>p</sup>scarlet <sup>q</sup>robe.

29 And when they had platted a <sup>r</sup>crown of thorns, they put <sup>s</sup>it upon his head, and a <sup>t</sup>reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and <sup>u</sup>mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews!

30 And they spat upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head.

31 And after they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify <sup>v</sup>him.

32 And as they came out, they found a man of <sup>w</sup>Cyrene, Simon by name: him they <sup>x</sup>compelled to bear his cross.

33 And when they were come unto a place called <sup>y</sup>Golgotha, that is to say, The place of a <sup>z</sup>skull, 34 They gave him <sup>a</sup>vinegar to <sup>b</sup>drink mingled with <sup>c</sup>gall: and when he had <sup>d</sup>tasted <sup>e</sup>thereof, he would not drink.

35 And they crucified him, and parted his <sup>f</sup>garments, casting lots: <sup>g</sup>that it might be <sup>h</sup>fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, <sup>i</sup>They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots.

36 And sitting down they watched him there;

37 And set up over his head his <sup>j</sup>accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

38 Then were there two <sup>k</sup>thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left.

39 And they that passed by reviled him, <sup>l</sup>wagging their heads,

40 And saying, Thou that destroyest the <sup>m</sup>temple, and buildest <sup>n</sup>it in three days, save thyself. <sup>k</sup>If thou art the Son of God, come down from the cross.

41 Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the <sup>i</sup>scribes and elders, said, 42 He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he is the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him.

43 <sup>j</sup>He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God.

44 The <sup>h</sup>thieves also, that were <sup>k</sup>crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth.

45 Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, <sup>i</sup>saying, <sup>m</sup>Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?

47 Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for <sup>n</sup>Elijah.

48 And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with <sup>o</sup>vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink.

49 The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elijah will come to save him.<sup>10</sup>

50 Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up his <sup>p</sup>spirit.

51 And, behold, the <sup>q</sup>veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did <sup>r</sup>quake, and the rocks were rent;

52 And the <sup>s</sup>graves were opened; and many bodies of the <sup>t</sup>saints that slept <sup>u</sup>arose,

53 And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the <sup>v</sup>holy city, and appeared unto many.

54 Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was <sup>w</sup>the Son of God.

55 And many women were there beholding afar off, who had followed Jesus from <sup>x</sup>Galilee, ministering unto him:

59 And when Joseph had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth,

60 And laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the <sup>c</sup>sepulchre, and departed.

61 And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over against the sepulchre.

62 Now the next day, that followed the day of the preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees came together unto Pilate, 63 Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he was yet alive, After three days I will rise again.

64 Command therefore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come <sup>d</sup>12, and steal him away, and say unto the people, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first.

CHAPTER 28.

IN the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the <sup>a</sup>sepulchre.

2 And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it.

3 His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment <sup>b</sup>white as snow:

4 And for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, who was crucified.

6 He is not here: for <sup>c</sup>he is risen, as he said. <sup>d</sup>Come, see the place where the Lord lay.

7 And go <sup>e</sup>quickly, and tell his <sup>f</sup>disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into <sup>g</sup>Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you.

8 And they departed quickly from the sepulchre with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and worshipped him.

10 Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my <sup>h</sup>brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they see me.

11 Now when they were going, behold, some of the guard came into the city, and showed unto the chief priests all the things that were done.

CHAPTER 1.

THE <sup>a</sup>beginning of the <sup>b</sup>gospel of Jesus Christ, <sup>1</sup>the Son of God;
2 As it is written in Isaiah the prophet, <sup>c</sup>Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee.

3 The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

4 <sup>d</sup>John came <sup>e</sup>baptizing in the wilderness, and preaching a baptism of <sup>f</sup>repentance unto the <sup>g</sup>remission of sins.

5 And there went out unto him all the <sup>h</sup>land of <sup>i</sup>Judæa, and all they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river Jordan, <sup>j</sup>confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey;

7 And preached, saying, There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and <sup>k</sup>unloose.

8 I indeed have baptized you <sup>l</sup>with water: but he shall baptize you with the <sup>m</sup>Holy Spirit.

9 And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from Nazareth of <sup>n</sup>Galilee, and was baptized of John in the Jordan.

10 And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opening, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him:

11 And there came a voice from <sup>o</sup>heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

12 And immediately the Spirit driveth him into the wilderness.

13 And he was there in the wilderness forty days, <sup>p</sup>tempted of <sup>q</sup>Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him.

14 Now after that <sup>r</sup>John was put in <sup>s</sup>prison, Jesus came into <sup>t</sup>Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God,

15 And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel.

16 Now as he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw <sup>1</sup>Simon and <sup>2</sup>Andrew his brother casting a net into the sea: for they were <sup>3</sup>fishers.

17 And Jesus said unto them, <sup>4</sup>Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men.

18 And straightway they forsook their <sup>5</sup>nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little farther thence, he saw <sup>6</sup>James the son of <sup>7</sup>Zebedee, and <sup>8</sup>John his brother, who also were in the boat mending their nets.

20 And straightway he called them: and they left their father <sup>9</sup>Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, and went after him.

21 And they went into <sup>10</sup>Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.

22 And they were astonished at his <sup>11</sup>doctrine: for he taught them as one that had authority, and not as the <sup>12</sup>scribes.

23 And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 Saying, <sup>13</sup>Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

26 And when the unclean spirit had torn him, and cried with a loud voice, <sup>14</sup>he came out of him.

27 And they were all amazed, inasmuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do obey him.

28 And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout all the region round about Galilee.

29 And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John.

30 But Simon's wife's mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her.

31 And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately the fever left her, and she ministered unto them.

32 And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, and them that were possessed with demons.

33 And all the city was gathered together at the door.

34 And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many demons; and suffered not the demons to speak, because they knew him.

35 And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a solitary place, and there prayed.

36 And Simon and they that were with him followed after him.

37 And when they had found him, they said unto him, All men seek for thee.

38 And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: for therefore came I forth.

39 And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out demons.

40 And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

41 And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean.

42 And as soon as he had spoken, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

43 And he charged him strictly, and forthwith sent him away;

44 And saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them.

45 But he went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into a city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them.

3 And they come unto him, bringing one sick of the palsy, who was borne of four.

4 And when they could not come nigh unto him for the multitude, they uncovered the roof where he was: and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed whereon the sick of the palsy lay.

5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee.

6 But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And immediately when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Whether is it easier to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

10 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath authority on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,)

11 I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go thy way into thine house.

12 And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.

13 And he went forth again by the sea side; and all the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them.

14 And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphæus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed him.

15 And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples: for there were many, and they followed him.

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners?

17 When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the <sup>m</sup>physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners <sup>to</sup> "repentance.

18 And the disciples of <sup>o</sup>John and of the Pharisees were holding a fast: and they came and said unto him, Why do the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?

19 And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the <sup>p</sup>bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they <sup>q</sup>fast <sup>2</sup>in those days.

21 No man also <sup>r</sup>seweth a piece of new cloth on an old <sup>s</sup>garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.

22 And no man putteth new <sup>t</sup>wine into old wine-skins: else the new wine doth burst the wine-skins, and the wine is spilled, and the wine-skins will be marred: but new wine must be put into new wine-skins.

23 And it came to pass, that he went through the grain fields on the sabbath day; and his <sup>u</sup>disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain.

24 And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which is not lawful?

25 And he said unto them, Have ye never read what <sup>v</sup>David did, when he had need, and was hungered, he, and they that were with him?

26 How he went into the house of God in the days of <sup>w</sup>Abiathar the <sup>x</sup>high priest, and did eat the <sup>y</sup>showbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them that were with him?

27 And he said unto them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:

28 Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

tude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea on the <sup>a</sup>land.

2 And he taught them many things by parables, and said unto them in his <sup>b</sup>doctrine.

3 Hearken; Behold, there went out a <sup>c</sup>sower to sow:

4 And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.

5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth:

6 But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.

7 And some fell among thorns, and the thorns <sup>d</sup>grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.

8 And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundredfold.

9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve asked of him the parable.

11 And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the <sup>e</sup>mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto them that are without, all these things are done in parables:

12 That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be <sup>f</sup>converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.

13 And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

14 The sower soweth the word.

15 And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, <sup>g</sup>Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 And these are they likewise that are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;

17 And have no root in themselves, and so <sup>h</sup>endure but for a time: afterward, when <sup>i</sup>affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they stumble.

18 And these are they that are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,

20 And those are they that were sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred.

21 And he said unto them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a <sup>n</sup>candlestick?

22 For there is nothing <sup>o</sup>hid, which shall not be <sup>p</sup>manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad.

23 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

24 And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given.

25 For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.

26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;

27 And should sleep and rise, night and day, and the seed should spring and <sup>q</sup>grow up, he knoweth not how.

28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the <sup>r</sup>sickle, because the <sup>s</sup>harvest is come.

30 And he said, Whereunto shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?

31 It is like a grain of <sup>t</sup>mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that are in the earth:

32 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the <sup>u</sup>shadow of it.

CHAPTER 5.

AND they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the country of the <sup>1a</sup>Gadarenes.

2 And when he was come out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:

4 Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been pulled asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.

5 And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.

6 But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped him,

7 And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most <sup>b</sup>High God? I <sup>c</sup>adjure thee by God, that thou <sup>d</sup>torment me not.

8 For he said unto him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.

9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And all the demons besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. / And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine; and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

14 And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.

15 And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the demon, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

16 And they that saw it told them how it befell to him that was possessed with the demon, and also concerning the swine.

17 And they began to pray him to depart from their regions.

18 And when he was come into the boat, he that had been possessed with the demon prayed him that he might be with him.

19 Howbeit Jesus suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.

20 And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel.

21 And when Jesus was passed over again by boat unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea.

22 And, behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,

23 And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed, and live.

24 And Jesus went with him;

41 And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee, arise.

42 And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.

43 And he strictly charged them that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

CHAPTER 6.

AND he went out from thence, and came into his own country; and his <sup>a</sup>disciples follow him.

2 And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?

3 Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of <sup>b</sup>James, and <sup>c</sup>Joses, and of Judas, and <sup>d</sup>Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were <sup>e</sup>disquieted by him.

4 But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.

5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he <sup>f</sup>laid his hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them.

6 And he marvelled because of their <sup>g</sup>unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.

7 And he called unto him the <sup>h</sup>twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;

8 And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no bag, no bread, no <sup>i</sup>money in their girdle:

9 But be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.

10 And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till ye depart from that place.

11 And whosoever shall not <sup>k</sup>receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a <sup>l</sup>testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for 12 And they went out, and preached that men should <sup>l</sup>repent.

13 And they <sup>m</sup>cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.

14 And king <sup>n</sup>Herod heard of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That <sup>o</sup>John the <sup>p</sup>Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.

15 Others said, That it is <sup>q</sup>Elijah. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.

16 But when <sup>r</sup>Herod heard thereof, he said, It is <sup>s</sup>John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead.

17 For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in <sup>t</sup>prison for <sup>u</sup>Herodias' sake, his brother <sup>v</sup>Philip's wife: for he had married her.

18 For John had said unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

19 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

20 For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just man and an <sup>w</sup>holy, and he watched him; and when he had heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.

21 And when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday made a <sup>x</sup>supper to his lords, high captains, and chief persons of <sup>y</sup>Galilee;

22 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.

23 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom.

24 And she went forth, and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the <sup>z</sup>Baptist.

25 And she came in straightway with haste unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me immediately on a charger the head of John the Baptist.

26 And the king was exceeding sorry; yet for his <sup>a</sup>oath's sake, and for their sakes who sat with him, he would not refuse her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 And brought his head in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.

29 And when his <sup>b</sup>disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a <sup>c</sup>tomb.

30 And the <sup>d</sup>apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.

31 And he said unto them, <sup>e</sup>Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while. For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

32 And they departed into a desert place by boat privately.

33 And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent them, and came together unto him.

34 And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a <sup>f</sup>shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.

35 And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:

36 Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat.

37 He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred <sup>g</sup>pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?

38 He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.

39 And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.

40 And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.

41 And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided he among them all.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 And straightway he constrained his <sup>d</sup>disciples to get into the boat, and to go to the other side before unto <sup>h</sup>Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.

46 And when he had sent them away, he departed into a mountain to pray.

47 And when even was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the <sup>i</sup>land.

48 And he saw them <sup>j</sup>toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.

49 But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it was a spirit, and cried out:

50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be of good <sup>k</sup>cheer: it is I; be not afraid.

51 And he went up unto them into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.

52 For they understood not the <sup>l</sup>lesson of the loaves. for their heart was <sup>i</sup>hardened.

53 And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.

54 And when they were come out of the boat, straightway they knew him,

55 And ran through that whole region round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.

56 And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the <sup>o</sup>streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his <sup>m</sup>garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

CHAPTER 7.

THEN came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the <sup>a</sup>scribes, who came from <sup>b</sup>Jerusalem.

2 And when they saw some of his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault.

3 For the <sup>c</sup>Pharisees, and all the Jews, unless they wash their hands often, eat not, holding the <sup>a</sup>tradition of the elders.

4 And when they come from the market, unless they <sup>1</sup>wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, <sup>c</sup>brassen vessels, and of <sup>2</sup>tables.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands?

6 He answered and said unto them, Well hath Isaiah prophesied of you <sup>1</sup>/hypocrites, as it is written, <sup>8</sup>This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

7 Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for <sup>b</sup>doctrines the commandments of men.

8 For laying aside <sup>t</sup>the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.

9 And he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition.

10 For Moses said, <sup>7</sup>Honour thy father and thy mother; and, <sup>6</sup>Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death:

11 But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift to God, that whereby thou mightest have been profited by me; he shall be free.

12 And ye suffer him no more to do aught for his father or his mother;

13 Making the word of God of none effect through your <sup>1</sup>tradition, which ye have delivered: and many such like things do ye.

14 And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Harken unto me every one of you, and understand:

15 There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.

16 If any man have ears to hear, let him hear.

17 And when he was entered into the house from the people, his <sup>m</sup>disciples asked him concerning the <sup>n</sup>parable.

19 Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught:—<sup>3</sup>and thus he made clean all meats?

20 And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.

21 For from within, out of the <sup>o</sup>heart of men, proceed evil <sup>p</sup>thoughts, adulteries, <sup>q</sup>fornications, <sup>r</sup>murders,

22 Thefts, <sup>s</sup>covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil <sup>t</sup>eye, <sup>u</sup>blasphemy, pride, foolishness:

23 All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.

24 And from thence he arose, and went into the regions of <sup>v</sup>Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be <sup>w</sup>hid.

25 For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

26 The woman was a <sup>4x</sup>Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter.

27 But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the children's <sup>y</sup>bread, and to cast it unto the <sup>z</sup>dogs.

28 And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the <sup>5</sup>dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.

29 And he said unto her, For this saying go thy way; the demon is gone out of thy daughter.

30 And when she was come to her house, <sup>a</sup>she found the demon gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.

31 And again, departing from the regions of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the Sea of <sup>b</sup>Galilee, through the midst of the territories of Decapolis.

32 And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.

33 And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue;

34 And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened.

35 And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was <sup>d</sup>loosed, and he spake plain.

36 And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it;

37 And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

CHAPTER 8.

IN those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them,

2 I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have had nothing to eat:

3 And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them have come from far.

4 And his <sup>a</sup>disciples answered him, From whence can a man <sup>b</sup>satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave <sup>c</sup>thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people.

7 And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.

8 So they did eat, and <sup>d</sup>were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets.

9 And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he sent them away.

10 And straightway he entered into a boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.

11 And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking of him a <sup>e</sup>sign from heaven, /tempting him.

12 And he sighed deeply in his <sup>f</sup>spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a <sup>h</sup>sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation.

into the boat again departed to the other side.

14 Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the boat with them more than one loaf.

15 And he charged them, saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of <sup>i</sup>Herod.

16 And they <sup>j</sup>reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.

17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet <sup>k</sup>hardened?

18 Having <sup>l</sup>eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?

19 When I brake the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, <sup>m</sup>Twelve.

20 And when the seven among the four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 And he cometh to <sup>n</sup>Bethsaida; and they bring a <sup>o</sup>blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the village; and when he had spat on his <sup>p</sup>eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw aught.

24 And he looked up, and said, I see men, as trees walking.

25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was <sup>q</sup>restored, and saw all things clearly.

26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.

27 And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the villages of <sup>r</sup>Cæsarea Philippi: and on the way he asked his disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that <sup>s</sup>I am?

28 And they answered, <sup>t</sup>John the <sup>u</sup>Baptist: but some say, <sup>v</sup>Elijah; and others, One of the prophets.

29 And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And <sup>w</sup>Peter answereth and saith unto him, <sup>x</sup>Thou art the Christ.

30 And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.

31 And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must <sup>s</sup>suffer many things, and be <sup>r</sup>rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and <sup>s</sup>cribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to <sup>r</sup>ebuke him.

33 But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, <sup>s</sup>Satan: for thou <sup>r</sup>egardest not the things that be of God, but the things that be of men.

34 And when he had called the people unto him with his <sup>d</sup>disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his <sup>c</sup>cross, and follow me.

35 For whosoever will save his life shall <sup>r</sup>lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the <sup>g</sup>ospel's, the same shall save it.

36 For what shall it <sup>h</sup>profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own <sup>s</sup>soul?

37 Or what shall a man give in exchange for his <sup>s</sup>soul?

38 Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this <sup>i</sup>adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he <sup>j</sup>cometh in the <sup>k</sup>glory of his Father with the <sup>h</sup>oly angels.

6 For he knew not what to say; for they were sore afraid.

7 And there was a <sup>k</sup>cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.

8 And <sup>i</sup>suddenly, when they had looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.

9 And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.

10 And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.

11 And they asked him, saying, Why say the <sup>m</sup>scribes that Elijah must first come?

12 And he answered and told them, Elijah verily cometh first, and <sup>r</sup>restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must <sup>s</sup>suffer many things, and be set at naught.

13 But I say unto you, That Elijah is indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him.

14 And when he came to the disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and scribes questioning with them.

15 And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him.

16 And he asked the scribes, What dispute ye with them?

17 And one of the multitude answered and said, <sup>i</sup>Master, I have brought unto thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit;

18 And wheresoever he taketh him, he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not.

19 He answereth them, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me.

20 And they brought him unto him: and when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming.

21 And he asked his father, How long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, From childhood.

22 And oftentimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.

23 Jesus said unto him, If thou canst! <sup>1</sup>All things are <sup>2</sup>possible to him that believeth.

24 And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou mine <sup>3</sup>unbelief.

25 When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.

26 And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, He is dead.

27 But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.

28 And when he was come into the house, his <sup>1</sup>disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?

29 And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer <sup>2</sup>and fasting.

30 And they departed thence, and passed through <sup>4</sup>Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.

31 For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, he shall rise <sup>3</sup>the third day.

32 But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.

33 And he came to <sup>5</sup>Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?

34 But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.

35 And he sat down, and called the <sup>6</sup>twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

36 And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when

2 And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? <sup>b</sup>tempting him.

3 And he answered and said unto them, What did <sup>c</sup>Moses command you?

4 And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of <sup>d</sup>divorcement, and to put her away.

5 And Jesus answered and said unto them, For the hardness of your heart <sup>e</sup>he wrote you this precept.

6 But from the <sup>f</sup>beginning of the <sup>g</sup>creation God made them male and female.

7 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;

8 And they twain shall be one flesh: so then they are no more twain, but one flesh.

9 What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder.

10 And in the house his <sup>h</sup>disciples asked him again of the same matter.

11 And he saith unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and <sup>i</sup>marry another, committeth <sup>j</sup>adultery against her.

12 And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.

20 And he answered and said unto him, <sup>1</sup>Master, all these have I observed from my <sup>4</sup>youth.

21 Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have <sup>m</sup>treasure in heaven: and <sup>n</sup>come, <sup>20</sup>and follow me.

22 And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.

23 And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have <sup>p</sup>riches enter into the kingdom of God!

24 And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for <sup>q</sup>them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!

25 It is easier for a camel to go through the <sup>r</sup>eye of a needle, than for a <sup>7</sup>rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?

27 And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with <sup>s</sup>God: for with God all things are <sup>s</sup>possible.

28 Then <sup>t</sup>Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.

29 And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, <sup>4</sup>or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the <sup>u</sup>gospel's.

30 But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and <sup>v</sup>lands, with persecutions; and in the <sup>5</sup>world to come eternal life.

31 But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.

32 Now they were in the way going up to <sup>w</sup>Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and they that followed were afraid. And he took again the <sup>x</sup>twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen unto him,

33 Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles:

34 And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill him: and the third day he shall rise again.

35 And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldst do for us whatsoever we shall ask.

36 And he said unto them, What would ye that I should do for you?

37 They said unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.

38 But Jesus said unto them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized withal shall ye be baptized?

39 And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized:

40 But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

41 And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.

42 But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, Ye know that they that are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.

43 But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:

44 And whosoever of you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all.

45 For even the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.

AND when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,

2 And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him.

3 And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither.

4 And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.

5 And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the colt?

6 And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.

8 And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off the trees, and strewed them in the way.

9 And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord:

10 Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.

11 And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the <sup>7</sup>twelve.

12 And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, he was <sup>8</sup>hungry:

13 And seeing a <sup>1</sup>fig <sup>m</sup>tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

17 And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, <sup>9</sup>My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations? But ye have made it a den of robbers.

18 And the <sup>10</sup>scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because the whole people was astonished at his <sup>11</sup>teaching.

19 And when even was come, they went out of the city.

20 And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.

21 And <sup>12</sup>Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, <sup>13</sup>Master, behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away.

22 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God.

23 For verily I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith.

CHAPTER 12.

AND he began to speak unto them by <sup>ab</sup>parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set an <sup>c</sup>hedge about it, and digged a place for the winepress, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

2 And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.

3 And they caught him, and beat him, and sent him away empty.

4 And again he sent unto them another servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.

5 And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, They will <sup>a</sup>reverence my son.

7 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.

10 And have ye not read this scripture: 'The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the <sup>j</sup>corner;

11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our <sup>e</sup>eyes?

12 And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went their way.

13 And they sent unto him certain of the Pharisees and of the <sup>h</sup>Herodians, to catch him in his words.

14 And when they were come, they say unto him, <sup>1</sup>Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to <sup>i</sup>Cæsar, or not?

15 Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why <sup>j</sup>tempt ye me? bring me a <sup>2</sup>penny, that I may see it.

16 And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said unto him, Cæsar's.

17 And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they marvelled at him.

18 Then come unto him the <sup>k</sup>Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,

22 And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.

23 In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her to wife.

24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?

25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels that are in heaven.

26 And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God <sup>m</sup>spake unto him, saying, 'I am the God of <sup>o</sup>Abraham, and the God of <sup>p</sup>Isaac, and the God of <sup>q</sup>Jacob?

27 He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

28 And one of the <sup>r</sup>scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?

29 And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, <sup>s</sup>Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord:

30 And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.

31 And the second is like, <sup>t</sup>namely this, 'Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these.

32 And the scribe said unto him, Well, <sup>u</sup>Master, thou hast said the truth: for <sup>v</sup>there is one God; and there is none other but he:

33 And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is far more than all whole <sup>w</sup>burnt offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that the Christ is the son of <sup>v</sup>David?

36 <sup>w</sup>For David himself said by the <sup>x</sup>Holy Spirit, <sup>y</sup>The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

37 David therefore himself calleth him Lord; and whence is he then his son? And <sup>4</sup>the common people heard him gladly.

38 And he said unto them in his teaching, Beware of the scribes, who love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the market-places,

39 And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts: 40 Who devour widows' houses, and for a <sup>z</sup>pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater condemnation.

41 And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast <sup>a</sup>money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.

42 And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.

43 And he called unto him his <sup>b</sup>disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they that have cast into the treasury:

44 For all they did cast in out of their abundance; but she of her poverty did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

2 And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

3 And as he sat upon the mount of Olives over against the temple, <sup>b</sup>Peter and <sup>c</sup>James and John and <sup>d</sup>Andrew asked him privately,

4 Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the <sup>e</sup>sign when all these things are about to be fulfilled?

5 And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest any deceive you:

6 For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many.

7 And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be not troubled: for these things must come to pass; but the end is not yet.

8 For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be *3*famines<sup>2</sup>: these are the beginning of *3*sorrows.

9 But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a <sup>h</sup>testimony unto them.

10 And the <sup>2</sup>gospel must first be preached among all nations.

11 But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the <sup>2</sup>Holy Spirit.

12 Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, and shall cause them to be put to death.

13 And ye shall be hated by all men for my name's sake: but he that shall <sup>h</sup>endure unto the end, the same shall be saved.

15 And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take any thing out of his house:

16 And let him that is in the field not turn back again to take up his <sup>2</sup>garment.

17 But woe to them that are with child, and to them that give suck in those days!

18 And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.

19 For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the <sup>2</sup>beginning of the <sup>2</sup>creation which God created unto this time, neither shall be.

20 And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved: but for the <sup>2</sup>elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

21 And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not:

22 For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall show signs and wonders, to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

23 But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.

24 But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,

25 And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.

26 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

27 And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.

28 Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When its branch has now become tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:

29 So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things coming to pass, know that he is nigh, even at the doors.

30 Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

32 But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son, but only the Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

34 It is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, to every man his work, and also commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:

36 Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping.

37 And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

CHAPTER 14.

AFTER two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

3 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he reclined at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation among themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whosoever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body unto the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

12 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is <sup>a</sup>the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

17 And in the evening he cometh with the <sup>r</sup>twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you that eateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and <sup>a</sup>another said, Is it I?

20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 And as they did eat, Jesus took <sup>b</sup>bread, and blessed, and brake it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my <sup>b</sup>body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given <sup>u</sup>thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, This is my blood of the <sup>v</sup>new <sup>5w</sup>covenant, which is <sup>x</sup>shed for many.

25 Verily I say unto you, I will <sup>y</sup>drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 And when they had sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives.

27 And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the <sup>z</sup>shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.

28 But after that I am risen, I will go before you into <sup>a</sup>Galilee.

29 But <sup>b</sup>Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.

30 And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice.

31 But he spake the more vehemently, If I must die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.

32 And they came to a place which was named <sup>c</sup>Gethsemane: and he saith to his <sup>d</sup>disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

33 And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy;

34 And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful even unto death: tarry ye here, and watch.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were <sup>e</sup>possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, <sup>f</sup>Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt.

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, <sup>g</sup>Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour?

38 <sup>h</sup>Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The <sup>i</sup>spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

39 And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words.

40 And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their <sup>k</sup>eyes were heavy,) neither knew they what to answer him.

41 And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.

42 Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.

43 And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh <sup>l</sup>Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the <sup>m</sup>scribes and the elders.

44 And he that betrayed him had given them a <sup>n</sup>token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.

45 And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, <sup>o</sup>Master, master; and <sup>p</sup>kissed him many times.

46 And they laid their hands on him, and took him.

47 And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the <sup>q</sup>high priest, and cut off his ear.

48 And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with swords and staves to take me?

49 I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but this is allowed that the scriptures may be fulfilled.

50 And they all forsook him, and fled.

51 And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him:

52 And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

53 And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes.

54 And Peter followed him afar off, even into the court of the high priest: and he sat with the officers, and warmed himself at the fire.

55 And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.

56 For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together.

57 And there arose certain, and bare false witness against him, saying,

58 We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.

59 But neither so did their witness agree together.

60 And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against thee?

61 But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?

62 And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.

63 Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?

64 Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophecy: and the servants did strike him with the palms of their hands.

66 And as Peter was beneath in the court, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

CHAPTER 15.

AND straightway in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.

2 And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering said unto him, Thou sayest it.

3 And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.

4 And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee.

5 But Jesus yet answered nothing; so that Pilate marvelled.

6 Now at that feast he released unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired.

7 And there was one named Barabbas, who lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.

8 And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to do as he had ever done unto them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

10 For he understood that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.

11 But the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them.

12 And Pilate answered and said again unto them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews?

13 And they cried out again, *h*Crucify him.

14 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.

15 And so i Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified.

16 And the soldiers led him away into the court, called Prætorium; and they call together the whole band.

17 And they clothed him with *j*purple, and platted a *k*crown of thorns, and put it about his head,

20 And when they had *n*mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.

21 And they compel one o Simon a *p*Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.

22 And they bring him unto the place q Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a *r*skull.

26 And the superscription of his *w*accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

27 And with him they crucified two robbers; the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.

28 2 And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, 3 And he was numbered with the transgressors.

29 And they that passed by railed on him, j wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, 33 And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.

40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of *d*James the *4*less and of *5*Joses, and Salome;

41 (Who also, when he was in *e*Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women who came up with him unto *f*Jerusalem.

42 And now when the even was come, because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath,

43 Joseph of *g*Arimathæa, an honourable councillor, who also himself *h*waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he knew it of the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a <sup>1</sup>sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of <sup>1</sup>Joses beheld where he was laid.

CHAPTER 16.

AND when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of <sup>a</sup>James, and <sup>b</sup>Salome, had bought sweet <sup>c</sup>spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early in the morning the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

3 And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

4 And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great.

5 And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long <sup>a</sup>white <sup>e</sup>garment; and they were affrighted.

6 And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was <sup>1</sup>crucified: he is risen; he is not here; behold the place where they laid him.

7 But go your way, tell his <sup>8</sup>disciples and <sup>b</sup>Peter that he goeth before you into <sup>1</sup>Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

8 And they went out <sup>1</sup>quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

9 <sup>1</sup>Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons.

10 And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.

11 And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not.

12 After that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country.

13 And they went and told it unto the rest: neither believed they them.

14 Afterward he appeared unto the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their <sup>k</sup>unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them that had seen him after he was risen.

15 And he said unto them, Go ye into all the world, and <sup>1</sup>preach the <sup>m</sup>gospel to every <sup>n</sup>creature.

16 He that believeth and is <sup>o</sup>baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be condemned.

17 And these <sup>p</sup>signs shall follow them that believe; In my name shall they cast out demons; they shall speak with new tongues;

18 They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall <sup>q</sup>lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.

19 So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into <sup>r</sup>heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.

20 And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

CHAPTER 1.

FORASMUCH as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely <sup>1</sup>believed among us,

<sup>8</sup> And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his course, <sup>9</sup> According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

<sup>18</sup> And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

<sup>19</sup> And the angel answering said unto him, I am <sup>7</sup>Gabriel, that stand in the <sup>8</sup>presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to show thee these <sup>9</sup>glad tidings.

<sup>20</sup> And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be <sup>10</sup>fulfilled, because thou believest not my words, which shall be accomplished in their season.

<sup>21</sup> And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

<sup>22</sup> And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple: for he <sup>11</sup>beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

<sup>26</sup> And in the sixth month the angel <sup>13</sup>Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of <sup>14</sup>Galilee, named Nazareth,

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: <sup>5</sup>blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this could be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the <sup>c</sup>Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 And he shall reign over the house of <sup>g</sup>Jacob for ever; and of his <sup>h</sup>kingdom there shall be no <sup>i</sup>end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Spirit shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that <sup>j</sup>holy One that shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy kinswoman Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her <sup>k</sup>old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called <sup>l</sup>barren.

37 For with God nothing shall be <sup>m</sup>impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me <sup>n</sup>according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

39 And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of <sup>o</sup>Judah;

40 And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.

41 And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit:

42 And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

43 And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?

44 For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.

46 And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord,

47 And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour.

48 For he hath regarded the <sup>aa</sup>low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed.

49 For he that is mighty hath done <sup>ab</sup>to me great things; and holy is his name.

50 And his <sup>ac</sup>mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

52 He hath put down the mighty from thrones, and exalted those of low degree.

53 He hath filled the <sup>ad</sup>hungry with good things; and the <sup>ae</sup>rich he hath sent empty away.

54 He hath helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy;

55 As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his <sup>af</sup>seed for ever.

56 And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.

57 Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.

58 And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had showed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.

59 And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to <sup>ag</sup>circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

60 And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called <sup>ah</sup>John.

61 And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.

62 And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.

63 And he asked for a writing table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all.

64 And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue <sup>ai</sup>loosed, and he spake, and praised God.

65 And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill country of Judæa.

66 And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

67 And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,

68 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people,

69 And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David;

70 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, that have been since the world began:

71 That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;

72 To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant;

73 The oath which he sware to our father Abraham,

74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear,

75 In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins,

78 Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high shall visit us,

79 To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing unto Israel.

8 Now, there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing that is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

21 And when eight days were <sup>u</sup>accomplished for the <sup>v</sup>circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, who was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the <sup>w</sup>days of her purification according to the law of <sup>x</sup>Moses were accomplished, they brought him to <sup>y</sup>Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;

24 And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, <sup>z</sup>A pair of turtledoves, or two young <sup>a</sup>pigeons.

25 And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was <sup>b</sup>just and devout, waiting for the <sup>c</sup>consolation of Israel: and the <sup>d</sup>Holy Spirit was upon him.

26 And it was revealed unto him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came by the Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,

28 Then took he him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:

44 But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among <sup>r</sup>their kinsfolk and acquaintance.

45 And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him.

46 And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.

47 And all who heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.

48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.

49 And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? knew ye not that I must be <sup>s</sup>about my Father's business?

50 And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them.

51 And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.

52 And Jesus increased in <sup>t</sup>wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

CHAPTER 3.

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius <sup>a</sup>Cæsar, <sup>b</sup>Pontius <sup>c</sup>Pilate being governor of <sup>d</sup>Judæa, and <sup>e</sup>Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituræa and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene,

3 And he came into all the country about the Jordan, preaching the <sup>j</sup>baptism of <sup>k</sup>repentance unto <sup>l</sup>remission of sins;

4 As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying, <sup>m</sup>"The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his <sup>n</sup>paths straight.

5 Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And all flesh shall see the <sup>o</sup>salvation of God.

7 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the <sup>p</sup>wrath to come?

8 Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of <sup>q</sup>repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have <sup>r</sup>Abraham for father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham.

9 And even now also the ax is laid unto the root of the <sup>s</sup>trees: every tree therefore that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

11 He answereth and saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise.

12 Then came also <sup>t</sup>publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do?

13 And he said unto them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.

14 And the soldiers likewise demanded of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto

15 And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts of <sup>w</sup>John, whether he were the Christ, or not; thou art the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

16 John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed <sup>x</sup>baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the cord of whose sandal I am not worthy to <sup>y</sup>unloose: he shall baptize you <sup>z</sup>with the <sup>2</sup>Holy Spirit and with <sup>a</sup>fire:

4 And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, <sup>a</sup>That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.

5 And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, showed unto him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.

6 And the devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the <sup>e</sup>glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it.

7 If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.

8 And Jesus answered and said unto him, <sup>4</sup>Get thee behind me, <sup>f</sup>Satan: for it is written, <sup>g</sup>Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.

9 And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence:

10 For it is written, <sup>h</sup>He shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:

11 And on their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.

12 And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, <sup>i</sup>Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.

13 And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.

14 And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about.

15 And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all.

16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up to read.

17 And there was delivered unto him the roll of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the roll, he found the place <sup>j</sup>where it was written,

18 <sup>k</sup>The Spirit of the Lord <sup>is</sup> upon me, because he hath <sup>l</sup>anointed me to <sup>m</sup>preach the <sup>n</sup>gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-<sup>o</sup>hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the <sup>p</sup>blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,

19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he folded the roll, and he gave it again to the attendant, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.

21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

22 And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this <sup>7</sup>proverb, <sup>8</sup>Physician, heal thyself: whatso-ever we have heard done in <sup>9</sup>Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said, Verily I say unto you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of <sup>1</sup>Elijah, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine was throughout all the land;

26 But unto none of them was Elijah sent, save unto <sup>2</sup>Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was a widow.

27 And many <sup>3</sup>lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the <sup>4</sup>Syrian.

28 And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

29 And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.

30 But he passing through the midst of them went his way,

31 And came down to Capernaum, a city of <sup>1</sup>Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath days.

32 And they were astonished at his <sup>2</sup>teaching, for his word was with authority.

33 And in the synagogue there was a man, who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and cried out with a loud voice,

34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art; the Holy One of God.

35 And Jesus rebuked it, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him.

And when the demon had thrown him in the midst, <sup>a</sup>it came out of him, and hurt him not.

36 And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.

37 And the fame of him went out into every place of the country round about.

38 And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into <sup>b</sup>Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her.

39 And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them.

40 Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he <sup>c</sup>laid his hands on every one of them, and <sup>d</sup>healed them.

41 And demons also came out of many, <sup>e</sup>crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.

42 And when it was day, he departed and went into a desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.

43 And he said unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent.

44 And he preached in the synagogues of <sup>f</sup>Galilee.

CHAPTER 5.

AND it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret,

2 And saw two boats by the lake: but the <sup>a</sup>fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the boats, which was <sup>b</sup>Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the <sup>c</sup>land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the boat.

4 Now when he had done speaking, he said unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have <sup>a</sup>toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they <sup>c</sup>inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net was breaking.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, who were in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.

8 When Simon /Peter saw it, he <sup>g</sup>fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also James, and <sup>h</sup>John, the sons of <sup>i</sup>Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to /land, they forsook all, and followed him.

12 And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of <sup>k</sup>leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me <sup>l</sup>clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, who were come out of every town of <sup>o</sup>Galilee, and Judæa, and <sup>p</sup>Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus.

20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are <sup>r</sup>forgiven thee.

21 And the <sup>s</sup>scribes and the Pharisees began to <sup>t</sup>reason, saying, Who is this that speaketh <sup>u</sup>blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?

22 But when Jesus perceived their <sup>v</sup>thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?

23 Which is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the paralyzed man,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, <sup>w</sup>glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.

27 And after these things he went forth, and saw a <sup>x</sup>publican, named <sup>y</sup>Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.

28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.

29 And Levi made him a great feast in his own house; and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.

30 But their scribes and Pharisees <sup>z</sup>murmured against his <sup>a</sup>disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?

31 And Jesus answering said unto them, They that are whole need not a <sup>b</sup>physician; but they that are <sup>c</sup>sick.

32 I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to <sup>d</sup>repentance.

33 And they said unto him, Why do the disciples of <sup>e</sup>John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?

34 And he said unto them, Can ye make the sons of the bridechamber fast, while the f bridegroom is with them?

35 But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they g fast in those days.

36 And he spake also a h parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new i garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new j agreeth not with the old.

37 And no man putteth new k wine into old wine-skins; else the new wine will burst the skins, and be spilled, and the skins shall l perish.

38 But new wine must be put into new wine-skins; and both are preserved.

39 No man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth.

9 Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?

10 And looking round about upon them all, he said unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: g and his hand was h restored whole as the other.

11 And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

12 And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.

13 And when it was day, he called unto i him his disciples: and of them he j chose k twelve, whom also he named l apostles;

14 m Simon, whom he also named n Peter, and o Andrew his brother, p James and q John, r Philip and s Bartholomew,

15 Matthew and t Thomas, u James the son of v Alphæus, and w Simon called Zelotes,

16 And Judas the son of James, and x Judas y Iscariot, who also was the z traitor.

17 And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all a Judæa and b Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of c Tyre and Sidon, that came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

18 And they that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed.

19 And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, and healed d them all.

20 And he lifted up his e eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.

21 Blessed are ye that f hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that g weep now: for ye shall h laugh.

22 Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you i from their company, and shall j reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son of man's sake.

23 Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your k reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers unto the prophets.

24 But woe unto you that are <sup>r</sup>ich! for ye have received your consolation.

25 Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.

26 Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.

27 But I say unto you that hear, Love your enemies, do good to them that hate you, 28 Bless them that <sup>k</sup>curse you, and pray for them that despitefully use you.

29 And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloak forbid not to take thy coat also.

30 Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again.

31 And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

32 For if ye love them that love you, what thank have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.

33 And if ye do good to them that do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same.

34 And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again.

35 But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the <sup>m</sup>Highest: for he is <sup>n</sup>kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

36 Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.

37 Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: <sup>o</sup>condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be <sup>p</sup>forgiven:

38 Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. <sup>q</sup>For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

39 And he spake a <sup>r</sup>parable unto them, Can the <sup>s</sup>blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

40 The <sup>t</sup>disciple is not above his master: but every one when he has been perfected shall be as his master.

41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

42 Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me draw out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou <sup>w</sup>hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to draw out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.

43 For a good <sup>x</sup>tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a <sup>y</sup>corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

44 For every tree is known by its own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

45 A good man out of the good <sup>z</sup>treasure of his <sup>a</sup>heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for out of the <sup>b</sup>abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.

46 And why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?

47 Whosoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like:

48 <sup>c</sup>He is like a man who built an house, and digged deep, and laid the <sup>d</sup>foundation on a rock: and when the <sup>e</sup>flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.

49 But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man who without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

CHAPTER 7.

NOW when he had ended his sayings in the hearing of the people, he entered into <sup>a</sup>Caper-

2 And a certain centurion vant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die.

3 And when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:

5 For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.

6 Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof:

7 Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 For I also am a man set under authority, having under me <sup>b</sup>soldiers, and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.

9 When Jesus heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.

10 And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant <sup>c</sup>whole that had been sick.

11 And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his <sup>d</sup>disciples went with him, and much people.

12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.

13 And when the Lord saw her, he had <sup>e</sup>compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.

14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.

15 And he that was dead <sup>f</sup>sat up, and he began to speak. And he gave glory unto his mother.

16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, A prophet is risen up among us; and they had visited his people.

17 And this rumour of him went throughout all <sup>h</sup>Judæa, and 18 And the disciples of <sup>i</sup>John showed him of all these things.

19 And John calling two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that is <sup>j</sup>coming? or look we for another?

20 When the men were come unto him, they said, John the <sup>k</sup>Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that is coming? or look we for another?

21 And in that same hour he cured many from sicknesses and <sup>l</sup>plagues, and from evil spirits; and unto many that were <sup>m</sup>blind he gave sight.

22 Then Jesus answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the <sup>n</sup>lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the <sup>o</sup>gospel is preached.

23 And blessed is he, whosever shall not be offended in me.

24 And when the messengers of John were departed, he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A <sup>p</sup>reed <sup>q</sup>shaken with the wind?

25 But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? Behold, they that are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

26 But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet.

27 This is he, of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee.

28 For I say unto you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than <sup>r</sup>John the <sup>s</sup>Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.

29 And all the people that heard him, and the <sup>t</sup>publicans, justified God, being <sup>u</sup>baptized with the baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

31 And the Lord said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

32 They are like unto children sitting in the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.

33 For John the Baptist came neither eating bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a demon.

34 The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners!

35 But wisdom is justified of all her children.

36 And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and reclined at meat.

37 And, behold, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus reclined at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, 38 And standing at his feet behind him weeping, began to wet his feet with tears, wiping them off with the hairs of her head, and kissing his feet, she anointed them with the ointment.

39 Now when the Pharisee who had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner.

40 And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on.

41 There was a certain creditor who had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.

42 And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?

43 Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou hast rightly judged.

44 And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.

45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

CHAPTER 8.

AND it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and showing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And certain women, who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven demons,

3 And Joanna the wife of Chuzā Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, who ministered unto him of their substance.

4 And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every city, he spake by a parable:

5 A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

6 And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked moisture.

7 And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.

8 And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

9 And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be?

10 And he said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand.

11 Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

12 Those by the way side are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.

13 They on the rock are they, who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.

14 And that which fell among thorns are they, who, when they have heard, go forth and are choked with care and riches and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

15 But that on the good ground are they, who in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.

16 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they that enter in may see the light.

17 For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad.

18 Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.

19 Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press.

20 And it was told him by certain who said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.

21 And he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these that hear the word of God, and do it.

22 Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a boat with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake. And they launched forth.

23 But as they sailed he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filling, and were in peril.

24 And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.

25 And he said unto them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.

26 And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.

27 And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, who had demons long time, and wore no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God, Most High? I beseech thee, torment me not.

29 (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven of the demon into the wilderness.)

30 And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many demons were entered into him.

31 And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep.

32 And there was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would allow them to enter into them. And he allowed them.

33 Then went the demons out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were drowned.

34 When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.

35 Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the demons were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.

36 They also who saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the demons was healed.

37 Then the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great fear: and he went up into the boat, and returned back again.

38 Now the man out of whom the demons were sent forth besought him that he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Return to thine own house, and show how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole city how great things Jesus had done unto him.

40 And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged him.

43 And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any,

44 Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanch'd.

45 And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

46 And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me.

47 And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.

48 And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.

49 While he yet spake, there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master.

50 But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole.

51 And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John,

52 And all wept, and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

54 And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came again, and she arose straightway; and he commanded to give her food.

56 And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no one what was done.

CHAPTER 9.

THEN he called the twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases.

2 And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.

3 And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staff, nor bag, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.

4 And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, and thence depart.

5 And whosoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.

6 And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.

7 Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said by some, that John was risen from the dead;

8 And by some, that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the old prophets was risen again.

9 And Herod said, John have I beheaded: but who is this, of whom I hear such things? And he sought to see him.

10 And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city called Bethsaida.

11 And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.

12 And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.

13 But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more than five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people.

14 For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in each company.

15 And they did so, and made them all sit down.

16 Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they did eat, and <sup>m</sup>were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them twelve baskets.

18 And it came to pass, as he was <sup>s</sup>alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, saying, Whom say the people that <sup>n</sup>I am?

19 They answering said, John the <sup>o</sup>Baptist; but some say, Elijah; and others say, that one of the old prophets is risen again.

20 He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? <sup>p</sup>Peter answering said, The Christ of God.

21 And he strictly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing;

22 Saying, The Son of man must <sup>q</sup>suffer many things, and be <sup>r</sup>rejected of the elders and chief priests and <sup>s</sup>scribes, and be slain, and be raised the <sup>t</sup>third day.

23 And he said to them all, If any man would come after me, let him <sup>u</sup>deny himself, and take up his <sup>v</sup>cross daily, and follow me.

24 For whosoever would save his life shall <sup>w</sup>lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.

25 For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

26 For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall <sup>x</sup>come in his own <sup>y</sup>glory, and the Father's, and of the <sup>z</sup>holy angels.

27 But I tell you of a truth, there are some standing here, who shall not <sup>z</sup>taste of death, till they see the kingdom of God.

28 And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and <sup>a</sup>John and <sup>b</sup>James, and went up into a mountain to pray.

29 And as he prayed, the appearance of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was <sup>c</sup>white and glistening.

30 And, behold, there talked with him two men, who were <sup>d</sup>Moses and Elijah:

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his <sup>e</sup>decease which he should <sup>f</sup>accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

33 And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing what he said.

34 While he thus spake, there came a <sup>g</sup>cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.

35 And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my Son, my <sup>h</sup>Beloved: hear him.

36 And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they were silent, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.

37 And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the mountain, much people met him.

38 And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child.

39 And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he <sup>i</sup>suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth, and bruising him hardly departeth from him.

40 And I besought thy <sup>j</sup>disciples to cast it out; and they could not.

41 And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and bear with you? Bring thy son hither.

42 And as he was yet coming, the demon threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and gave him back to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the mighty <sup>1</sup>power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, 44 Let these sayings sink down into your <sup>2</sup>ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him concerning that saying.

46 Then there arose a <sup>3</sup>reasoning among them, who of them should be greatest.

47 And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him,

48 And said unto them, <sup>4</sup>"Whosoever shall <sup>5</sup>receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out demons in thy name; and we forbade him, because he followeth not with us.

50 And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against <sup>6</sup>us is for us.

51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he <sup>7</sup>stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the <sup>8</sup>Samaritans, to make ready for him.

53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to <sup>9</sup>Jerusalem.

54 And when his <sup>10</sup>disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elijah did?

55 But he turned, and rebuked them, <sup>11</sup>and said, Ye know not what manner of <sup>12</sup>spirit ye are of.

56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

59 And he said unto another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.

60 Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.

61 And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, who are at my house.

62 And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

CHAPTER 10.

AFTER these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, whither he himself was about to come.

2 Then said he unto them, The <sup>1</sup>harvest truly is great, but the <sup>2</sup>labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest.

3 Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among <sup>3</sup>wolves.

4 Carry neither purse, nor bag, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way.

5 And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if a son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is <sup>4</sup>worthy of his <sup>5</sup>hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you:

9 And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

10 But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say,

11 Even the very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.

12 But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city.

13 Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago <sup>h</sup>repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.

15 And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.

16 He that heareth you heareth me; and he that rejecteth you rejecteth me; and he that rejecteth me rejecteth him that sent me.

17 And the seventy returned again with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject unto us through thy name.

18 And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.

19 Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.

20 Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

21 In that hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.

22 All things are delivered to me by my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son wills to reveal him.

23 And he turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see:

24 For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them.

28 And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.

29 But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my neighbour?

30 And Jesus answering said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, who stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves?

37 And he said, He that showed mercy on him. Then said Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

38 Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.

40 But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.

41 And <sup>5</sup>Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art <sup>a</sup>anxious and <sup>a</sup>troubled about many things:

42 But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.

CHAPTER II.

AND it came to pass, that, as he was <sup>a</sup>praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his <sup>b</sup>disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as <sup>c</sup>John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, <sup>1</sup>Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. <sup>2</sup>Thy <sup>a</sup>will be done, as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us day by day our daily <sup>c</sup>bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also/forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; <sup>3</sup>but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, <sup>8</sup>Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

8 I say unto you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.

9 And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.

10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened.

11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an egg, will he give him a scorpion?

14 And he was casting out a demon, and it was dumb. And it came to pass, when the demon was gone out, the dumb <sup>i</sup>spake; and the people wondered.

15 But some of them said, He casteth out demons through <sup>j</sup>Beelzebub the chief of the demons.

16 And others, <sup>k</sup>tempting him, sought of him a <sup>i</sup>sign from heaven. 17 But he, knowing their <sup>m</sup>thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house <sup>divided</sup> against a house falleth.

18 If <sup>n</sup>Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out demons through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast <sup>them</sup> out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the finger of God cast out demons, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and <sup>o</sup>overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out.

25 And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

26 Then goeth he, and taketh to <sup>him</sup> seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last <sup>state</sup> of that man is worse than the first.

27 And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the breasts which thou hast sucked.

28 But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.

29 And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of <sup>p</sup>Jonah the prophet.

30 For as Jonah was a <sup>q</sup>sign unto the Ninevites, so shall also the Son of man be to this generation.

32 The men of Nineveh shall rise up <sup>w</sup>in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they <sup>x</sup>repented at the preaching of Jonah; and, behold, a greater than Jonah is here.

33 No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a <sup>y</sup>candlestick, that they that come in may see the light.

34 The light of the body is the eye: when thine <sup>z</sup>eye is <sup>a</sup>single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.

35 Take heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness.

36 If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright <sup>b</sup>shining of a candle doth give thee light.

37 And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat.

39 And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye <sup>c</sup>Pharisees make <sup>d</sup>clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of rapacity and wickedness.

40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?

42 But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye <sup>f</sup>tithe the mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over justice and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.

ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

44 Woe unto you, <sup>5</sup>scribes and Pharisees, <sup>h</sup>hypocrites! for ye are as <sup>i</sup>graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.

45 Then answered one of the law-teachers, and said unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also.

46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye law-teachers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 Woe unto you! for ye build the <sup>j</sup>sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 Truly ye bear witness that ye approve the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.

49 Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and <sup>k</sup>apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was <sup>l</sup>shed from the foundation of the world, may be <sup>m</sup>required of this generation;

51 From the blood of <sup>n</sup>Abel unto the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the <sup>o</sup>temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation.

52 Woe unto you, law-teachers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and those that were entering in ye hindered.

53 And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things:

54 Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something out of his mouth, <sup>e</sup>that they might <sup>p</sup>accuse him.

CHAPTER 12.

IN the mean time, when there were gathered together <sup>1</sup>an innumerable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his <sup>a</sup>disciples first of all, Beware ye of the <sup>b</sup>leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither <sup>c</sup>hid, that shall not be known.

3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in the inner chamber shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

4 And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, who after he hath killed hath power to cast into <sup>2</sup>hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him.

6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?

7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

8 Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall <sup>a</sup>confess me before men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of God:

9 But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before the angels of God.

10 And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be <sup>e</sup>forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the <sup>f</sup>Holy Spirit it shall not be forgiven.

11 And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no anxious thought how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:

12 For the Holy Spirit shall <sup>g</sup>teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.

13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of <sup>h</sup>covetousness: for a man's <sup>i</sup>life consisteth not in the <sup>j</sup>abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a <sup>k</sup>parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain <sup>l</sup>rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he <sup>m</sup>thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

20 But God said unto him, Thou <sup>n</sup>fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided?

21 So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no anxious thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.

23 The life is more than meat, and the body is more than raiment.

24 Consider the <sup>o</sup>ravens: for they neither sow nor <sup>p</sup>reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God <sup>q</sup>feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the birds?

25 And which of you with taking anxious thought can add <sup>a</sup>to his stature one cubit?

26 If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for the rest?

27 Consider the lilies how they <sup>r</sup>grow: they <sup>s</sup>toil not, neither do they spin; and yet I say unto you, that <sup>t</sup>Solomon in all his <sup>u</sup>glory was not arrayed like one of these.

28 If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?

29 And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.

30 For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.

31 But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.

32 Fear not, little <sup>v</sup>flock; for it is your Father's good <sup>w</sup>pleasure to give you the kingdom.

34 For where your treasure is, there will your <sup>b</sup>heart be also.

35 Let your loins be <sup>c</sup>girded about, and your lights burning;

36 And ye yourselves like unto men that <sup>d</sup>wait for their lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he <sup>e</sup>cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately.

37 Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.

38 And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39 And this know, that if the good-man of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.

40 Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man <sup>f</sup>cometh at an hour when ye think not.

41 Then <sup>g</sup>Peter said unto him, Lord, speakest thou this <sup>h</sup>parable unto us, or even to all?

42 And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season?

43 Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

44 Of a truth I say unto you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.

45 But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be <sup>i</sup>drunken;

46 The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the <sup>j</sup>unbelievers.

47 And that servant, who knew his lord's <sup>k</sup>will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48 But he that knew not, and did commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and 49 I am come to cast fire on the earth; and what will I, if it is already kindled?

50 But I have a <sup>m</sup>baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it be <sup>n</sup>accomplished!

51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:

52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.

53 The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against her mother in law.

54 And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.

55 And when ye see the south wind blow, ye say, There will be great heat; and it cometh to pass.

56 Ye <sup>o</sup>hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it that ye do not discern this time?

57 Yea, and why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?

CHAPTER 13.

THERE were present at that season some that told him of the <sup>a</sup>Galilæans, whose blood <sup>b</sup>Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilæans were sinners above all the Galilæans, because they <sup>c</sup>suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye <sup>d</sup>repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in <sup>e</sup>Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 He spake also this *g*parable; A certain man had a *h*fig *i*tree planted in his *j*vineyard; and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none.

7 Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this *h*fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

9 And if it bear fruit, well; and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

10 And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.

11 And, behold, there was a woman who had a *j*spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself.

12 And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity.

13 And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.

14 And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day.

15 The Lord then answered him, and said, Hypocrite! doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?

16 And ought not this woman, being the daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, to be loosed from this bond on the sabbath?

17 And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

18 Then said he, Unto what is the kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I liken it?

19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his *v*garden; and it *w*grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls

20 And again he said, Whereunto shall I liken the kingdom of God?

21 It is like *x*leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.

22 And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Jerusalem.

23 Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, 24 Strive to enter in at the narrow *y*gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.

25 When once the master of the house is risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know not whence ye are:

26 Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.

27 But he shall say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of *z*iniquity.

30 And, behold, there are last who shall be first, and there are first who shall be last.

31 The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for *c*Herod will kill thee.

32 And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out demons, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and the *d*third day I shall be perfected.

33 Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet perish out of *e*Jerusalem.

34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth

35 Behold, your house is left unto you *f*desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that *g*cometh in the name of the Lord.

CHAPTER 14.

AND it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched him.

2 And, behold, there was a certain man before him who had the dropsy.

3 And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day?

4 And they held their peace. And he took him, and *a*healed him, and let him go;

5 And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him out on the sabbath day?

6 And they could not answer him again to these things.

7 And he put forth a *b*parable to those that were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying unto them,

8 When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest seat; lest a more honourable man than thou be bidden of him;

9 And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the *c*lowest seat.

10 But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest seat; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have honour in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee.

11 For *d*whosoever exalteth himself shall be *e*abased; and he that *f*humbleth himself shall be exalted.

12 Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a *g*supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee.

13 But when thou makest a *h*feast,

15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 Then said he unto him, *n*A certain man made a great *o*supper, and bade many:

17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said, I have bought five *p*yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and showed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out *q*quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

24 For I say unto you, That none of those men that were bidden shall *s*taste of my supper.

25 And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said unto them,

26 If any man come to me, and hate not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my *t*disciple.

27 And whosoever doth not bear his *u*cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.

31 Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

32 Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an ambassador, and desireth conditions of peace.

33 So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.

34 <sup>y</sup>Salt is good: but if the salt have lost its savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned?

THEN drew near unto him all the <sup>a</sup>publicans and sinners to hear him.

2 And the Pharisees and <sup>b</sup>scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.

3 And he spake this <sup>d</sup>parable unto them, saying,

4 What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he <sup>e</sup>lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his <sup>f</sup>shoulders, rejoicing.

8 Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she <sup>h</sup>lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find it?

bours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.

10 Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.

11 And he said, A certain man had two sons:

12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living.

13 And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed <sup>i</sup>swine.

16 And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him.

17 And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with <sup>j</sup>hunger!

18 I will arise and go to my father, and will <sup>k</sup>say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, 19 And am no more <sup>l</sup>worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.

21 And the son said unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.

22 But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best <sup>m</sup>robe, and put it on him; and put a <sup>n</sup>ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:

23 And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:

24 For this my son was <sup>o</sup>dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.

25 Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound.

28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and entreated him.

29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:

30 But as soon as this thy son was come, who hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.

31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine.

32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

CHAPTER 16.

AND he said also unto his <sup>a</sup>disciples, <sup>b</sup>There was a certain rich man, who had a steward; and the same was <sup>c</sup>accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.

2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.

3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I am not strong enough to dig; to beg I am ashamed.

4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.

5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors <sup>d</sup>unto him, and said unto the first, How much <sup>e</sup>dowest thou unto my lord?

6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down <sup>f</sup>quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.

8 And the lord commended the <sup>g</sup>unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends out of the <sup>z</sup>mammon of unrighteousness; that, when <sup>aa</sup>ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much.

11 If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own?

13 No servant can <sup>ab</sup>serve two <sup>ac</sup>masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.

14 And the Pharisees, who were <sup>ad</sup>covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him.

15 And he said unto them, Ye are they who justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your <sup>ae</sup>hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men is abomination in the sight of God.

16 The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man <sup>af</sup>presseth into it.

17 And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail.

18 Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth <sup>ag</sup>adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband committeth adultery.

19 There was a certain rich man, who was clothed in <sup>ah</sup>purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:

20 And there was a certain <sup>ai</sup>beggar named Lazarus, who was laid at his <sup>aj</sup>gate, full of sores,

21 And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the <sup>ak</sup>dogs came and licked his sores.

22 And it came to pass, that the beggar <sup>al</sup>died, and was carried by the angels into <sup>am</sup>Abraham's bosom: the rich man also died, and was buried;

23 And in <sup>5</sup>hell he lifted up his eyes, being in <sup>4</sup>torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and <sup>v</sup>Lazarus in his bosom.

24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue; for I am <sup>w</sup>tormented in this flame.

25 But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.

26 And beside all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they who would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.

27 Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house:

28 For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment.

29 Abraham saith unto him, They have <sup>x</sup>Moses and the prophets; let them hear <sup>y</sup>them.

30 And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will <sup>z</sup>repent.

31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be <sup>a</sup>persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

7 But <sup>j</sup> which of you, having a servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat?

8 And will not rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?

9 Doth he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded him? I trow not.

10 So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable <sup>k</sup>servants: we have done that which it was our duty to do.

11 And it came to pass, as he went to <sup>l</sup>Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of <sup>m</sup>Samaria and <sup>n</sup>Galilee.

12 And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were <sup>o</sup>lepers, who stood afar off:

13 And they lifted up their voices, and <sup>p</sup>said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.

14 And when he saw them, he said unto them, Go show yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice <sup>q</sup>glorified God, 16 And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a <sup>r</sup>Samaritan.

17 And Jesus answering said, Were not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?

18 Was none found that returned to give <sup>s</sup>glory to God, save this <sup>t</sup>stranger?

19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith <sup>u</sup>hath made thee whole.

20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God <sup>v</sup>cometh not <sup>w</sup>with outward show:

21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is <sup>z</sup>in the midst of you.

22 And he said unto the disciples,

The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and ye shall not see it.

23 And they shall say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them.

24 For as the lightning, that lighteth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

25 But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this generation.

26 And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.

27 They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded;

29 But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from the heavens, and destroyed them all.

30 Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.

31 In that day, he that shall be upon the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not come down to take them away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Remember Lot's wife.

33 Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall preserve it.

34 I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.

35 Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

36 Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other left.

37 And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Whosoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, who feared not God, neither regarded man:

3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary.

4 And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;

5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.

6 And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.

7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, who cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them?

8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find the faith on the earth?

9 And he spake this parable unto certain who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

10 Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.

11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.

12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I gain.

13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.

15 And they brought unto him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

16 But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

17 Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men are possible with God.

28 Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

33 And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he shall rise again.

CHAPTER 19.

AND Jesus, having entered, was passing through Jericho.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zacchæus, who was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchæus, make haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, He has gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zacchæus stood, and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jesus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a <sup>h</sup> parable, because he was nigh to <sup>i</sup> Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God would immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Trade till I <sup>k</sup> come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the <sup>i</sup> money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:

21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and <sup>m</sup> reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow;

23 Then why gavest thou not my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with <sup>n</sup> interest?

24 And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)

26 For I say unto you, That unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him.

27 But these mine enemies, who would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.

28 And when he had thus spoken, he went before, going up to Jerusalem.

29 And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to <sup>o</sup> Bethphage and <sup>p</sup> Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his <sup>q</sup> disciples, 30 Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in which at the entrance ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: <sup>r</sup> loose him, and bring him hither.

31 And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of it.

32 And they that were sent went their way, and found even as he had said unto them.

33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt?

34 And they said, The Lord hath need of it.

35 And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their <sup>s</sup> garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus thereon.

36 And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

37 And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works that they had seen;

38 Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and <sup>t</sup> glory in the <sup>u</sup> highest.

39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto him, Master, rebuke thy <sup>v</sup> disciples.

40 And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.

41 And when he was come near, he beheld the city, and <sup>w</sup> wept over it,

42 Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto thy peace! but now they are hid from thine <sup>x</sup> eyes.

43 For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side,

44 And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.

45 And he went into the temple, and began to cast out those that sold therein, and those that bought; 46 Saying unto them, It is written, My house shall be the house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of robbers.

47 And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, 48 And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

CHAPTER 20.

AND it came to pass, on one of those days, as he taught the people in the temple, and preached the <sup>a</sup>gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders,

2 And spake unto him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And he answered and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The <sup>b</sup>baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?

5 And they <sup>c</sup>reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?

6 But if we say, Of men; all the people will stone us: for they are <sup>d</sup>persuaded that <sup>e</sup>John was a prophet.

7 And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

8 And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these things.

9 Then began he to speak to the people this <sup>f</sup>parable; A certain man planted a <sup>g</sup>vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.

11 And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and treated him <sup>h</sup>shamefully, and sent him away empty.

12 And he even sent a third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.

13 Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will <sup>1</sup>reverence him <sup>1</sup>when they see him.

14 But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.

15 So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do unto them?

16 He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, <sup>2</sup>God forbid.

17 And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders <sup>3</sup>rejected, the same became the head of the <sup>4</sup>corner?

18 Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.

19 And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this <sup>5</sup>parable against them.

20 And they watched him, and sent forth spies, that should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him unto the power and authority of the governor.

21 And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but really teachest the way of God:

22 Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto <sup>6</sup>Cæsar, or no?

23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, <sup>7</sup>Why <sup>8</sup>tempt ye me?

24 Show me a <sup>9</sup>penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They, answering, said, Cæsar's.

25 And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Cæsar the things that are Cæsar's, and unto God the things that are God's.

26 And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his answer, and held their peace.

27 Then came to him certain of the *Ph*Sadducees, who deny that there is any resurrection; and they asked him,

28 Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, ¶ If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.

29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and died without children.

30 And the second took her to wife, and he died childless.

31 And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: and they left no children, and died.

32 Last of all the woman died also.

33 Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.

34 And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this *5*world marry, and are given in marriage:

35 But they that shall be accounted *7*worthy to obtain that *5*world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage:

36 Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.

37 Now that the dead are raised, *5*even Moses showed *6*at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of *4*Abraham, and the God of *2*Isaac, and the God of *7*Jacob.

38 For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him.

39 Then certain of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And after that they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said unto them, How say they that the Christ is *7*David's son?

42 And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, x The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.

44 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 Then in the hearing of all the people he said unto his *7*disciples,

CHAPTER 21.

AND he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.

2 And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites.

3 And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all:

4 For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.

5 And as some spake of the temple, how it was *2*adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said,

6 As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.

7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what *6*sign will there be when these things are about to come to pass?

8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall *6*come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and, The time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them.

9 And, when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the *4*end is not immediately.

10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:

11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and *6*famines, and *7*pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.

12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and *8*persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.

13 And it shall turn to you for a *4*testimony.

14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer:

15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.

16 And ye shall be delivered up both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.

17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.

18 But there shall not a hair of your head perish.

19 In your patience possess ye your souls.

20 And when ye see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them that are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them that are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For those will be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.

24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.

25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity because of the sea and the waves roaring;

26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking forward to those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.

27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.

28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh.

29 And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;

30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh.

34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unexpectedly.

37 And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

CHAPTER 22.

NOW the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him; for they feared the people.

3 Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him unto them.

5 And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

6 And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude.

7 Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.

8 And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare us the passover, that we may eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?

10 And he said unto them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in.

11 And ye shall say unto the Goodman of the house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my <sup>h</sup>disciples?

12 And he shall show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

13 And they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

14 And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the <sup>2i</sup>twelve <sup>j</sup>apostles with him.

15 And he said unto them, With desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I <sup>k</sup>suffer:

16 For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.

17 And he took the cup, and gave <sup>l</sup>thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves:

18 For I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall <sup>m</sup>come.

19 And he took bread, and gave thanks, and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my <sup>n</sup>body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

20 Likewise also the cup after <sup>o</sup>supper, saying, This cup is the <sup>p</sup>new <sup>q</sup>covenant in my <sup>r</sup>blood, which is <sup>s</sup>shed for you.

21 But, behold, the hand of him that <sup>t</sup>betrayeth me is with me on the table.

22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was <sup>u</sup>determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is <sup>v</sup>betrayed!

23 And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.

24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greater.

25 And he said unto them, The kings of the <sup>w</sup>Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority over them are called benefactors.

26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

27 For which is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth?

is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.

28 Ye are they that have continued with me in my <sup>v</sup>temptations.

29 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

30 That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 <sup>e</sup>And the Lord said, Simon, <sup>v</sup>Simon, behold, <sup>x</sup>Satan hath desired to have you, that he might <sup>y</sup>sift you as <sup>z</sup>wheat:

32 But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou hast <sup>a</sup>turned again, strengthen thy brethren.

33 And he said unto him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death.

34 And he said, I tell thee, Peter, before the cock shall crow this day, thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me.

35 And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.

36 Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his bag: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his <sup>b</sup>garment, and buy one.

37 For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be <sup>c</sup>accomplished in me, And he was <sup>d</sup>reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have <sup>e</sup>an end.

38 And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 And he came out, and went, as was his custom, to the mount of Olives; and his <sup>f</sup>disciples also followed him.

40 And when he was at the place, he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation.

41 And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and <sup>g</sup>kneeled down, and prayed, 42 Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my <sup>h</sup>will, but thine, be done.

43 And there appeared unto him an angel from heaven, strengthening him.

44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.

45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow,

46 And said unto them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

47 And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called <sup>h</sup>Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to kiss him.

48 But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?

49 When they that were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?

50 And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

51 And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.

52 Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, that were come upon him, Are ye come out, as against a robber, with swords and staves?

53 When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the house of the high priest. And Peter followed afar off.

55 And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the court, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

59 And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilæan.

62 And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.

63 And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him.

64 And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee? 65 And many other things blasphemously spake they against him.

66 And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying,

71 And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard out of his own mouth.

CHAPTER 23.

AND the whole multitude of them

arose, and led him unto Pilate.

2 And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cæsar, saying that he himself is Christ a King.

3 And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest.

4 Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man.

5 And they were the more urgent, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judæa; beginning from Galilee to this place.

6 When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilæan.

7 And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto <sup>d</sup>Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself also was at <sup>e</sup>Jerusalem at that time.

8 And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he had long been desirous to see him, because he had heard many things about him; and he hoped to see some <sup>f</sup>miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.

11 And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked <sup>him</sup>, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.

12 And the same day Pilate and Herod became friends together: for before they were at enmity <sup>1</sup>between themselves.

13 And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined <sup>him</sup> before you, have found no fault in this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him:

15 No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death has been done by him.

16 I will therefore <sup>g</sup>chastise him, and <sup>h</sup>release him.

17 <sup>i</sup>(For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.)

18 And they cried out all together, saying, Away with this <sup>man</sup>, and release unto us <sup>j</sup>Barabbas:

19 (Who for a certain uprising made in the city, and for <sup>j</sup>murder, was cast into prison.)

20 Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spake again to them.

21 But they cried, saying, <sup>k</sup>Crucify him, crucify him.

22 And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let <sup>him</sup> go.

23 And they were instant with loud voices, <sup>l</sup>requiring that he might be crucified. And their voices and those of the chief priests prevailed.

24 And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.

25 And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

26 And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one <sup>m</sup>Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear <sup>it</sup> after Jesus.

27 And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, who bewailed and lamented him.

28 But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, <sup>n</sup>weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.

29 For, behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the <sup>o</sup>barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the breasts which never gave suck.

30 Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.

31 For if they do these things in a green <sup>p</sup>tree, what shall be done in the dry?

32 And there were also two others, malefactors, <sup>q</sup>led with him to be put to death.

33 And when they were come to the place, which is called <sup>r</sup>Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left.

34 Then <sup>s</sup>said Jesus, Father, <sup>i</sup>forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast <sup>u</sup>lots.

35 And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided <sup>him</sup>, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ, the <sup>v</sup>chosen of God.

36 And the soldiers also <sup>w</sup>mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, 37 And saying, If thou art the king of the Jews, save thyself.

38 And a superscription also was written over him <sup>3</sup>in letters of <sup>a</sup>Greek, and Latin, and <sup>y</sup>Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.

39 And one of the malefactors that were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us.

40 But the other answering rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same <sup>a</sup>condemnation?

41 And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.

42 And he <sup>a</sup>said unto Jesus, <sup>4</sup>Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.

43 And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, To day shalt thou be with me in <sup>b</sup>paradise.

44 And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the <sup>c</sup>veil of the temple was rent in the midst.

46 And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, <sup>d</sup>he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my <sup>e</sup>spirit: and having said this, he <sup>5</sup>gave up his spirit.

47 Now when the centurion saw what was done, he <sup>f</sup>glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.

48 And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their <sup>g</sup>breasts, and returned.

49 And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from <sup>h</sup>Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.

50 And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a councillor; and he was a good man, and a just:

51 (The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them;) he was of <sup>i</sup>Arimathæa, a city of the Jews: who also himself <sup>j</sup>waited for the kingdom of God.

52 This man went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a <sup>k</sup>sepulchre that was hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid.

54 And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on:

55 And the women also, who came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulchre, and how his body was laid.

56 And they returned, and prepared <sup>l</sup>spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

CHAPTER 24.

NOW upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, <sup>1</sup>and certain others with them.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the <sup>a</sup>sepulchre.

3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in <sup>b</sup>shining <sup>c</sup>garments:

5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?

6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee,

7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be <sup>d</sup>crucified, and the third day <sup>e</sup>rise again.

8 And they remembered his words,

9 And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest.

10 It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, who told these things unto the <sup>f</sup>apostles.

11 And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.

12 Then arose <sup>h</sup>Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen cloths laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which was come to pass.

13 And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from <sup>i</sup>Jerusalem about threescore furlongs.

14 And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

15 And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.

16 But their <sup>k</sup>eyes were holden that they should not know him.

17 And he said unto them, <sup>2</sup>What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?

18 And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, <sup>3</sup>Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days?

19 And he said unto them, What things? And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people:

20 And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be <sup>l</sup>condemned to death, and have crucified him.

21 But we trusted that it had been he who should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

22 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, who were early at the sepulchre;

23 And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive.

24 And certain of them that were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.

25 Then he said unto them, O <sup>m</sup>fools, and slow of heart to believe <sup>n</sup>all that the prophets have spoken: 26 Ought not Christ to have <sup>o</sup>suffered these things, and to <sup>p</sup>enter into his <sup>q</sup>glory?

27 And beginning from <sup>r</sup>Moses and out of all the prophets, he expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.

28 And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: and he made as though he would go further.

29 But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.

30 And it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them.

31 And their <sup>s</sup>eyes were opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.

32 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to <sup>t</sup>Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, 34 Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to <sup>u</sup>Simon.

35 And they told what things were

36 And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you.

37 But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a <sup>v</sup>spirit.

38 And he said unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do <sup>w</sup>thoughts arise in your hearts?

39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had thus spoken, he showed them <sup>his</sup> hands and <sup>his</sup> feet.

41 And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any food?

42 And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb.

43 And he took it, and did eat before them.

44 And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the <sup>x</sup>psalms, concerning me.

45 Then opened he their <sup>4</sup>understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

46 And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

47 And that <sup>y</sup>repentance and <sup>z</sup>remission of sins should be <sup>a</sup>preached in his <sup>b</sup>name <sup>5</sup>among all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem.

48 And ye are <sup>c</sup>witnesses of these things.

49 And, behold, I send the <sup>d</sup>promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with <sup>e</sup>power from on high.

50 And he led them out as far as to <sup>f</sup>Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.

51 And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and carried up into <sup>g</sup>heaven.

52 And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:

53 And were continually in the temple, <sup>h</sup>praising and blessing God. Amen.

St. JOHN

[I 33

CHAPTER 1.

IN the <sup>a</sup>beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

<sup>10</sup> He was in the world, and the world was made <sup>1</sup>by him, and the world knew him not.

<sup>13</sup> Who were <sup>k</sup>born, not of blood, nor of the will of the <sup>l</sup>flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.

<sup>14</sup> And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his <sup>m</sup>glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

<sup>15</sup> <sup>n</sup>John bare witness of him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me.

<sup>21</sup> And they asked him, What then? Art thou <sup>g</sup>Elijah? And he saith, I am not. Art thou <sup>h</sup>that prophet? And he answered, No.

<sup>22</sup> Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?

<sup>24</sup> And they that were sent were of the Pharisees.

<sup>25</sup> And they asked him, and said unto him, Why <sup>k</sup>baptizest thou then, if thou be not the Christ, nor Elijah, neither that prophet?

<sup>26</sup> John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

<sup>30</sup> This is he of whom I said, After me cometh a man who is preferred before me: for he was before me.

<sup>31</sup> And I knew him not: but to the end that he should be made <sup>p</sup>manifest to Israel, therefore am I come <sup>q</sup>baptizing with water.

<sup>33</sup> And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he who baptizeth with the Holy Spirit.

34 And I saw, and bare witness that this is the Son of God.

35 Again the next day after <sup>1</sup>John stood, and two of his <sup>2</sup>disciples;

36 And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, Master,) where dwellest thou?

39 He saith unto them, "Come and <sup>o</sup>see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.

40 One of the two who heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, <sup>1</sup>Simon <sup>2</sup>Peter's brother.

41 He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have found the <sup>3</sup>Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ.

42 And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of <sup>4</sup>Jona: thou shalt be called <sup>5</sup>Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone.

43 The day following Jesus would go forth into <sup>6</sup>Galilee, and findeth <sup>7</sup>Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me.

44 Now Philip was of <sup>8</sup>Bethsaida, the city of <sup>9</sup>Andrew and Peter.

45 Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of <sup>10</sup>Joseph.

46 And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see.

47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!

48 Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the <sup>11</sup>fig <sup>12</sup>tree, I saw thee.

49 Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.

50 Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw

CHAPTER 2.

AND the third day there was a marriage in <sup>a</sup>Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there:

2 And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.

3 And when they lacked <sup>b</sup>wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine.

4 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come.

5 His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it.

6 And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

7 Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.

9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was <sup>a</sup>made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants who drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the <sup>b</sup>bridegroom,

10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.

11 This beginning of <sup>1</sup>miracles did Jesus in <sup>2</sup>Cana of <sup>3</sup>Galilee, and <sup>4</sup>manifested forth his <sup>5</sup>glory; and his <sup>6</sup>disciples believed on him.

12 After this he went down to <sup>1</sup>Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many days.

13 And the Jews' <sup>2</sup>passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to <sup>3</sup>Jerusalem,

14 And found in the temple those that sold oxen and sheep and doves, and the changers of <sup>4</sup>money sitting:

15 And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;

16 And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's <sup>h</sup>house an house of merchandise.

17 And his disciples remembered that it was written, The <sup>h</sup>zeal of thine house hath eaten me up.

18 Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What <sup>h</sup>sign showest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of the temple of his <sup>h</sup>body.

22 When therefore he was <sup>h</sup>risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the <sup>h</sup>miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not trust himself to them, because he knew all <sup>h</sup>men,

25 And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3.

1 <sup>h</sup>THERE was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

2 The same came to Jesus by <sup>h</sup>night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a <sup>h</sup>teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.

3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be <sup>h</sup>born <sup>h</sup>again, he cannot <sup>h</sup>see the kingdom of God.

4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?

5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is <sup>h</sup>flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born <sup>h</sup>again.

8 The wind bloweth where it will, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?

10 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou the teacher of Israel, and knowest not these things?

11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our <sup>h</sup>witness.

12 If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you heavenly things?

13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from <sup>h</sup>heaven, even the Son of man who is in heaven.

14 And as <sup>h</sup>Moses lifted up the <sup>h</sup>serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:

15 That <sup>h</sup>whosoever believeth in him should not <sup>h</sup>perish, but have eternal life.

16 For God so <sup>h</sup>loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever <sup>h</sup>believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting <sup>h</sup>life.

17 For God sent not his Son into the world to <sup>h</sup>judge the world; but that the world through him might be saved.

18 He that believeth on him is not judged: but he that believeth not is judged already, because he hath not believed in the <sup>h</sup>name of the only begotten Son of God.

19 And this is the judgment, that <sup>h</sup>light is come into the world, and men loved <sup>h</sup>darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be <sup>h</sup>reproved.

21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made <sup>h</sup>manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 After these things came Jesus and his <sup>v</sup>disciples into the <sup>w</sup>land of <sup>x</sup>Judæa; and there he tarried with them, and <sup>y</sup>baptized.

23 And <sup>z</sup>John also was baptizing in Ænon near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For John was not yet cast into <sup>a</sup>prison.

25 Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying.

26 And they came unto John, and said unto him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.

27 John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.

28 Ye yourselves bear me witness, that I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.

29 He that hath the bride is the <sup>b</sup>c bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, who standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.

30 He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all.

32 And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man <sup>a</sup>receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony hath set to his <sup>c</sup>seal that God is true.

34 For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God: for God giveth not the <sup>f</sup> Spirit by measure.

35 The Father <sup>g</sup>loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.

36 He that <sup>h</sup>believeth on the Son <sup>i</sup>hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the <sup>j</sup>wrath of God <sup>k</sup>abideth on him.

4 And he must needs go through <sup>c</sup>Samaria.

5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that <sup>d</sup>Jacob gave to his son Joseph.

6 Now Jacob's <sup>e</sup>well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.

7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.

8 (For his <sup>f</sup>disciples were gone away unto the city to buy food.)

9 Then saith the woman of <sup>g</sup>Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a woman of Samaria? (For the Jews have no dealings with the <sup>h</sup>Samaritans.)

10 Jesus answered and said unto her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.

11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the <sup>i</sup>well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?

12 Art thou greater than our father <sup>j</sup>Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?

13 Jesus answered and said unto her, <sup>k</sup>Whosoever <sup>l</sup>drinketh of this <sup>m</sup>water shall <sup>n</sup>thirst again:

14 But whosoever drinketh of the <sup>o</sup>water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a <sup>p</sup>fountain of water springing up into <sup>q</sup>everlasting life.

15 The woman <sup>r</sup>saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.

17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:

18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly.

19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.

20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in <sup>s</sup>Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.

22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: for <sup>1</sup>salvation is of the Jews.

23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God is a <sup>2</sup>Spirit: and they that <sup>3</sup>worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman saith unto him, I know that <sup>4</sup>Messias cometh, who is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am <sup>5</sup>he.

27 And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with a woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 The woman then left her water-pot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men,

29 <sup>6</sup>Come, see a man, who told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to <sup>7</sup>eat that ye know not of.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him <sup>8</sup>ought to eat?

34 Jesus saith unto them, My meat is to do the <sup>9</sup>will of him that sent me, and to <sup>10</sup>finish his work.

35 Say not ye, There are yet four months, and <sup>11</sup>then cometh <sup>12</sup>harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your <sup>13</sup>eyes, and look on the <sup>14</sup>fields; for they are <sup>15</sup>white already to harvest.

36 And he that <sup>16</sup>soweth receiveth <sup>17</sup>wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that <sup>18</sup>soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.

37 And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no <sup>19</sup>labour: other men laboured, and ye are entered into their labours.

39 And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, who <sup>20</sup>testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And many more believed because of his own word;

42 And said unto the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of the world.

43 Now after two days he departed thence, and went into <sup>1</sup>Galilee.

44 For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no honour in his own country.

45 Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilæans <sup>2</sup>received him, having seen all the things that he did at <sup>3</sup>Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast.

46 So Jesus came again into <sup>4</sup>Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain <sup>5</sup>nobleman, whose son was sick at <sup>6</sup>Capernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judæa into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

48 Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see <sup>7</sup>signs and wonders, ye will not believe.

49 The nobleman <sup>8</sup>saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my child die.

50 Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and he went his way.

51 And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.

52 Then inquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the <sup>9</sup>fever left him.

53 So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.

54 This is again the second <sup>10</sup>miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judæa into Galilee.

sheep market a pool, which is called in the <sup>b</sup>Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of <sup>c</sup>blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

4 For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had.

5 And a certain man was there, who had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that state, he saith unto him, Will thou be made whole?

7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.

8 Jesus saith unto him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.

9 And immediately the man was made <sup>d</sup>whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.

10 The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.

11 He answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk.

12 Then asked they him, What man is that who said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?

13 And he that was healed knew not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest something worse come unto thee.

15 The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, who had made him whole.

16 And therefore did the Jews <sup>e</sup>persecute Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

said also that God was his own Father, making himself equal with God.

19 Then answered Jesus and said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

20 For the Father loveth the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.

21 For as the Father raiseth up the dead, and <sup>j</sup>giveth them life; even so the Son giveth life to whom he will.

22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all <sup>k</sup>judgment unto the Son:

23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father who hath sent him.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, and believeth him that sent me, <sup>h</sup>hath everlasting <sup>i</sup>life, and shall not come into <sup>j</sup>judgment; but is passed from <sup>l</sup>death unto life.

25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

26 For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;

27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of man.

28 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in which all that are in the <sup>m</sup>graves shall hear his voice,

29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the <sup>n</sup>resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of judgment.

30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own <sup>o</sup>will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.

31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.

32 There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.

33 Ye sent unto <sup>p</sup>John, and he bare witness unto the truth.

34 But I receive not <sup>q</sup>witness from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved.

35 He was a burning and a <sup>r</sup>shining <sup>1</sup>light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.

36 But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to <sup>3</sup>finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

37 And the Father himself, who hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form.

38 And ye have not his word <sup>4</sup>abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

39 <sup>2u</sup>Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.

40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.

41 I receive not honour from men.
42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.

43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye <sup>v</sup>receive me not: if <sup>w</sup>another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.

44 How can ye believe, who receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?

45 Do not think that I will <sup>x</sup>accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even <sup>y</sup>Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: <sup>z</sup>for he wrote <sup>a</sup>of me.

47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

23 (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:)

24 When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never <sup>i</sup>thirst.

36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.

37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out.

38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me.

39 And this is the Father's <sup>j</sup>will who hath sent me, that of all that he hath given me I should <sup>k</sup>lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.

40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one who seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will <sup>l</sup>raise him up at the last day.

41 The Jews then <sup>m</sup>murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of <sup>n</sup>Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?

43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves.

44 No man can come to me, except the Father who hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.

45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me.

46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he that is of God, he hath seen the Father.

47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.

48 I am that bread of life.

49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.

50 This is the bread that cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.

51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven: if any man <sup>o</sup>eat of this bread, he shall <sup>p</sup>live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us <sup>q</sup>his flesh to eat?

53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.

54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.

56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.

57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.

58 This is that bread that came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.

59 These things said he in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

61 When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said unto them, Doth this offend you?

62 What and if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?

63 It is the spirit that giveth life; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.

64 But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him.

65 And he said, Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father.

66 From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.

67 Then said Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away?

68 Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we believe and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

CHAPTER 7.

AFTER these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judæa, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judæa, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou do these things, show thyself to the world.

5 For neither did his brethren believe in him.

6 Then Jesus said unto them, My time is not yet come: but your time is always ready.

7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.

8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet fully come.

9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee.

10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

12 And there was much debate among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

14 Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.

15 And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?

16 Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.

17 If any man doth do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself.

18 He that speaketh from himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

19 Did not <sup>h</sup>Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?

20 The multitude answered and said, Thou hast a demon: who goeth about to kill thee?

21 Jesus answered and said unto them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.

22 Moses therefore gave unto you <sup>i</sup>circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man.

23 If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, <sup>j</sup>that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man every whit whole on the sabbath day?

24 Judge not <sup>k</sup>according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.

25 Then said some of them of <sup>l</sup>Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill?

26 But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?

27 Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when the Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.

28 Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.

29 But I know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me.

30 Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

31 And many of the people believed on him, and said, When the Christ cometh, will he do more <sup>m</sup>miracles than these which this man hath done?

32 The Pharisees heard that the people <sup>n</sup>murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.

33 Then said Jesus unto them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me.

34 Ye shall seek me, and shall not

35 Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the <sup>c</sup>dispersed among the <sup>d</sup>Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?

36 What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

37 In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man <sup>e</sup>thirst, let him come unto me, and <sup>f</sup>drink.

38 He that <sup>g</sup>believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, from within him shall flow rivers of living <sup>h</sup>water.

39 (But this spake he of the <sup>i</sup>Spirit, whom they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Spirit was not yet <sup>j</sup>given; because that Jesus was not yet <sup>k</sup>glorified.)

40 Some of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet.

41 Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Shall the Christ come out of <sup>l</sup>Galilee?

42 Hath not the scripture said that the Christ cometh of the seed of <sup>m</sup>David, and out of the town of <sup>n</sup>Bethlehem, where David was?

43 So there was a division among the people because of him.

44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.

45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?

46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.

47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?

48 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?

49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.

50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,)

51 Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?

52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of <sup>o</sup>Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 And every man went unto his own house.

CHAPTER 8.

JESUS went unto the mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.

3 1 And the <sup>a</sup>scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in <sup>b</sup>adultery; and when they had set her in the midst,

4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

5 Now <sup>c</sup>Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?

6 This they said, <sup>d</sup>tempting him, that they might have to <sup>e</sup>accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with <sup>f</sup>his finger wrote on the ground.

7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.

8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And they that heard <sup>g</sup>it, being convicted by <sup>h</sup>their own <sup>i</sup>conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, <sup>j</sup>even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.

10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man <sup>k</sup>condemned thee?

11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.

12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, <sup>l</sup>I am the <sup>m</sup>light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in <sup>n</sup>darkness, but shall have the light of <sup>o</sup>life.

13 The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest <sup>p</sup>witness of thyself; thy witness is not true.

14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear witness of myself, <sup>q</sup>yet my witness is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.

15 Ye judge after the <sup>r</sup>flesh; I judge no man.

16 And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.

18 I am one that bear <sup>z</sup>witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.

20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.

21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.

22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.

24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall <sup>aa</sup>die in your sins: for if ye <sup>ab</sup>believe not that <sup>ac</sup>I am <sup>ad</sup>he, ye shall die in your sins.

26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.

27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.

28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that <sup>af</sup>I am <sup>ag</sup>he, and <sup>ah</sup>that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.

30 As he spake these words, many believed on him.

31 Then said Jesus to those Jews that believed on him, If ye continue in my word, <sup>ai</sup>then are ye my <sup>aj</sup>disciples indeed;

32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you <sup>ak</sup>free.

33 They answered him, We are <sup>al</sup>Abraham's seed, and were never in <sup>am</sup>bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?

34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin <sup>is</sup> the servant of sin.

35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever.

36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.

37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.

38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.

40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, <sup>which</sup> I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.

41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We are not born of <sup>the</sup> fornication; we have one Father, even God.

42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.

43 Why do ye not <sup>understand</sup> my speech? <sup>even</sup> because ye cannot hear my word.

44 Ye are of your father the <sup>devil</sup>, and the <sup>wishes</sup> of your father ye will to do. He was a <sup>murderer</sup> from the beginning, and <sup>abode</sup> not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a <sup>lie</sup>, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.

46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?

47 He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear <sup>them</sup> not, because ye are not of God.

48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a <sup>Samaritan</sup>, and hast a demon?

49 Jesus answered, I have not a demon; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me.

50 And I seek not mine own <sup>glory</sup>: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never <sup>of</sup> taste of death.

53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who died? and the prophets died: whom makest thou thyself?

54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God:

55 Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to <sup>see</sup> my day: and he saw, and was glad.

57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

CHAPTER 9.

AND as he passed by, he saw a man who was <sup>blind</sup> from birth.

2 And his <sup>disciples</sup> asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made <sup>manifest</sup> in him.

4 I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the <sup>night</sup> cometh, when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the <sup>light</sup> of the world.

6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the <sup>eyes</sup> of the blind man with the <sup>clay</sup>,

7 And said unto him, <sup>Go</sup>, wash in the pool of <sup>Siloam</sup>, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and washed, and <sup>came</sup> seeing.

8 The neighbours therefore, and they that before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?

11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.

12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.

13 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.

14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.

16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such <sup>1</sup>/<sub>7</sub> miracles? And there was a division among them.

17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, now that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.

18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.

19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?

20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:

21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.

22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had <sup>h</sup>agreed already, that if any man did <sup>l</sup>confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.

23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.

24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.

25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I <sup>m</sup>see.

26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?

27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are <sup>n</sup>Moses' disciples.

29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is.

30 The man answered and said unto them, Why, herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine <sup>o</sup>eyes.

31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.

32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.

33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing.

34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?

37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.

38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.

39 And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they that see not might see; and that they that see might be made blind.

40 And some of the Pharisees that were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

CHAPTER 10.

VERILY, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the <sup>a</sup>door into the <sup>c</sup>sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 But he that entereth in by the door is the <sup>d</sup>shepherd of the <sup>e</sup>sheep.

3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice; and he <sup>f</sup>calleth his own sheep by name, and <sup>g</sup>leadeth them out.

4 And when he putteth forth all his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of <sup>h</sup>strangers.

6 This <sup>i</sup>parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.

7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, <sup>j</sup>I am the door of the sheep.

8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.

9 I am the <sup>k</sup>door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have <sup>l</sup>life, and that they might have it more <sup>m</sup>abundantly.

11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

12 But he that is an hireling, and not a shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

13 The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep.

14 I am the good shepherd, and know my <sup>n</sup>sheep, and am known of mine,

15 Even as the Father knoweth me and I know the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, that are not of this <sup>o</sup>fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one flock, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have <sup>z</sup>power to lay it down, and I have <sup>z</sup>power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.

19 There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a demon, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a demon. Can a demon open the <sup>aa</sup>eyes of the <sup>ab</sup>blind?

22 And it was at <sup>ac</sup>Jerusalem the feast of the <sup>ad</sup>dedication, and it was winter.

23 And Jesus walked in the temple in <sup>ae</sup>Solomon's porch.

24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How long dost thou hold us in suspense? If thou art the Christ, tell us plainly.

25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear <sup>af</sup>witness of me.

26 But ye <sup>ag</sup>believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.

27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:

28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never <sup>ah</sup>perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.

29 My Father, who gave <sup>ai</sup>them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck <sup>aj</sup>them <sup>ak</sup>out of my Father's hand.

30 I and <sup>al</sup>my Father are one.

31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.

32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shown you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?

33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.

34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?

35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath <sup>am</sup>sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?

37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.

38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know, and <sup>2</sup>believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him.

39 Therefore they sought again to take him: but he escaped out of their hand,

40 And went away again beyond Jordan into the place where <sup>7</sup>John at first <sup>2</sup>baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no <sup>3</sup>miracle: but all things that John spake of this man were true.

42 And many believed on him there.

CHAPTER II.

NOW a certain man was sick, named <sup>a</sup>Lazarus, of <sup>b</sup>Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When Jesus heard that, he said, This <sup>c</sup>sickness is not unto death, but for the <sup>d</sup>glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.

5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that saith he to his <sup>e</sup>disciples, Let us go into <sup>f</sup>Judæa again.

8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?

9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.

10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.

11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus hath fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.

12 Then said his <sup>8</sup>disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall <sup>1</sup>do well.

13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking rest in <sup>k</sup>sleep.

14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, <sup>i</sup>Lazarus is <sup>j</sup>dead.

15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.

16 Then said <sup>k</sup>Thomas, who is called <sup>l</sup>Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bethany was nigh unto <sup>m</sup>Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs off:

19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat still in the house.

21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.

23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.

24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

25 Jesus said unto her, <sup>n</sup>I am the resurrection, and the <sup>o</sup>life: he that <sup>p</sup>believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he <sup>q</sup>live:

26 And <sup>r</sup>whosoever liveth and believeth in me <sup>s</sup>shall never die. Believest thou this?

27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, who should come into the world.

28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 As soon as she heard that, she arose <sup>t</sup>quickly, and came unto him.

30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 The Jews then that were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to <sup>u</sup>weep there.

32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.

35 Jesus wept.

36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 And some of them said, Could not this man, who opened the <sup>v</sup>eyes of the <sup>w</sup>blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldst see the <sup>x</sup>glory of God?

41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and <sup>y</sup>said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.

42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people that stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, <sup>z</sup>come forth.

44 And <sup>a</sup>he that was dead <sup>b</sup>came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, <sup>c</sup>Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then many of the Jews that came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

47 Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth many <sup>d</sup>miracles.

48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the <sup>e</sup>Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.

49 And one of them, named <sup>f</sup>Caiaphas, being the <sup>g</sup>high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

50 Nor consider that it is <sup>h</sup>expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.

51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;

52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.

54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence into the country near to the wilderness, into a town called Ephraim, and there continued with his <sup>i</sup>disciples.

55 And the Jews' <sup>j</sup>passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to <sup>k</sup>Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now both the chief priests and the <sup>l</sup>Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should show it, that they might take him.

CHAPTER 12.

THEN Jesus six days before the passover came to <sup>a</sup>Bethany, where <sup>b</sup>Lazarus was who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a <sup>c</sup>supper; and Martha served: but <sup>d</sup>Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of <sup>e</sup>spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, <sup>f</sup>Judas <sup>g</sup>Iscariot, <sup>h</sup>Simon's son, who should <sup>i</sup>betray him

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare away what was put therein.

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

12 On the next day many people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, 13 Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,

15 <sup>b</sup>Fear not, daughter of Zion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.

16 These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him.

17 The people therefore that were with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare witness.

18 For this cause the people also met him, because they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast:

21 The same came therefore to Philip, who was of Bethsaida of <sup>t</sup> Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a grain of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal.

26 If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour.

27 Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour.

28 Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.

29 The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him.

30 Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.

31 Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.

32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me.

33 This he said, signifying what death he should die.

34 The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.

36 While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from them.

37 But though he had done so many <sup>3</sup>miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:

38 That the saying of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, <sup>d</sup>Lord, who hath believed our <sup>e</sup>report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Isaiah said again,

40 <sup>f</sup>He hath blinded their <sup>g</sup>eyes, and <sup>h</sup>hardened their heart; that they should not <sup>i</sup>see with <sup>j</sup>their eyes, nor understand with <sup>k</sup>their heart, and be <sup>l</sup>converted, and I should heal them.

41 These things said Isaiah, when he saw his glory, and spake of him.

42 Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the <sup>k</sup>Pharisees they did not <sup>i</sup>confess <sup>him</sup>, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:

43 For they loved the praise of men more than the <sup>4</sup>praise of God.

44 Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me.

45 And he that seeth me seeth him that sent me.

46 <sup>m</sup>I am come a light into the world, that <sup>n</sup>whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.

47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

48 He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: <sup>o</sup>the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.

49 For I have not spoken out of myself; but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.

50 And I know that his commandment is <sup>p</sup>life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

heart of <sup>c</sup>Judas Iscariot, <sup>d</sup>Simon's <sup>e</sup>son, to betray him;

3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God;

4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his <sup>f</sup>garments; and took a towel, and <sup>g</sup>girded himself.

5 After that he poureth water into a basin, and began to wash the <sup>h</sup>disciples' feet, and to wipe <sup>i</sup>them with the towel wherewith he was girded.

6 Then cometh he to <sup>j</sup>Simon <sup>k</sup>Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also <sup>l</sup>my hands and <sup>m</sup>my head.

10 Jesus saith to him, He that hath been <sup>k</sup>bathed needeth not save to wash <sup>his</sup> feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all.

11 For he knew who should <sup>n</sup>betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.

12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you?

13 Ye call me <sup>l</sup>Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.

14 If I then, <sup>your</sup> Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

16 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The <sup>2</sup>servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

17 If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.

18 I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: but that the <sup>m</sup>scripture may be fulfilled, <sup>n</sup>He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me.

19 Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that <sup>o</sup>I am <sup>he</sup>.

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that <sup>p</sup>receiveth whomsoever I send receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

21 When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in <sup>9</sup>spirit, and <sup>7</sup>testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall <sup>8</sup>betray me.

22 Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spake.

23 Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake.

25 He then lying on Jesus' <sup>5</sup>breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?

26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas <sup>4</sup>Ischariot, the son of <sup>2</sup>Simon.

27 And after the sop <sup>7</sup>Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do <sup>10</sup>quickly.

28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.

29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.

31 Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man <sup>8</sup>glorified, and God is glorified in him.

32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

33 Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.

34 A <sup>9</sup>new commandment I give unto you, That ye <sup>2</sup>love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

35 By this shall all men know that ye are my <sup>4</sup>disciples, if ye have love one to another.

36 Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards.

37 Peter said unto him, Lord, why

CHAPTER 14.

LET not your <sup>a</sup>heart be <sup>b</sup>troubled: <sup>2</sup>ye <sup>c</sup>believe in God, believe also in me.

2 In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, <sup>d</sup>I will <sup>e</sup>come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 <sup>f</sup>Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus saith unto him, <sup>8</sup>I am the way, the truth, and the <sup>h</sup>life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

7 If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have <sup>i</sup>seen him.

8 <sup>j</sup>Philip saith unto him, Lord, show us the Father, and it <sup>k</sup>sufficeth us.

9 Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father?

10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the <sup>l</sup>words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.

13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If ye shall ask any thing in my <sup>m</sup>name, I will do it.

15 If ye <sup>n</sup>love me, keep my <sup>o</sup>commandments.

16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another <sup>1</sup> Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.

18 I will not leave you <sup>2</sup> comfortless: I will come to you.

19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall <sup>3</sup> live also.

20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.

21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will <sup>4</sup> manifest myself to him.

22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?

23 Jesus answered and said unto him, <sup>5</sup> If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our <sup>6</sup> abode with him.

24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's who sent me.

25 These things have I spoken unto you, being <sup>7</sup> yet present with you.

26 But the <sup>1</sup> Comforter, the <sup>2</sup> Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall <sup>3</sup> teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.

27 <sup>4</sup> Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.

29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.

30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the <sup>1</sup> prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.

CHAPTER 15.

I AM the true <sup>1</sup> vine, and my Father is the husbandman.

2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he <sup>2</sup> cleanseth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.

3 Even now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you.

4 <sup>3</sup> Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

5 I am the vine, ye <sup>4</sup> are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for apart from me ye can do nothing.

6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.

8 Herein is my Father <sup>5</sup> glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my <sup>6</sup> disciples.

9 As the Father hath <sup>7</sup> loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.

10 If ye keep my <sup>8</sup> commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.

12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.

13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.

14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.

15 Henceforth I call you not <sup>1</sup> servants; for the <sup>2</sup> servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father I have made known unto you.

16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have <sup>3</sup> chosen you, and <sup>4</sup> ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, <sup>h</sup>and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my <sup>i</sup>name, he may give it you.

17 These things I <sup>m</sup>command you, that ye love one another.

18 If the world <sup>n</sup>hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.

19 If ye <sup>o</sup>were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have <sup>p</sup>chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.

20 Remember the word that I said unto you, The <sup>s</sup>servant is not greater than his lord. If they have <sup>q</sup>persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.

21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.

22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had <sup>r</sup>sin: but now they have no excuse for their sin.

23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.

25 But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, <sup>s</sup>They hated me without a cause.

26 But when the <sup>t</sup>Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the <sup>u</sup>Spirit of truth, who proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

27 And ye also shall bear <sup>v</sup>witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

CHAPTER 16.

THESE things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service.

3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.

4 But these things have I told you, that when their hour shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.

5 But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?

6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.

7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is <sup>a</sup>expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, <sup>b</sup>the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you.

8 And when he is come, he will <sup>c</sup>convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:

9 Of sin, because they <sup>d</sup>believe not on me;

10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;

11 Of judgment, because the <sup>e</sup>prince of this world hath been judged.

12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.

13 Howbeit when he, the <sup>f</sup>Spirit of truth, is come, he will <sup>g</sup>guide you into all the truth: for he shall not speak <sup>h</sup>from himself; <sup>i</sup>but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come.

14 He shall <sup>j</sup>glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall show it unto you.

15 All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall show it unto you.

16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

17 Then said some of his <sup>j</sup>disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?

18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.

19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye inquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?

20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.

21 A woman when she is in <sup>k</sup> travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the <sup>l</sup> anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.

23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my <sup>m</sup> name, he will give it you.

24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.

25 These things have I spoken unto you in <sup>32</sup> parables: but the hour cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in parables, but I shall show you plainly of the Father.

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.

28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.

29 His <sup>o</sup> disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no <sup>3</sup> parable.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God.

31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?

32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

33 These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have <sup>p</sup> peace. In the world ye shall have <sup>q</sup> tribulation: but be of good <sup>r</sup> cheer; I have <sup>s</sup> overcome the world.

4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have <sup>e</sup> finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I have <sup>f</sup> manifested thy name unto the men that thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.

8 For I have given unto them the <sup>g</sup> words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.

12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is <sup>j</sup> lost, but the son of <sup>k</sup> perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.

13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the <sup>2</sup> evil.

16 They are <sup>m</sup> not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

17 Sanctify them in thy truth: thy word is truth.

18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.

19 And for their sakes I <sup>1</sup>sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified in truth.

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also that shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

22 And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one:

23 I in them, and thou in me, that they may be perfected into one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast <sup>o</sup>loved me.

24 Father, I will that they also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.

25 O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.

26 And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

CHAPTER 18.

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his <sup>a</sup>disciples over the brook <sup>b</sup>Kedron, where was a <sup>c</sup>garden, into which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And <sup>a</sup>Judas also, who betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oft-times resorted thither with his disciples.

3 <sup>c</sup>Judas then, having received a band of <sup>d</sup>men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns and torches and <sup>f</sup>weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom seek ye?

5 They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, <sup>g</sup>I am he. And Judas also, who betrayed him, stood with them.

6 As soon then as he had said unto them, I am <sup>he</sup>, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

7 Then asked he them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.

8 Jesus answered, I have told you that I am <sup>he</sup>: if therefore ye seek me, let these go their way:

9 That the saying might be fulfilled, which he spake, Of them whom thou gavest me have I lost none.

10 Then <sup>b</sup>Simon <sup>c</sup>Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the <sup>d</sup>high priest's <sup>e</sup>servant, and cut off his right ear. The <sup>f</sup>servant's name was Malchus.

11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up the sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not <sup>g</sup>drink it?

12 Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him, 13 And led him away to <sup>h</sup>Annas first; for he was father in law to <sup>i</sup>Caiaphas, who was the high priest that same year.

14 Now Caiaphas was he who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was <sup>j</sup>expedient that one man should die for the people.

15 And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so <sup>k</sup>did another <sup>l</sup>disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.

16 But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple, who was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.

17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou also <sup>m</sup>one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.

18 And the <sup>n</sup>servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.

19 The high priest then asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his <sup>o</sup>teaching.

20 Jesus answered him, I spake openly to the world; I ever <sup>p</sup>taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why asketh thou me? ask them that heard me, what I have said unto them: behold, they know what I said.

22 And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers who stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Now<sup>s</sup> Annas had sent him bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

25 And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

26 One of the <sup>s</sup>servants of the high priest, being kinsman to him whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the <sup>g</sup>garden with him?

27 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew.

28 Then led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the <sup>h</sup>hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the <sup>h</sup>judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the <sup>p</sup>passover.

29 <sup>p</sup>Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What <sup>w</sup>accusation bring ye against this man?

30 They answered and said unto him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee.

31 Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

32 That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die.

33 Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews?

34 Jesus answered him, Askest thou this thing<sup>s</sup> from thyself, or did others tell it thee of me?

35 Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done?

36 Jesus answered, My kingdom is not <sup>s</sup>of this world: if my kingdom were <sup>s</sup>of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.

37 Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear <sup>x</sup>witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

38 Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, I find in him no <sup>e</sup>fault at all.

39 But ye have a custom, that I should <sup>r</sup>release unto you one at the <sup>p</sup>passover: will ye therefore that I release unto you the King of the Jews?

40 Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but <sup>a</sup>Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19.

THEN <sup>a</sup>Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.

2 And the soldiers platted a <sup>b</sup>crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a <sup>c</sup>purple robe, 3 And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man!

6 When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, <sup>d</sup>Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And went again into the <sup>h</sup>judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have <sup>p</sup>power to crucify thee, and have <sup>p</sup>power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no <sup>p</sup>power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

12 And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cæsar's friend: whosoever maketh himself a king speaketh against <sup>e</sup>Cæsar.

13 When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your King!

15 But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cæsar.

16 Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.

17 And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha:

18 Where they crucified him, and two others with him, on either side one, and Jesus in the midst.

19 And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.

20 This title then read many of the Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin.

21 Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.

22 Pilate answered, What I have written I have written.

23 Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.

24 They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.

25 Now there stood by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son!

27 Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home.

28 After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.

29 Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon a hyssop, and put it to his mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 Then came the soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other that was crucified with him.

33 But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they brake not his legs:

34 But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water.

35 And he that saw it hath borne testimony, and his testimony is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.

37 And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 And after this Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also Nicodemus, who at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred pound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, wherein was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

CHAPTER 20.

THE first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulchre.

2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon <sup>a</sup>Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen cloths lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh <sup>b</sup>Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen cloths lie,

7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other <sup>c</sup>disciple, who came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

11 But Mary stood without at the sepulchre <sup>d</sup>weeping: and as she wept, she stooped down, and looked into the sepulchre,

12 And seeth two angels in <sup>e</sup>white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.

14 And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.

16 Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master.

17 Jesus saith unto her, <sup>1</sup>Hold me not; for I am not yet ascended to my <sup>f</sup>Father: but go to my <sup>g</sup>brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and <sup>to</sup> my God, and your God.

18 Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and <sup>that</sup> he had spoken these things unto her.

19 Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the <sup>h</sup>Jews, came Jesus and <sup>i</sup>stood in the midst, and saith unto them, <sup>j</sup>Peace be unto you.

20 And when he had so said, he showed unto them <sup>his</sup> hands and his side. Then were the disciples <sup>k</sup>glad, when they saw the Lord.

21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you.

22 And when he had said this, he breathed on <sup>them</sup>, and saith unto them, <sup>l</sup>Receive ye the <sup>m</sup>Holy Spirit:

23 <sup>Who</sup>soever sins ye <sup>n</sup>remit, they are remitted unto them; and whosesoever <sup>sins</sup> ye retain, they are retained.

24 But <sup>o</sup>Thomas, one of the <sup>p</sup>twelve, called <sup>27</sup>Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.

26 And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas was with them: <sup>then</sup> came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you.

27 Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust <sup>it</sup> into my side: and be not faithless, but believing.

28 And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God.

29 Jesus saith unto him, <sup>7</sup>Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed <sup>are</sup> they that have not seen, and <sup>yet</sup> have believed.

30 And many other <sup>s</sup>signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book:

31 But these are written, that ye might <sup>1</sup>believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have <sup>2</sup>life <sup>2</sup>through his <sup>2</sup>name.

CHAPTER 21.

AFTER these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the Sea of <sup>a</sup>Tiberias; and on this wise showed he himself.

3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a boat immediately; and that night they caught nothing.

4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore; but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.

5 Then Jesus saith unto them, <sup>i</sup>Children, have ye any thing to eat? They answered him, No.

6 And he said unto them, Cast the <sup>j</sup>net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now <sup>k</sup>they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.

7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his <sup>l</sup>fisher's coat unto him, (for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.

8 And the other disciples came in a little boat; (for they were not far from <sup>m</sup>land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.

9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.

10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.

12 Jesus saith unto them, <sup>n</sup>Come! break your fast. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh <sup>o</sup>bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

14 This is now the third time that Jesus showed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.

15 So when they had eaten, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, <sup>2</sup>lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I <sup>3</sup>love thee. He saith unto him, <sup>4</sup>Feed my lambs.

16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, <sup>2</sup>lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I <sup>3</sup>love thee. He saith unto him, <sup>4</sup>Feed my <sup>5</sup>sheep.

17 He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, <sup>2</sup>Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I <sup>3</sup>love thee. Jesus saith unto him, <sup>4</sup>Feed my sheep.

18 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not.

19 This spake he, signifying by what death he should <sup>7</sup>glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me.

20 Then Peter, turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; who also leaned on his <sup>5</sup>breast at <sup>6</sup>supper, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth thee?

21 Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?

22 Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he <sup>8</sup>tarry till I <sup>9</sup>come, what is that to thee? follow thou me.

23 Then went this saying among the brethren, that the disciple should not die: yet Jesus saith not unto him, He shall not die. If I will that he tarry, what is that to thee?

24 This is the disciple who beareth witness of these things, and we know his testimony is true.

25 And there are also other things which Jesus did, the which should be written: but I suppose that even these could not contain the things that should be written. Amen.

CHAPTER 1.

THE former narrative I made, O<sup>a</sup> Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and to <sup>b</sup>teach,

<sup>2</sup> Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Spirit had given commandments unto the <sup>c</sup>apostles whom he had chosen:

<sup>3</sup> To whom also he showed himself alive after his passion by many proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

<sup>7</sup> And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own <sup>l</sup>authority.

While they looked <sup>t</sup>steadfastly toward heaven as he went up, he stood by them in <sup>u</sup>vestments white and gleaming.

And he said, Ye men of <sup>v</sup>Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? for <sup>w</sup>Jesus, who is <sup>x</sup>received up into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye saw him go into heaven.

And when they were returned they unto Jerusalem, to the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey.

<sup>15</sup> And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the <sup>f</sup>disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,)

<sup>17</sup> For he was numbered with us, and had received a part in this ministry.

<sup>21</sup> Therefore, of these men that have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

<sup>24</sup> And they <sup>t</sup>prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, who knowest the hearts of all, show which of these two thou hast chosen,

<sup>25</sup> That he may take the place in this ministry and apostleship, from which <sup>a</sup>Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.

26 And they gave forth their <sup>s</sup>lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2.

AND when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all together in one place.

2 And <sup>a</sup>suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared unto them tongues, as of fire, parting, and sitting upon each of them.

4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other tongues, as the <sup>b</sup>Spirit gave them utterance.

5 Now there were dwelling at <sup>c</sup>Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven.

6 And when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them speak in his own <sup>d</sup>language.

7 And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these that speak <sup>e</sup>Galilæans?

8 And how hear we, every man in our own language wherein we were born?

9 Parthians, and Medes, and <sup>f</sup>Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in <sup>g</sup>Judæa, and <sup>h</sup>Cappadocia, in <sup>i</sup>Pontus, and <sup>j</sup>Asia,

10 <sup>k</sup>Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in <sup>l</sup>Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers from <sup>m</sup>Rome, Jews and <sup>n</sup>proselytes, 11 <sup>o</sup>Cretes and <sup>p</sup>Arabians, we do hear them speak in our languages the wonderful works of God.

12 And they were all amazed and perplexed, saying one to another, What meaneth this?

13 Others, <sup>q</sup>mocking, said, These men are full of new <sup>r</sup>wine.

14 But <sup>s</sup>Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judæa, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:

15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.

16 But this is that which was spoken through the prophet Joel:

17 <sup>c</sup>And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my <sup>d</sup>Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see <sup>e</sup>visions, and your old men shall <sup>f</sup>dream dreams:

18 And on my <sup>g</sup>servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy;

19 And I will show wonders in heaven above, and <sup>h</sup>signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:

20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the <sup>i</sup>moon into blood, before that <sup>j</sup>great and notable day of the Lord come:

21 And it shall come to pass, that <sup>k</sup>whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved.

22 Ye men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by <sup>l</sup>miracles and wonders and <sup>m</sup>signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

23 Him, being delivered by the <sup>n</sup>determinate counsel and <sup>o</sup>foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by <sup>p</sup>wicked hands have <sup>q</sup>crucified and slain;

24 Whom God hath raised up, having <sup>r</sup>loosed the pangs of death: because it was not <sup>s</sup>possible that he should be held by it.

25 For David speaketh concerning him: <sup>t</sup>I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:

26 Therefore did my <sup>u</sup>heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also my flesh shall rest in <sup>v</sup>hope:

27 Because thou wilt not leave my soul in <sup>w</sup>hell, neither wilt thou suffer thy Holy One to see <sup>x</sup>corruption.

28 Thou hast made known to me the ways of <sup>y</sup>life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

29 Brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his <sup>z</sup>sepulchre is with us unto this day.

30 Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an <sup>aa</sup>oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins <sup>ab</sup>one should sit on his <sup>ac</sup>throne;

31 He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in <sup>2</sup>hell, neither his flesh did see corruption.

32 This Jesus hath God <sup>1</sup>raised up, whereof we all are <sup>11</sup>witnesses.

33 Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having <sup>v</sup>received of the Father the <sup>w</sup>promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.

34 For David is not ascended into the heavens; but he saith himself, <sup>x</sup>The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 35 Until I make thy foes thy footstool.

36 Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made this same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.

37 Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do?

38 Then Peter said unto them, <sup>y</sup>Repent, and be <sup>z</sup>baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the <sup>a</sup>remission of sins, and ye shall receive the <sup>b</sup>gift of the Holy Spirit.

39 For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, as many as the Lord our God shall call.

40 And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation.

41 Then they, having received his word, were baptized: and there were <sup>a</sup>added in that day about three thousand souls.

42 And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' <sup>a</sup>teaching and <sup>a</sup>fellowship, and in the breaking of bread, and in prayers.

43 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.

44 And all that believed were together, and had all things common;

45 And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.

46 And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread <sup>3</sup>from house to house, did eat their food with gladness and <sup>f</sup>singleness of heart, 47 Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to <sup>8</sup>them daily those who were being saved.

CHAPTER 3.

NOW <sup>a</sup>Peter and <sup>b</sup>John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was being carried, whom they laid daily at the <sup>c</sup>gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask <sup>d</sup>alms of them that entered into the temple;

3 Who seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple asked an alms.

4 And Peter, fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave heed unto them, expecting to receive something from them.

6 Then Peter said, <sup>e</sup>Silver and <sup>f</sup>gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk.

7 And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and <sup>8</sup>immediately his feet and ankle <sup>h</sup>bones received strength.

8 And he leaping up stood, and began to walk, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.

9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

10 And they knew that it was he that sat for alms at the Beautiful <sup>i</sup>gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened unto him.

11 And as he held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called <sup>j</sup>Solomon's, greatly wondering.

12 And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people: Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own <sup>k</sup>power or godliness we had made this man to walk?

14 But ye denied the Holy and Righteous One, and desired a <sup>r</sup>murderer to be granted unto you;

15 And killed the <sup>s</sup>Prince of <sup>t</sup>Life, whom God hath raised from the dead; <sup>2</sup>whereof we are <sup>u</sup>witnesses.

16 And his name through <sup>v</sup>faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is through him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

17 And now, brethren, I know that through <sup>w</sup>ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

18 But those things, which God had announced beforehand by the mouth of all his prophets, that his Christ should <sup>x</sup>suffer, he hath so fulfilled.

19 <sup>y</sup>Repent ye therefore, and <sup>z</sup>turn again, that your sins may be <sup>a</sup>blotted out, in order that the times of <sup>b</sup>refreshing may <sup>c</sup>come from the <sup>d</sup>presence of the Lord;

20 And that he may send the Christ, who before was preached unto you:

21 Whom the heaven must <sup>e</sup>receive <sup>f</sup>until the times of the <sup>g</sup>restitution of all things, of which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his <sup>h</sup>holy prophets from old time.

22 For Moses truly said: <sup>i</sup>A <sup>j</sup>Prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you from among your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you.

23 And it shall come to pass, <sup>that</sup> every soul that will not hear that Prophet shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.

24 Yea, and all the prophets from <sup>k</sup>Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold these days.

25 Ye are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with your fathers, saying unto Abraham, <sup>l</sup>And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.

26 Unto you first God, having raised up his <sup>m</sup>Servant, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from your <sup>n</sup>iniquities.

word believed; and the number of men became about five thousand.

5 And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and <sup>c</sup>elders, and <sup>d</sup>scribes,

6 And <sup>e</sup>Annas the <sup>f</sup>high priest, and <sup>g</sup>Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at <sup>h</sup>Jerusalem.

7 And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, In what <sup>i</sup>power, or in what name, have ye done this?

8 Then <sup>j</sup>Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said unto them: Ye rulers of the people, and elders,

9 If we this day be examined as to the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole;

10 Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye <sup>k</sup>crucified, whom God raised from the dead, <sup>even</sup> by him doth this man stand here before you whole.

11 This is the <sup>l</sup>stone which was set at naught by you the builders, which became the head of the <sup>m</sup>corner.

12 Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is no other name under heaven given among men, wherein we must be saved.

13 Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and <sup>n</sup>John, and perceived that they were <sup>o</sup>unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.

14 And beholding the man that was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the <sup>1</sup>council, they conferred among themselves,

16 Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable <sup>p</sup>sign hath been done through them is <sup>q</sup>manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it.

17 But that it spread no further among the people, let us threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.

18 And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach, in the name of Jesus.

19 But Peter and John answered and said unto them: Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto God, judge ye:

20 For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.

21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people: for all <sup>1</sup>glorified God for what had been done.

22 For the man was above forty years old, on whom this miracle of <sup>1</sup>healing had been wrought.

23 And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said unto them.

24 And when they heard that, they <sup>1</sup>lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said: Lord, thou art God, who hast <sup>11</sup>made the heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is:

25 Who through the Holy Spirit, by the mouth of thy servant David our father, hast said, <sup>1</sup>Why did the nations rage, and the peoples imagine vain things?

26 The kings of the earth <sup>2</sup>stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against the Lord, and against his Anointed.

28 To do whatsoever thy hand and thy counsel <sup>1</sup>predestinated to come to pass.

29 And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy <sup>1</sup>servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word,

30 By stretching forth thy hand to heal; and that <sup>1</sup>d signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy <sup>3</sup>Servant Jesus.

31 And when they had prayed, the place was <sup>1</sup>shaken where they were assembled together, and they were all filled with the <sup>1</sup>Holy Spirit, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and soul: and no one said that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.

33 And with great power gave the <sup>1</sup>apostles witness of the <sup>1</sup>resurrec-

34 For there was no one among them that was in want: for as many as were <sup>1</sup>possessors of <sup>1</sup>lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,

35 And laid them down at the apostles' feet; and distribution was made unto every man <sup>2</sup>according as he had need.

37 Having <sup>1</sup>land, sold it, and brought the <sup>1</sup>money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5.

BUT a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the <sup>1</sup>apostles' feet.

3 But <sup>1</sup>Peter said, Ananias, why hath <sup>1</sup>Satan filled thy heart to <sup>1</sup>lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

4 While it remained, was it not thine own? and after it was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God.

5 And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and expired: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the younger men arose, <sup>1</sup>wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And it was about three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in.

8 And Peter said to her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.

9 Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to <sup>2</sup>tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them that have buried thy husband are at the door, and they shall carry thee out.

10 Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and expired: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.

11 And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.

12 And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.

13 And of the rest no one dared join them: but the people magnified them.

14 And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.

15 So that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them that were vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, which is the sect of the Sadducees, and were filled with jealousy,

18 And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But an angel of the Lord by night opened the prison doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this Life.

21 And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.

22 But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,

23 Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.

24 Now when the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, they were sore perplexed concerning them, whereunto this would grow.

25 Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And when they had brought them, they set them before the council. And the high priest asked them, 28 Saying, Did not we strictly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We must obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree.

31 Him hath God exalted by his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 And we are his witnesses as to these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey him.

33 When they heard that, they were torn with rage, and took counsel to slay them.

34 Then there stood up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, honoured by all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little while,

35 And said unto them: Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men.

36 For before these days rose up Theudas, claiming to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nothing.

37 After this man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away many people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

38 And now I say unto you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nothing.

39 But if it be of God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.

40 And to him they agreed: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.

41 And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted <sup>f</sup>worthy to <sup>g</sup>suffer dishonour for the Name.

42 And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and <sup>h</sup>preach Jesus as the Christ.

CHAPTER 6.

AND in those days, when the number of the <sup>a</sup>disciples was multiplying, there arose a <sup>b</sup>murmuring of the <sup>1c</sup>Grecian Jews against the <sup>d</sup>Hebrews, because their <sup>e</sup>widows were <sup>f</sup>neglected in the daily ministration.

2 Then the <sup>g</sup>twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said: It is not befitting that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.

3 Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among us seven men of honest report, full of the Spirit and of <sup>h</sup>wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.

4 But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.

5 And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose <sup>i</sup>Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and <sup>j</sup>Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a <sup>k</sup>proselyte of Antioch:

6 Whom they set before the <sup>l</sup>apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.

7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples <sup>m</sup>multiplied in <sup>n</sup>Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

8 And <sup>o</sup>Stephen, full of grace and <sup>p</sup>power, did great wonders and <sup>q</sup>miracles among the people.

9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the <sup>2</sup>Libertines, and Cyrenians, and <sup>3</sup>Alexandrines, and those from Cilicia and <sup>4</sup>Asia, disputing with Stephen.

10 And they were not able to <sup>r</sup>resist the wisdom and the <sup>v</sup>Spirit by which he spake.

11 Then they suborned men, who said: We have heard him speak blasphemous words against <sup>w</sup>Moses, and God.

12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the <sup>x</sup>scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,

14 For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change the customs which Moses delivered us.

15 And all that sat in the council, looking <sup>2</sup>stedfastly on him, saw his face as the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7.

THEN said the <sup>a</sup>high priest, Are these things so?

2 And he said: Brethren and fathers, hearken; The <sup>b</sup>God of <sup>c</sup>glory appeared unto our father <sup>d</sup>Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Haran,

3 And said unto him, <sup>e</sup>Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the <sup>f</sup>land which I shall show thee.

4 Then came he out of the <sup>g</sup>land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in <sup>h</sup>Haran: and from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell.

5 And he gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so <sup>i</sup>much as to set his foot on; yet he <sup>j</sup>promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when as <sup>k</sup>yet he had no child.

6 And God <sup>l</sup>spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and afflict them four hundred years.

7 And the nation to which they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come forth, and serve me in this place.

8 And he gave him the <sup>k</sup>covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and <sup>l</sup>Isaac begat <sup>m</sup>Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.

9 And the patriarchs, moved with <sup>n</sup>envy, sold Joseph into <sup>o</sup>Egypt: but <sup>p</sup>God was with him,

10 And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he made him governor over Egypt and all his house.

11 Now there came a f famine over all the land of Egypt and r Canaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no sustenance.

12 But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers *f*irst.

13 And at the second *t*ime Joseph was *s*made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was *e*made known unto Pharaoh.

14 Then sent Joseph, and called his father Jacob to *h*im, and all his kindred, u threescore and fifteen souls.

15 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and *d*ied, he, and our fathers,

16 And were carried over unto Shechem, and laid in the *w*sepulchre that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Hamor, in Shechem.

17 But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people x grew and multiplied in Egypt,

18 Till *j*another king arose, who knew not Joseph.

19 The same *d*ealt subtly with our kindred, and oppressed our fathers, that they should cast out their young children, to the end that they might not live.

20 In which time *a*Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished in his father's house three months;

21 And when he was cast out, *b*Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him as her own son.

22 And Moses was *l*earned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.

23 And when he was about forty years old, *c*it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

24 And seeing one of *t*hem suffer wrong, he defended *h*im, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:

25 For he supposed his brethren would have understood how that God by his hand *s*would deliver them: but they understood not.

26 And *a*the next day he showed himself unto them as they strove, and urged them to peace, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another?

27 But he that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?

28 Wilt thou kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian yesterday?

29 And Moses *e*fled at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons.

30 And when forty years were expired, there *f*appeared to him in the *g*wilderness of mount *h*Sinai an angel in a flame of fire in a bush.

31 When Moses saw *i*t, he wondered at the sight; and as he drew near to behold *i*t, the voice of the Lord came unto him, 32 Saying, *j*I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and dared not look.

33 Then said the Lord to him, *j*Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.

34 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people that are in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.

35 This Moses whom they refused, saying, *k*Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to *b*e a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel that appeared to him in the bush.

36 He *l*brought them out, after that he had showed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

37 This is that Moses, who said unto the children of Israel, *m*A prophet shall your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me.<sup>4</sup>

38 This is he that was in the *u*assembly in the wilderness with the angel that spake to him in the mount Sinai, and *w*ith our fathers: who received the *v*living *o*acles to give unto us:

39 Whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust *h*im from them, and in their hearts *p*turned back again into Egypt,

40 Saying unto Aaron, *q*Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him.

41 And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

42 Then God turned, and gave them up to *r*worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, <sup>5</sup>O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness?

43 Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of the god Rephan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.

44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.

45 Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Joshua into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, unto the days of David;

46 Who obtained favour before God, and desired to obtain a dwelling-place for the God of Jacob.

47 But <sup>7</sup>Solomon built him a house.

48 Howbeit the most High <sup>w</sup>dwell-eth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet,

49 <sup>x</sup>Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?

50 Hath not my hand made all these things?

51 Ye <sup>y</sup>stiffnecked and <sup>z</sup>uncircumcised in heart and <sup>a</sup>ears, ye do always <sup>b</sup>resist the Holy Spirit: as your fathers did, so do ye.

52 <sup>c</sup>Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them that announced beforehand concerning the coming of the Righteous One; of whom ye have been now the <sup>d</sup>betrayers and <sup>e</sup>murderers:

53 Who have received the law <sup>f</sup>/by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

54 When they heard these things, they were <sup>g</sup>cut to the heart, and they gnashed their teeth against him.

55 But he, being full of the <sup>h</sup>Holy Spirit, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and <sup>i</sup>saw the <sup>j</sup>glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, 56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.

57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one <sup>k</sup>accord,

60 And he <sup>o</sup>kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this <sup>p</sup>sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

CHAPTER 8.

AND <sup>a</sup>Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the <sup>b</sup>church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judæa and <sup>c</sup>Samaria, except the <sup>d</sup>apostles.

2 And devout men carried <sup>e</sup>Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.

3 As for Saul, he made havoc of the <sup>f</sup>church, entering into house after house, and dragging away men and women, committed them to <sup>g</sup>prison.

4 Therefore they that were scattered abroad went every where <sup>h</sup>preaching the word.

5 Then <sup>i</sup>Philip went down to the city of <sup>j</sup>Samaria, and preached Christ unto them.

6 And the people with one <sup>k</sup>accord gave heed unto those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing <sup>l</sup>the <sup>m</sup>miracles which he did.

7 For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with <sup>n</sup>palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man, called <sup>o</sup>Simon, who beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and <sup>p</sup>astonished the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And to him they had regard, because that of long time he had <sup>q</sup>astonished them with <sup>r</sup>sorceries.

12 But when they believed Philip preaching the <sup>s</sup>things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were <sup>t</sup>baptized, both men and women.

13 Then <sup>r</sup>Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and <sup>s</sup>signs which were done.

14 Now when the apostles who were at <sup>t</sup>Jerusalem heard that Samaria had <sup>u</sup>received the word of God, they sent unto them <sup>v</sup>Peter and <sup>w</sup>John:

15 Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the <sup>x</sup>Holy Spirit;

16 For he had not yet fallen upon any of them: only they were baptized <sup>a</sup>in the name of the Lord Jesus.

17 Then they <sup>y</sup>laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.

18 And when Simon saw that through the laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them <sup>z</sup>money,

19 Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit.

20 But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast <sup>a</sup>thought that the <sup>b</sup>gift of God may be <sup>c</sup>purchased with money.

21 Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.

22 <sup>d</sup>Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray the Lord, if perhaps the thought of thy <sup>e</sup>heart may be <sup>f</sup>forgiven thee.

23 For I perceive that thou art in the <sup>g</sup>gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.

24 Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.

25 And they, when they had <sup>h</sup>testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and <sup>i</sup>preached the <sup>j</sup>gospel in many villages of the <sup>k</sup>Samaritans.

26 But an angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from <sup>k</sup>Jerusalem unto <sup>l</sup>Gaza, which is desert.

27 And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of <sup>m</sup>Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace, <sup>n</sup>queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem to worship,

28 Was returning, and sitting in his chariot read <sup>o</sup>Isaiah the prophet.

29 Then the Spirit said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot.

30 And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Isaiah, and said, <sup>p</sup>Understandest thou what thou readest?

31 And he said, How can I, except some one should guide me? And he besought Philip that he would come up and sit with him.

32 The place of the scripture which he read was this, <sup>q</sup>He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he not his mouth:

33 In his <sup>r</sup>humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.

34 And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?

35 Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached unto him Jesus.

36 And as they went on their way, they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be <sup>s</sup>baptized?<sup>6</sup>

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through he preached the gospel to all the cities, till he came to <sup>t</sup>Cæsarea.

CHAPTER 9.

AND <sup>a</sup>Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the <sup>b</sup>disciples of the Lord, went unto the <sup>c</sup>high priest,

2 And desired of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any that were of the <sup>d</sup>Way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem.

3 And as he journeyed, he came near <sup>e</sup>Damascus: and <sup>f</sup>suddenly there <sup>g</sup>shone round about him a light from heaven:

4 And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

5 And he <sup>h</sup>said, Who art thou,

Lord? And he said, <sup>i</sup>I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.<sup>1</sup>

6 But arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.

7 And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but seeing no man.

8 And Saul arose from the earth; and when his <sup>j</sup>eyes were opened, he saw <sup>2</sup>no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither did eat nor drink.

10 And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named <sup>k</sup>Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a <sup>l</sup>vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

11 And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of <sup>m</sup>Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, <sup>n</sup>And hath <sup>o</sup>seen <sup>3</sup>in a vision a man named <sup>o</sup>Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.

13 Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy <sup>p</sup>saints at <sup>q</sup>Jerusalem:

14 And here he hath authority from the chief priests to bind all that call on thy name.

15 But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: <sup>r</sup>for he is a <sup>4</sup>chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before <sup>r</sup>Gentiles, and kings, and the children of <sup>s</sup>Israel:

16 For I will show him how great things he must <sup>t</sup>suffer for my name's sake.

17 And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, who appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the <sup>v</sup>Holy Spirit.

18 And immediately there fell from his <sup>w</sup>eyes as it were scales: and he received <sup>x</sup>sight forthwith, and arose, and was <sup>y</sup>baptized.

19 And when he had received food, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the <sup>z</sup>disciples that were at Damascus.

20 And straightway, in the synagogues, he proclaimed <sup>5</sup>Jesus, that he is the Son of God.

21 But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them that called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for this purpose, that he might bring them bound unto the chief priests?

22 But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews that dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is the very Christ.

23 And when many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him:

24 But their plot became known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.

25 But the disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall in a basket.

26 And coming to Jerusalem, he essayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.

27 But <sup>a</sup>Barnabas took him, and brought him to the <sup>b</sup>apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

29 And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord, and disputed against the <sup>c</sup>Grecian Jews; but they sought to slay him.

30 Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to <sup>d</sup>Cæsarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.

31 Then had the <sup>e</sup>churches rest throughout all <sup>f</sup>Judæa and <sup>g</sup>Galilee and <sup>h</sup>Samaria, and were <sup>i</sup>edified; and walking in the <sup>j</sup>fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, were <sup>k</sup>multiplied.

32 And it came to pass, as <sup>l</sup>Peter passed throughout all <sup>m</sup>quarters, he came down also to the saints that dwelt at Lydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named <sup>n</sup>Æneas, who had kept his bed eight years, and was <sup>o</sup>paralyzed.

34 And Peter said unto him, Æneas, Jesus, the Christ, maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.

35 And all that dwelt at <sup>p</sup>Lydda and Sharon saw him, and turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was at <sup>q</sup>Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called <sup>7</sup>Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and <sup>8</sup>almsdeeds which she did.

37 And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid in an upper chamber.

38 And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the <sup>9</sup>disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.

39 Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and <sup>7</sup>garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.

40 But Peter put them all forth, and <sup>5</sup>kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, he said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her <sup>1</sup>eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when he had called the <sup>4</sup>saints and widows, presented her <sup>2</sup>alive.

42 And it came to be known throughout all Joppa; and many believed on the Lord.

43 And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in <sup>10</sup>Joppa with one <sup>2</sup>Simon a tanner.

4 And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are gone up for a <sup>7</sup>memorial before God.

5 And now send men to Joppa, and call for one <sup>8</sup>Simon, whose surname is <sup>4</sup>Peter:

called two of his household servants, and a devout <sup>1</sup>soldier of them that waited on him continually;

8 And when he had declared all these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa.

9 On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour:

10 And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,

11 And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending, like a great sheet <sup>2</sup>knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:

12 Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, <sup>3</sup>and creeping things, and fowls of the air.

13 And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.

14 But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or <sup>1</sup>unclean.

15 And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.

16 This was done thrice: and the vessel was received up <sup>4</sup>again into heaven.

17 Now while Peter was much perplexed in himself what this vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men that were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for <sup>5</sup>Simon's house, and stood before the <sup>1</sup>gate,

18 And called, and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, lodged there.

19 While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three men seek thee.

20 Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.

21 Then Peter went down to the men, and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore ye are come?

22 And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a righteous man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words of thee.

23 Then he called them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

24 And the morrow after they entered into <sup>m</sup>Cæsarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends

25 And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.

26 But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man.

27 And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that were come together.

28 And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath showed me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

29 Therefore came I unto you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?

30 And Cornelius said, Four days ago, at the ninth hour, I was praying in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,

31 And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine <sup>n</sup>alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.

32 Send therefore to <sup>o</sup>Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodging in the house of Simon a tanner by the sea side.

33 Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present <sup>s</sup>before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of the Lord.

34 Then Peter opened his mouth, and said: Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons;

35 But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is <sup>p</sup>accepted with him.

37 That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all <sup>s</sup>Judæa, and began from <sup>t</sup>Galilee, after the <sup>u</sup>baptism which <sup>v</sup>John preached;

38 How God <sup>w</sup>anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the <sup>x</sup>Holy Spirit and with power; who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the <sup>y</sup>devil; for God was with him.

41 Not to all the people, but unto witnesses <sup>d</sup>chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he who hath been <sup>e</sup>ordained of God to be the Judge of <sup>f</sup>living and dead.

43 To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name <sup>g</sup>whosoever believeth on him shall receive <sup>h</sup>remission of sins.

44 While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all them that heard the word.

45 And they of the <sup>i</sup>circumcision that believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the <sup>j</sup>Gentiles also was poured out the <sup>k</sup>gift of the Holy Spirit.

46 For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Can any man forbid the water, that these should not be baptized, who have <sup>l</sup>received the Holy Spirit as well as we?

8 But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing <sup>1</sup>common or <sup>2</sup>unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.

9 But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath <sup>3</sup>cleansed, that call not thou <sup>1</sup>common.

10 And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.

11 And, behold, immediately three men were at the house where I was, sent from <sup>1</sup>Cæsarea unto me.

12 And the Spirit bade me go with them, <sup>2</sup>nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:

17 <sup>3</sup>Forasmuch then as God gave unto them the same <sup>2</sup>gift as unto us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God?

19 Now they that were scattered abroad upon the <sup>4</sup>persecution that arose about <sup>1</sup>Stephen travelled as far as Phenicia and <sup>2</sup>Cyprus and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.

26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that for a whole year they assembled themselves with the <sup>7</sup>church, and taught a great multitude. And the <sup>8</sup>disciples were called <sup>9</sup>Christians first in Antioch.

27 And in these days came prophets from <sup>10</sup>Jerusalem unto Antioch.

28 And there stood up one of them named <sup>11</sup>Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great <sup>12</sup>famine over all the inhabited earth; which came to pass in the days of <sup>13</sup>Claudius.

29 Then the <sup>14</sup>disciples, every man <sup>15</sup>according to his ability, <sup>16</sup>determined to send relief unto the brethren that dwelt in Judæa:

30 Which also they did, and sent it to the <sup>17</sup>elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

CHAPTER 12.

NOW about that time <sup>1</sup>Herod the king stretched forth his hands to hurt some of those of the <sup>2</sup>church.

2 And he killed James the brother of <sup>3</sup>John with the sword.

3 And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take <sup>4</sup>Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.)

4 And when he had seized him, he put him in <sup>5</sup>prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after the Passover to bring him forth to the people.

5 Peter therefore was kept in prison: but instant and earnest prayer was made by the church unto God for him.

6 And when <sup>6</sup>Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And, behold, an angel of the Lord stood over him, and a light <sup>g</sup>shone in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and awakened him, saying, Rise up <sup>h</sup>quickly. And his chains fell off his hands.

8 And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy <sup>i</sup>garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out, and followed him; and knew not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a <sup>j</sup>vision.

10 When they were past the first and the second watch, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter had come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that <sup>k</sup>the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many were gathered together praying

13 And as Peter knocked at the door of the <sup>l</sup>gate, a maidservant came to answer, named Rhoda.

14 And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate.

15 And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then said they, It is his angel.

16 But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

17 But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go tell these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.

18 Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what had become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded

20 And he was highly displeased with them of <sup>o</sup>Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus, who was over the king's bed-chamber, their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by the king's country.

21 And upon a set day <sup>p</sup>Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them.

22 And the people shouted, The voice of a god, and not of a man!

23 And immediately an angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the <sup>q</sup>glory: and he was eaten by worms, and expired.

24 But the word of God <sup>r</sup>grew and <sup>s</sup>multiplied.

25 And <sup>t</sup>Barnabas and <sup>u</sup>Saul returned from <sup>v</sup>Jerusalem, when they had completed their mission, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

CHAPTER 13.

NOW there were in the <sup>a</sup>church that was at Antioch, prophets and teachers: <sup>b</sup>Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, the foster-brother of <sup>c</sup>Herod the tetrarch, and <sup>d</sup>Saul.

2 As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the <sup>e</sup>Holy Spirit said, Separate me <sup>f</sup>Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them.

3 And when they had fasted and prayed, and <sup>g</sup>laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So they, being sent forth by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to <sup>h</sup>Cyprus.

5 And when they were at Salamis, they <sup>i</sup>preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also <sup>j</sup>John as their attendant.

6 And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain <sup>k</sup>sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-jesus:

7 Who was with the proconsul of the country, Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the <sup>2</sup>sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the proconsul from the faith.

9 Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Spirit, set his eyes on him,

10 And said, O full of all deceit and all villainy, thou son of the <sup>m</sup>devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to <sup>n</sup>pervert the right ways of the Lord?

11 And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be <sup>o</sup>blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there <sup>p</sup>fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.

12 Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the <sup>q</sup>teaching of the Lord.

13 Now Paul and his company, having sailed from Paphos, came to Perga in Pamphylia; and <sup>r</sup>John, departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.

14 But having departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in <sup>s</sup>Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down.

15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on.

16 Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with <sup>t</sup>his hand said: Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.

17 The God of this people of Israel <sup>u</sup>chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the <sup>v</sup>land of <sup>w</sup>Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it.

18 And about the time of forty years he <sup>x</sup>bore with their ways in the <sup>y</sup>wilderness.

19 And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of <sup>z</sup>Canaan, he gave them their land as an inheritance.

20 And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until <sup>aa</sup>Samuel the prophet.

21 And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them <sup>a</sup>Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of <sup>b</sup>Benjamin, for the space of forty years.

22 And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, <sup>c</sup>I have found David the son of <sup>d</sup>Jesse, a man after my own heart, who will fulfil all my will.

23 Of this man's <sup>e</sup>seed hath God according to <sup>f</sup>his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus, 24 When <sup>g</sup>John had first preached before his coming the <sup>h</sup>baptism of <sup>i</sup>repentance to all the people of Israel.

25 And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not <sup>j</sup>he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of <sup>k</sup>his feet I am not <sup>l</sup>worthy to <sup>m</sup>loose.

26 Brethren, children of the stock of <sup>n</sup>Abraham, and <sup>o</sup>whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

27 For they that dwell at <sup>p</sup>Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled <sup>q</sup>them in <sup>r</sup>condemning him.

28 And though they found no cause of death <sup>s</sup>in him, yet desired they <sup>t</sup>Pilate that he should be slain.

29 And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took <sup>u</sup>him down from <sup>v</sup>the tree, and laid <sup>w</sup>him in a sepulchre.

30 But God raised him from the dead.

31 And he was seen many days by them who came up with him from <sup>x</sup>Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his <sup>y</sup>witnesses unto the people.

32 And we declare unto you <sup>z</sup>glad tidings, how that the promise which was made unto the fathers,

33 God hath fulfilled the same unto <sup>aa</sup>us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, <sup>ab</sup>Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, <sup>ac</sup>now no more to return to <sup>ad</sup>corruption, he said on this wise, <sup>ae</sup>I will give you the sure mercies of David.

35 Wherefore he saith also in another <sup>af</sup>psalm, <sup>ag</sup>Thou shalt not suffer thy Holy One to see corruption.

36 For David, after he had served his own generation by the <sup>x</sup>will of God, fell asleep, and was laid beside his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he whom God raised again saw no corruption.

38 Be it known unto you therefore, brethren, that through this man is preached unto you the <sup>y</sup>forgiveness of sins:

39 And by him all that <sup>z</sup>believe are <sup>a</sup>justified from all things, from which ye could not be <sup>b</sup>justified by <sup>c</sup>the law of Moses.

40 Beware therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets;

41 <sup>d</sup>Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you.

42 And as they went out, they besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.

43 Now when the <sup>e</sup>congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and <sup>f</sup>religious <sup>g</sup>proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, <sup>h</sup>persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.

44 And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

45 But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with <sup>i</sup>envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.

46 Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.

47 For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, <sup>j</sup>I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for <sup>k</sup>salvation unto the ends of the earth.

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and <sup>l</sup>glorified the word of <sup>m</sup>the Lord: and as many as were <sup>n</sup>ordained to <sup>o</sup>eternal life <sup>p</sup>believed.

49 And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.

50 But the Jews stirred up the devout women of rank, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Bar-

51 But they <sup>o</sup>shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came unto <sup>p</sup>Iconium.

52 And the <sup>q</sup>disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER 14.

AND it came to pass in <sup>a</sup>Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the <sup>b</sup>Greeks believed.

2 But the <sup>c</sup>unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds embittered against the brethren.

3 Long time therefore abode they speaking boldly in the Lord, who gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted <sup>d</sup>signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the <sup>e</sup>apostles.

5 And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use <sup>f</sup>them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 They were aware of <sup>g</sup>it, and fled unto Lystra and <sup>h</sup>Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about:

7 And there they preached the gospel.

8 And there sat a certain man at <sup>i</sup>Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked:

9 The same heard <sup>j</sup>Paul speak: who <sup>k</sup>stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had <sup>l</sup>faith to be healed,

10 Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he <sup>m</sup>leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men.

12 And they called <sup>n</sup>Barnabas, <sup>o</sup>Jupiter; and Paul, <sup>p</sup>Mercury, because he was the chief speaker.

13 Then the priest of Jupiter, who was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.

14 Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and <sup>3</sup>ran in among the people, crying out,

15 And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these <sup>m</sup>vanities unto the living God, who made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein:

16 Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.

17 Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave <sup>4</sup>us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling <sup>5</sup>our hearts with food and gladness.

18 And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, from offering sacrifice unto them.

19 And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who <sup>n</sup>persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, dragged him out of the city, supposing he was dead.

20 <sup>o</sup>Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.

21 And when they had preached the <sup>p</sup>gospel to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, and Iconium, and Antioch,

22 Confirming the souls of the <sup>q</sup>disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through many <sup>r</sup>tribulations enter into the kingdom of God.

23 And when they had <sup>6</sup>ordained them <sup>t</sup>elders in every <sup>u</sup>church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

24 And after they had passed throughout <sup>v</sup>Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.

25 And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:

26 And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled.

27 And when they were come, and had gathered the <sup>w</sup>church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the <sup>x</sup>door of faith unto the <sup>y</sup>Gentiles.

28 And there they abode a long time with the disciples.

CHAPTER 15.

AND certain men who came down from <sup>a</sup>Judæa taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be <sup>b</sup>circumcised after the manner of <sup>c</sup>Moses, ye cannot be saved.

2 When therefore <sup>d</sup>Paul and <sup>e</sup>Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they <sup>f</sup>determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to <sup>g</sup>Jerusalem unto the <sup>h</sup>apostles and elders about this question.

3 And being brought on their way by the <sup>i</sup>church, they passed through <sup>j</sup>Phœnicia and <sup>k</sup>Samaria, declaring the <sup>l</sup>conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren.

4 And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church, and the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.

5 But there rose up certain of the sect of the <sup>m</sup>Pharisees that believed, saying that it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep <sup>n</sup>the law of Moses.

6 And the apostles and elders came together to consider this matter.

7 And when there had been much questioning, <sup>o</sup>Peter rose up, and said unto them, Brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made <sup>p</sup>choice among us, that the Gentiles by <sup>q</sup>my mouth should hear the word of the <sup>r</sup>gospel, and believe.

8 And God, who knoweth the hearts, bare them <sup>s</sup>witness, giving them the Holy Spirit, even as unto us;

9 And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

10 Now therefore why <sup>t</sup>tempt ye God, to put a <sup>u</sup>yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

11 But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus we shall be saved, even as they.

12 Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what <sup>v</sup>miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them.

13 And after they had held their peace, <sup>w</sup>James answered, saying, Brethren, hearken unto me.

14 <sup>a</sup> Simon hath declared how God for the first time visited the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.

15 And to this <sup>y</sup> agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,

16 <sup>z</sup> After this I will return, and will <sup>a</sup> build again the <sup>b</sup> house of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up:

17 That the <sup>c</sup> residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, <sup>1d</sup> who doeth all these things.

18 Known unto God are all his works from eternity.

19 Wherefore my judgment is that we trouble not those who from among the <sup>e</sup> Gentiles are turned to God:

20 But that we write unto them, that they abstain from <sup>f</sup> pollutions of <sup>g</sup> idols, and from <sup>h</sup> fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood.

21 For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day.

22 Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; <sup>namely</sup>, <sup>i</sup> Judas surnamed Barsabas, and <sup>j</sup> Silas, chief men among the brethren:

23 And they wrote by them after this manner: The apostles and <sup>k</sup> elders and brethren <sup>send</sup> greeting unto the brethren who are from the Gentiles in Antioch and <sup>l</sup> Syria and Cilicia:

24 Forasmuch as we have heard, that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, <sup>2</sup> saying, Ye <sup>must</sup> be <sup>m</sup> circumcised, and keep the law—to whom we gave no <sup>n</sup> such commandment;

25 It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one <sup>n</sup> accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,

26 Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth.

28 For it seemed good to the <sup>o</sup> Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things:

30 So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch, and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the <sup>p</sup>epistle,

31 <sup>Which</sup> when they had read, they rejoiced for the <sup>32</sup> consolation.

32 And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed <sup>them</sup>.

33 And after they had tarried <sup>there</sup> a space, they were let go in peace from the brethren unto those who had sent them.

34 <sup>Notwithstanding</sup> it pleased Silas to abide there still.

35 Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, <sup>7</sup> teaching and <sup>5</sup> preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.

36 And some days after Paul said unto Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.

37 And Barnabas proposed to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.

38 But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed asunder one from the other; and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto <sup>6</sup> Cyprus;

40 And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being committed by the brethren unto the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, <sup>u</sup> confirming the churches.

CHAPTER 16.

THEN came he to <sup>a</sup>Derbe and <sup>b</sup>Lystra: and, behold, a certain <sup>b</sup>disciple was there, named <sup>c</sup>Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman, a believer; but his father was a <sup>d</sup>Greek;

2 Who was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and <sup>c</sup>Iconium.

3 Him would <sup>f</sup>Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him because of the Jews that were in those quarters: for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for observance, which had been <sup>g</sup>ordained by the <sup>h</sup>apostles and <sup>i</sup>elders that were at <sup>j</sup>Jerusalem.

5 And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.

6 Now when they had gone throughout <sup>k</sup>Phrygia and the region of <sup>l</sup>Galatia, and were forbidden by the <sup>m</sup>Holy Spirit to preach the word in <sup>n</sup>Asia,

7 After they were come to Mysia, they attempted to go into <sup>o</sup>Bithynia: but the Spirit of Jesus suffered them not.

8 And they passing by Mysia came down to <sup>p</sup>Troas.

9 And a <sup>q</sup>vision appeared to Paul in the night. There stood a man of <sup>r</sup>Macedonia, beseeching him, and saying, Come over into <sup>s</sup>Macedonia, and help us.

10 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us to preach the <sup>t</sup>gospel unto them.

11 Therefore <sup>u</sup>loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next <sup>v</sup>day to Neapolis;

12 And from thence to <sup>w</sup>Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and <sup>x</sup>a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.

13 And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer <sup>y</sup>was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women that resorted <sup>z</sup>thither.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of <sup>aa</sup>purple, of the city of <sup>ab</sup>Thyatira, who worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken by Paul.

15 And when she was <sup>ac</sup>baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be a believer in the Lord, come into my house, and abide. And she constrained us.

16 And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain maidservant possessed with <sup>a</sup>a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by soothsaying.

17 The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the <sup>a</sup>Most High God, who show unto <sup>u</sup>us the way of salvation.

18 And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he <sup>a</sup>came out the same hour.

19 And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and <sup>b</sup>Silas, and dragged <sup>them</sup> into the marketplace unto the <sup>c</sup>rulers,

20 And brought them to the <sup>e</sup>magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city,

21 And teach customs, which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being <sup>c</sup>Romans.

22 And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat <sup>them</sup>.

23 And when they had laid many <sup>d</sup>stripes upon them, they cast <sup>them</sup> into <sup>e</sup>prison, charging the jailor to keep them safely;

24 Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.

25 And at midnight Paul and <sup>f</sup>Silas were praying and singing hymns unto God; and the prisoners were listening to them.

26 And <sup>g</sup>suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were <sup>h</sup>shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bonds were loosed.

27 And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had fled.

28 But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.

29 Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came <sup>i</sup>trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas, 30 And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?

31 And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house.

32 And they spake unto him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

33 And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway.

34 And when he had brought them into his house, he laid the table for them, and rejoiced, having believed God, with all his house.

35 And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go.

36 And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore depart, and go in peace.

37 But Paul said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out secretly? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out.

38 And the sergeants told these words unto the magistrates; and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans;

39 And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city

40 And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia; and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

CHAPTER 17.

NOW when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:

2 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sabbath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures,

3 Opening and alleging, that the Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is the Christ.

4 And some of them were persuaded, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few took unto them certain vile fellows of the rabble, and gathered a company, and set all the city in an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they found them not, they dragged Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also;

7 Whom Jason hath received; and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cæsar, saying that there is another king, one Jesus.

8 And they troubled the people and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.

9 And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.

10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the Jews.

11 These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.

12 Therefore many of them believed; also of Greek women of rank, and of men, not a few.

13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.

14 And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timothy abode there still.

15 And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.

16 Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred within him as he beheld the city full of idols.

17 Therefore he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.

18 Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoics, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? But others, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods; because he <sup>7</sup>preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.

19 And they took him, and brought him unto Mars' hill, saying, May we know what this new <sup>s</sup>teaching, whereof thou speakest, is?

20 For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know therefore what these things mean.

21 Now all the Athenians and the strangers sojourning there found time for nothing else but either to tell or to hear the last new thing.

22 Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are very religious.

23 For as I passed by, and beheld the objects of your <sup>t</sup>worship, I found an altar with this inscription, TO AN UNKNOWN GOD. <sup>1</sup>Whom therefore ye <sup>u</sup>ignorantly worship, <sup>2</sup>him declare I unto you.

24 The God who made the earth and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;

25 Neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;

26 And hath made of one all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath <sup>37</sup>determined the times before appointed, and the <sup>w</sup>bounds of their habitation;

27 That they should seek God, if perhaps they might feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us;

28 For in him we <sup>x</sup>live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his <sup>y</sup>offspring.

29 Forasmuch then as we are the <sup>o</sup>offspring of God, we ought not to <sup>a</sup>think that the <sup>b</sup>Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device.

30 And the times of this ignorance God overlooked; but now commandeth all men every where to <sup>c</sup>repent:

31 Because he hath appointed a <sup>d</sup>day, in which he will <sup>e</sup>judge the <sup>4</sup>world in righteousness by <sup>that</sup> man whom he hath <sup>f</sup>ordained; <sup>5</sup>whereof he hath given <sup>g</sup>assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.

CHAPTER 18.

AFTER these things he departed from <sup>a</sup>Athens, and came to <sup>b</sup>Corinth;

2 And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in <sup>c</sup>Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife <sup>d</sup>Priscilla; (because <sup>e</sup>Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from <sup>f</sup>Rome), and came unto them.

3 And because he was of the same craft, he abode with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers.

4 And he <sup>g</sup>reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and <sup>h</sup>persuaded the Jews and the <sup>i</sup>Greeks.

5 And when <sup>j</sup>Silas and <sup>k</sup>Timothy were come from Macedonia, Paul was constrained by the <sup>l</sup>word, and <sup>m</sup>testified to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.

6 And when they opposed themselves, and <sup>n</sup>blasphemed, he shook <sup>his</sup> raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the <sup>o</sup>Gentiles.

7 And he departed thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Titus Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.

8 And <sup>p</sup>Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord with all his house; and many of the <sup>q</sup>Corinthians hearing, believed and were <sup>r</sup>baptized.

9 Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by a <sup>s</sup>vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace;

10 For <sup>t</sup>I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee; for I have many people in this city.

11 And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 And when <sup>u</sup>Gallio was the proconsul of <sup>v</sup>Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one <sup>w</sup>accord against

Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat,

13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.

14 And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, <sup>x</sup>Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked villainy, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you;

15 But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for I will be no judge of such matters.

16 And he drove them from the judgment seat.

17 And they all took <sup>y</sup>Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And Gallio cared for none of these things.

18 And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into <sup>z</sup>Syria, and with him <sup>a</sup>Priscilla and <sup>b</sup>Aquila, having shorn his head in <sup>c</sup>Cenchrea, for he had a <sup>d</sup>vow.

19 And he came to Ephesus, and left them there, but he himself entered into the synagogue, and <sup>e</sup>reasoned with the Jews.

20 When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not,

21 But bade them <sup>f</sup>farewell, saying, I will return again unto you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.

22 And when he had landed at <sup>g</sup>Cæsarea, and gone up, and <sup>h</sup>saluted the <sup>i</sup>church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of <sup>j</sup>Galatia and <sup>k</sup>Phrygia in order, strengthening all the <sup>l</sup>disciples.

24 And a certain Jew named <sup>m</sup>Apollos, born at <sup>n</sup>Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

25 This man had been <sup>o</sup>instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the <sup>p</sup>spirit, he spake and taught diligently the things of Jesus, knowing only the baptism of John.

26 And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto him the way of God more thoroughly.

27 And when he was disposed to pass into <sup>p</sup>Achaia, the brethren encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much that had believed through grace, 28 For he powerfully confuted the Jews, publicly showing by the scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.

CHAPTER 19.

AND it came to pass, that, while <sup>a</sup>Apollos was at <sup>b</sup>Corinth, <sup>c</sup>Paul having passed through the upper region, came to Ephesus; and finding certain disciples,

2 He said unto them, <sup>1</sup>Did ye <sup>d</sup>receive the <sup>e</sup>Holy Spirit when ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there is a Holy Spirit.

3 And he said unto them, <sup>2</sup>Unto what then were ye <sup>f</sup>baptized? And they said, <sup>2</sup>Unto John's <sup>g</sup>baptism.

4 Then said Paul, <sup>h</sup>John verily baptized with the baptism of <sup>i</sup>repentance, saying unto the people that they should believe on him that should come after him, that is, on Jesus.

5 When they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spake with tongues, and prophesied.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And he went into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and <sup>j</sup>persuading as to the things concerning the kingdom of God.

9 But when some were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of the <sup>k</sup>Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the <sup>l</sup>disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.

10 And this continued by the space of two years, so that all they that dwell in Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and <sup>m</sup>Greeks.

11 And God wrought special <sup>n</sup>miracles by the hands of Paul,

12 So that from his body were brought unto the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.

13 Then certain of the <sup>p</sup>wandering Jewish exorcists took upon them to call over them that had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, I adjure you by Jesus, whom Paul preacheth.

14 And there were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, who did so.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?

16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this came to be known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.

18 And many that believed came, and confessed, and showed their deeds.

19 Many of them also that practiced magical arts brought their books together, and burned them before all; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.

21 After these things were ended, Paul purposed in spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timothy and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And the same time there arose no small stir concerning the Way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen;

25 Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth.

26 Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods, which are made with hands;

27 So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at naught; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the inhabited earth worshippeth.

28 And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.

29 And the whole city was filled with confusion, and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.

30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not.

31 And certain of the Asiarchs, who were his friends, sent unto him, urging that he would not adventure himself into the theatre.

32 Some therefore cried one thing, and some another, for the assembly was confused; and the more part knew not wherefore they were come together.

33 And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made a defence unto the people.

34 But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians!

35 And when the townclerk had quieted the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?

36 Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

37 For ye have brought hither these men, who are neither robbers of temples, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.

38 Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen who are with him, have a matter against any man, courts are held, and there are prosecutors; let them prosecute one another.

39 But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.

40 For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse.

41 And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

CHAPTER 20.

AND after the uproar had ceased, <sup>a</sup>Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into <sup>b</sup>Greece,

3 And there abode three months. And when a plot was formed against him by the Jews, as he was about to sail into <sup>c</sup>Syria, he <sup>d</sup>purposed to return through Macedonia.

5 These going before tarried for us at <sup>m</sup>Troas.

6 And we sailed away from <sup>n</sup>Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And upon the first day of the week, when we came together to break bread, Paul <sup>o</sup>preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where we were gathered together.

9 And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep; and as Paul was long preaching, he sank down with sleep, and fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Make ye no ado, for his life is in him.

11 When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

12 And they brought the young man <sup>p</sup>alive, and were not a little comforted.

13 And we went before to the ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul; for so had he appointed, intending himself to go afoot.

Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.

15 And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, that he might not have to spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

18 And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,

19 Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me through the plots of the Jews;

20 And how I shrank not from declaring anything that was profitable unto you, but have showed you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house,

21 Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there, 23 Save that the Holy Spirit witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions abide me.

24 But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.

25 And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom, shall see my face no more.

26 Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.

27 For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God.

28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Holy Spirit hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.

29 For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous <sup>u</sup>wolves enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

30 Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away the <sup>o</sup>disciples after them.

31 Therefore <sup>p</sup>watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.

32 And now, brethren, <sup>q</sup>I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them that are <sup>r</sup>sanctified.

33 I have <sup>s</sup>coveted no man's <sup>t</sup>silver, or gold, or apparel.

34 Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my necessities, and to them that were with me.

35 In all things I have given you an example, how that so labouring ye ought to support the <sup>u</sup>weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 And when he had thus spoken, he <sup>v</sup>kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they all wept sore, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him,

38 Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him unto the ship.

CHAPTER 21.

AND it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and had launched, we came with a straight course unto Cos, and the <sup>day</sup> following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara:

2 And finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 Now when we had come in sight of <sup>a</sup>Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed unto <sup>b</sup>Syria, and landed at <sup>c</sup>Tyre; for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

4 And finding the <sup>d</sup>disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to <sup>e</sup>Paul through the Spirit, that he should not set foot in <sup>f</sup>Jerusalem.

5 And when we had <sup>h</sup>accomplished those days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we <sup>v</sup>kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.

6 And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.

7 And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.

8 And the next <sup>day</sup> we departed, and came unto <sup>j</sup>Cæsarea; and we entered into the house of <sup>k</sup>Philip the <sup>l</sup>evangelist, who was one of the seven; and abode with him.

9 And the same man had four daughters, virgins, who did prophesy.

10 And as we tarried <sup>there</sup> many days, there came down from <sup>m</sup>Judæa a certain prophet, named <sup>n</sup>Agabus.

11 And coming to us and taking Paul's girdle, he bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the <sup>o</sup>Holy Spirit, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver <sup>him</sup> into the hands of the <sup>p</sup>Gentiles.

12 And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, What mean ye, to weep and to break my heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

14 And when he would not be <sup>q</sup>persuaded, we ceased, saying, The <sup>r</sup>will of the Lord be done.

15 And after those days we took up our baggage, and went up to Jerusalem.

16 There went with us also <sup>certain</sup> of the disciples from Cæsarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we should lodge.

17 And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

18 And the <sup>day</sup> following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the <sup>s</sup>elders were present.

19 And when he had saluted them, he rehearsed one by one the things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.

20 And when they heard <sup>it</sup>, they <sup>glorified</sup> God, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many

<sup>1</sup>thousands of Jews there are that believe; and they are all <sup>2</sup>zealous of the law:

21 And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews that are among the Gentiles to forsake <sup>3</sup>Moses, saying that they ought not to <sup>4</sup>circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What is it therefore? for they will certainly hear that thou art come.

23 Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men who have a <sup>5</sup>vow on them;

24 Then take, and purify thyself with them, and <sup>6</sup>bear their expenses, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also <sup>7</sup>walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 As touching the Gentiles that believe, we have <sup>8</sup>written, deciding that they should observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from <sup>9</sup>fornication.

26 Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the <sup>10</sup>accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews that were of <sup>11</sup>Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,

28 Crying out, Men of Israel, help! This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place; and further brought <sup>12</sup>Greeks also into the temple, and hath <sup>13</sup>polluted this <sup>14</sup>holy place.

29 For they had seen before with him in the city <sup>15</sup>Trophimus the Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.

30 And all the city was moved, and the people ran together, and they took Paul, and dragged him out of the temple, and forthwith the doors were shut.

31 And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the <sup>16</sup>chief captain of the band, that all <sup>17</sup>Jerusalem was in an uproar; and centurions, and ran down unto them; and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left off beating Paul.

33 Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done.

34 And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude; and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.

35 And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people.

36 For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him.

37 And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?

38 Art not thou that <sup>7</sup>Egyptian, who before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were <sup>8</sup>murderers?

39 But Paul said, I am a man who am a Jew of <sup>9</sup>Tarsus, a city in <sup>10</sup>Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people.

40 And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the <sup>11</sup>Hebrew tongue, saying:

CHAPTER 22.

BRETHREN and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you.

2 And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence; and he saith,

3 I am a Jew, born in <sup>12</sup>Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of <sup>13</sup>Gamaliel, and instructed according to the strict manner of the law of the fathers, and was <sup>14</sup>zealous toward God, as ye all are this day.

4 And I persecuted this <sup>15</sup>Way unto the death, binding and delivering into <sup>16</sup>prisons both men and women.

5 As also the <sup>17</sup>high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders; from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them that were there bound unto Jerusalem, to be punished.

6 And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus, about noon, <sup>g</sup>suddenly there <sup>h</sup>shone from heaven a great light round about me.

7 And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, <sup>i</sup>Saul, Saul, why <sup>j</sup>persecutest thou me?

8 And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, <sup>k</sup>I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.

9 And they that were with me saw indeed the light,<sup>l</sup> but they heard not the voice of him that spake to me.

10 And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do.

11 And as I could not see for the <sup>m</sup>glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.

12 And one <sup>n</sup>Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews that dwelt there, 13 Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.

14 And he said, The God of our fathers hath <sup>o</sup>chosen thee, that thou shouldst know his <sup>p</sup>will, and see the Righteous One, and shouldst hear the voice of his mouth.

15 For thou shalt be his <sup>q</sup>witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard.

16 And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be <sup>r</sup>baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on his name.

17 And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to <sup>s</sup>Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance,

18 And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem, for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.

19 And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee;

20 And when the blood of thy <sup>t</sup>martyr Stephen was <sup>u</sup>shed, I also was standing by and consenting, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.

21 And he said unto me, Depart; for I will send thee far hence unto the <sup>v</sup>Gentiles.

22 And they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth! for it is not fit that he should live.

23 And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,

24 The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know for what cause they so shouted against him.

25 And when they had <sup>2</sup>tied him up with thongs, <sup>w</sup>Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a <sup>x</sup>Roman, and uncondemned?

26 When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest, for this man is a Roman.

27 Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yea.

28 And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this citizenship. And Paul said, But I am a Roman born.

29 Then straightway they departed from him who were about to <sup>2</sup>examine him; and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.

30 On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was <sup>y</sup>accused of the Jews, he <sup>z</sup>loosed him, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

CHAPTER 23.

AND <sup>a</sup>Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Brethren, I have lived in all good <sup>b</sup>conscience before God unto this day.

2 And the <sup>c</sup>high priest <sup>d</sup>Ananias commanded them that stood by him to smite him on the mouth.

3 Then said Paul unto him, God shall smite thee, thou <sup>e</sup>whited wall; for sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?

4 And they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

5 Then said Paul, I knew not, brethren, that he was the high priest; for it is written, *f*Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.

6 But when Paul perceived that the one part were *s*Sadducees, and the other *h*Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of Pharisees! Of the *i*hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.

7 And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the assembly was divided.

8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor *j*spirit: but the Pharisees *k*confess both.

9 And there arose a great clamour; and the *l*scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man; and what if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him?

10 And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.

11 And the night following, the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good *m*cheer, for as thou hast testified of me in *n*Jerusalem, so must thou bear *o*testimony also at *p*Rome.

12 And when it was day, the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.

13 And they were more than forty that had made this conspiracy.

14 And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will taste nothing until we have slain Paul.

15 Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him; and we, or ever he come near, are ready to kill him.

16 But when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.

17 Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.

18 So he took him, and brought

19 Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

20 And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat of him more perfectly.

21 But do not thou yield unto them; for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, who have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him; and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee.

22 So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast showed these things to me.

23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cæsarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;

24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe unto Felix the governor.

25 And he wrote a letter after this manner:

26 Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix sendeth greeting.

27 This man was seized by the Jews, and should have been killed of them; then I came upon them with the soldiers, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.

28 And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him forth into their council;

29 Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.

30 And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.

31 Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle;

33 Who, when they came to Cæsarea, and delivered the <sup>a</sup>epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And having read it, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia;

35 I will hear thee, said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in <sup>b</sup>Herod's palace.

CHAPTER 24.

AND after five days <sup>a</sup>Ananias the <sup>b</sup>high priest came down with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against <sup>c</sup>Paul.

2 And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying. Seeing that by thee we enjoy great <sup>d</sup>quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy care,

3 We accept it always, and in all places, most <sup>e</sup>noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 But, that I be not further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words.

5 For we have found this man a pest, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the inhabited earth, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes;

6 Who also hath gone about to profane the temple; whom we seized, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain <sup>f</sup>Lysias came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands,

8 Commanding his accusers to come unto thee; by examining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him.

9 And the Jews also assented, saying that these things were so.

10 Then Paul, after that the governor had beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more <sup>g</sup>cheerfully answer for myself;

11 Because that thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to <sup>h</sup>Jerusalem to worship.

12 And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city

13 Neither can they prove the things whereof they now accuse me.

14 But this I <sup>i</sup>confess unto thee, that after the <sup>j</sup>Way which they call <sup>k</sup>heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets,

15 And have <sup>l</sup>hope toward God, which they themselves also accept, that there shall be a resurrection, both of the just and <sup>m</sup>unjust.

16 And herein do I exercise myself, to have always a <sup>n</sup>conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men.

17 Now after many years I came to bring <sup>o</sup>alms to my nation, and offerings.

18 Whereupon certain Jews from <sup>p</sup>Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult;

19 Who ought to have been here before thee, and accuse, if they had aught against me.

20 Or else let these themselves say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council,

21 Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the <sup>q</sup>resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day!

22 And when <sup>r</sup>Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge concerning the <sup>s</sup>Way, he deferred them, and said, When <sup>t</sup>Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will determine your matter.

23 And he commanded the centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him.

24 And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus.

25 And as he <sup>u</sup>reasoned of righteousness, <sup>v</sup>self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix, <sup>w</sup>becoming afraid, answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.

26 He hoped also that <sup>a</sup>money should have been given him of Paul; wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and conversed with him.

27 But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius <sup>j</sup>Festus; and desiring to gain <sup>z</sup>favour with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.

CHAPTER 25.

NOW when <sup>a</sup>Festus was come into the province, after three days he went up from <sup>b</sup>Cæsarea to <sup>c</sup>Jerusalem.

2 Then the <sup>d</sup>high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against <sup>e</sup>Paul, and besought him,

3 Asking as a favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying a plot to kill him on the way.

4 But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cæsarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.

5 Let them therefore, said he, that among you are able, go down with me, and <sup>f</sup>accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him.

6 And when he had tarried among them <sup>g</sup>more than ten days, he went down unto Cæsarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought.

7 And when he was come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove.

8 But Paul said in defence: Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against <sup>h</sup>Cæsar, have I committed any offence.

9 But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then said Paul, I stand at Cæsar's judgment seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou also very well knowest.

11 For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die; but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Cæsar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cæsar? unto Cæsar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days king Agrippa and Bernice <sup>h</sup>came unto Cæsarea to salute <sup>i</sup>Festus.

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by <sup>j</sup>Felix, 15 About whom, when I was at <sup>k</sup>Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the custom of the <sup>l</sup>Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he who is <sup>m</sup>accused has the accusers face to face, and has opportunity to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore, when they were come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth.

18 Against whom when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of such things as I supposed.

19 But had certain questions against him of <sup>n</sup>their own superstition, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.

20 And being perplexed as to the manner of investigating these things, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters.

21 But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the <sup>o</sup>emperor, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cæsar.

22 Then Agrippa said unto Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and <sup>p</sup>Bernice, with great <sup>q</sup>pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said: King Agrippa, and all who are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have petitioned me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.

25 But I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself had appealed to the emperor, I determined to send him;

26 Of whom I have nothing certain to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, when the examination has taken place, I might have somewhat to write.

27 For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

CHAPTER 26.

THEN <sup>a</sup>Agrippa said unto <sup>b</sup>Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews;

3 Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.

4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among my own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews;

5 Who knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.

6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

7 Unto which promise our twelve tribes, earnestly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the Jews.

8 Why should it be judged a thing incredible with you, if God doth raise the dead?

9 I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem; and many of the saints did I shut up in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my vote against them.

1 or, in which very business.

11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, to compel them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I persecuted them even unto strange cities.

12 Whereupon as I went to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests,

13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and those journeying with me.

14 And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the goads.

15 And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus, whom thou persecutest.

16 But rise, and stand upon thy feet; for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things in which thou hast seen me, and of those things in which I will appear unto thee;

17 Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee,

18 To open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light, and the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them that are sanctified by faith in me.

19 Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision:

20 But announced first unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works consistent with repentance.

21 For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.

22 Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

23 That the Christ must suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should proclaim light unto the people, and to the Gentiles.

24 And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said with a loud voice,

<sup>25</sup> But Paul said, I am not mad, most <sup>n</sup>noble Festus; but speak forth words of truth and <sup>i</sup>soberness.

<sup>26</sup> For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely; for I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a <sup>j</sup>corner.

<sup>29</sup> And Paul said, I would to God, that, whether with little or with much, not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, should become such as I am, except these bonds.

<sup>30</sup> And the king rose up, and the governor, and <sup>n</sup>Bernice, and they that sat with them, <sup>31</sup> And when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds.

<sup>32</sup> And Agrippa said unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto <sup>o</sup>Cæsar.

CHAPTER 27.

AND when it was <sup>a</sup>determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered <sup>b</sup>Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named Julius, a centurion of the <sup>c</sup>Augustan <sup>1</sup>band.

<sup>3</sup> And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously treated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends to refresh himself.

<sup>4</sup> And when we had launched from thence, we sailed under <sup>g</sup>Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

<sup>5</sup> And when we had sailed over the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

<sup>6</sup> And there the centurion found a ship of <sup>h</sup>Alexandria sailing for Italy; and he put us thereon.

<sup>7</sup> And when we had sailed slowly many days, and were come with difficulty over against Cnidus, the wind not further suffering us, we sailed under <sup>i</sup>Crete, over against Salmone;

<sup>8</sup> And, coasting along it with difficulty, we came unto a place which is called Fair Havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.

<sup>9</sup> Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the Fast was now already past, Paul admonished them,

<sup>10</sup> And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with disaster and much loss, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

<sup>11</sup> Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

<sup>12</sup> And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phoenix, and there to winter; which is a haven of Crete, and lieth toward the southwest and northwest.

<sup>15</sup> And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

<sup>16</sup> And running under a certain island which is called <sup>3</sup>Clauda, we had much work to secure the boat;

<sup>17</sup> Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should be cast upon Syrtis, they lowered the sail, and so were driven.

<sup>18</sup> And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they <sup>4</sup>lightened the ship;

<sup>19</sup> And the third day they cast out with their own hands the tackling of the ship.

<sup>20</sup> And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.

<sup>21</sup> And when they had been long without food, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and <sup>m</sup>loss.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good <sup>n</sup>cheer: for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night an angel of the God whose I am, and whom I serve,

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be standing before <sup>o</sup>Cæsar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer, for I <sup>p</sup>believe God, that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit we must be cast upon a certain island.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the sailors deemed that they drew near to some country;

28 And sounded, and found twenty fathoms; and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found fifteen fathoms.

29 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and <sup>5</sup>wished for the day.

30 And as the sailors were seeking to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

33 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing.

34 Wherefore I pray you to take some food; for this is for your safety; for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you.

35 And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

36 Then were they all of good <sup>7</sup>cheer, and they also took food.

37 And we were in all in the ship <sup>6</sup>two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.

39 And when it was day, they did not recognize the <sup>7</sup>land; but they discovered a certain bay, having a beach, into which they were minded, if it were <sup>s</sup>possible, to thrust in the ship.

40 And when they had cut the anchors, they left them in the sea, and <sup>r</sup>loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted up the foresail to the wind, and made toward shore.

41 And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder part began to break up with the violence of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, wishing to save Paul, kept them from their <sup>u</sup>purpose; and commanded that they that could swim should be the first to cast themselves into the sea, and get to land, 44 And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safe to land.

CHAPTER 28.

AND having escaped, we discovered that the island was called Melita.

2 And the <sup>1a</sup>inhabitants showed us no little <sup>b</sup>kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.

3 But when <sup>c</sup>Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and <sup>d</sup>fastened on his hand.

4 And when the <sup>1a</sup>inhabitants saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a <sup>e</sup>murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet <sup>2</sup>Justice suffereth not to live.

5 And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 Howbeit they expected that he would swell, or fall down dead <sup>f</sup>suddenly, but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said <sup>g</sup>that he was a god.

7 Now in the same region were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery; to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 So when this was done, others also who had diseases in the island, came, and were healed;

10 Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.

11 And after three months we departed in a ship of <sup>h</sup>Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose ensign was <sup>a</sup>Castor and Pol-lux.

12 And <sup>i</sup>landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.

13 And from thence, going in a circuitous course, we came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:

14 Where we found brethren, and were entreated to tarry with them seven days; and so we went toward <sup>j</sup>Rome.

15 And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as the Market of Appius and the Three Taverns, whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with the soldier that guarded him.

17 And it came to pass, that after three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together; and when they were come together, he said unto them: Brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from <sup>k</sup>Jerusalem into the hands of the <sup>l</sup>Romans.

18 Who, when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.

19 But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to appeal unto <sup>m</sup>Cæsar; not that I had aught to accuse my nation of.

21 And they said unto him: We neither received letters out of <sup>o</sup>Ju-dæa concerning thee, neither did any of the brethren that came hither report or speak any harm of thee.

22 But we desire to hear of thee what thou thinkest; for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.

23 And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and <sup>p</sup>testified the kingdom of God, <sup>q</sup>persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of <sup>r</sup>Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.

24 And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.

25 And when they <sup>s</sup>agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word: Well spake the <sup>t</sup>Holy Spirit <sup>u</sup>through <sup>v</sup>Isaiah the prophet unto our fathers,

26 Saying, <sup>w</sup>Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive;

28 Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the <sup>a</sup>Gentiles, and that they will hear it.

29 <sup>a</sup>And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great <sup>b</sup>reasoning among themselves.

30 And he dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, 31 Preaching the kingdom of God, and <sup>c</sup>teaching the things concerning the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no one hindering him.

CHAPTER 1.

<sup>5</sup> Through whom we have received grace and apostleship, unto obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name's sake;

<sup>6</sup> Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ;

<sup>7</sup> To all that are in <sup>i</sup>Rome, the beloved of God, called to be <sup>j</sup>saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>8</sup> First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

<sup>9</sup> For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you, always in my prayers

<sup>10</sup> Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you.

<sup>11</sup> For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;

<sup>12</sup> That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.

<sup>13</sup> Now I would not have you <sup>k</sup>ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I <sup>l</sup>purposed to come unto you, (but was hindered hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as the rest of the <sup>m</sup>Gentiles.

<sup>14</sup> I am debtor both to the <sup>n</sup>Greeks, and to the <sup>o</sup>Barbarians; both to the learned, and to the ignorant.

<sup>15</sup> So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.

<sup>16</sup> For I am not ashamed of the <sup>p</sup>gospel; for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that <sup>q</sup>believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

<sup>26</sup> For this cause God gave them up unto vile <sup>h</sup>passions; for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature; retain God in their knowledge, God gave them up unto a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting;

<sup>27</sup> And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their <sup>i</sup>lust one toward another, men with men working that which is shameful, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was fit.

CHAPTER 2.

THEREFORE thou art inexcusable, O man, whosever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them that commit such things.

3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them that do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

4 Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?

5 But after thy hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;

6 Who will render to every man according to his deeds:

7 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life:

8 But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,

9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Greek;

10 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:

11 For there is no respect of persons with God.

12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned under the law shall be judged by the law;

13 For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.

14 For when the Gentiles, who have no law, do by nature the things of the law, these, having no law, are a law unto themselves;

15 Who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their reasonings mutually accusing or even excusing them.

16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men, by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

17 But if thou art called a Jew, and retestest upon the law, and makest thy boast in God,

18 And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law,

19 And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them that are in darkness,

20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, who have in the law the outline of knowledge and of the truth.

21 Thou therefore who teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?

22 Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou rob temples?

23 Thou that boatest in the law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God?

24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you, as it is written.

25 For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou fulfillest the law; but if thou art a law-breaker, thy circumcision hath become uncircumcision.

26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the requirements of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned as circumcision?

27 And shall not the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who, notwithstanding letter and circumcision, art a law-breaker?

28 For he is not a Jew, who is one outwardly; neither is that cir- cumcision, which is outward in the flesh;

29 But he is a Jew, who is one inwardly; and circumcision is of the heart, in spirit, not in letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

CHAPTER 3.

WHAT advantage then hath the Jew? or what is the profit of circumcision?

2 Much every way: first, because <sup>a</sup>that unto them were committed the oracles of God.

3 For what if some did not believe? shall their faithlessness destroy God's faithfulness?

4 God forbid! nay, let God be found true, though every man be false; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who <sup>a</sup>taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man.)

6 God forbid! for then how shall God judge the world?

7 <sup>a</sup>But if the truth of God hath abounded through my lie unto his glory, why am I also yet judged as a sinner?

8 And why not, as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say, let us do evil, that good may come? whose judgment is just.

9 What then? <sup>a</sup>are we better? No, in no wise; for we have before accused both Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin;

10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one;

11 There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh after God;

12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that doeth good, no, <sup>a</sup>not one.

13 Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips;

14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness;

15 Their feet are swift to shed blood;

16 Destruction and misery are in their ways,

17 And the way of peace have they not known;

<sup>h</sup> Some ancient authorities read, What then shall we say of Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh?

18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

19 Now we know that what things soever the law saith, it saith to those who are <sup>a</sup>under the <sup>a</sup>law, that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world be under judgment to God.

20 Therefore by works of the law shall no flesh be <sup>b</sup>justified in his sight; for through the law is the knowledge of sin.

21 But now, apart from the law, a righteousness of God is manifested, borne witness to by the law and the prophets;

22 Even a <sup>a</sup>righteousness of God through <sup>a</sup>faith in Jesus Christ unto all that have faith; for there is no difference;

23 For all have <sup>e</sup>sinned, and come short of the glory of God;

24 Being justified freely by his <sup>f</sup>grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus,

25 Whom God hath set forth a <sup>g</sup>propitiation through <sup>g</sup>faith in his <sup>h</sup>blood, to manifest his righteousness in passing over sins done aforetime in the forbearance of God;

26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him that believeth in Jesus.

27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? Nay: but by a law of faith.

28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by <sup>i</sup>faith apart from works of the law.

<sup>(29)</sup> Is he the God of Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also;

<sup>(30)</sup> Since God is one, who will justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

<sup>(31)</sup> Do we then make void the law through <sup>i</sup>faith? God forbid! nay, we establish the law.

CHAPTER 4.

WHAT shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were <sup>a</sup>justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not <sup>b</sup>before God.

3 For what saith the scripture? <sup>c</sup>Abraham <sup>d</sup>believed God, and it was <sup>e</sup>reckoned unto him for <sup>f</sup>righteousness.

4 Now to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned as of g grace, but as of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his h faith is reckoned for righteousness.

6 Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man, unto whom God i reckoneth righteousness apart from works,

7 Saying, j Blessed are they whose iniquities are kl forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not reckon sin.

9 Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.

10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised; that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be reckoned unto them also;

12 And the father of circumcision to them that not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being yet uncircumcised.

13 For not through the law was the m promise to Abraham or to his seed, that he should be the heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For if they who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of no effect;

15 Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.

16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end that the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the n law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

17 As it is written, o I have made thee a father of many nations, before him whom he believed, even God, who p giveth life to the dead, and calleth those things that are not, as though they were.

18 Who, being past q hope, believed with hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, r So shall thy seed be.

19 And being not s weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb;

20 He staggered not at the t promise of God through u unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving v glory to God;

21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to w perform.

22 And therefore it was x reckoned to him for righteousness.

23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was reckoned to him;

24 But for us also, to whom it shall be y reckoned, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;

25 Who was delivered up for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.

CHAPTER 5.

THEREFORE being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ;

2 Through whom also we have had our a access b by b faith into this grace wherein we c stand, and rejoice in d hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but we glory in e tribulations also; knowing that tribulation worketh f patience;

4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the g love of God is h shed abroad in our i hearts by the j Holy Spirit that hath been given unto us.

6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the k ungodly.

7 For scarcely for a l righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God commendeth his own love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, being now m justified in his blood, we n shall be saved from wrath through him.

10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being o reconciled, we shall be saved through his life.

11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the <sup>p</sup>reconciliation.

12 <sup>q</sup>Wherefore, as through one man <sup>r</sup>sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all sinned;

13 For prior to the law sin was in the world, but sin is not <sup>s</sup>reckoned when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless <sup>t</sup>death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is <sup>u</sup>"the figure of him who was to come.

15 But not as the offence, so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one the many died, much more the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto the many.

16 And not as through one that sinned is the gift; for the judgment was through one unto <sup>v</sup>condemnation, but the free gift is from many offences unto justification.

17 For if by the offence of the one, death reigned by the one, much more they who receive the abundance of the grace and of the gift of <sup>w</sup>righteousness shall reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ.

18 Therefore as in result one offence reached unto all men unto condemnation, even so the one righteous act reaches unto all unto justification of life.

19 For as by the one man's disobedience the many were constituted sinners, so by the obedience of the one shall the many be constituted righteous.

20 Moreover the <sup>x</sup>law came in by the way, that the offence might abound. But where sin abounded, grace <sup>y</sup>did much more abound, 21 <sup>z</sup>that as sin hath reigned in death, even so might <sup>z</sup>grace reign through righteousness unto <sup>z</sup>eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6.

WHAT shall we say then? Shall we continue in <sup>a</sup>sin, that grace may abound?

2 God forbid! How shall we, who died to sin, live any longer therein?

3 Know ye not, that all we who were <sup>b</sup>baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?

4 Therefore we were buried with him by baptism into death, that like as Christ was raised up from the dead through the <sup>c</sup>glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

5 For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection;

6 Knowing this, that our old <sup>d</sup>man was <sup>e</sup>crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away, that we should no longer be enslaved to sin.

7 For he that hath died is <sup>f</sup>acquitted of his sin.

8 Now <sup>g</sup>if we died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him,

9 Knowing that Christ having been raised from the dead dieth no more; death hath no more <sup>h</sup>dominion over him.

10 For the death that he died, he died unto sin once for all, but the life that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

11 Likewise <sup>i</sup>reckon ye also yourselves to be dead unto sin, but to be living unto God in Christ Jesus.

12 Let not sin therefore reign in your <sup>j</sup>mortal body, that ye should obey its <sup>k</sup>desires;

13 Neither yield ye your members up as instruments of <sup>k</sup>unrighteousness unto sin: but <sup>l</sup>yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your <sup>m</sup>members as instruments of righteousness unto God.

14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the <sup>n</sup>law, but under grace.

15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under <sup>o</sup>grace? God forbid!

16 Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves as <sup>2</sup>servants to obey, his <sup>2</sup>servants ye are whom ye obey, whether of sin unto death or of obedience unto righteousness?

17 But God be thanked, that though ye were the <sup>2</sup>servants of sin, ye have obeyed from the <sup>p</sup>heart that <sup>3</sup>form of <sup>q</sup>teaching into which ye were led.

18 Being then made free from sin, ye became the <sup>2</sup>servants of righteousness.

19 I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh; for as ye have yielded your members <sup>4</sup>servants to <sup>1</sup>uncleanness and to <sup>5</sup>iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members <sup>4</sup>servants to righteousness unto holiness.

20 For when ye were the <sup>4</sup>servants of sin, ye were free as to righteousness.

21 What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.

22 But now being made free from sin, and become <sup>4</sup>servants to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.

23 For the <sup>5</sup>wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is <sup>4</sup>eternal life in Christ Jesus, our Lord.

CHAPTER 7.

KNOW ye not, brethren, for I speak to them that know the law, that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For the woman that hath an husband is bound by the law to the husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband is dead, she is <sup>4</sup>loosed from the law of the husband.

3 So then if, while the husband liveth, she is married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if the husband dieth, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she is married to another man.

4 Wherefore, my brethren, ye also were made dead to the law through the <sup>6</sup>body of Christ; that ye should be joined to another, even to him who was raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions, which were through the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death.

6 But now we have been set free from the law, having died to that wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the <sup>4</sup>letter.

7 What shall we say then? Is the law <sup>6</sup>sin? God forbid! Nay, I had not known sin, but through the law; for I had not known <sup>1</sup>covetousness, if the law had not said, <sup>8</sup>Thou shalt not <sup>1</sup>covet.

8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of evil desire. For apart from the law sin is <sup>4</sup>as dead.

Rom. 3. 23.

law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And the commandment, which I thought to be unto <sup>4</sup>life, I found to be unto death.

11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

12 Wherefore the law is <sup>4</sup>holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.

13 Did then that which is good become death unto me? God forbid! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death in me through that which is good; that sin through the commandment might become exceeding sinful.

14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am, as fleshly, <sup>4</sup>sold under sin.

15 For that which I do <sup>2</sup>I do not approve; for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I.

16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent unto the law that it is good.

17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, good dwelleth not; for to will is present with me; but to <sup>4</sup>perform that which is good I find not.

19 For the good that I would I do not, but the evil which I would not, that I do.

20 Now if I do what I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man;

23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me out of this body of death?

25 <sup>3</sup>I thank God through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the <sup>4</sup>law of God; but with the <sup>1</sup>flesh the law of sin.

CHAPTER 8.

THERE is therefore now no <sup>1</sup>condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus.

2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made <sup>1</sup>me free from the law of <sup>4</sup>sin and of death.

3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of <sup>2</sup>sinful flesh, and as an offering for sin, condemned sin in the flesh,

4 That the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

5 For they that are living according to the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are living according to the Spirit the things of the Spirit.

6 For the minding of the flesh is death, but the minding of the Spirit is life and peace.

7 Because the fleshly mind is enmity against God; for it is not subject to the <sup>4</sup>law of God, neither indeed can it be.

8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.

9 But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if it be so that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.

10 And if Christ is in you, the body is reckoned dead because of sin; but the Spirit is <sup>6</sup>life because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, he that raised up Christ Jesus from the dead shall also <sup>8</sup>give life to your <sup>h</sup>mortal bodies on account of his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

12 Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to flesh:

13 For if ye live according to <sup>1</sup>flesh, ye are about to die; but if ye through the Spirit do put to <sup>1</sup>death the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

14 For as many as are <sup>h</sup>led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.

15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of <sup>1</sup>adoption, whereby we cry, <sup>12</sup>Abba, Father.

16 The Spirit himself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are children of God;

17 And if children, then <sup>o</sup>heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we <sup>1</sup>suffer with him, that we may be also <sup>1</sup>glorified together.

18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed unto us.

19 For the earnest expectation of the creation waiteth for the <sup>31</sup>manifestation of the sons of God.

20 For the creation was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath made it subject in hope.

21 For the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the <sup>4</sup>glorious liberty of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.

23 And not only so, but ourselves also, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the <sup>52</sup>adoption, the redemption of our body.

24 For in that <sup>w</sup>hope were we saved; but hope that is seen is not hope; for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?

25 But if we hope for what we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.

26 Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmity; for we know not how to pray as we ought; but the Spirit himself maketh <sup>x</sup>intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.

27 And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the <sup>y</sup>Spirit, because he maketh <sup>z</sup>intercession for the <sup>a</sup>saints <sup>b</sup>according to God.

28 And we know that all things work together for good to those that love God, to those who are the called according to his <sup>c</sup>purpose.

29 For whom he did <sup>d</sup>foreknow, he also did <sup>f</sup>predestinate to be conformed to the likeness of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren.

30 Moreover whom he did <sup>g</sup>predestinate, them he also <sup>h</sup>called; and whom he called, them he also justified; and whom he <sup>i</sup>justified, them he also glorified.

31 What shall we then say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not also with him freely give us all things?

33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's <sup>o</sup>elect? <sup>o</sup>Shall God, that <sup>k</sup>justifieth?

34 Who <sup>is</sup> he that <sup>i</sup>condemneth? <sup>o</sup>Is it Christ, who died, yea rather, who is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us?

35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? <sup>shall</sup> <sup>m</sup>tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

36 As it is written, "For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.

38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor <sup>o</sup>powers, nor things present, nor things to come,

39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any <sup>o</sup>other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER 9.

I SAY the truth in Christ, I lie not, my <sup>a</sup>conscience also testifying with me in the <sup>o</sup>Holy Spirit,

2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.

3 For I could wish that myself were <sup>o</sup>accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh;

4 Who are Israelites; <sup>c</sup>whose is the <sup>d</sup>adoption, and the <sup>f</sup>glory, and the covenants, and the law-giving, and the service, and the <sup>g</sup>promises;

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 Not, however, as though the word of God had failed. For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel;

7 Neither, because they are the <sup>k</sup>seed of Abraham, <sup>are</sup> they all children: but, <sup>i</sup>In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, They that are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God; but the children of the promise are <sup>i</sup>reckoned for a seed.

9 For this <sup>is</sup> the word of promise, <sup>k</sup>At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

12 It was said unto her, <sup>p</sup>The elder shall serve the younger.

13 As it is written, <sup>q</sup>Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.

14 What shall we say then? <sup>Is</sup> there unrighteousness with God? God forbid!

15 For he saith to Moses, <sup>r</sup>I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

16 So then <sup>it is</sup> not of him that willeth, nor of him that <sup>s</sup>runneth, but of God, that showeth mercy.

17 For the scripture saith unto <sup>t</sup>Pharaoh, "Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might show my <sup>v</sup>power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.

18 Therefore hath he mercy on whom he will, and whom he will he hardeneth.

19 Thou wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will?

20 Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed <sup>it</sup>, Why hast thou made me thus?

21 Hath not the <sup>w</sup>potter authority over the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour?

22 What if God, willing to show <sup>his</sup> wrath, and to make his <sup>x</sup>power known, <sup>y</sup>endured with much <sup>z</sup>long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted for destruction;

23 And that he might make known the riches of his <sup>a</sup>glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory,

24 Even us, whom he hath called, not only from among the Jews, but also from among the <sup>b</sup>Gentiles?

25 As he saith also in Hosea, <sup>i</sup>I will call them my people, that were not my people; and her beloved that was not beloved.

26 <sup>d</sup>And it shall come to pass, <sup>that</sup> in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the sons of the living God.

27 <sup>e</sup>Isaiah also crieth concerning Israel, <sup>f</sup>Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, the remnant shall be saved;

28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness; because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

29 And as Isaiah said before, <sup>g</sup>Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a <sup>h</sup>seed, we had been as Sodom, and been made like unto Gomorrah.

30 What shall we say then? That Gentiles, who followed not after righteousness, have <sup>2</sup>obtained righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith;

31 But Israel, following after a <sup>1</sup>law for righteousness hath not attained to that law.

32 Wherefore? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by works. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone;

33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Zion a <sup>1</sup>stumblingstone and rock of offence, and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

CHAPTER 10.

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and prayer to God <sup>4</sup>for them is, that they might be saved.

2 For I bear them witness that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.

3 For, being <sup>6</sup>ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own, they have not <sup>6</sup>submitted themselves unto the righteousness of God.

4 For Christ is the end of the <sup>4</sup>law for righteousness to every one that believeth.

5 For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, <sup>6</sup>That the man that doeth those things shall live by them.

6 But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, <sup>7</sup>Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? that is, to bring Christ down;

7 Or, Who shall descend into <sup>1</sup>the deep? that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.

8 But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart; that is, the word of faith, which we preach:

9 That if thou shalt <sup>8</sup>confess with thy mouth Jesus as Lord, and shalt believe in thy heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.

10 For with the heart man <sup>h</sup>believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto <sup>i</sup>salvation.

11 For the scripture saith, <sup>j</sup>Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

12 For there is no difference between Jew and <sup>k</sup>Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him.

13 For, <sup>l</sup>Whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?

15 And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, <sup>m</sup>How beautiful are the feet of them <sup>2</sup>that preach the <sup>n</sup>gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!

16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For <sup>o</sup>Isaiah saith, <sup>p</sup>Lord, who hath believed our report?

17 So then faith cometh by <sup>3</sup>hearing, and <sup>3</sup>hearing <sup>q</sup>by the word of <sup>4</sup>God.

18 But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, Their sound went into all the earth, and their words unto the ends of <sup>5</sup>the earth.

19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses saith, I will <sup>6</sup>provoke you to <sup>7</sup>jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

20 But Isaiah is very bold, and saith, <sup>5</sup>I was found of them that sought me not; I was made <sup>6</sup>manifest unto them that asked not after me.

21 But to Israel he saith, <sup>11</sup>All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.

CHAPTER 11.

I SAY then, Hath God cast away <sup>a</sup>his people? God forbid! For I also am an Israelite, of the <sup>b</sup>seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God hath not cast away his people whom he <sup>c</sup>dforeknew. Know ye not what the scripture saith of Elijah? how he maketh <sup>e</sup>intercession to God against Israel, saying,

3 / Lord, they have killed thy prophets; and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.

4 But what saith the answer of God unto him? 8 I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal.

5 Even so then at this present time also there is a h remnant according to the l election of grace.

6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works; otherwise grace is no more grace. 1 But if it is of works, then is it no more grace; otherwise work is no more work.

7 What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the l election hath obtained it, and the rest were 2 blinded.

8 According as it is written, h God hath given them the spirit of l slumber, m eyes that they should not see and ears that they should not hear, unto this day.

9 And David saith, n Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a o stumblingblock, and a p recompense unto them;

10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back away.

11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? God forbid! but rather through their fall q salvation is come unto the r Gentiles, to 3 provoke them to jealousy.

12 Now if the fall of them is the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles, how much more their fulness?

13 For I speak to you Gentiles; inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify my office, 14 If by any means I may 3 provoke to emulation those who are my flesh, and might save some of them.

15 For if the casting away of them is the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?

16 For if the 3 firstfruit is holy, the lump is also holy; and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches were broken off, and thou, being a wild olive tree, wert v grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree;

18 w Boast not against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.

19 Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be x grafted in.

20 Well; because of y unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear;

21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.

22 Behold therefore the z goodness and severity of God: on them that fell, severity; but toward thee, 4 goodness, if thou shalt abide in his goodness; otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

23 And they also, if they abide not still in a unbelief, shall be grafted in, for God is able to b graft them in again.

24 For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted, contrary to nature, into a good olive tree, how much more shall these, who are the natural branches, be grafted into their own c olive tree?

25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be d ignorant of this e mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that 5 blindness in part hath happened to Israel, until the fulness of the f Gentiles be come in.

26 And so all Israel shall be saved; as it is written, 8 There shall h come out of Zion the 6i Deliverer, and shall turn away j ungodliness from k Jacob:

27 For this is my covenant unto l them, when I shall m take away their sins.

28 As concerning the n gospel, they are enemies for your sake: but as touching the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sake.

29 For the gifts and calling of God are without o repentance.

30 For as ye in times past disobeyed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their disobedience, 31 Even so have these also now disobeyed, that through the mercy shown to you they also may now obtain mercy.

32 For God hath shut up all 7 under disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

33 O the depth of the riches both of the p wisdom and the knowledge of God! how q unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!

34 For, <sup>87</sup>Who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor?

35 Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him again?

36 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be <sup>6</sup>glory <sup>9</sup>for ever. Amen.

CHAPTER 12.

I BESEECH you <sup>a</sup>therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye <sup>1</sup>present your bodies a living <sup>b</sup>sacrifice, <sup>d</sup>holy, acceptable unto God, which is your <sup>2</sup>reasonable <sup>3</sup>service.

2 <sup>e</sup>And be not conformed to this world: but be ye <sup>f</sup>transformed by the <sup>g</sup>renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.

3 For I say, through the <sup>h</sup>grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think <sup>i</sup>soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

4 For as we have many <sup>j</sup>members in one <sup>k</sup>body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and severally members one of another.

6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;

7 Or ministry, let us be occupied with the ministry; or he that teacheth, with teaching;

8 Or he that exhorteth, with exhortation; he that giveth, let him do it with <sup>4</sup>simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with <sup>5</sup>cheerfulness.

9 Let love be <sup>m</sup>unfeigned. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.

10 Be <sup>n</sup>kindly <sup>o</sup>affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another;

CHAPTER 13.

LET every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no <sup>a</sup>power, but of God; the powers that be are <sup>b</sup>ordained of God.

2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God, and they that resist shall receive to themselves condemnation.

3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same:

4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is God's minister, an avenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only on account of wrath, but also for <sup>c</sup>'conscience' sake.

6 For for this cause ye pay tribute also; for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is <sup>d</sup>due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 <sup>d</sup>Owe no one any thing, except to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

10 Love worketh no ill to its neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.

11 This also, knowing the time, that now it is high time for you to awake out of sleep; for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.

12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.

14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for fleshly lusts.

CHAPTER 14.

HIM that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

2 For one believeth that he may eat all things; another, who is weak, eateth only herbs.

3 Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him that eateth not judge him that eateth; for God hath received him.

4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up, for <sup>2</sup>God is able to make him stand.

5 One man esteemeth one day above another; another esteemeth every day alike. Let each be fully persuaded in his own mind.

6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that eateth, eateth unto the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, unto the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.

7 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

8 For if we live, we live unto the Lord; and if we die, we die unto the Lord; whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.

<sup>a</sup> 2 Cor. 12. 8-10.

9 For to this end Christ both died and lived, that he might be Lord of both dead and living.

10 But thou, why dost thou judge thy brother? or again, thou, why dost thou despise thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of God.

11 For it is written, <sup>d</sup>As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.

12 So then each one of us shall give account concerning himself to God.

13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more; but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in a brother's way.

14 I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 For if thy brother is grieved because of thy food, thou walkest no longer according to love. Destroy not through thy food him for whom Christ died.

16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of.

17 For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.

18 For he that in these things serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men.

19 Let us therefore pursue the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may build up another.

20 For the sake of food do not destroy the work of God. All things indeed are clean; but it is evil for that man who eateth so as to cause stumbling.

21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth<sup>3</sup>.

22 Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 But he that doubteth is condemned if he eat, because it is not of his faith; and whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15.

NOW we that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let every one of us please his neighbour, for his good, to <sup>u</sup>building.

3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, 'The reproaches of them that <sup>a</sup>reproached thee fell on me.

4 For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through <sup>e</sup>patience and comfort of the scriptures might have <sup>f</sup>hope.

5 Now the God of patience and <sup>g</sup>consolation grant you to be <sup>h</sup>like-minded one toward another according to Christ Jesus,

6 That ye may with one mind and one mouth <sup>i</sup>glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received <sup>j</sup>you, to the glory of God.

8 For I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the <sup>j</sup>circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the <sup>k</sup>promises made unto the fathers,

9 And that the Gentiles might <sup>i</sup>glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, <sup>m</sup>For this cause I will <sup>n</sup>confess to thee among the <sup>o</sup>Gentiles, and sing unto thy name.

10 And again he saith, <sup>p</sup>Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.

11 And again, <sup>q</sup>Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye peoples.

12 And again, <sup>r</sup>Isaiah saith, <sup>s</sup>There shall be a <sup>t</sup>root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles hope.

13 Now the God of the hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in the hope, through the power of the Holy Spirit.

14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of <sup>u</sup>goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

15 Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of <sup>v</sup>the grace that is given to me of God,

16 That I should be a minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might become acceptable, being <sup>w</sup>sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17 I have therefore whereof I may glory in Christ Jesus in those things which pertain to God.

18 For I will not dare to speak of any except of those things which Christ hath wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,

19 Through mighty <sup>a</sup>signs and wonders, by the power of the <sup>2</sup>Spirit of God; so that from <sup>j</sup>Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 Yea, being ambitious to preach the <sup>2</sup>gospel, not where Christ was already named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation;

21 But as it is written, 'To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see, and they that have not heard shall understand.

22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.

23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come unto you;

24 Whensoever I go unto Spain, I will come to you; for I hope to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, <sup>a</sup>after I have first enjoyed being with you for a time.

25 But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto the <sup>b</sup>saints.

26 For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints that are at Jerusalem.

27 It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in <sup>c</sup>carnal things.

28 When therefore I have <sup>d</sup>performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you unto Spain.

29 And I am sure that, when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing <sup>e</sup>of the gospel of Christ.

30 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the <sup>e</sup>Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;

31 That I may be delivered from them that <sup>f</sup>do not believe in Judæa; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE I 1] CORINTHIANS [I 31

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL, <sup>a</sup>called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,
2 Unto the <sup>b</sup>church of God which is at Corinth—the <sup>c</sup>sanctified, called to be <sup>d</sup>saints—with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours;
3 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God always on your behalf, /for the grace of God which is given you in Christ Jesus;
5 That in every thing ye are enriched in him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;

6 Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you;

7 So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the <sup>1</sup>coming of our Lord Jesus Christ;

8 Who shall also confirm you unto the <sup>2</sup>end, that ye may be <sup>3</sup>blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 God is faithful, by whom ye were called into the <sup>4</sup>fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no <sup>2</sup>divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by those of the household of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.

12 Now I mean this, that each one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.

13 Is Christ divided? was Paul <sup>1</sup>crucified for you? or were ye <sup>2</sup>baptized into the name of Paul?

14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and <sup>1</sup>Gaius;
15 Lest any should say that ye were baptized into my name.

16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.

17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the <sup>m</sup>gospel; not with <sup>n</sup>wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.

18 For the message of the cross is to those that perish foolishness; but unto us that are saved it is the power of God.

19 For it is written, <sup>o</sup>I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 <sup>p</sup>Where is the wise? where is the <sup>q</sup>scribe? where is the disputant of this age? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of <sup>3</sup>preaching to save those that believe.

22 And although Jews demand <sup>r</sup>signs, and <sup>s</sup>Greeks seek after wisdom,

23 Yet we preach Christ crucified, to Jews a <sup>t</sup>stumblingblock, and to Gentiles foolishness;

24 But unto them that are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the <sup>v</sup>wisdom of God.

25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the <sup>w</sup>weakness of God is stronger than men.

26 For see your calling, brethren, how that not many are wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many <sup>4x</sup>noble;

27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the <sup>y</sup>weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;

28 And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God <sup>z</sup>chosen, yea, and things which are not, to bring to naught things that are:

29 That no flesh should glory in God's presence.

30 But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who is become unto us wisdom from God; righteousness also, and sanctification, and redemption;

31 That, according as it is written, <sup>a</sup>He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

CHAPTER 2.

AND I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of <sup>a</sup>wisdom, declaring unto you the <sup>1</sup>testimony of God.

<sup>2</sup> For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him <sup>b</sup>crucified.

<sup>3</sup> And I was with you in <sup>c</sup>weakness, and in fear, and in much <sup>d</sup>trembling.

<sup>5</sup> That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the <sup>e</sup>power of God.

<sup>6</sup> Howbeit we speak wisdom among those that are <sup>3</sup>perfect; yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the <sup>f</sup>rulers of this world, that come to naught;

<sup>7</sup> But we speak the wisdom of God in a <sup>h</sup>mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God <sup>i</sup>foreordained before the ages unto our <sup>k</sup>glory;

<sup>8</sup> Which none of the rulers of this world knew; for had they known, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.

<sup>9</sup> But, as it is written, <sup>l</sup>Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.

<sup>10</sup> But God hath revealed <sup>m</sup>them unto us by the Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

<sup>11</sup> For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the <sup>n</sup>spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.

<sup>12</sup> Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.

<sup>13</sup> Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Spirit teacheth, <sup>o</sup>comparing spiritual things with spiritual.

<sup>14</sup> But the <sup>p</sup>natural man <sup>o</sup>receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know <sup>q</sup>them, because they are spiritually discerned.

CHAPTER 3.

AND I, brethren, could not speak to you as to <sup>a</sup>spiritual men, but as unto <sup>b</sup>fleshly, even as unto babes in Christ.

<sup>4</sup> For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not <sup>e</sup>fleshly?

<sup>5</sup> Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers through whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to each man?

<sup>7</sup> So then neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase.

<sup>8</sup> Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and each man shall receive his own <sup>g</sup>reward according to his own labour.

<sup>10</sup> According to the <sup>h</sup>grace of God which is given unto me, as a skilled architect, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon.

<sup>11</sup> For other <sup>i</sup>foundation can no man lay than that that is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

<sup>12</sup> Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, stubble;

<sup>14</sup> If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a <sup>k</sup>reward.

<sup>15</sup> If any man's work shall be burned, he shall <sup>l</sup>suffer <sup>m</sup>loss; but he himself shall be saved, yet <sup>2</sup>so as through fire.

16 Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the <sup>o</sup>Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

17 If any man destroy the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is <sup>l</sup>holy, and such are ye.

18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you thinketh himself to be wise in this age, let him become a fool, that he may become wise.

19 For the <sup>l</sup>wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, <sup>2</sup>He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.

20 And again, <sup>3</sup>The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.

21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours;

22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours,

23 And ye are Christ's, and Christ is God's.

CHAPTER 4.

LET a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the <sup>a</sup>mysteries of God.

2 Here, moreover, it is <sup>b</sup>required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.

3 But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's <sup>1</sup>judgment: yea, I judge not mine own self.

4 For I know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby <sup>c</sup>justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.

5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and <sup>d</sup>will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall each man have praise of God.

6 And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men beyond that which is written, that ye may not be <sup>e</sup>puffed up for the one against the other.

7 For who maketh thee to differ? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ! we are weak, but ye are strong! ye are honoured, but we are despised.

11 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and <sup>3</sup>thirst, and are <sup>8</sup>naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace;

16 Wherefore I beseech you, be ye imitators of me.

5 <sup>a</sup>To deliver such a one unto <sup>c</sup>Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord<sup>1</sup>.

7 Purge out the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, even as ye are unleavened. For our <sup>s</sup>passover also, even Christ, hath been <sup>h</sup>sacrificed.

8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the <sup>l</sup>leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote unto you, in my <sup>k</sup>epistle, not to company with fornicators;

10 Yet not meaning with the fornicators of this world, or with its covetous men and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world.

11 But knowing that, I wrote unto you not to keep company, if any one that is called a brother is a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one not even to eat.

things pertaining to this life, set them to judge <sup>a</sup>who are least esteemed in the church.

5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren?

6 But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before <sup>c</sup>unbelievers.

7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why not rather take <sup>f</sup>wrong? why not rather be defrauded?

8 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that <sup>g</sup>your brethren.

9 Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither <sup>h</sup>fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor <sup>i</sup>abusers of themselves with men,

10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.

11 And such were some of you: but ye were washed, but ye were <sup>h</sup>sanctified, but ye were <sup>i</sup>justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not <sup>j</sup>expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.

13 Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods; but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.

14 And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

15 Know ye not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make <sup>h</sup>them the <sup>k</sup>members of a harlot? God forbid!

16 What? know ye not that he that is joined to a harlot is one body? for, <sup>l</sup>Two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit.

18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

19 What? know ye not that your body is a temple of the <sup>m</sup>Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom ye have from God, and ye are not your own?

20 For ye were bought with a price; therefore "glorify God in your body<sup>2</sup>.

CHAPTER 7.

NOW concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.

2 But on account of fornications, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband render unto the wife her due; and likewise also the wife unto the husband.

4 The wife hath not authority over her own body, but the husband; and likewise also the husband hath not authority over his own body, but the wife.

5 Deprive ye not one another, except with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to prayer; and cometogether again, that "Satan <sup>b</sup>tempt you not through your lack of self-control.

6 But I speak this as a permission, not as a command.

7 For I would that all men were even as I myself. Yet every man hath his own gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.

8 Now I say to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they abide even as I.

9 But if they have not self-mastery, let them marry, for it is better to marry than to burn.

10 And unto the married I command, ye not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife be separated from her husband;

11 But and if she should become separated, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband; and let not the husband put away his wife.

12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother hath an unbelieving wife, and she is pleased to dwell with him, let him not leave her.

13 And if any wife hath an unbelieving husband, and he is pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.

14 For the <sup>c</sup>unbelieving husband is <sup>a</sup>sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the brother; else were your children <sup>c</sup>unclean; but now are they holy.

15 But if the unbeliever departs, let him depart. The brother or the sister is not under <sup>j</sup>bondage in such cases; but God hath called us to peace.

16 For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O husband, whether thou shalt save thy wife?

17 Only, as the Lord hath imparted to each man, as God hath called each one, so let him walk. And so <sup>g</sup>ordain I <sup>h</sup>in all the churches.

18 Is any man called being <sup>i</sup>circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in <sup>j</sup>uncircumcision? let him not be circumcised.

19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.

20 Let every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called.

21 Wast thou called being a <sup>l</sup>servant? care not for it: nay, even if thou mayest be made free, <sup>2</sup>use it rather.

22 For he that is called in the Lord, being a <sup>l</sup>servant, is the Lord's freeman; likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's <sup>l</sup>servant.

23 Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the <sup>l</sup>servants of men.

24 Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, therein abide with God.

25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.

26 I think therefore that this is good because of the present distress, I mean that it is good for a man to remain as he is.

27 Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou <sup>k</sup>loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.

28 But if thou shouldst marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless such shall have tribulation in the flesh; and I would spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short; it remaineth that those that have wives may be as though they had none;

30 And those that weep, as though they wept not; and those that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and those that buy, as though they possessed not;

31 And those that use the world, as not using it to the full; for the fashion of this world passeth away.

32 But I would have you without cares. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord;

33 But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.

34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit; but she that is married careth for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I speak for your own profit; not that I put constraint upon you, but for that which is seemly, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

36 But if any man think that he becometh himself unseemly toward this virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.

37 Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin doeth well.

38 So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.

39 A wife is bound as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be fallen asleep, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will, only in the Lord.

40 But she is happier if she abide, as she is, according to my judgment; and I think that I also have the *o*Spirit of God.

in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one.

5 For though there are that are called gods, whether in heaven or on the earth, (as there are gods many, and lords many,)

6 Yet to us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we through him.

7 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some, being heretofore accustomed to the idol, eat it as a thing that hath been offered unto an idol; and their *a*conscience, being *e*weak, is defiled.

8 But food commendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; nor, if we eat not, are we the worse.

9 But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a *g*stumblingblock to those that are weak.

10 For if any man see thee that hast knowledge sit at meat in an idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him that is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols?

11 And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?

12 But when ye sin so against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye *h*sin against Christ.

13 Wherefore, if meat maketh my brother to stumble, I will *i*eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to stumble.

CHAPTER 9.

AM I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord?

2 If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of my apostleship are ye in the Lord.

3 This is my answer to those who examine me.

4 Have we no right to eat and to drink?

5 Have we no right to lead about a wife who is a sister, as well as other apostles, and the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?

6 Or only I and Barnabas, have we not a right to forbear working?

7 Who goeth to warfare any time at his own cost? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Say I these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it is written in the law of Moses, <sup>a</sup>Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Is it for the oxen God careth,

10 Or saith he it altogether for our sake? For our sake, no doubt, this is written; that he that ploweth should plow in hope, and he that thresheth, in hope of partaking.

11 If we have <sup>b</sup>sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall <sup>c</sup>reap your <sup>d</sup>carnal things?

12 If others be partakers of this right over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this right; but <sup>e</sup>suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know that they that minister about <sup>f</sup>holy things <sup>g</sup>eat from the temple? and they that attend at the altar are partakers with the altar?

14 Even so hath the Lord ordained that they that preach the gospel should live by the gospel.

15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me; for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.

16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of; for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel!

17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a <sup>h</sup>reward. But if, against my will, still a <sup>i</sup>stewardship is committed unto me.

18 What is my reward then? So that, when I preach the gospel, I will make the gospel of Christ without charge, so as not to press to the full my authority in the gospel.

19 For though I am free from all men, yet have I made myself <sup>j</sup>servant unto all, that I might gain the more.

20 And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to those that are under the law, as under the law, not being my-

21 To those that are without law, as without law, (being <sup>2</sup>not without law to God, but <sup>3</sup>lawfully subject to Christ,) that I might gain those that are without law.

22 To the <sup>k</sup>weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all, that I might by all means save some.

23 And this I do for the <sup>l</sup>gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with others.

24 Know ye not that they that run in a race all run, but only one receiveth the prize? So <sup>m</sup>run, that ye may obtain.

25 And every contestant in the games is temperate in all things. They, indeed, do it to obtain a <sup>n</sup>corruptible <sup>o</sup>crown; but we an <sup>p</sup>incorruptible.

26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air;

27 But I buffet my body, and bring it into subjection; lest that by any means, after having preached to others, I myself should be <sup>q</sup>disapproved.

CHAPTER 10.

FOR I would not that ye should be <sup>a</sup>ignorant, brethren, how that all our fathers were under the <sup>b</sup>cloud, and all passed through the sea;

2 And were all <sup>c</sup>baptized <sup>1</sup>unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 And did all eat the same spiritual <sup>d</sup>food;

4 And did all <sup>e</sup>drink the same spiritual drink; for they drank of that spiritual <sup>f</sup>Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.

5 But with the most of them God was not well pleased; for they were <sup>g</sup>overthrown in the wilderness.

6 Now these things happened as types for us, that we should not <sup>h</sup>desire evil things, as they also desired.

7 Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, <sup>i</sup>The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.

8 Neither let us <sup>j</sup>commit <sup>k</sup>fornication, as some of them committed, and <sup>l</sup>fell in one day three and twenty thousand.

9 Neither let us tempt <sup>2</sup>Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.

10 Neither <sup>1</sup>murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

11 Now all these things happened unto them as types, and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the <sup>m</sup>ends of the ages have come.

12 Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall.

13 There hath no <sup>n</sup>temptation taken you but such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.

14 Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not <sup>3</sup>the communion of the blood of Christ? The <sup>4</sup>bread which we break, is it not <sup>3</sup>the communion of the <sup>o</sup>body of Christ?

17 For we <sup>being</sup> many are one <sup>4</sup>bread, and one body, for we are all partakers of that one <sup>4</sup>bread.

18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they who eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?

19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?

20 Nay, but that the things which the <sup>p</sup>Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God; and I would not that ye should have <sup>q</sup>fellowship with demons.

21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons; ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of demons.

22 Are we to <sup>s</sup>provoke the Lord to <sup>t</sup>jealousy? are we mightier than he?

23 All things are lawful, but not all things are profitable; all things are lawful, but not all things <sup>u</sup>build up.

24 Let no man seek his own <sup>v</sup>advantage, but that of the other.

25 Whatsoever is sold in the market eat, asking no question for <sup>v</sup>conscience' sake;

26 For, <sup>w</sup>The earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof.

27 If an unbeliever gives you an invitation, and ye are disposed to go, whatsoever is set before you eat, asking no question for conscience' sake.

CHAPTER 11.

BE ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and hold fast the instructions I delivered to you.

3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man praying or prophesying, having <sup>his</sup> head <sup>a</sup>covered, dishonoureth his head.

5 But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with <sup>her</sup> head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.

6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.

7 For a man indeed ought not to cover <sup>his</sup> head, forasmuch as he is God's image and glory, but the woman is man's glory.

8 For man is not from woman, but woman from man.

9 Neither was the man <sup>b</sup>created for the woman; but the woman for the man.

10 For this cause ought the woman to have <sup>the</sup> token of authority on the head, because of the angels.

11 However, in the Lord neither is the woman without the man, nor the man without the woman.

12 For as the woman is from the man, even so also the man is <sup>1b</sup>by the woman; but all things are from God.

13 Judge in yourselves: is it seemly that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

14 Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him?

15 But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her; for her hair is given her for a covering.

16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.

17 Now in giving you the following charge I praise you not, in that ye meet together not for the better, but for the worse.

18 For first of all, I hear that when ye meet together in assembly, there are schisms among you; and I partly believe it.

19 For there must be also <sup>2c</sup>heresies among you, that they that are approved may be made <sup>a</sup>manifest among you.

20 When ye come together therefore into one place, it is not to eat the Lord's <sup>e</sup>supper.

21 For, in eating, each one taketh before others his own supper; and one is hungry, and another is drunken.

22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and put to shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.

23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was <sup>f</sup>betrayed, took <sup>3</sup>bread;

24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my <sup>g</sup>body, which is <sup>4</sup>broken for you; this do in remembrance of me.

25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when they had supped, saying, This cup is the new <sup>5</sup>covenant <sup>4i</sup>in my blood; this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death, till he come.

27 Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily shall be <sup>i</sup>guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup.

29 For he that eateth and drink-

32 But when we are judged, we are <sup>m</sup>chastened of the Lord, that we may not be <sup>n</sup>condemned with the world.

34 If any one is hungry, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto a judgment. And the rest will I set in order when I <sup>o</sup>come.

CHAPTER 12.

NOW concerning <sup>1</sup>spiritual <sup>a</sup>gifts, brethren, I would not have you <sup>b</sup>ignorant.

2 Ye know that when ye were <sup>c</sup>Gentiles, ye were carried away unto dumb idols, in whatever way ye might be led.

3 Wherefore I give you to understand, that no one speaking in the Spirit of God saith, Jesus is accursed; and no one can say, Jesus is Lord, but in the Holy Spirit.

4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 And there are differences of ministries, but the same Lord.

6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God that worketh all things in all.

7 But to each the <sup>a</sup>manifestation of the Spirit is given for <sup>c</sup>profit.

8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another, the word of knowledge, by the same Spirit;

9 To another, <sup>f</sup>faith, by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing, by the same Spirit;

10 To another, the working of <sup>g</sup>miracles; to another, prophecy; to another, discerning of spirits; to another, various kinds of tongues; to another, the interpretation of tongues:

11 But all these things the one and the same Spirit worketh, distributing to each severally as he will.

12 For as the body is one, and hath many <sup>h</sup>members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is the Christ.

13 For by one <sup>i</sup>Spirit have we all been <sup>j</sup>baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; <sup>k</sup>and have been all made to drink of one Spirit.

14 For the body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the <sup>l</sup>eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?

17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?

18 But now hath God set the members each one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.

19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now are the members many, but the body one.

21 And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of thee; nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary;

23 And those parts of the body, which we deem to be more void of honour, these we clothe with more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness,

24 Whereas our comely parts have no need. But God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked,

25 That there should be no <sup>2</sup>schism in the body; but that the <sup>m</sup>members should have the same care one for another.

26 And if one member suffer, all the members <sup>3</sup>suffer with it; or one member is <sup>4</sup>honoured, all the members <sup>5</sup>rejoice with it.

27 Now ye are the <sup>o</sup>body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God hath <sup>p</sup>set some in <sup>q</sup>the <sup>r</sup>church: first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, then miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, various kinds of tongues.

29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of <sup>s</sup>miracles?

30 Have all gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?

CHAPTER 13.

THOUGH I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not <sup>a</sup>love, I am become as sounding <sup>b</sup>brass, or a clanging cymbal.

2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all <sup>c</sup>mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not <sup>d</sup>love, I am nothing.

3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not love, it <sup>e</sup>profiteth me nothing.

4 Love suffereth long, and is <sup>f</sup>kind; love <sup>g</sup>envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not <sup>h</sup>puffed up,

5 Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 Rejoiceth not in <sup>i</sup>iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, <sup>j</sup>endureth all things.

8 Love never faileth; but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.

9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.

10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.

11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man, I put away childish things.

12 For now we see as through a glass, <sup>1</sup>dimly; but then face to face; now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

13 And now abideth faith, <sup>2</sup>hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

CHAPTER 14.

FOLLOW after love; yet desire earnestly spiritual gifts, but chiefly that ye may prophesy.

2 For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God, for no one understandeth; but in spirit he speaketh mysteries.

3 But he that <sup>a</sup>prophesieth speaketh unto men to <sup>δ</sup>edification, and exhortation, and comfort.

4 He that speaketh in an unknown tongue <sup>c</sup>edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.

5 Now I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied; for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he interpret, that the <sup>d</sup>church may receive edifying.

6 And now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either in revelation, or in knowledge, or prophecy, or in <sup>e</sup>teaching?

7 And even things without life give ing sound, whether pipe or <sup>f</sup>harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?

8 For if the <sup>g</sup>trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself to the battle?

9 So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye shall speak into the air.

10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the <sup>h</sup>world, and none of them is without signification.

11 Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto him that speaketh <sup>2a</sup> <sup>h</sup>barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be <sup>2a</sup> <sup>h</sup>barbarian unto me.

12 Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are <sup>i</sup>zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

13 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my <sup>j</sup>spirit prayeth, but my understanding is <sup>h</sup>unfruitful.

15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also; I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.

16 Else when thou shalt bless with the <sup>k</sup>Spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?

17 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.

18 I thank God, I speak with tongues more than ye all;

Acts 28. 2.<sup>3</sup> Gr. parakaleo, from paracleto.

19 Yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.

20 Brethren, be not children in understanding; howbeit in malice be ye babes, but in understanding be men.

21 In the law it is written, <sup>m</sup>By other tongues and strange lips will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.

22 So that tongues are for a <sup>n</sup>sign, not to believers, but to unbelievers; while prophecy is not for unbelievers, but for believers.

23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or <sup>o</sup>unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and there come in an unbeliever, or one unlearned, he is convicted of all, he is judged of all;

25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made <sup>p</sup>manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.

26 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, each hath a psalm, hath a <sup>q</sup>teaching, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying.

27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be two, or at the most three, and that in turn; and let one interpret.

28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.

29 Let two or three prophets speak, and let the others judge.

30 But if there be a revelation to another that sitteth by, let the first be silent.

31 For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be <sup>s</sup>encouraged.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For he is not the God of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the <sup>t</sup>saints.

34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak, but to be in subjection, as also <sup>s</sup>saith the law.

35 And if they wish to learn any thing, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is a shame for women to speak in the <sup>t</sup>church.

36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it unto you alone?

37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write unto you <sup>a</sup>are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man is <sup>v</sup>ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 Wherefore, brethren, desire earnestly to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.

40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

CHAPTER 15.

NOW, brethren, I declare unto you the <sup>a</sup>gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye <sup>b</sup>stand;

2 By which also ye are saved, if ye hold fast the word which I <sup>i</sup>preached unto you, unless indeed ye have believed in vain.

3 For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins <sup>c</sup>according to the scriptures;

4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the <sup>d</sup>third day according to the scriptures;

5 And that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.

6 Then he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep.

7 Then he appeared to James; then to all the apostles.

8 And last of all he appeared to me also, as to <sup>e</sup>one <sup>e</sup>born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, who am not fit to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the <sup>f</sup>church <sup>g</sup>of God.

10 But by the <sup>h</sup>grace of God I am what I am; and his grace which was toward me hath not been in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

11 Therefore whether it be I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.

12 Now if Christ is preached that he hath been raised from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13 But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ hath not been raised;

14 And if Christ hath not been raised, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.

15 Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified concerning God that he raised up Christ; whom he raised not up, if it be so that the dead are not raised.

16 For if the dead are not raised, then Christ hath not been raised;

17 And if Christ hath not been raised, your <sup>i</sup>faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.

18 Then they also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

19 If in this life only we have <sup>j</sup>hope in Christ, we are of all men most to be pitied.

20 But now hath Christ been raised from the dead, the <sup>k</sup>first-fruits of those fallen asleep.

21 For since by man came <sup>l</sup>death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.

22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

23 But each in his own rank: <sup>m</sup>Christ the firstfruits; then they that are Christ's at his coming.

24 Then, <sup>n</sup>finally, when he delivereth up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he has done away every rule, and every authority and power,

25 For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet,

26 The last enemy, death, is destroyed.

27 For, <sup>o</sup>He hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith that all things are subjected, it is <sup>p</sup>manifest that he is excepted, who subjected all things to him.

28 And when all things shall be subjected to him, <sup>q</sup>then shall the Son also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that God may be all in all.

29 Else what shall they do who are <sup>r</sup>baptized <sup>s</sup>for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized <sup>s</sup>for them?

30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?

31 I protest by your rejoicing which

I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.

32 If, to speech after the manner of men, I fought with wild beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me, if the dead rise not? <sup>5</sup>Let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die.

33 Be not deceived; evil communications <sup>1</sup>corrupt good morals.

34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some are ignorant of God; I speak this to your shame.

35 But some one will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?

36 Foolish one! that which thou sowest is not <sup>14</sup>made alive, except it die;

37 And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other;

38 But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed its own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is one flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of birds, and another of fishes.

40 There are also heavenly bodies, and earthly bodies; but the <sup>v</sup>glory of the heavenly is one, and that of the earthly is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the <sup>w</sup>moon, and another glory of the <sup>x</sup>stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory.

42 Thus also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in <sup>v</sup>incorruption;

43 It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;

44 It is sown <sup>a</sup>a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is <sup>a</sup>a <sup>2</sup>natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it is written, <sup>a</sup>The first man Adam became a living <sup>b</sup>soul; the last Adam is a life-giving spirit.

46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.

47 The first <sup>c</sup>man was of the earth, earthy; the second man is from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.

51 Behold, I tell you a <sup>d</sup>mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be <sup>e</sup>changed, 52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an <sup>f</sup>eye, at the last <sup>g</sup>trump; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be <sup>h</sup>raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this <sup>i</sup>corruptible must put on incorruption, and this <sup>j</sup>mortal must put on immortality.

54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, <sup>k</sup>Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 <sup>l</sup>O death, where is thy sting? <sup>o</sup>O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The sting of death is <sup>m</sup>sin; and the <sup>n</sup>power of sin is the <sup>o</sup>law.

57 But thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye <sup>p</sup>stedfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

NOW <sup>a</sup>concerning the <sup>b</sup>collection for the <sup>c</sup>saints, as I have given order to the churches of <sup>d</sup>Galatia, even so do ye.

2 Upon the first <sup>e</sup>day of the week let each one of you lay by him in store, as he is prospered, that there may be no collections when I come.

3 And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve, them will I send with letters to convey your gift to <sup>f</sup>Jerusalem.

4 And if it be desirable that I go also, they shall go with me.

5 Now I will come unto you, when I have passed through Macedonia; for I pass through Macedonia.

6 And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.

7 For I will not see you now in passing; for I hope to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.

8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.

9 For a great *f*door and effectual is opened unto me, and there are many adversaries.

10 Now if Timothy come, see that he may be with you without fear; for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

11 Let no man therefore despise him; but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren.

12 As touching our brother Apolos, I greatly desired him to come unto you with the brethren; but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.

13 Watch ye, *s*tand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong.

14 Let all things be done by you in love.

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy the brother, unto the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the <sup>a</sup>saints who are in all Achaia:

<sup>2</sup> Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all <sup>1</sup>comfort;

<sup>5</sup> For as the <sup>c</sup>sufferings of Christ abound toward us, so through Christ our <sup>d</sup>consolation also aboundeth.

<sup>6</sup> And if we are in tribulation, it is for your consolation and salvation, wrought in the <sup>e</sup>endurance of the same sufferings which we also suffer; or if we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

<sup>7</sup> And our hope of you is <sup>f</sup>steadfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so also of the consolation.

<sup>8</sup> For we would not, brethren, have you <sup>g</sup>ignorant of our tribulation, which came to us in Asia, that we were greatly oppressed, beyond our strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life;

<sup>9</sup> Yea, we had the sentence of death within our own selves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead;

<sup>10</sup> Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver; in whom we hope that he will yet <sup>h</sup>deliver;

<sup>11</sup> Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

<sup>12</sup> For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our <sup>i</sup>conscience, that in <sup>j</sup>simplicity and <sup>k</sup>godly <sup>l</sup>sincerity, not in fleshly wisdom, but by <sup>m</sup>the grace of God, we have conducted ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward <sup>n</sup>you.

<sup>13</sup> For we write no other things unto you, but what ye well know and recognize, and I hope ye will recognize to the <sup>m</sup>end;

<sup>14</sup> As also ye have recognized us partially, that we are your boast, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

<sup>15</sup> And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that ye might have a second benefit;

<sup>16</sup> And to pass by you unto Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and by you to be set forward on my way toward Judæa.

<sup>17</sup> When I therefore was thus minded, did I <sup>n</sup>use levity? or the things that I <sup>o</sup>purpose, do I purpose according to the <sup>p</sup>flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay?

<sup>18</sup> But God is faithful, that our word unto you is not yea and nay.

<sup>19</sup> For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and <sup>q</sup>Silvanus and Timothy, <sup>r</sup>was not yea and nay, but with him is yea.

<sup>20</sup> For all the <sup>s</sup>promises of God in him have their yea, and through him their Amen, unto the <sup>t</sup>glory of God through us.

<sup>21</sup> Now he who establisheth us with you into Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;

<sup>23</sup> But I call upon God as a witness to my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth.

<sup>24</sup> Not that we have <sup>x</sup>dominion over your faith, but are <sup>y</sup>helpers of your joy; for by faith ye <sup>z</sup>stand.

CHAPTER 2.

BUT I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in sorrow.

<sup>2</sup> For if I grieve you, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same that is grieved through me?

<sup>3</sup> And I have written this very thing, that when I come I may not have grief from those from whom I ought to have joy; having confidence in you all, that my joy is that of you all.

4 For out of much tribulation and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have very abundantly unto you.

5 But if any have caused grief, he hath not caused grief to me, but in part (that I may not be too severe) to you all.

6 <sup>a</sup>Sufficient to such a one is this censure, which was of <sup>1</sup>the many.

7 So that, on the other hand, ye should rather show grace, and encourage such a one, lest perhaps he should be swallowed up with excessive grief.

8 Wherefore I beseech you that ye will <sup>2</sup>confirm your love toward him.

9 For to this end also have I written, that I might know the <sup>b</sup>proof of you, whether ye are obedient in all things.

10 To whom ye forgive any thing, I also forgive; for if <sup>c</sup>I have forgiven any thing, I have forgiven it for your sakes, in the presence of Christ;

11 Lest <sup>d</sup>Satan should get an advantage of us; for we are not <sup>e</sup>ignorant of his devices.

12 Now when I came to <sup>f</sup>Troas for the <sup>g</sup>gospel of Christ, and <sup>h</sup>a door was opened unto me in the Lord,

13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

14 Now thanks be unto God, who always <sup>i</sup>causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh <sup>j</sup>manifest the savour of his knowledge through us in every place.

15 For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish;

16 To the one a savour of death unto death, to the other a savour of life unto life. And who <sup>k</sup>is sufficient for these things?

17 For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of <sup>l</sup>sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

2 Ye are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read of all men;
3 Manifestly shown to be Christ's letter, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the <sup>b</sup>Spirit of the living God; not on <sup>c</sup>tables of stone, but on fleshy tables <sup>d</sup>of the heart.

4 And such trust have we through Christ toward God:

5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as from ourselves; but our <sup>e</sup>sufficiency is from God;

6 Who also hath made us sufficient <sup>f</sup>ministers of the new covenant; <sup>g</sup>not of the letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter killeth, but the <sup>h</sup>Spirit giveth life.

7 But if the ministration of death, engraved with letters on stones, began with <sup>i</sup>glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadily into the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which was passing away:

8 How shall not rather the ministration of the Spirit be with glory?

9 For if the ministration of <sup>j</sup>condemnation hath glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.

10 For even that which was made glorious hath not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the surpassing glory.

11 For if that which is <sup>k</sup>done away was with glory, much more that which remaineth is in glory.

12 Seeing then that we have such <sup>l</sup>hope, we exercise much confidence;

13 And not as Moses, who put a <sup>m</sup>veil over his face, that the children of Israel should not fix their eyes on the <sup>n</sup>end of that which was <sup>o</sup>passing away.

14 But their minds were blinded; for until this day remaineth the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old covenant, which <sup>p</sup>is <sup>q</sup>done away in Christ.

15 But even unto this day, when Moses is read, the veil lieth upon their heart.

16 Nevertheless when <sup>r</sup>it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord <sup>s</sup>is, there is liberty.

18 But we all, with unveiled face <sup>t</sup>reflecting as a mirror the glory of the Lord, are <sup>u</sup>transformed into the same image from glory to glory, <sup>v</sup>even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

CHAPTER 4.

THEREFORE seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by <sup>a</sup>manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's <sup>b</sup>conscience in the sight of God.

3 But if our <sup>c</sup>gospel is veiled, it is veiled to them that are <sup>d</sup>lost;

5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your <sup>a</sup>servants for Jesus' sake.

6 For God, who <sup>g</sup>commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our <sup>h</sup>hearts, <sup>5</sup>to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7 But we have this treasure <sup>i</sup>in earthen vessels, <sup>j</sup>that the surpassing greatness of the <sup>k</sup>power may be of God, and not from us.

8 We are <sup>l</sup>troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of <sup>a</sup>Jesus, that the <sup>m</sup>life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11 For we who live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our <sup>n</sup>mortal flesh.

12 So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13 And having the same <sup>o</sup>Spirit of faith, according as it is written, <sup>p</sup>I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14 Knowing that he that raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also through Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15 For all things are for your sake, that the <sup>q</sup>abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the <sup>r</sup>glory of God.

16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man <sup>s</sup>perish, yet the inward man is <sup>s</sup>renewed day by day.

17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are <sup>a</sup>temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5.

FOR we know that if our earthly house of this <sup>1</sup>tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:

3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found <sup>a</sup>naked.

4 For we that are in this <sup>1</sup>tabernacle do groan, being burdened; not that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that <sup>b</sup>mortality might be swallowed up of <sup>c</sup>life.

5 Now he that hath wrought us for this very thing is God, who also hath given unto us the <sup>d</sup>earnest of the <sup>e</sup>Spirit.

6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst present in the body, we are absent from the Lord;

7 For we walk by <sup>f</sup>faith, not by sight;

8 We are confident, I say, and well-pleased rather to be <sup>g</sup>absent from the body, and present with the Lord.

9 Wherefore it is our ambition that, whether present or absent, we may be well-pleasing to him.

10 For we must all appear before the <sup>h</sup>judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.

11 Knowing therefore the <sup>i</sup>terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but to God we have been <sup>j</sup>manifested, and I hope also that we have been manifested in your <sup>k</sup>consciences.

12 For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them that glory in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For if we are beside ourselves, it is to God; or if we are of <sup>l</sup>sound mind, it is for you.

14 For the <sup>m</sup>love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then all died;

15 And he died for all, that they who live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him who died for them, and rose again.

16 Wherefore henceforth know we no man according to the <sup>7</sup>flesh: yea, though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him so no more.

17 Therefore if any one is in Christ, he is a <sup>9</sup>new <sup>7</sup>creature; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become <sup>7</sup>new;

18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself through <sup>2</sup>Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of <sup>7</sup>reconciliation;

19 To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not <sup>7</sup>reckoning their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation.

20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 <sup>2</sup>Him who knew no <sup>2</sup>sin he made to be sin for us, that we might become in him the righteousness of God.

CHAPTER 6.

WE then, as <sup>a</sup>workers together with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the <sup>b</sup>grace of God in vain.

2 (For he saith, <sup>1</sup>I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in a day of <sup>a</sup>salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation;)

3 Giving no cause of stumbling in any thing, <sup>1</sup>that the service be not blamed;

4 But in all things proving ourselves to be God's servants, in much <sup>c</sup>patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,

5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, in watchings, in fastings;

6 In pureness, in knowledge, in longsuffering, in <sup>7</sup>kindness, in the <sup>8</sup>Holy Spirit, in love unfeigned,

7 In the word of truth, in the <sup>4</sup>power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

8 Through honour and dishonour, through evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;

9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as <sup>2</sup>chastened, and not killed; 10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

11 O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our heart is enlarged.

12 Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own <sup>2</sup>affections.

13 Now for a recompence in kind (I speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged.

15 And what concord hath Christ with <sup>37</sup>Belial? or what part hath a believer with an unbeliever?

16 And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.

17 Wherefore, Come out from among them, and be ye <sup>c</sup>separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,

18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

CHAPTER 7.

HAVING therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us <sup>a</sup>cleanse ourselves from every pollution of <sup>b</sup>flesh and spirit, <sup>1</sup>perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 <sup>2</sup>Receive us; we have wronged no one, we have <sup>c</sup>corrupted no one, we have defrauded no one.

3 I speak not to <sup>d</sup>condemn, for I have already said that ye are in our hearts, to die together and live together.

4 Great is my boldness toward you, great is my glorying of you. I am filled with encouragement, I am exceeding joyful in all our <sup>c</sup>tribulation.

5 For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.

6 Nevertheless God, who *f*comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;

7 And not by his coming only, but also by the *s*consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you sorry by my letter, I do not regret it; though I did regret; for I perceive that that *h*letter it was that made you sorry, (though only for a season).

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to *r*epentance; for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that in nothing ye might receive harm from us.

10 For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be regretted; but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold this very thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what *f*indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what *h*zeal, yea, what doing of justice! In all things ye have shown yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that *o*ur care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more we rejoiced in our comfort because of the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our *h*oasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his inward *m*affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and *n*trembling ye received him.

16 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

and their deep *a*poverty abounded unto the riches of their *b*liberality.

3 For to their power, I bear testimony, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;

4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the *c*fellowship of the ministering to the *d*saints.

5 And this they did, not as we expected, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God.

6 Inasmuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.

8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the *e*sincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the *f*grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And herein I give my advice; for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore *s*finish the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a finishing according to that which ye have.

12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened;

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, and that their abundance may become a supply for your want; that there may be equality:

15 As it is written, *h*He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, who put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being very zealous, of his own *a*ccord he went unto you.

18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise in the *j*gospel is throughout all the churches;

19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with <sup>k</sup>this gift, which is administered by us with a view to the Lord's glory and our earnest desire;

20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us as to this bounty which is administered by us;

21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, through the great confidence he has toward you.

23 As to Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper in your behalf. As to our brethren, they are the messengers of the churches, the glory of Christ.

24 Wherefore show ye to them, and before the <sup>l</sup>churches, the <sup>m</sup>proof of your love, and of our <sup>n</sup>boasting on your behalf.

CHAPTER 9.

FOR as touching the ministering to the <sup>a</sup>saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you.

2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your <sup>b</sup>zeal hath stirred up very many.

3 Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready;

4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.

5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, which hath been so much spoken of before, that the same might be ready, as a <sup>c</sup>matter of bounty, and not <sup>d</sup>as of constraint.

6 But this I say, <sup>e</sup>He that soweth sparingly shall <sup>f</sup>reap also sparingly; and he that <sup>g</sup>soweth <sup>h</sup>bountifully shall reap also <sup>i</sup>bountifully;

7 Let each one do according as he <sup>j</sup>purposeth in his heart; not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a <sup>k</sup>cheerful giver.

8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all <sup>l</sup>sufficiency in all

CHAPTER 10.

NOW I Paul myself beseech you by the <sup>a</sup>meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you;

2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the <sup>b</sup>flesh, we do not war according to the flesh;

4 (For the <sup>c</sup>weapons of our warfare are not <sup>d</sup>fleshy, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 Overthrowing reasonings, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and leading captive every thought into the <sup>e</sup>obedience of Christ;

6 And having a readiness to avenge every disobedience, when your obedience is made complete.

7 Do ye look on things according to the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself consider this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.

8 For though I should /boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for building you up, and not for casting you down, I should not be ashamed;

9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.

10 For his letters, says one, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.

11 Let such a one consider this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves; but they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 But we will not boast of things beyond our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you.

14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you; for we came as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ;

15 Not boasting beyond our measure in other men's labours; but having hope, that when your faith is increased, we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,

16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.

17 But, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

18 For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

CHAPTER 11.

WOULD that ye could bear with me a little in my folly! and indeed bear with me.

2 For I am a jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste a virgin to Christ.

3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtlety, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity which is in Christ.

4 For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we preached not, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye received not, or a different gospel, which ye accepted not, ye might well bear with me.

5 But I suppose that I am not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.

6 And though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Have I committed sin in humbling myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God without cost?

8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and lacked, I was chargeable to no one, for that which was lacking to me the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied; and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no one shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Wherefore? because I love you not? God knoweth.

12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire occasion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we.

13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.

14 And no marvel; for Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light.

15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also transform themselves as ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.

17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Seeing that many glory according to the flesh, I will glory also.

19 For ye bear with fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise!

20 For ye bear it if one bring you into bondage, if one devour you, if one take from you, if one exalt himself, if one smite you on the face!

21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been <sup>u</sup>weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.

22 Are they <sup>v</sup>Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundantly, in prisons more frequently, in stripes beyond counting, in deaths oft.

24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save one.

25 Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;

26 In journeyings often, in perils of rivers, in perils of robbers, in perils from my own countrymen, in perils from the Gentiles, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;

27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and <sup>w</sup>thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

28 <sup>1</sup>Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, care for all the <sup>x</sup>churches.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?

30 If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern my infirmities.

31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus, who is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.

32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king put guards about the city of the Damascenes, seeking to arrest me;

33 And through a window, in a basket, was I let down <sup>2</sup>by the wall, and escaped his hands.

CHAPTER 12.

IT is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

4 That he was caught up into <sup>b</sup>paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

5 Of such a one will I glory; yet of myself I will not glory, except in my infirmities.

6 For though I should desire to glory, I should not be a fool, for I should be speaking the truth; but I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me.

7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of <sup>c</sup>Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.

8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.

9 And he said unto me, <sup>d</sup>My grace is <sup>e</sup>sufficient for thee: for my power is fulfilled in <sup>f</sup>weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

10 Therefore I take <sup>g</sup>pleasure in infirmities, in <sup>h</sup>reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

11 I am become foolish; ye compelled me; for I ought to have been commended by you; for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I am nothing.

12 Truly the <sup>i</sup>signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all <sup>j</sup>patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.

13 For what is there wherein ye were inferior to other <sup>k</sup>churches, except it be that I myself was not a charge to you? <sup>l</sup>forgive me this wrong!

14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be a charge to you; for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you. If I love you more abundantly, am I to be loved the less?

16 But be it so, I was not myself a charge to you; nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile!

17 Did I make gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?

18 I requested Titus to go, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make gain of you? walked we not in the same <sup>m</sup>Spirit? walked we not in the same steps?

19 Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your <sup>n</sup>upbuilding.

20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found by you such as ye would not; lest there be debates, <sup>o</sup>envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, <sup>p</sup>whisperings, swellings, tumults;

21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many who have sinned already, and have not <sup>q</sup>repented of the <sup>r</sup>uncleanness and <sup>s</sup>fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

I 1]

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL, an apostle, not from men, neither through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;

2 And all the brethren that are with me, unto the <sup>a</sup>churches of <sup>b</sup>Galatia:

3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of the present evil world, according to the will of our God and Father:

5 To whom be <sup>a</sup>glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ, unto another gospel;

7 Which is not another; but there are some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be <sup>a</sup>accursed.

9 As we said before, so say I now again, If any one preach any other gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be <sup>a</sup>accursed.

10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the <sup>2</sup>servant of Christ.

11 But I certify you, brethren, that the <sup>c</sup>gospel which was preached of me is not according to <sup>f</sup>man.

12 For I neither received it from man, neither was I taught it, but by a revelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For ye have heard of my manner of life formerly in the Jews' <sup>g</sup>religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted <sup>h</sup>the church of God, and wasted it;

14 And advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of my time in my own nation, being more exceedingly <sup>i</sup>zealous of the <sup>j</sup>traditions of my fathers.

15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood;

17 Neither went I up to <sup>k</sup>Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went into <sup>l</sup>Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus.

18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

20 Now as to the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22 And was unknown by face unto the churches of Judæa which were in Christ;

23 But they had heard only, That he that persecuted us in times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.

24 And they glorified God in me.

CHAPTER 2.

THEN fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.

2 And I went up according to a revelation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the <sup>a</sup>Gentiles, but privately to them that were of <sup>b</sup>reputation, lest by any means I should <sup>c</sup>run, or had run, in vain.

3 But not even Titus, being a <sup>d</sup>Greek, who was with me, was compelled to be <sup>e</sup>circumcised;

4 And as for the false brethren, brought in unawares, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into <sup>f</sup>bondage;

5 We never subjected ourselves to them for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.

6 But from those reputed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me, God accepteth not man's person,) to me those who seemed of repute imparted nothing.

7 But, on the contrary, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as that of the circumcision unto Peter;

8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)

9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the <sup>g</sup>grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the Gentiles, and they unto the circumcision;

10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do.

11 But when <sup>1</sup>Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.

12 For before that certain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles; but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them that were of the circumcision.

13 And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.

14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the <sup>h</sup>gospel, I said unto <sup>1</sup>Peter before all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to <sup>2</sup>live as do the Jews?

15 We, being Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

16 Knowing that a man is not <sup>1</sup>justified by the works of the law, but only <sup>2</sup>through <sup>3</sup>faith in Jesus Christ, even we have believed on Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and <sup>4</sup>not by the works of the law; for by the works of the law <sup>1</sup>shall no flesh be justified.

17 But if, while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also have been found sinners, is therefore Christ a minister of sin? God forbid!

18 But if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.

19 For I through the law died unto the law, that I might live unto God.

20 I have been <sup>m</sup>crucified with Christ; <sup>4</sup>nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me; and the

CHAPTER 3.

O FOOLISH Galatians, who hath bewitched you, <sup>1</sup>that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified?

2 This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit <sup>2</sup>by works of law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the <sup>a</sup>flesh?

4 Have ye suffered so many things in vain? If indeed it be in vain.

5 He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it <sup>2</sup>by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham <sup>b</sup>believed God, and it was <sup>c</sup>reckoned to him for righteousness.

7 Know ye therefore that they that are of faith, these are Abraham's sons.

8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles through faith, preached beforehand the <sup>d</sup>gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then they that are of faith are blessed with believing Abraham.

10 But as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse; for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 But that no man is <sup>e</sup>justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith;

12 And the law is not of faith; but, The man that doeth them shall live <sup>3</sup>by them.

13 Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being <sup>f</sup>made a <sup>g</sup>curse for us; for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree;

14 That the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles in Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the <sup>h</sup>Spirit through faith.

15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men. Even a man's covenant once confirmed no one setteth aside, or addeth thereto.

16 Now to Abraham and his 'seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, 'And to thy seed, which is Christ.

17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God 'in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot annul, that it should make the promise of no effect.

18 For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

19 Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added 'because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was 'ordained through angels in the hand of a 'mediator.

20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.

21 Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid! For if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by that law.

22 But the scripture hath shut up all under 'sin, that the promise by 'faith in Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.

23 But before faith came, we were confined under law, shut up unto the faith about to be revealed.

24 Wherefore the law was our 'tutor unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

25 But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a 'tutor.

26 For ye are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

27 For 'all ye who were 'baptized into Christ did put on Christ.

28 There is neither Jew nor 'Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.

29 And if ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

ards until the time appointed of the father.

3 Even so we, when we were children, were in 'bondage under the 'principles of the world;

4 But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under the law,

5 To 'redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive 'the 'adoption of sons.

6 And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the 'Spirit of his Son into 'your 'hearts, crying, Abba, Father.

7 Wherefore thou art no more a 'servant, but a son; and if a son, then 'an heir of God through Christ.

8 Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye 'did service unto them that by nature are no gods.

9 But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly 'principles, whereunto ye desire again to be in 'bondage?

10 Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are. Ye have not injured me at all.

13 Nay, ye know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the 'gospel unto you at the first.

14 And my 'temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but 'received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

15 Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been 'possible, ye would have plucked out your own 'eyes, and have given them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

17 They 'zealously seek you, but not well; yea, they would shut you out, that ye might zealously seek them.

18 But it is good to be zealously sought always in what is right, and not only when I am present with you.

19 My little children, of whom I 'travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,

20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.

21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under <sup>9</sup>law, do ye not hear the law?

22 For it is written that <sup>7</sup>Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.

23 But he who was of the bondwoman was <sup>5</sup>born after the <sup>6</sup>flesh; but he of the freewoman was by <sup>4</sup>promise.

24 Which things are an allegory: for these are two covenants; the one from mount Sinai, gendering to bondage, which is <sup>2</sup>Hagar.

25 For Hagar is mount Sinai in <sup>10</sup>Arabia, and answereth to <sup>8</sup>Jerusalem which now is, for she is in bondage with her children.

26 But the Jerusalem above is free, which is our mother.

27 For it is written, <sup>7</sup>Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not; for the desolate hath many more children than she that hath an husband.

28 Now <sup>9</sup>we, brethren, as <sup>8</sup>Isaac was, are children of promise.

29 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 Nevertheless what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son; for the son of the bondwoman shall not inherit with the son of the freewoman.

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the freewoman.

CHAPTER 5.

STAND fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us <sup>4</sup>free, and be not entangled again with a yoke of bondage.

2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye become circumcised, <sup>1</sup>Christ shall profit you nothing.

3 And I testify again to every man who becomes circumcised, that he is debtor to do the whole law.

4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are <sup>6</sup>justified by the law; ye are fallen away from <sup>4</sup>grace.

5 For we through the Spirit wait for the <sup>4</sup>hope of righteousness by faith.

6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor <sup>4</sup>uncircumcision, but faith working through love.

7 Ye did <sup>5</sup>run well; who did hinder you that ye should not obey the truth?

9 <sup>8</sup>A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.

10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be none otherwise minded; but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, who-soever he be.

11 And I, brethren, if I yet preach <sup>8</sup>circumcision, why do I yet <sup>2</sup>suffer persecution? for then hath the stumblingblock of the <sup>1</sup>cross been taken away.

12 I would that they who are unsettling you would even <sup>2</sup>cut off themselves.

13 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.

14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: <sup>8</sup>Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

15 But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one of another.

16 Now I say, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the <sup>1</sup>desire of the flesh.

17 For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye may not do the things that ye would.

18 But if ye are <sup>11</sup>led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are <sup>11</sup>manifest, which are these: <sup>8</sup>Adultery, <sup>9</sup>fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,

21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like; of which I tell you beforehand, as I have also told you in time past, that they that do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, <sup>8</sup>longsuffering, <sup>7</sup>gentleness, <sup>7</sup>goodness, faith, 23 Meekness, self-control. Against such there is no law.

24 And they that are <sup>4</sup>Christ's have crucified the <sup>5</sup>flesh with its passions and desires.

25 If we live by the <sup>1</sup>Spirit, let us also walk by the Spirit.

26 Let us not become vain-glorious, provoking one another, envying one another.

CHAPTER 6.

BRETHREN, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye that are spiritual <sup>a</sup>restore such a one in a spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be <sup>b</sup>tempted.

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the <sup>c</sup>law of Christ.

3 For if any one thinketh himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.

4 But let each one prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.

5 For each one shall bear his own burden.

6 Let him that is taught in the word <sup>d</sup>share in all good things with him that teacheth.

7 Be not deceived; God is not <sup>e</sup>mocked; for whatsoever a man <sup>f</sup>soweth, that shall he also <sup>g</sup>reap.

8 Because he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap <sup>h</sup>corruption; but he that soweth to the <sup>i</sup>Spirit shall of the Spirit reap <sup>j</sup>life everlasting.

9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all, but 12 As many as wish to make a fair show in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.

13 For neither do they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but they wish to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your <sup>l</sup>flesh.

14 But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through <sup>m</sup>whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world.

15 For in Christ Jesus neither is <sup>n</sup>circumcision any thing, nor <sup>o</sup>circumcision, but a new <sup>p</sup>creature.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints that are at Ephesus, and the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ:

4 According as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him;

5 Having in love predestinated us for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.

7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace,

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself,

10 That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who before had hoped in Christ.

13 In whom ye also having heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: and having also believed in him, ye were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, 14 Who is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

18 The eyes of your heart being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what the exceeding greatness of his power to usward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far above all principality, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come;

22 And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,

23 Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all.

CHAPTER 2.

AND you hath he made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins,

2 Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the sons of disobedience;

3 Among whom also we all had our manner of life in times past in the desires of our flesh, doing the will of the flesh and the thoughts, and were by nature children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath given us life together with Christ, (by grace ye have been saved;)

6 And raised us up with him, and seated us with him, in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus;

7 That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

8 For by <sup>a</sup>grace have ye been saved through <sup>b</sup>faith; and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God:

9 Not of works, lest any one should boast.

10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God made ready beforehand that we should walk in them.

11 Wherefore remember, that formerly ye, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision, in the flesh made by hands;

12 That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world.

13 But now in Christ Jesus ye who once were far off are made nigh by the blood of Christ.

14 For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;

15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, the <sup>f</sup>law of commandments in ordinances, that he might make of the two, one new man in himself, so making peace;

16 And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby.

17 And he came and preached peace to you who were afar off, and to them that were nigh.

18 For through him we <sup>g</sup>both have access by one Spirit unto the Father.

19 Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but <sup>h</sup>fellowcitizens with the saints, and of the household of God,

20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief <sup>i</sup>corner-stone,

21 In whom <sup>2</sup>all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an <sup>h</sup>holy temple in the Lord:

22 In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3.

FOR this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,—

2 If indeed ye have heard of the <sup>1</sup>dispensation of the <sup>a</sup>grace of God which is given me toward you,

3 How that by revelation he made known unto me the mystery; (as I wrote before in few words,

4 Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)

5 Which in other generations was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is <sup>b</sup>now revealed unto his <sup>c</sup>holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the <sup>d</sup>gospel;

7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given unto me according to the working of his power.

8 Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

9 And to make all see what is the <sup>1</sup>dispensation of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:

10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in <sup>2</sup>the heavenly places might be known by the <sup>c</sup>church the manifold wisdom of God,

11 According to the <sup>3</sup>eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:

12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.

13 Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

14 For this cause I <sup>f</sup>bow my knees unto the Father <sup>4</sup>of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 <sup>5</sup>From whom every family in heaven and earth is named,

16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his <sup>g</sup>Spirit in the inner man;

17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by <sup>h</sup>faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,

18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;

19 And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled, unto to all the fulness of God.

20 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us,

21 Unto him be glory in the church in Christ Jesus unto all generations for ever and ever. Amen.

CHAPTER 4.

I THEREFORE, the prisoner in the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the calling wherewith ye are called,

2 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love;

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye have been called in one hope of your calling;

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in all.

7 But unto each one of us hath been given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.

8 Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men.

9 (Now that he ascended, what is it unless that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?

10 He that descended is the same also that ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)

11 And he hath given some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

12 Unto the perfecting of the saints for the doing of service, for the building up of the body of Christ;

13 Till we all come unto the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a complete man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ;

14 That we may be no longer babes, tossed like a wave, and carried about with every wind of teaching, by the artifice of men in cunning craftiness, according to wily error;

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, who is the head, even Christ;

Lit. methodical fraud.
Lit. holiness of the truth.

16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the working of each single part in its measure, maketh increase of the body unto the upbuilding of itself in love.

17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye should no longer walk as the Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart;

19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But ye have not so learned Christ,

21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, according as the truth is in Jesus;

22 That ye put off as concerns your former manner of life the old man, who is corrupted according to the deceitful desires;

23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;

24 And that ye put on the new man, who after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

25 Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another.

26 Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath;

27 Neither give place to the devil.

28 Let him that steals, steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.

29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good for needful building up, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

30 And grieve not the Holy Spirit of God, by whom ye have been sealed unto the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, with all malice;

32 And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God in Christ hath forgiven you.

CHAPTER 5.

BE ye therefore <sup>1</sup>followers of God, as dear children;

<sup>3</sup> But <sup>b</sup>fornication, and all <sup>c</sup>uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh <sup>d</sup>saints;

<sup>5</sup> For this know ye assuredly, that no fornicator; nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

<sup>6</sup> Let no one deceive you with vain words; for because of these things cometh the <sup>e</sup>wrath of God upon the sons of disobedience.

<sup>9</sup> For the fruit of the <sup>3</sup>Spirit consists in all <sup>f</sup>goodness and righteousness and truth;

<sup>12</sup> For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

<sup>14</sup> Wherefore he saith, <sup>k</sup>Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

<sup>19</sup> Speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making <sup>p</sup>melody in your heart to the Lord;

<sup>24</sup> Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing.

<sup>25</sup> Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and <sup>s</sup>gave himself for it;

<sup>27</sup> That he might present it to himself a <sup>v</sup>glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

<sup>28</sup> So ought husbands to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself.

<sup>29</sup> For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as <sup>w</sup>the Lord the church;

<sup>33</sup> Nevertheless let each one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she <sup>aa</sup>reverence her husband.

CHAPTER 6.

CHILDREN, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

<sup>3</sup> That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.

<sup>4</sup> And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to anger, but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.

that are your masters <sup>c</sup>according to the flesh, with fear and <sup>d</sup>trembling, in <sup>e</sup>singleness of your heart, as unto Christ;

6 Not with <sup>f</sup>eye-service, as <sup>g</sup>men-pleasers, but as the <sup>2</sup>servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the <sup>h</sup>heart;

7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men;

8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any one doeth, that shall he receive from the Lord, whether bond or free.

9 And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that both their Master and yours is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.

10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the <sup>2</sup>power of his might.

11 Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to <sup>2</sup>stand against the wiles of the <sup>h</sup>devil.

12 For we wrestle not <sup>1</sup>against <sup>111</sup>flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the princes of this present world, against the spiritual forces of evil in <sup>3</sup>the heavenly realm.

13 Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL and Timothy, <sup>1a</sup>servants of Christ Jesus, to <sup>b</sup>all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the <sup>c</sup>bishops and <sup>d</sup>deacons:

<sup>2</sup> Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>3</sup> I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

<sup>4</sup> Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

<sup>6</sup> Being confident of this very thing, that he who hath <sup>f</sup>begun a good work in you will perfect it unto the day of Jesus Christ;

<sup>7</sup> And it is <sup>2</sup>meet for me to think this of you all, because <sup>3</sup>I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my <sup>4</sup>imprisonment, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, ye all share in <sup>g</sup>grace with me.

<sup>8</sup> For God is my witness, how greatly I long after you all <sup>5</sup>in the tender love of Christ Jesus.

<sup>9</sup> And this I <sup>h</sup>pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all perception;

<sup>10</sup> That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and blameless <sup>i</sup>unto the day of Christ;

<sup>11</sup> Being filled with the fruit of righteousness, which is through Jesus Christ, unto the <sup>j</sup>glory and <sup>k</sup>praise of God.

<sup>12</sup> But I would have you understand, brethren, that my affairs have really tended to the progress of the gospel;

<sup>13</sup> So that my bonds <sup>7</sup>for Christ are <sup>k</sup>manifest in all <sup>8</sup>Cæsar's court, and to all others.

<sup>14</sup> And most of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

<sup>15</sup> Some indeed preach Christ even through <sup>l</sup>envy and strife; but some also through good will;

<sup>16</sup> These indeed out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the vindication of the gospel;

<sup>18</sup> What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in <sup>n</sup>pretence, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

<sup>19</sup> For I know that this shall result in my deliverance through your prayer and the <sup>o</sup>bountiful grace of the <sup>p</sup>Spirit of Jesus Christ,

<sup>20</sup> According to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death.

<sup>21</sup> For to me to live is Christ, and to <sup>q</sup>die is gain.

<sup>22</sup> But whether this life in the flesh shall be the fruit of my labour, or what I should choose, I know not.

<sup>23</sup> For I am in a strait betwixt the two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far better:

<sup>24</sup> Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needful on your account.

<sup>25</sup> And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your advancement and joy in the faith;

<sup>26</sup> That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Christ Jesus for me through my coming to you again.

<sup>27</sup> Only let your manner of life be worthy of the <sup>r</sup>gospel of Christ; that whether I come and see you, or am absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye <sup>s</sup>stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;

<sup>28</sup> And in nothing terrified by the adversaries: which is to them an evident <sup>t</sup>token of <sup>u</sup>perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

<sup>29</sup> For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to <sup>v</sup>suffer for his sake;

<sup>30</sup> Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2.

IF there be therefore any <sup>a</sup>consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any <sup>b</sup>fellowship of the <sup>c</sup>Spirit, if any <sup>d</sup>tender affections and mercies,

2 Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be <sup>d</sup>like-minded, having the same love, being of one <sup>e</sup>accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in <sup>f</sup>lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself.

4 Look not each one on his own things, but each one also on the things of others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus,

6 Who, being in the form of God, did not reckon his equality with God a thing to be clung to;

7 But <sup>g</sup>emptied himself, taking the form of a <sup>h</sup>servant, and was made in the likeness of men;

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the <sup>i</sup>cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him that name which is above every name;

10 That at the name of Jesus <sup>j</sup>every knee should bow, of <sup>k</sup>beings in heaven, and on earth, and under the earth;

11 And that every tongue should /confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own <sup>l</sup>salvation with fear and <sup>m</sup>trembling,

13 For it is God who worketh in you, <sup>n</sup>both to will and to perform, according to his good <sup>o</sup>pleasure.

14 Do all things without <sup>p</sup>murmurings and disputings;

15 That ye may be <sup>q</sup>blameless and <sup>r</sup>harmless, children of God without reproach, in the midst of a crooked and perverse <sup>s</sup>generation, among whom ye <sup>t</sup>shine as <sup>u</sup>lights in the world,

16 Holding forth the word of <sup>v</sup>life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not <sup>w</sup>run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

17 But even if I am <sup>x</sup>offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.

19 But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

20 For I have no one <sup>a</sup>likeminded, who will sincerely care for your state.

21 For all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ.

22 But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with a father, he hath served with me in the <sup>b</sup>gospel.

23 Him therefore I hope to send immediately, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.

24 I am assured, however, in the Lord, that I also myself shall come shortly.

25 Yet I deemed it necessary to send to you <sup>c</sup>Epaphroditus, my brother, and fellowworkman, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger and minister to my needs.

26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because ye had heard that he was sick.

27 And indeed he was <sup>d</sup>sick, nigh unto death; but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

28 I sent him therefore the more eagerly, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.

29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in honour;

30 Because for the work <sup>e</sup>of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, that he might make up for that which was lacking in your ministry toward me.

CHAPTER 3.

FINALLY, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To be writing the same things to you, to me is not burdensome, while for you it is safe.

2 Beware of <sup>f</sup>the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the <sup>g</sup>conscion.

3 For we are the <sup>h</sup>circumcision, who worship <sup>i</sup>God in the <sup>j</sup>Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the <sup>k</sup>flesh.

4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:

5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a <sup>d</sup>Hebrew of Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;

6 Concerning <sup>e</sup>zeal, persecuting /the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.

7 But what things were gain to me, those I <sup>g</sup>counted <sup>h</sup>loss for Christ.

8 And furthermore, I consider all things to be loss for the sake of the surpassing knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord; for whom I have <sup>i</sup>suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but refuse, that I may win Christ,

9 And be found in him, not having my own righteousness, which is of the /law, but that which is <sup>4</sup>through <sup>k</sup>faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God, <sup>5</sup>through faith;

10 That I may know him, and the <sup>6</sup>power of his resurrection, and the <sup>m</sup>fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;

11 If by any means I might attain unto <sup>6</sup>the resurrection from the dead.

12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ <sup>7</sup>Jesus.

13 Brethren, I <sup>n</sup>count not myself to have apprehended but this one thing; forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,

14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high <sup>o</sup>calling of God in Christ Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as be <sup>2</sup>perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.

16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk in the same steps.

17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark those who so walk as ye have us for an example.

18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the <sup>p</sup>cross of Christ;

19 Whose <sup>q</sup>end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose <sup>r</sup>glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)

20 For our <sup>s</sup>citizenship is in the heavens; from <sup>5</sup>whence also we wait for a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ;

THEREFORE, my brethren beloved and longed for, my joy and <sup>a</sup>crown, so stand fast in the Lord, beloved.

2 I beseech Euodia and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.

3 And I entreat thee also, true yokefellow, help them; for they laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the book <sup>b</sup>of life.

4 Rejoice in the Lord alway; and again I say, Rejoice.

5 Let your <sup>c</sup>gentleness be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.

6 Be not <sup>d</sup>anxious about any thing; but in every thing, by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known unto God;

7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall <sup>e</sup>keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do; and the God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now, after so long a time, your thought for me hath revived; though ye were indeed thoughtful, but ye lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak in respect of want; for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, to be content.

12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound; every where and in all things I possess the secret both to be full or to be hungry, to abound and to suffer need.

13 I can do all things in him who <sup>g</sup>strengtheneth me.

15 And ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the <sup>e</sup>gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me, in the way of giving and receiving, but ye only;

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, and Timothy the brother,

2 To the <sup>a</sup>saints and faithful brethren in Christ at Colossæ; Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 For the <sup>b</sup>hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which is come unto you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as also among you, since the day ye heard, and knew the <sup>c</sup>grace of God in truth;

7 As ye also learned of <sup>d</sup>Epaphras our dear <sup>e</sup>fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 Who also declared unto us your love in the <sup>e</sup>Spirit.

9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it do not cease to <sup>f</sup>pray for you, and to desire that ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all <sup>g</sup>wisdom and spiritual understanding;

10 That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

11 Strengthened with all might, <sup>h</sup>according to his <sup>i</sup>glorious <sup>j</sup>power, unto all <sup>k</sup>patience and <sup>l</sup>long-suffering with joyfulness;

12 Giving thanks unto the Father, who hath made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light;

13 Who hath delivered us from the <sup>m</sup>power of darkness, and hath <sup>n</sup>translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son;

14 In whom we have redemption <sup>o</sup>through his blood the <sup>p</sup>forgiveness of sins;

15 Who is the image of the <sup>q</sup>invisible God, the firstborn of all <sup>r</sup>creation;

16 For <sup>b</sup>by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or <sup>c</sup>dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him;

17 And he is before all things, and by him all things hold together.

18 And he is the head of the <sup>d</sup>body, the church; who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the <sup>e</sup>pre-eminence.

19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fulness dwell;

20 And by him to reconcile all things to himself, having made peace <sup>f</sup>through the blood of his <sup>g</sup>cross; through him, I say, whether the things on the earth, or things in the heavens.

21 And you, who once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he <sup>h</sup>reconciled

22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you <sup>i</sup>holy and <sup>j</sup>unblameable and unreprouvable in his sight;

23 If indeed ye abide in the faith grounded and settled, and are not moved away from the hope of the <sup>k</sup>gospel which ye have heard, which was preached in the whole creation under the heavens; whereof I Paul am made a minister;

24 Who now rejoice in my <sup>l</sup>sufferings for you, and fill up that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the <sup>m</sup>church;

25 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the <sup>n</sup>dispensation of God which was given to me for you, to fully preach the word of God;

26 Even the <sup>o</sup>mystery which hath been hid from <sup>p</sup>ages and from generations, but now is made <sup>q</sup>manifest to his <sup>r</sup>saints;

27 To whom God would make known among the <sup>s</sup>Gentiles what is the riches of the glory of this mystery; which is Christ <sup>t</sup>in you, the hope of <sup>u</sup>glory;

28 Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ <sup>6</sup>Jesus;

29 To which end I also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

CHAPTER 2.

FOR I wish you to know what great conflict I have for you, and those in <sup>a</sup>Laodicea, and as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 That their <sup>b</sup>hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, and unto all riches of the <sup>c</sup>full assurance of understanding, to the full <sup>d</sup>knowledge of the mystery of God, even Christ,

3 In whom are hid all the treasures of <sup>e</sup>wisdom and knowledge.

4 And this I say, lest any man should beguile you with enticing words.

5 For though I be absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the <sup>f</sup>stedfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, walk in him;

7 Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding in thanksgiving.

8 Beware lest any one make you a prey through philosophy and vain deceit, according to the <sup>g</sup>tradition of men, according to the <sup>h</sup>principles of the world, and not according to Christ.

9 For in him dwelleth all the <sup>i</sup>fulness of the <sup>j</sup>Godhead bodily.

10 And ye are <sup>k</sup>complete in him, who is the head of all principality and <sup>l</sup>power;

11 In whom also ye have been <sup>m</sup>circumcised with a circumcision not done with hands, in putting off the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ;

12 Buried with him in <sup>n</sup>baptism, wherein also ye have been raised with <sup>o</sup>him, through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.

13 And you, being <sup>p</sup>dead in your sins and the <sup>q</sup>uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he brought to life together with him, having <sup>r</sup>forgiven <sup>s</sup>you all trespasses;

14 Blotting out the handwriting in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his <sup>s</sup>cross;

15 And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

16 Let no one therefore judge you in food, or in drink, or in respect of a <sup>t</sup>feast, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath;

17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the substance is Christ's.

18 Let no one defraud you of your reward by a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into things which he hath not seen, vainly <sup>u</sup>puffed up by his fleshly mind,

19 And not holding fast the Head, from which all the body, by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.

20 Wherefore if ye died with Christ from the <sup>v</sup>principles of the world, why, as though living in the world, do ye put yourselves under ordinances,

21 Touch not, taste not, handle not—

22 Which are all to perish with the using; after the commandments and <sup>w</sup>doctrines of men?

23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in self-imposed service, and humiliations, and neglect of the body; but are without value, except for <sup>x</sup>satisfying the <sup>y</sup>flesh.

CHAPTER 3.

IF ye then be risen with Christ, I seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, who is <sup>z</sup>our <sup>a</sup>life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in <sup>b</sup>glory.

5 Mortify therefore your <sup>c</sup>members which are upon the earth; <sup>d</sup>fornication, <sup>e</sup>uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

6 For which things' sake the <sup>f</sup>wrath of God cometh on the sons of disobedience;

7 In which ye also once walked, when ye lived among them.

8 But now put ye off also all these:

anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.

9 Lie not one to another, seeing that ye have put off the old <sup>h</sup>man with his deeds;

10 And have put on the new, which is <sup>i</sup>renewed unto full knowledge according to the image of him that <sup>j</sup>created him;

11 Wherein there is neither <sup>k</sup>Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor <sup>l</sup>uncircumcision, <sup>m</sup>Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.

12 Put on therefore, as the <sup>n</sup>elect of God, <sup>o</sup>holy and beloved, tender-heartedness, <sup>p</sup>kindness, humbleness of mind, <sup>q</sup>meekness, <sup>r</sup>long-suffering;

13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any one have a grievance against another; even as <sup>s</sup>Christ <sup>t</sup>forgave you, so also do ye

14 And over all these put on <sup>u</sup>love, which is the perfect <sup>v</sup>bond of union.

15 And let the peace of <sup>w</sup>God rule in your hearts, to which also ye have been called in one body; and be ye thankful.

16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another; in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, <sup>y</sup>singing with <sup>z</sup>grace in your <sup>aa</sup>hearts to <sup>ab</sup>the Lord.

17 And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father by him.

18 Wives, <sup>ac</sup>submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

20 Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing unto the Lord.

21 Fathers, provoke not your children, lest they be discouraged.

22 <sup>ad</sup>Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with <sup>ae</sup>eye-service, as men-pleasers, but in <sup>af</sup>singleness of heart, fearing <sup>ag</sup>God:

23 And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men;

24 Knowing that from the Lord ye shall <sup>ah</sup>receive the <sup>ai</sup>reward of the inheritance; for ye serve the Lord Christ.

MASTERS, give unto your <sup>1</sup>servants that which is just and equitable; knowing that ye also have a Master, in heaven.

2 Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;

3 Withal praying also for us, that God may open unto us a <sup>a</sup>door of utterance, to speak the <sup>b</sup>mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds;

4 That I may make it <sup>c</sup>manifest, as I ought to speak.

5 Walk in wisdom toward them that are <sup>d</sup>without, <sup>e</sup>redeeming the time.

6 Let your speech be always with <sup>f</sup>grace, seasoned with <sup>g</sup>salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.

7 All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, the beloved brother, and faithful minister and <sup>h</sup>fellow-servant in the Lord;

8 Whom I have sent unto you for this <sup>i</sup>purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts;

9 With Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known unto you all things which are done here.

10 Aristarchus, my fellowprisoner, saluteth you, and Mark, Barnabas' cousin, concerning whom ye received directions, if he come unto you, receive him;

11 And Jesus, called Justus, who are of the <sup>j</sup>circumcision. These only are my fellowworkers for the kingdom of God, who have been a comfort unto me.

12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a <sup>k</sup>servant of Christ<sup>l</sup>, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may <sup>m</sup>stand perfect and <sup>n</sup>complete in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him witness, that he hath a great <sup>o</sup>zeal for you, and those in <sup>p</sup>Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis.

14 <sup>q</sup>Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, salute you.

15 Salute the brethren in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the <sup>r</sup>church in <sup>s</sup>his house.

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the <sup>a</sup>church of the <sup>b</sup>Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you, and peace, <sup>1</sup>from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Remembering without ceasing your <sup>2</sup>work of faith, and labour of love, and <sup>c</sup>patience of <sup>d</sup>hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of <sup>a</sup>God and our Father;

4 Knowing, brethren beloved of God, your <sup>e</sup>election.

5 For our <sup>f</sup>gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in <sup>g</sup>power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much <sup>h</sup>assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having <sup>i</sup>received the word in much affliction, with joy of the <sup>j</sup>Holy Spirit;

7 So that ye were examples to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia.

8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves relate, with regard to us, what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God,

10 And <sup>k</sup>to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, our Deliverer from the <sup>l</sup>wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2.

FOR ye yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:

2 But even after we had <sup>a</sup>suffered before, and were shamefully treated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God <sup>1</sup>with much contention.

3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of <sup>b</sup>uncleaness, nor in guile;

4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who trieth our <sup>c</sup>hearts.

5 For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloak for covetousness; God <sup>is</sup> witness;

6 Nor of men sought we <sup>d</sup>glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.

7 But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her own children;

8 So, being <sup>e</sup>affectionately desirous of you, it was our joy to impart unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear unto us.

9 For ye remember, brethren, our labour and <sup>f</sup>travail. Labouring night and day, not to be chargeable to any of you, we preached unto you the <sup>g</sup>gospel of God.

10 Ye <sup>are</sup> witnesses, and God <sup>also</sup>, how holily and justly and <sup>h</sup>unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe;

11 As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father his own children,

12 That ye should walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and <sup>i</sup>glory.

13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye <sup>j</sup>received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received <sup>it</sup> not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, <sup>2</sup>which also worketh in you that believe.

14 For ye, brethren, became followers of the <sup>k</sup>churches of God which are in Judaea, in Christ Jesus; and ye have also <sup>l</sup>suffered like things from your own countrymen, even as they from the Jews;

15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men;

16 Forbidding us to speak to the <sup>m</sup>Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins alway; for the <sup>n</sup>wrath is come upon them to the <sup>o</sup>uttermost.

17 But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.

18 Wherefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but <sup>2</sup>Satan hindered us.

19 For what <sup>is</sup> our <sup>2</sup>hope, or joy, or <sup>3</sup>crown of <sup>3</sup>rejoicing? Are not even ye, in the presence of our Lord Jesus <sup>4</sup>Christ, <sup>1</sup>at his coming?

20 For ye are our glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3.

WHEREFORE, when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at <sup>a</sup>Athens alone;

2 And sent Timothy, <sup>1</sup>our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-labourer in the <sup>b</sup>gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to <sup>2</sup>comfort you concerning your faith;

3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions; for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto.

4 For verily, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we should suffer <sup>a</sup>tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.

5 For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter had <sup>1</sup>tempted you, and our labour be in vain.

6 But now, when Timothy came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and <sup>1</sup>love, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you;

7 Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you, in all our affliction and distress, by your faith;

8 For now we live, if ye <sup>2</sup>stand fast in the Lord.

9 For what thanks can we render to God for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sake before our God;

10 Night and day <sup>2</sup>praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?

11 Now God himself, even our Father, and our Lord Jesus <sup>3</sup>Christ, direct our way unto you.

12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all, even as we toward you:

13 To the end he may establish your hearts <sup>1</sup>unblameable in holiness

CHAPTER 4.

FURTHERMORE, then, we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you <sup>1</sup>by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received from us how ye ought to walk and to please God, as also ye are walking, so ye would abound more and more.

2 For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from <sup>a</sup>fornication;

4 That each one of you should know how to possess his own vessel in sanctification and honour,

5 Not in passionate <sup>b</sup>desire, even as the <sup>c</sup>Gentiles who know not God,

6 Not over-reaching and defrauding his brother in the matter; because the Lord is the <sup>d</sup>avenger of all such, as also we have forewarned you and testified.

7 For God hath not called us unto <sup>e</sup>uncleanness, but unto holiness.

8 He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his <sup>f</sup>Holy Spirit.

9 But as touching brotherly love, ye need not that I write unto you; for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another;

10 And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren in all Macedonia; but ye beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;

11 And that ye <sup>2</sup>study to be <sup>2</sup>quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;

12 That ye may walk <sup>3</sup>honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

13 But I would not have you to be <sup>4</sup>ignorant, brethren, concerning them that are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others who have no <sup>5</sup>hope.

14 For if we <sup>1</sup>believe that Jesus died and <sup>2</sup>rose again, even so them also that sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we that are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not go before them that are asleep.

16 <sup>1</sup>For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the <sup>m</sup>archangel, and with the trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall rise first;

17 Then we that are alive and remain shall be caught up together <sup>n</sup>with them in the <sup>o</sup>clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 Wherefore <sup>4</sup>comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5.

BUT of the times and the seasons. Brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you.

2 For yourselves know perfectly that the <sup>a</sup>day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then <sup>b</sup>sudden destruction cometh upon them, as <sup>c</sup>travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 For all ye are sons of the light, and sons of the day; we are not of night, nor of darkness.

6 Therefore let us not sleep, as others; but let us watch and be <sup>d</sup>sober.

7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, <sup>1</sup>the <sup>e</sup>hope of salvation.

9 For God hath not appointed us to <sup>g</sup>wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL, and Silvanus, and Timothy, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the love of each one of you all toward one another aboundeth;

4 So that we ourselves glory in you among the <sup>a</sup>churches of God, for your patience and faith, in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure;

5 A manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer;

6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;

7 And to you who are troubled, rest, with us, when the Lord Jesus <sup>b</sup>shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,

8 In flaming fire, taking <sup>c</sup>vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the <sup>d</sup>gospel of our Lord Jesus <sup>1</sup>Christ;

9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the <sup>2</sup>presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;

10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be <sup>3</sup>admired in all them that have believed (for our testimony among you was believed) in that day.

11 Wherefore also we <sup>e</sup>pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power;

12 That the name of our Lord Jesus <sup>1</sup>Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the <sup>f</sup>grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of the Lord <sup>h</sup>hath come.

3 Let no one deceive you by any means; for that day shall not come, except there come first the apostasy, and the man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

4 Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he, <sup>2</sup>as God, sitteth in the temple of God, setting himself forth as God.

5 Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now ye know what hindereth, that he may be revealed in his own time.

7 For the mystery of lawlessness doth already work; only there is one who hindereth until he is taken out of the way.

8 And then shall <sup>b</sup>that wicked one be revealed, <sup>c</sup>whom <sup>3</sup>the Lord shall <sup>4</sup>consume with the breath of his mouth, and shall destroy <sup>d</sup>with the <sup>5</sup>brightness of his coming;

9 Even him, whose coming is according to the working of <sup>e</sup>Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,

10 And with all the delusions of unrighteousness for them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.

11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe the lie;

12 That they all might be judged who <sup>f</sup>believed not the truth, but had pleasure in <sup>g</sup>unrighteousness.

13 But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning <sup>h</sup>chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the <sup>1</sup>Spirit and belief of the truth;

14 Whereunto he called you by our <sup>2</sup>gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the <sup>3</sup>things which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.

16 <sup>2</sup>Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, who hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting <sup>7</sup>consolation and good hope through <sup>1</sup>grace, 17 <sup>8</sup>Comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work.

CHAPTER 3.

FINALLY, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run, and be glorified, even as also with you;

2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men; for not all have faith.

3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and <sup>1</sup>keep you from the evil one.

4 And we have confidence in the Lord touching you, that ye both do, and will do, the things which we command you.

5 And the <sup>a</sup>Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the <sup>2</sup>patience of Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not according to the <sup>3</sup>truth which <sup>4</sup>ye received of us.

7 For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us; because we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the commandment of God our Saviour and Christ Jesus our <sup>a</sup>hope;

2 Unto <sup>b</sup>Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 Even as I besought thee to remain at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some not to teach other doctrines,

4 Neither to give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than God's stewardship which is in faith.

5 Now the object of that charge is love out of a pure <sup>d</sup>heart, and a good <sup>e</sup>conscience, and faith unfeigned;

6 From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain <sup>1</sup>jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they strenuously affirm.

8 But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 Knowing this, that <sup>f</sup>law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and sinful, for <sup>g</sup>unholy and profane, for <sup>2</sup>murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers,

10 For fornicators, for sodomites, for enslavers, for liars, for perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound <sup>h</sup>teaching,

11 <sup>i</sup>According to the <sup>j</sup>gospel of the <sup>k</sup>glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, that he <sup>l</sup>counted me faithful, putting me into service, 13 Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and insolent; but mercy was shown me because I did it <sup>m</sup>ignorantly in <sup>n</sup>unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly, with faith and love, which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save <sup>o</sup>sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me as chief Christ Jesus might show forth all his <sup>p</sup>longsuffering, for a <sup>q</sup>pattern to those who should hereafter believe on him to <sup>r</sup>life everlasting.

17 Now unto the King eternal, <sup>s</sup>immortal, invisible, the only God, be honour and <sup>t</sup>glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies as to thee preceding, that thou by them mightest war the good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and a good <sup>u</sup>conscience, which some, having put away, have, concerning the faith, made shipwreck;

20 Of whom is <sup>v</sup>Hymenæus and Alexander, whom I have <sup>w</sup>delivered unto <sup>x</sup>Satan, that they may <sup>y</sup>learn not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2.

I EXHORT therefore, first of all, that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 For kings and all that are in authority; that we may lead a <sup>a</sup>quiet and peaceable life in all <sup>b</sup>godliness and honesty.

3 For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 Who would have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one <sup>c</sup>mediator between God and <sup>d</sup>men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.

7 Whereunto I have been <sup>e</sup>appointed a preacher and apostle, (I speak truly, I lie not;) a teacher of the <sup>f</sup>Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that the men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath or doubting.

9 In like manner also, that the women <sup>g</sup>clothe themselves in seemingly apparel, with <sup>h</sup>modesty and discretion; not with pleatings, and gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But, as becometh women professing godliness, with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in quietness with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over man, but to be in quietness.

13 For Adam was first formed, then <sup>i</sup>Eve;

14 And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was involved in transgression.

15 Notwithstanding she shall be preserved through child-bearing, if they abide in faith and <sup>j</sup>love and holiness with discretion.

CHAPTER 3.

FAITHFUL is the word. If any one <sup>i</sup>desireth the office of a <sup>a</sup>bishop, he desireth a good work.

2 A <sup>b</sup>bishop then must be <sup>c</sup>blameless, the husband of one wife, discreet, <sup>d</sup>sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt in teaching;

3 Not given to wine, or to blows<sup>2</sup>; but <sup>e</sup>patient, not a brawler, not a lover of money;

4 One that ruleth well his own house; having children in subjection with all gravity;

5 For if one knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?

6 Not a <sup>3</sup>novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the <sup>j</sup>condemnation of the devil.

7 Moreover he must be well <sup>g</sup>spoken of by those that are <sup>h</sup>without; lest he fall into reproach and a snare of the <sup>i</sup>devil.

8 Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not seeking gain by base means;

9 Holding the <sup>j</sup>mystery of the faith in a pure <sup>k</sup>conscience.

10 And let these also first be proved; then let them serve as deacons, if they are without <sup>l</sup>blame.

11 Women likewise must be grave, not slanderers, <sup>m</sup>sober, faithful in all things.

12 Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.

13 For they that have used the office of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

15 But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to conduct thyself in the house of God, which is the <sup>n</sup>church <sup>o</sup>of the living God, the <sup>p</sup>pillar and support of the truth.

16 And without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was <sup>q</sup>manifest in the flesh, justified in the <sup>r</sup>Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the <sup>s</sup>Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into <sup>t</sup>glory.

CHAPTER 4.

NOW the <sup>a</sup>Spirit <sup>b</sup>speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall <sup>c</sup>depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and <sup>d</sup>doctrines of demons;

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience <sup>e</sup>seared;

3 Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from foods which God hath <sup>e</sup>created to be received with thanksgiving of those who believe and know the truth.

4 For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving:

5 For it is <sup>f</sup>sanctified by the word of God and prayer.

6 If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished with the words of the faith, and of the good teaching which thou hast strictly followed.

7 But avoid profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself unto godliness.

8 For bodily exercise profiteth for a little: but godliness is <sup>g</sup>profitable for all things, having <sup>h</sup>promise of the life that now is, and of <sup>i</sup>that which is to come.

9 This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

10 For to this end we labour and <sup>j</sup>suffer <sup>k</sup>reproach, because we hope in a living God, who is the Saviour of all men, especially of those that believe.

11 These things command and teach.

12 Let no one despise thy <sup>k</sup>youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in manner of life, in <sup>l</sup>love, in faith, in purity.

13 Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to teaching.

14 Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the <sup>m</sup>laying on of the hands of the <sup>a</sup>presbytery.

15 Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.

16 Take heed to thyself, and to the teaching; persevere in these things; for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

CHAPTER 5.

REBUKE not an elder, but exhort <sup>him</sup> as a father; younger men as brethren;

2 Elder women as mothers; younger women as sisters, with all purity.

3 Honour widows that are <sup>a</sup>widows indeed.

4 But if any widow have children or descendants, let them learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents; for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she that liveth in <sup>b</sup>pleasure is dead while she liveth.

7 And these things charge, that they may be <sup>c</sup>blameless.

8 But if any provide not for his own, and especially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 Let a widow be put on the list, being not under threescore years old, having been the wife of one man,

10 Well <sup>d</sup>reported of for good works; if she hath brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she hath washed the <sup>e</sup>saints' feet, if she hath relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work.

11 But younger widows refuse; for when they have begun to wax wanton against Christ, they wish to marry;

12 Exposing themselves to condemnation because they have cast off their first faith.

13 And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, giving no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

16 If any <sup>l</sup>man or woman that believeth have widows, let such relieve them, and let not the church be burdened; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in <sup>the</sup> word and <sup>g</sup>teaching.

18 For the scripture saith, <sup>h</sup>Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, <sup>i</sup>The labourer is worthy of his reward.

19 Against an <sup>j</sup>elder receive not an <sup>k</sup>accusation, but before <sup>l</sup>two or three witnesses.

20 Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.

21 I charge <sup>thee</sup> before God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without pre-judgment, doing nothing by <sup>m</sup>partiality.

22 <sup>n</sup>Lay hands <sup>o</sup>suddenly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins; keep thyself pure.

23 Drink no longer water only, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake and thy frequent ailments.

24 Some men's sins are open beforehand, leading on unto judgment; with some, however, they even follow after.

25 Likewise also the works that are good are <sup>p</sup>manifest beforehand; and those that are otherwise cannot be hid.

CHAPTER 6.

LET as many as are <sup>1</sup>servants under the <sup>a</sup>yoke <sup>b</sup>count their own masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and the teaching be not blasphemed.

2 And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather serve them because they are believing and beloved, who profit by the good and ready service. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any one teach otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the teaching which is according to godliness;

4 He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, whereof cometh <sup>c</sup>envy, strife, railings, evil surmises,

5 Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness.

6 But godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For we brought nothing into this world, and we can carry nothing out.

8 But having food and raiment let us be therewith content.

9 But they that are determined to be rich fall into temptation and a snare, and many foolish and hurtful desires, which plunge men into destruction and perdition.

10 For the love of money is a root of all evils; which some, longing for, have wandered from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

11 But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness, 12 Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and hast confessed a good confession before many witnesses.

13 I give thee charge in the sight of God, who giveth life to all things, and Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed the good confession;

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the will of God, according to the <sup>a</sup>promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure <sup>b</sup>conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

5 Calling to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that it dwelleth in thee also.

6 Wherefore I put thee in remembrance that thou <sup>1</sup>stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands.

7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.

8 Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the <sup>c</sup>power of God;

9 Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not <sup>d</sup>according to our works, but according to his own <sup>e</sup>purpose, and the <sup>f</sup>grace which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,

10 But is now made <sup>g</sup>manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who hath abolished death, and hath brought <sup>h</sup>life and <sup>i</sup>incorruption to light through the <sup>j</sup>gospel;

11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher <sup>2</sup>of the <sup>k</sup>Gentiles.

12 For which cause I also <sup>1</sup>suffer these things; nevertheless I am not ashamed, for I <sup>m</sup>know whom I have <sup>n</sup>believed, and am persuaded that he is able to guard <sup>3</sup>that which I have committed unto him against that day.

13 Hold fast the form of sound

14 That good thing which was <sup>4</sup>committed unto thee, guard, through the <sup>o</sup>Holy Spirit who dwelleth in us.

15 This thou knowest, that all who are in Asia have turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus! for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain;

17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day! And in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

CHAPTER 2.

THOU therefore, my child, be strong in the <sup>a</sup>grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 <sup>b</sup>Endure hardship as a good <sup>c</sup>soldier of Christ Jesus.

4 No one going as a soldier entangleth himself with the affairs of life; that he may please him who hath enlisted him as a soldier.

5 And if one <sup>1</sup>strive in the games, he is not <sup>d</sup>crowned if he hath not observed the rules.

6 The husbandman <sup>2</sup>must labour before partaking of the fruits.

7 Consider what I say; <sup>3</sup>and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ, of the <sup>e</sup>seed of David, was raised from the dead, according to my <sup>f</sup>gospel;

9 Wherein I suffer <sup>g</sup>trouble, as an evil-doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.

10 Therefore I endure all things for the <sup>h</sup>elect's sake, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus, with eternal <sup>i</sup>glory.

11 It is a faithful saying, <sup>j</sup>For if we have died with him, we shall also live with him:

12 If we endure, we shall also reign with him; if we deny him, he also will deny us;

13 If we are faithless, he abideth faithful; for <sup>4</sup>he cannot deny himself.

14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before <sup>5</sup>the Lord that they strive not about words to no <sup>6</sup>profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.

15 Study to present thyself approved unto God, a <sup>1</sup>workman that needeth not to be ashamed, <sup>6</sup>rightly dividing the word of truth.

16 But shun profane and vain babblings; for they will increase unto more <sup>m</sup>ungodliness.

17 And their word will eat as doth a gangrene; of whom is <sup>n</sup>Hymenæus and Philetus;

18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the <sup>o</sup>resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.

19 Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth sure, having this <sup>7</sup>seal, <sup>9</sup>The Lord knoweth them that are his; and, <sup>7</sup>Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from <sup>i</sup>iniquity.

20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour.

21 If one therefore <sup>1</sup>purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, prepared unto every good work.

22 Flee from <sup>u</sup>youthful <sup>v</sup>lusts; but follow righteousness, faith, <sup>w</sup>love, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure <sup>x</sup>heart.

23 But foolish and unlearned controversies avoid, knowing that they beget strifes.

24 And a <sup>s</sup>servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all, apt in teaching, <sup>j</sup>forbearing,

25 In <sup>z</sup>meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God peradventure will give them <sup>a</sup>repentance to the <sup>b</sup>acknowledging of the truth;

26 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the <sup>c</sup>devil, who are taken captive by him ~his will.

CHAPTER 3.

BUT know this, that in the last days perilous times shall come.

2 For men shall be self-lovers, money-lovers, <sup>a</sup>boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, <sup>b</sup>unholy,

3 Without natural <sup>c</sup>affection, unforgiving, false <sup>d</sup>accusers, incontinent, savage, haters of good,

4 <sup>e</sup>Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures rather than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof; from such turn away.

6 For of this sort are they who creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with manifold desires,

7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the <sup>f</sup>knowledge of the truth.

8 Now as <sup>g</sup>Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth; men of corrupt minds, <sup>h</sup>reprobate concerning the faith.

9 But they shall proceed no further; for their folly shall be <sup>i</sup>manifest unto all, as theirs also was.

10 But thou hast fully known my <sup>j</sup>teaching, manner of life, <sup>k</sup>purpose, faith, longsuffering, <sup>l</sup>love, patience, 11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came upon me at Antioch, at <sup>m</sup>Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I <sup>n</sup>endured; but out of them all the Lord delivered me.

12 Yea, and all that will to live godly in Christ Jesus shall <sup>o</sup>suffer persecution.

13 But evil men and <sup>p</sup>seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing from whom thou hast learned;

15 And that from a <sup>q</sup>child thou hast known the <sup>r</sup>Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto <sup>s</sup>salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.

16 <sup>t</sup>All scripture is <sup>u</sup>given by inspiration of God, and is <sup>v</sup>profitable for doctrine, for <sup>w</sup>reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness;

17 That the man of God may be made ready, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

CHAPTER 4.

I CHARGE thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall <sup>a</sup>judge the <sup>b</sup>quick and the dead <sup>1</sup>at his appearing and his kingdom;

<sup>4</sup> And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

<sup>6</sup> For I am <sup>2</sup>now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

<sup>7</sup> I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith;

<sup>8</sup> Henceforth there is <sup>i</sup>laid up for me the <sup>j</sup>crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but also unto all those who have loved his appearing.

<sup>9</sup> Be diligent to come quickly unto me;

<sup>10</sup> For <sup>k</sup>Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present <sup>3</sup>world, and hath gone to Thessalonica;

CHAPTER 1.

PAUL, a <sup>1</sup>servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's <sup>a</sup>elect, and the <sup>b</sup>knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness;

<sup>2</sup> In <sup>c</sup>hope of <sup>d</sup>eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, <sup>e</sup>promised before the world began;

<sup>3</sup> But hath in its own due season manifested his word through the preaching which is committed unto me according to the commandment of God our Saviour;

<sup>5</sup> For this cause I left thee in <sup>h</sup>Crete, that thou shouldst set in order the things that are lacking, and <sup>i</sup>appoint <sup>j</sup>elders in each city, as I had directed thee;

<sup>9</sup> Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound <sup>p</sup>teaching both to exhort and to convict the gainsayers.

<sup>10</sup> For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, especially they of the <sup>q</sup>circumcision;

<sup>11</sup> Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for the sake of base gain.

<sup>13</sup> This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;

<sup>14</sup> Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men that turn away from the truth.

CHAPTER 2.

BUT speak thou the things which become the sound teaching;

<sup>2</sup> That aged men be <sup>a</sup>sober, grave, temperate, sound in the faith, in <sup>b</sup>love, in <sup>c</sup>patience;

<sup>3</sup> That aged women, likewise, be in behaviour as becometh reverence, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

<sup>4</sup> That they may teach the young women to be prudent, to love their husbands, to love their children,

<sup>5</sup> To be discreet, chaste, diligent at home, good, submitting themselves to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

<sup>8</sup> Sound speech, that cannot be <sup>g</sup>condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of us.

14 Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all <sup>p</sup>iniquity, and purify unto himself <sup>a</sup>a peculiar people, <sup>q</sup>zealous of good works.

15 These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

PAUL, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy the brother, unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer,

2 And to Apphia the sister, and to Archippus our fellowsoldier, and to the <sup>a</sup>church in thy house:

3 Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

5 Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the <sup>b</sup>saints;

6 That the communication of thy faith may become effectual in the <sup>c</sup>acknowledging of every good thing which is in us toward Christ<sup>1</sup>.

7 For we have great joy and <sup>2d</sup>consolation in thy love, because the <sup>3</sup>hearts of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.

8 Wherefore, though I might have great freedom in Christ to enjoin upon thee that which is seemly, 9 Yet for love's sake I rather beseech, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Christ Jesus.

10 I beseech thee for my child, Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds;

CHAPTER 1.

GOD, who in many parts and in many ways spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,

2 Hath in these last days spoken unto us in his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, <sup>1</sup>by whom also he <sup>2</sup>made the worlds;

3 Who being the forthshining of his <sup>a</sup>glory, and the expression of his being, and upholding all things by the word of his <sup>b</sup>power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down at the right hand of the <sup>c</sup>Majesty on high;

4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.

5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, <sup>d</sup>Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, <sup>e</sup>I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?

6 And again, when he bringeth in the firstborn into the <sup>a</sup>world, he saith, <sup>f</sup>And let all the angels of God worship him.

7 And of the angels he saith, <sup>g</sup>Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.

8 But unto the Son he saith, <sup>h</sup>Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; a sceptre of <sup>i</sup>righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.

9 Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated <sup>j</sup>iniquity; therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy <sup>k</sup>fellow.

10 And, <sup>k</sup>Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of thy hands;

11 They shall perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a <sup>l</sup>garment;

12 And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed; but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, <sup>m</sup>Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool?

CHAPTER 2.

THEREFORE we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should <sup>1</sup>let them slip.

2 For if the word spoken by <sup>2</sup>angels was <sup>a</sup>stedfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompence of reward;

3 How shall we escape, if we <sup>b</sup>neglect so great <sup>c</sup>salvation; which at the first having begun to be spoken by the Lord, was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;

4 God also witnessing with them, both by <sup>d</sup>signs and wonders, and by many kinds of <sup>e</sup>miracles, and gifts of the <sup>f</sup>Holy Spirit, <sup>g</sup>according to his own will?

5 For unto the angels hath he not put in subjection the <sup>a</sup>world to come, whereof we speak.

6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, <sup>b</sup>What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?

7 Thou madest him for a little time lower than the angels; thou <sup>c</sup>crownedst him with <sup>d</sup>glory and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands;

8 Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing <sup>e</sup>that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.

9 But we see Jesus, who was made for a little time lower than the angels for the <sup>f</sup>suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that he by the <sup>g</sup>grace of God should taste death for every man.

10 For it became him, for whom <sup>h</sup>are all things, and by whom <sup>i</sup>are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the <sup>j</sup>Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For both he that <sup>k</sup>sanctifieth and those sanctified <sup>l</sup>are all of one; for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren,

12 Saying, <sup>m</sup>I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the <sup>o</sup>congregation will I sing praise unto thee.

13 And again, <sup>f</sup>I will put my trust in him. And again, <sup>g</sup>Behold I and the children whom God hath given me.

14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might <sup>b</sup>ring to naught him that had the power of death, that is, <sup>r</sup>the devil;

15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to <sup>s</sup>bondage.

16 For verily not of angels did he take hold, but he took hold of the seed of Abraham.

17 Wherefore in all things it be-hooved him to be made like unto <sup>h</sup>his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things toward God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people.

18 For in that he himself hath suffered being <sup>t</sup>tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

CHAPTER 3.

WHEREFORE, <sup>a</sup>holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly <sup>b</sup>calling, consider the Apostle and <sup>c</sup>High Priest of our confession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also was Moses in all <sup>d</sup>God's house.

3 For he was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath built the house hath more honour than the house.

4 For every house is built by some <sup>man</sup>; but he that built all things is God.

5 And Moses verily was faithful in all <sup>God's</sup> house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken afterward;

6 But Christ as a Son over his house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the <sup>e</sup>hope firm unto the <sup>f</sup>end.

7 Wherefore, as the <sup>g</sup>Holy Spirit saith, <sup>h</sup>To day if ye will hear his voice,

8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness,

9 When your fathers <sup>t</sup>tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.

always err in <sup>their</sup> heart, and they 11 So I swear in my <sup>k</sup>wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.

12 Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of <sup>l</sup>unbelief, in departing from the living God.

13 But <sup>l</sup>exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of <sup>m</sup>sin.

14 For we have become <sup>n</sup>partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence <sup>o</sup>stedfast unto the end;

15 While it is said, <sup>p</sup>To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.

16 For did not some, when they had heard, provoke? nay, did not all that came out of Egypt with Moses?

17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? <sup>was it</sup> not with them that had sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom did he swear that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

CHAPTER 4.

LET us therefore fear, lest, a <sup>a</sup>promise still remaining of entering into his rest, any of you should <sup>b</sup>be found to have come short of it.

2 For we have had good <sup>b</sup>news preached unto us, as well as they;
but the word preached did not <sup>c</sup>profit them, not being mixed with <sup>d</sup>faith in them that heard.

3 For we who have believed do enter into the rest, as he hath said,
<sup>e</sup>As I have sworn in my <sup>f</sup>wrath, they shall not enter into my rest;
although <sup>2</sup>the works were finished from the foundation of the <sup>3</sup>world.

4 For he hath spoken in a certain place of the seventh <sup>day</sup> thus, <sup>g</sup>And God rested the seventh day from all his works.

5 And again in this <sup>manner</sup>, <sup>h</sup>They shall not enter into my rest.

6 Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom the good news was first preached entered not in because of unbelief;

7 Again, <sup>he</sup> indicateth a certain day, saying in David, <sup>i</sup>To day—after so long a time, as had already been said—To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Joshua had brought them into the rest, then he would not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 So then there still remaineth a <sup>4</sup>rest for the people of God.

10 For he that hath entered into his rest, himself also hath rested from his own works, as God did from his.

11 Let us be diligent therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

12 For the word of God is <sup>1</sup>living, and <sup>2</sup>powerful, and sharper than any two-edged <sup>3</sup>sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of <sup>4</sup>soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and judgeth the thoughts and reasonings of the heart.

13 Neither is there any <sup>1</sup>creature that is not <sup>2</sup>manifest in his sight; but all things <sup>3</sup>are naked and laid bare unto the <sup>4</sup>eyes of him with whom we have to do.

14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed <sup>5</sup>into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.

15 For we have not a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points <sup>6</sup>tempted like as we are, yet without <sup>7</sup>sin.

16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the <sup>8</sup>throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace for <sup>9</sup>help in time of need.

CHAPTER 5.

NOW every high priest taken from among men is <sup>1</sup>appointed in behalf of men in things Godward, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins;

2 Who can have compassion on the <sup>3</sup>ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; since he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And for this reason he is obliged, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.

5 Thus Christ also hath not <sup>4</sup>glorified himself to be made a high priest; but he was appointed by him that 11 Of whom we have many things to say, but hard to be explained, seeing ye are dull of hearing.

12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again what are the <sup>8</sup>first principles of the <sup>9</sup>oracles of God; and have become such as have need of milk, and not of solid food.

13 For every one whose food is milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness; for he is a babe.

14 But solid food is for the <sup>10</sup>full-grown, who by use have their senses trained to distinguish between good and evil.

CHAPTER 6.

THEREFORE leaving the <sup>1</sup>first principles of the <sup>2</sup>teaching of Christ, let us go on unto <sup>3</sup>full growth; not laying again a foundation of <sup>4</sup>repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,

2 Of the teaching of <sup>5</sup>baptisms, and of <sup>6</sup>laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.

3 And this will we do, if God permit.

4 <sup>7</sup>For it is <sup>8</sup>impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made <sup>9</sup>partakers of the <sup>10</sup>Holy Spirit,

5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the <sup>11</sup>world to come,

6 If they shall fall away, to <sup>12</sup>renew them again unto <sup>13</sup>repentance; seeing they <sup>14</sup>crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.

7 For the ground which drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth vegetation useful for them for whom it is cultivated, receiveth blessing from God;

8 But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh unto cursing; whose <sup>k</sup>end is to be burned.

9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany <sup>l</sup>salvation, though we thus speak.

10 For God is not unrighteous, to forget your work and the love which ye have shown toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the <sup>m</sup>saints, and do minister.

11 And we long that each one of you may show the same diligence to the full <sup>n</sup>assurance of <sup>o</sup>hope unto the end;

12 That ye be not <sup>p</sup>slothful, but followers of them who through faith and <sup>q</sup>patience inherit the <sup>r</sup>promises.

13 For when God made <sup>s</sup>promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself,

14 Saying, <sup>t</sup>Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.

15 And so, after he had patiently <sup>u</sup>endured, he obtained the <sup>v</sup>promise.

16 For men swear by a greater; and the <sup>w</sup>oath for confirmation is to them an end of all controversy.

17 Wherefore God, wishing to show more abundantly unto the heirs of the promise the <sup>x</sup>immutability of his counsel, intervened with an oath;

18 That by two <sup>y</sup>immutable things, in which it was <sup>z</sup>impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong <sup>a</sup>consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us;

19 Which <sup>b</sup>hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and <sup>c</sup>stedfast, and which entereth into that within the <sup>d</sup>vail;

20 Whither the forerunner hath for us entered, even Jesus, made a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

terpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days, nor <sup>c</sup>end of life; but likened to the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And verily they that are of the sons of <sup>d</sup>Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take <sup>e</sup>tithes from the people according to the law, that is, from their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham;

6 But he who had no genealogy from them received tithes from Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.

7 And beyond all contradiction the less is blessed by the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth.

9 And, so to speak, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, paid tithes in Abraham;

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchizedek met him.

11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be named after the order of <sup>f</sup>Aaron?

12 But the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man hath been attached to the service of the altar.

14 For it is clear that our Lord sprang out of <sup>g</sup>Judah; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood.

15 And this is yet far more evident, since after the similitude of Melchizedek there ariseth another priest, 16 Who is made, not according to the law of a <sup>h</sup>1 carnal commandment, but according to the <sup>i</sup>power of <sup>j</sup>endless life.

17 For he testifieth, <sup>k</sup>Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

18 Thus there is a setting aside of the commandment going before, for the weakness and <sup>1</sup>unprofitableness thereof.

19 For the <sup>m</sup>law perfected nothing, but it was the bringing in of a better <sup>n</sup>hope; by which we draw nigh unto God.

20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:—

21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, <sup>o</sup>The Lord sweareth and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek:)—

22 By so much Jesus became the <sup>p</sup>surety of a better covenant.

23 And they indeed have been many priests, because they were not suffered to continue, by reason of death;

24 But he, because he abideth for ever, hath an <sup>2</sup>unchangeable priesthood.

25 Wherefore he is able also to save them <sup>s</sup>to the <sup>q</sup>uttermost who come unto God by him, seeing he <sup>s</sup>ever liveth to make <sup>t</sup>intercession for them.

26 For such a high priest became us, holy, <sup>u</sup>harmless, <sup>v</sup>undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;

27 Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's; for this he did <sup>w</sup>once for all, when he offered up himself.

28 And the law maketh men high priests who have infirmity; but the word of the <sup>x</sup>oath, which was <sup>4</sup>since the law, maketh the Son, who is <sup>5</sup>consecrated for evermore.

CHAPTER 8.

NOW of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such a high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the <sup>a</sup>Majesty in the heavens;

2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 And as every high priest is <sup>b</sup>ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices, therefore it is needful that this one also have something to offer.

4 Now if he were on earth, he should not even be a priest, since there are already priests that offer gifts according to the law;

5 Who serve in the representation and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was divinely instructed when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, <sup>c</sup>See, saith he, that thou make all things <sup>d</sup>according to the <sup>e</sup>pattern shown to thee in the mount.

6 But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the <sup>f</sup>Mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better <sup>g</sup>promises.

7 For if <sup>h</sup>that first covenant had been faultless, no place would have then been sought for the second.

8 For finding fault, he saith to them, <sup>i</sup>Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a <sup>j</sup>new <sup>k</sup>covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of <sup>l</sup>Judah;

9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the <sup>m</sup>land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.

10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord: I will put my <sup>n</sup>laws into their mind, and write them on their heart; and I <sup>o</sup>will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people;

11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord; for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest of them.

12 For I will be <sup>p</sup>merciful to their unrighteousnesses, and their sins <sup>2</sup>and their <sup>q</sup>iniquities will I remember no more.

13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which <sup>r</sup>decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

CHAPTER 9.

THEN verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and an earthly sanctuary.

2 For there was a <sup>a</sup>tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the <sup>b</sup>candlestick, and the <sup>c</sup>table, and the <sup>d</sup>showbread; which is called the Holy place.

3 And after the second <sup>e</sup>vail, the tabernacle which is called the Holy of holies;

4 Which had the golden <sup>f</sup>censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

5 And over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak in detail.

6 Now when these things were thus arranged, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services.

7 But into the second went the high priest alone, once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people;

8 The Holy Spirit signifying this, that the way into the holy place was not yet made manifest, while the first tabernacle was yet standing;

9 Which was a figure for the present time, in accordance with which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not perfect him that worshipped, as pertaining to the conscience;

10 Consisting only of meats and drinks, and various washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.

11 But Christ having come as a high priest of the good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation;

12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained an eternal redemption.

13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh;

14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to worship the living God?

15 And for this cause he is the mediator of a new covenant, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, the called might receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.

16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.

17 For a testament is of force after men are dead; otherwise it is of no strength at all, while the testator liveth.

18 Whereupon neither was the first covenant inaugurated without blood.

19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,

20 Saying, This is the blood of the covenant which God hath enjoined unto you.

21 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the service.

22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us;

25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with other blood than his own;

26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world; but now once, in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this, judgment;

28 So also Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time, apart from sin, unto salvation.

CHAPTER 10.

FOR the law, having a shadow of the good things to come, not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices, which they <sup>a</sup>offered year by year continually, <sup>a</sup>perfect those who present themselves.

2 For then, would they not have ceased to be offered? because the worshippers, once purged, would have had no more <sup>c</sup>conscience of sins.

3 But in those sacrifices there is a calling to mind of sins every year.

4 For it is not <sup>d</sup>possible that the blood of bulls and <sup>e</sup>goats should take away sins.

5 Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, f Sacrifice and offering thou desirest not, but a <sup>g</sup>body hast thou prepared me;

6 In burnt offerings and <sup>h</sup>sin offerings thou hast had no <sup>i</sup>pleasure.

7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God.

8 Above, saying, Sacrifices and offerings and burnt offerings and sin offerings thou desirest not, neither hadst pleasure therein—which are offered by the law—

9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. f He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.

10 By the which <sup>k</sup>will we are <sup>l</sup>sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.

11 And every priest standeth daily ministering, and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins;

12 But he, after he had offered one <sup>m</sup>sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down at the right hand of God;

13 From henceforth <sup>n</sup>expecting, till his enemies be made his footstool.

14 For <sup>o</sup>by one offering he hath <sup>p</sup>perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

15 And the <sup>q</sup>Holy Spirit also bears us witness; for after he had said,

16 r This is the covenant that I will covenant with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their <sup>s</sup>hearts, and in their minds will I write them;

17 He saith also, Their sins and their <sup>t</sup>iniquities will I remember no more.

18 Now where remission of these is, there is no longer a sin offering.

19 Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

20 A new and living way, which he hath <sup>u</sup>consecrated for us, through the <sup>v</sup>vail, that is to say, his flesh;

21 And having a high priest over the house of God;

22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full <sup>u</sup>assurance of <sup>v</sup>faith, having our hearts <sup>w</sup>sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the confession of the hope without <sup>x</sup>wavering; (for he is faithful that *f*promised;)

24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works;

25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but <sup>y</sup>encouraging one another; and <sup>z</sup>so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.

26 For if we sin wilfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no longer a sin-offering,

27 But a certain fearful <sup>a</sup>looking for of judgment and fiery <sup>b</sup>indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.

28 He that despised <sup>c</sup>Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses;

29 Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, <sup>d</sup>who hath <sup>e</sup>trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath <sup>f</sup>counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was <sup>g</sup>sanctified, a <sup>h</sup>common thing, and hath insulted the <sup>i</sup>Spirit of grace?

30 For we know him that hath said, h Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, i The Lord shall judge his people.

31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were enlightened, ye <sup>j</sup>endured a great struggle with sufferings;

33 On the one hand, when ye were made a spectacle both by <sup>k</sup>reproaches and afflictions; and on the other, when ye became companions of them that were so used.

34 For ye sympathized with those in prison, and took joyfully the spoiling of your possessions, knowing in yourselves that ye have <sup>l</sup>in heaven a better and an <sup>m</sup>enduring possession.

35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward.

36 For ye have need of <sup>n</sup>patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might <sup>n</sup>receive the <sup>o</sup>promise.

37 <sup>p</sup>For yet a little while, and the Coming One <sup>q</sup>will come, and will not <sup>r</sup>tarry.

38 Now the just shall live by faith; but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no <sup>s</sup>pleasure in him.

39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that have <sup>t</sup>faith to the saving of the soul.

CHAPTER 11.

NOW <sup>a</sup>faith is the substance of <sup>b</sup>things <sup>b</sup>hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

2 For by it the men of old obtained a good <sup>c</sup>testimony.

3 Through faith we <sup>d</sup>understand that the worlds were planned by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.

4 By faith Abel <sup>e</sup>offered unto God a more excellent <sup>f</sup>sacrifice than <sup>g</sup>Cain, by which he obtained the testimony that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts; and by it he, being dead, yet <sup>h</sup>speaketh.

5 By faith <sup>i</sup>Enoch was <sup>j</sup>translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him; for before his translation he had this testimony, that he had pleased God.

6 But without faith it is <sup>k</sup>impossible to please him; for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a <sup>l</sup>rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

7 By faith <sup>m</sup>Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by which he <sup>n</sup>condemned the world, and became heir of the <sup>o</sup>righteousness which is by faith.

8 By faith <sup>p</sup>Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should afterward receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

9 By faith he sojourned in the <sup>q</sup>land of promise, as in a strange country, living in tents, with <sup>r</sup>Isaac and <sup>s</sup>Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise;

10 For he waited for <sup>t</sup>the city which hath the foundations, whose <sup>u</sup>architect and builder is God.

self <sup>w</sup>received strength to conceive <sup>x</sup>seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had <sup>y</sup>promised.

12 Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so <sup>z</sup>many as the <sup>z</sup>stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore, innumerable.

13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having <sup>aa</sup>seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and <sup>ab</sup>confessed that they were strangers and <sup>ac</sup>pilgrims on the earth.

14 For they that say such things show plainly that they are seeking a <sup>ad</sup>country.

15 Now, truly, if these had in mind that country from which they had come out, they might have had opportunity to return;

16 But indeed they desired a better, that is, a heavenly country; wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a <sup>ae</sup>city.

17 By faith Abraham, when he was <sup>af</sup>tested, offered up Isaac; and he that had received the promises, offered up his only begotten,

18 As to whom it had been said, <sup>ag</sup>In Isaac shall thy seed be called:

19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, <sup>ah</sup>even from the dead; from whence also he received him <sup>ai</sup>in a <sup>aj</sup>figure.

20 By faith <sup>ak</sup>Isaac blessed Jacob and <sup>al</sup>Esau concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, <sup>am</sup>when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and <sup>an</sup>worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.

22 By faith <sup>ao</sup>Joseph, when dying, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.

23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was beautiful; and they were not afraid of the <sup>ap</sup>king's commandment.

24 By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's <sup>aq</sup>daughter;

25 <sup>ar</sup>Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, <sup>as</sup>than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;

26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked away to the recompence.

27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.

28 Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.

29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as through dry land; which the Egyptians attempting to do, were drowned.

30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with the unbelieving, having received the spies with peace.

32 And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and Barak, and Samson, and Jephthah; David also, and Samuel, and the prophets;

33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.

35 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection;

36 And others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yea, moreover of bonds and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;

38 (Of whom the world was not worthy); they wandered in deserts, and mountains, and dens and caves of the earth.

39 And these all, having obtained a good testimony through faith, received not the promise:

40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

CHAPTER 12.

WHEREFORE seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,

2 Looking unto Jesus the Author and finisher of faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 For consider him that endured such opposition of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your souls.

4 Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto sons, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him;

6 For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if ye be without chastening, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them reverence; shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they verily for a few days chastened us as seemed right to them; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.

11 Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous; nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them that are exercised thereby.

12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;

13 And make straight paths for your feet, that the lame be not turned out of the way, but rather healed.

14 Follow peace with all, and the holiness without which no man shall see the Lord;

15 Watching lest there be any one who lacks the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;

16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as <sup>1</sup>Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright.

17 For ye know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected—for he found no place of <sup>2</sup>repentance—though he sought it carefully with tears.

18 But ye are not come unto the <sup>1</sup>mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,

19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the <sup>2</sup>voice of words; which voice they that heard entreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more,—

20 For they could not <sup>2</sup>endure that which was commanded, <sup>3</sup>And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned;

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake;—

22 But ye are come unto mount <sup>1</sup>Zion, and unto the <sup>2</sup>city of the living God, the heavenly <sup>3</sup>Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,

23 To the general assembly <sup>4</sup>and church of the firstborn, who are registered in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of righteous men perfected,

24 And to Jesus the <sup>5</sup>Mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than <sup>6</sup>that of Abel.

25 See that ye <sup>7</sup>refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more <sup>8</sup>shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that <sup>9</sup>speaketh from heaven;

26 Whose voice then <sup>10</sup>shook the earth; but now he hath <sup>11</sup>s promised, saying, <sup>12</sup>Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also the heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we, receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken, let us have <sup>13</sup>grace, whereby we may serve

LET brotherly love continue.

2 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers; for thereby <sup>2</sup>some have entertained angels unawares.

3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who are in <sup>3</sup>adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

4 Marriage is to be honoured <sup>1</sup>by all, and the bed <sup>2</sup>undefiled: but fornicators and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your manner of life be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have; for he hath said, <sup>3</sup>I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.

6 So that we may boldly say, <sup>4</sup>The Lord <sup>5</sup>is my helper, and I will not fear; what can man do unto me?

7 Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of <sup>6</sup>their conversation.

8 Jesus Christ <sup>7</sup>is the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever.

9 Be not carried about with manifold and strange <sup>8</sup>teachings. For <sup>9</sup>it is good that the heart be established by <sup>10</sup>grace; not by meats which did not <sup>11</sup>profit those who walked therein.

10 We have an altar, from which they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle.

11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the holy places by the high priest as a sin offering, are <sup>12</sup>burned outside the camp.

12 Wherefore Jesus also, that he might <sup>13</sup>sanctify the people <sup>14</sup>by his own blood, <sup>15</sup>suffered outside the gate.

13 Let us go forth therefore unto him outside the camp, bearing his reproach.

14 For here have we no abiding city, but <sup>16</sup>we seek the coming one.

15 By him therefore let us offer the <sup>17</sup>sacrifice of <sup>18</sup>praise to God continually, that is, the <sup>19</sup>fruit of our lips, <sup>20</sup>giving thanks to his name.

16 But to do good, and to share what you have with others, forget not; for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.
